RE: Ex Parte Apology in Case #2023-001649

Your Honor:

I'm sorry for my error in not specifically addressing you in my earlier regret and sorrow, which is ongoing, about some inappropriate and unnecessary discussions in this Honorable Court.

I apologize for the disrespectful tone used or otherwise conveyed to Your Court. Thank you for not holding me in contempt.

I am making this letter brief because I have not secured counsel, but if I could write you what I wanted to write, it would be long, and I would mean it. I want to write you a better one, with counsel review, because I do mean it.

Thank you for having me. I am sorry I was rude and obtuse. I love, respect, and appreciate this Honorable Court very much.

Respectfully,

Mary A. Griffith
