RE: John B. Robinson v. State of South Carolina
2022-CP-18-00890
Appellate Case No. 2024-000594

Dear Ms. Howard:

Pursuant to Rule 243(c) of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules, I am required to provide a written explanation as to why the determination on the above case by the circuit court that the action was barred as being successive and untimely by the statute of limitations was improper.

As an officer of the court, I am unable to set forth any arguable basis for asserting that the determination by the PCR judge was improper.

I am copying the petitioner with this letter and advising him that he has twenty (20) days from the date of this letter to file a pro se explanation as to why the petitioner believes that this determination by the circuit court was improper. Dennison v. State, 372 S.C. 221, 639 S.E.2d 35 (2006).

I am enclosing proof of service that a copy this letter has been sent to petitioner.

Sincerely,

Michael H. Lifsey
Attorney at Law
