

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

Daniel Spade, Respondent-Petitioner,

v.

State of South Carolina, Petitioner-Respondent

Appellate Case No. 2022-000434

ORDER

---

This matter is before the court on Petitioner-Respondent's petition for a writ of certiorari following the post-conviction relief (PCR) court's grant of relief to Respondent-Petitioner on a single ground alleged in the application. Respondent-Petitioner has filed a cross-petition alleging the PCR court erred in failing to also grant relief for several other grounds alleged in his application. Based on the vote of the panel, Petitioner-Respondent's petition for a writ of certiorari is denied. Because our denial of Petitioner-Respondent's petition is dispositive of the matter, we decline to address the issues raised by Respondent-Petitioner in his petition. See Futch v. McAllister Towing of Georgetown, Inc., 335 S.C. 598, 613, 518 S.E.2d 591, 598 (1999) (providing that an appellate court need not address remaining issues when resolution of a prior issue is dispositive).
