APPELLANTS.

MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME TO FILE OPENING BRIEF

Now comes Appellants on motion before this Honorable Court, requesting for an extension time to file an opening brief in this appeal with a due date of April 22, 2024. Appellants are not attempting to prolong these proceedings at all and respectfully ask this Court to grant this motion based on the following:

1) Appellants are not lawyers and are currently acting "pro se" in these proceedings which requires them to study the rules of appellate procedure for this proceeding.

2) Appellants are both full time business owners and are required to oversee and perform any and all duties associated with their full time businesses while perfecting this appeal.

3) Because both Appellants are car dealers and this is "tax season", both Appellants are extremely busy with their businesses as this is the busiest time of year for car dealers.

4) Appellants will be obtaining assistance from a qualified legal person so that there will not be any more delays filing their brief in this proceeding.

Therefore, based on the above, Appellants hereby respectfully request that this Honorable Court this extension of time for the filing of Appellant's opening brief.

Respectfully Submitted,

CERTIFICATE OF SERVICE
