RE: The State v. Corwin Lenard Manigault
Appellate Case No. 2024-000544

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

Please find enclosed a copy of the letter sent to Mr. Manigault that included a copy of the notice of appeal, which provided the explanation for appealing. The letter also informed him that he has twenty days to inform this Court in writing of any arguable basis that there are issues preserved for appeal.

Should you need any additional information from me, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in blue ink that reads "Megan S. Ehrlich for". The signature is written in a cursive style.

RE: The State v. Corwin Lenard Manigault
Appellate Case No. 2024-000544

Dear Mr. Manigault:

Please find enclosed a copy of the Notice of Appeal filed on April 4, 2024. I am required to provide the Court an explanation for appealing. In your case, there was no basis to file to an appeal, but following our conversation after the sentencing hearing, I filed it at your request and insistence. In the enclosed notice, you will see the language that explains why the appeal was filed.

The Court of Appeals has requested that I forward the explanation to you and that I explain that you have twenty (20) days from the date of my transmittal letter to inform the court in writing of any arguable basis that there are issues preserved for appeal. If you wish to provide the Court of Appeals with a letter explaining any issues you believe are preserved for appeal, you should send the letter to:

South Carolina Court of Appeals
1220 Senate Street
Columbia, SC 29201

I am also required to provide a copy of this letter to the Court of Appeals, which I will be sending today as well.

Sincerely,
