Subject: RE: State vs William B. Oswald, Appellate Case No. 2023-001872, Lower Case No.

Sandy,

Thank you for sending your correspondence concerning the is transcript. We certainly apologize for any errors in the record. We have spoken to the transcriber. She is going to correct the misspelling of the word “worked”. This misspelling is unacceptable and will be dealt with internally through our proofing process. Additionally, the transcriber will be reviewing and addressing the issue mentioned to take place on page 571 forward. We have given her a deadline of Friday, March 22, 2024, at 5 pm for the corrections to be submitted.

The inaudibles unfortunately are much more difficult to address. In portions of the audio the speaker turns away from the microphone or is far removed from the microphone. These actions cause the words to be unheard or “inaudible”. Just as a point of clarification, Legal Eagle is a verbatim court reporting and transcription firm. This classification restricts us from making corrections via context in the spoken work is not clearly stated.

Once you have received the corrected transcript from Legal Eagle, any further challenge must follow the procedures below per the South Carolina Judicial Branch’s policies and procedures.

Challenge Procedures

When a party has concerns about the accuracy of a transcript, the party must submit his or her challenge in writing to the court reporter and copy the Court Reporting Section Management at transcripts@sccourts.org with the word CHALLENGE in the subject line. The challenge may also be submitted by postal mail to: SC Court Administration, Transcript Challenge, 1220 Senate St. Suite 200, Columbia, SC 29201. The written challenge must include the following:

1. Their name and contact information;
2. Date of the court proceeding;
3. Case name and caption;
4. Court reporter name;
5. Name and contact information of opposing counsel/parties; and
6. A list of items that specifically identifies what the party is disputing, such as page and line numbers. It is not acceptable to say the whole transcript is being challenged.

Upon receipt of a challenge to the accuracy of a transcript, the Court Reporting Section Management will respond to the challenger in writing and copy the court reporter and the other parties. The Court Reporting Section Management will then review the record and submit their findings to the challenger, the court reporter, and the other parties. Any inaccuracies will be corrected and the pages forwarded to the challenger at no cost.

We will keep you updated on the progress of the corrections and get them to you as quickly as possible. Thank you for your patience.
