Re: Charles W. McCormick v. State
Appellate Case No. 2024-000186

Dear Mr. McCormick:

Your “motion for an appeal” is being construed as a notice of appeal from the PCR court’s final order of dismissal. For this matter to proceed, you must provide this Court with the following within twenty days of the date of this letter:

Since the order of the circuit court determined that this action is barred as being successive and/or as being untimely under the statute of limitations, Rule 243(c), SCACR, requires you to provide a written explanation as to why this determination was improper. This explanation must contain sufficient facts, argument and citation to legal authority to show that there is an arguable basis for asserting that the determination by the lower court was improper.

Very truly yours,

Patricia A. Howard
