

Christina Lopes
4667 Boots St Apt 204
Indian Land, South Carolina
704-858-1182
Appellant

RECEIVED
Apr 10 2024
SC Court of Appeals

Court of Appeal

Re: Emergency Motion to Stay Eviction, Case No. 2023CV2910102706

I, Christina Lopes, the [defendant] in the above-captioned case, urgently submit this Emergency Motion to Stay Eviction.

1. Notice is hereby given that an emergency situation has arisen necessitating an immediate response from the court. Due to a family emergency requiring my urgent presence in Connecticut, I was unable to attend the scheduled court session, resulting in the dismissal of my appeal and the initiation of a Writ of Ejectment.

2. The circumstances leading to my absence were unforeseen and beyond my control. I assure the court that my absence was not intentional, and I am fully committed to resolving the legal matter at hand.

3. Eviction from my residence would cause extreme hardship for myself and my family, especially given the exigent circumstances that compelled our immediate departure. Therefore, I respectfully request an emergency stay of eviction to prevent undue hardship and allow me the opportunity to address the legal proceedings appropriately.

4. I understand the gravity of this situation and assure the court of my full cooperation and compliance with any conditions imposed by the court.

5. Enclosed herewith is a copy of the relevant documentation, including the dismissal notice and the Writ of Ejectment.

Christina Lopes

[Enclosures: Copy of Dismissal Notice, Writ of Ejectment]

Please expedite the review of this Emergency Motion, and I am available to provide any further information or clarification as needed.

Sincerely,

Christina Lopes