

4-11-24

I am writing you concerning my case against South Carolina Department of Corrections concerning my $250 filing fee for my appeal.

I am currently incarcerated and have been out of work since December 2022.

So I am requesting that you waive the fee until my settlement with the South Carolina Department of Corrections is settled. It has come to my understanding that they are at fault as the case of SCDC vs. Torrence under the ruling of my dismissal from Judge Robert L. Riebold saying the 15 day rule according to code 19765243-40 it doesn't apply to me therefore I am entitled to the prevailing wages for my hours worked. So when they settle with me you can deduct it from my final payment.
