I have received a copy of the attached Court of Appeals order in this case granting motion to appoint counsel outside of the office of Appellate Defense and for the Orangeburg Clerk of Court to appoint from the 608 list. Most of the attorneys on the 608 list does not handle appeals and will likely file motions asking to be relieved because they don't or can't handle appeals. Normally the Court asks SCCID for outside counsel to handle the appeal. In anticipation of the Court's typical order, I identified Attorney Adam Ruffin who is willing to accept this appointment and handle the appeal. Normally the order of appointment includes the language that SCCID is affiliated with the case only to pay cost such as transcripts, printing and binding.

My questions is do you want the Clerk of Court to issue this order or the Court of Appeals?
