

The Supreme Court of South Carolina

The State, Respondent,

v.

Timothy Ray Jones, Jr., Appellant.

Appellate Case No. 2019-001008

---

ORDER

---

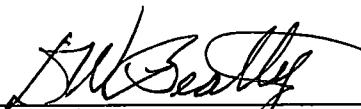

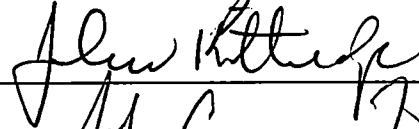

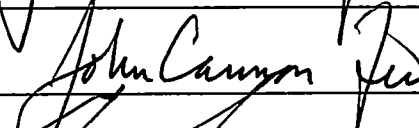

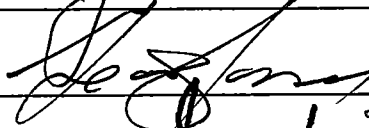

Appellant was convicted of five counts of murder for killing his five young children and was sentenced to death. This Court affirmed Appellant's convictions and sentences, and the United States Supreme Court denied Appellant's petition for a writ of certiorari. State v. Jones, 440 S.C. 214, 891 S.E.2d 347 (2023), cert. denied, No. 23-6078, 2024 WL 759837 (U.S.S.C. Feb. 26, 2024).

Appellant now seeks a stay of execution so that he may pursue post-conviction relief (PCR). The State does not oppose the request.

The request for a stay of execution is granted. The stay shall remain in effect to the extent provided by this Court in In re Stays of Execution in Capital Cases.

The Honorable Kristi Curtis is hereby assigned to the PCR action filed by Appellant. Judge Curtis shall retain jurisdiction over this case regardless of where she may be assigned to hold court and may schedule such hearings as may be necessary at any time without regard to whether there is a term of court scheduled. Judge Curtis shall conduct a hearing on Appellant's desires regarding counsel within thirty days of the date of this order. Within sixty days of the date of this order, Judge Curtis shall issue a scheduling order setting forth the schedule that shall be followed in this matter, including the date of the hearing on the merits. The scheduling order may be amended as necessary. A copy of the scheduling order and any amended scheduling order shall be provided to counsel, this Court, and Court Administration. In addition to Appellant's obligation to notify the Clerk of this Court of the status of this matter every sixty days under In re Stays of Execution in Capital Cases, Judge Curtis is requested to provide the Clerk of this Court and Court Administration with an update on the status of this matter every one hundred and twenty days.
