Ms Evans-Pryor,

I have received your email (4/29) attaching the letter of deficiency concerning the filing fee for the motion I filed in the Court of Appeals.

When I filed the motion at the Court of Appeals, I brought a trust check for what I believed was the filing fee ($25). I was informed by the clerk that the filing fee was $50 but because I did not have another trust check, I asked if I could pay the remaining $25 with a money order, and the Clerk and her supervisor said that would be acceptable.

I am attaching with this email the receipts for the full $50 payment for the motion. Please let me know if there is anything further I need to do.
