

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

My name is David Eugene Williams and I'm trying to file for an appeal against my lawyer Robert Madsen for insufficient countering. Because he promised me and my family that he talked to the solicitor and I was going to get probation. He came to see me until the day before my court date to tell me this. He didn't take the time to go over my paper work with me or anything I can't read well and I feel misled because I wasn't aware that I didn't have to plead guilty. He told me that I had to plead guilty which I didn't, but I didn't know that because this is my first time being in this situation. I feel someone else should represent me.

Sincerely, David L. Williams
