

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

Bernard Bagley, #175851, Appellant,

v.

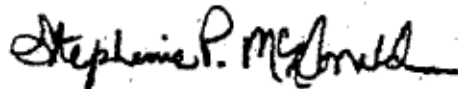

South Carolina Department of Probation, Parole, and Pardon Services, Respondent.

Appellate Case No. 2024-000110

ORDER

Appellant filed a motion to proceed in forma pauperis. After careful consideration, we grant the motion to proceed in forma pauperis because Appellant has alleged a state-created liberty interest in this case. See Ex parte Martin, 321 S.C. 533, 471 S.E.2d 134 (1995).

Respondent filed a motion to strike five matters listed in Appellant's designation of matter, arguing they had not been presented to the Administrative Law Court. Appellant filed a return, noting the Administrative Law Court did not grant his motion "to have the matters included in the record." After careful consideration, we deny Respondent's motion to strike, but instruct Appellant that the items in question—numbers 4, 5, 6, 7, and 8 from Appellant's designation of matter—shall not be included in the record on appeal. Appellant shall submit these items as a separate supplemental record pursuant to Rule 212, SCACR, to be served and filed at the same time Appellant serves and files the record pursuant to Rule 210, SCACR.
