

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

Jonathan Coleman and Frances Coleman, Appellants, v.

James Edward Singleton, Respondent.

Appellate Case No. 2011-202049

ORDER

This appeal has a lengthy and troubled history. Counsel for Appellant represents that on repeated occasions she has not received orders and directives of the court that were sent to her. We have no means of verifying, or any reason for doubting, counsel's representations. Therefore, the appeal is reinstated again, for the last time. Appellant shall serve and file its initial brief and designation of matter within fifteen days. Appellant's counsel must pay particular attention to making sure that no further deadlines are missed—for any reason.
