

The State of South Carolina
In The Court of Appeals

Appeal From Administrative Law Court
Honorable Deborah Brooks Durden

Case Nos. 12-ALJ-04-0025-AP, 12-ALJ-04-0044-AP

Billy Lee Lisenby, JR, #200273 Appellant,

v.
South Carolina Department of Corrections Respondent

Appellant's Response TO Respondent's Reply

Appellant argues that Respondent's are attempting to misled the courts. When the S.C.D.C officials confiscated his legal box, they confiscated alot of documents dealing with S.C.D.C cases. When he got his legal boxes back everything dealing with the above cases were missing. So it's impossible for Appellant to put something he does not have in the record.

Respondent has all the documents they are trying to compel in their possession. For the above reasons Appellant ask that the Respondent's Motion TO Compel be denied, because the Respondent's confiscated the documents and now they're requesting them because they know he doesn't have them.
