Appellate Case No. 2022-001555

ORDER

After careful consideration, Respondents' motion to dismiss this appeal is denied. However, Respondents' motion, in the alternative, to strike Appellant's initial brief is granted.¹ Within thirty days of the date of this order, Appellant shall file an amended initial brief that complies with the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules. See Rule 208(b), SCACR (providing the parties' initial briefs must include, among others: a table of contents with references to the pages of the brief where the contents appear; a table of cases, statutes, and any other cited authorities with references to the pages of the brief where they are cited; a statement of the case consisting of a concise history of the proceedings, which does not contain contested matters; the standard of review for the legal issues argued in the brief; and an argument section addressing each issue on appeal, citing relevant legal authorities); see also Rule 208(b)(8), SCACR ("All briefs shall comply with the requirements of Rule 267 . . ."); Rule 267, SCACR (providing all documents filed in the appellate court shall be headed by a caption and clearly legible, among other requirements). Appellant's failure to comply with this order will result in dismissal of this appeal.
