Re: The State v Stephen Pressley
Case No. 2023-001745

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

In response to the Court's correspondence dated April 26, 2024, I am filing the emails that our office has exchanged with the Court Reporter regarding the transcript. The transcript for trial court hearing at issue in this appeal was provided on January 20, 2024. The Attorney General's Office and opposing counsel were notified of receipt of transcript and correspondence with the Court Reporter by way of the attached email on February 8, 2024. This Court was inadvertently not included in this correspondence.

Sincerely,

Tamika D. Cannon

No problem at all. I won't need a second request... this is fine. I'm in Lexington in a trial and don't have my notes from that day. I will send you something by way of an invoice when I get back to my home office, but this is on my list for production.

Thank you and have a great day.

Good afternoon, Michelle.

I need to give you an update on this transcript and get you to advise. I didn't see that the request was for an expedited transcript when you sent it on December 4. I am currently about 3/4 of the way through a transcript that is a DSS termination of parental rights and therefore am not allowed to put anything before it before I can go to the next request. I should be done with this one in about a week and yours is next in line. Are you good with getting this transcript under normal terms of delivery? If you have a specific date that you have to have it by I will do my very best to get it to you by then.

Thank you in advance,

Tara
