refiled on (May 3, 2024) and Amend

(May 10,2024) In “Beaufort County Court of Common Pleas Marvin H. Dukes, Circuit Court Judge Case NO. 2020-CP-07-0899”

Although Karen's property (Mobile Home) had lots of damage without running water. On September 9,2022, Karen still lived in her home with her dog, with nowhere else to go and no family members assistance, help or support when the Court ordered Karen to still make the Bond payment of $500 dollars, and Karen continued to make payments until Karen experienced Financial hardship and also saw that there was no Court Order, or anything mentioned in the court transcript heard on November 7,2022 about continuing making the bond payment.

There was nothing said in the Transcript, although Karen had asked the Court "should she continue to make payments even though Attorney Alysoun Eversole's Client Rachel M. Polite Chaplin, Violated The Judgment And Final Order of April 27, 2022 caused damages to Karen's home.

The trial Court said (YES) on November 7,2022 in the courtroom and that's why Karen continued making payments until (November 2023).

On April 23,2024 Karen addressed the Court about the transcript and maybe some misunderstandings about what was said in the courtroom about the Bond payment.

Although Karen Filed a Motion on (September 28,2022) and Motion was heard on November 7,2022. It stated , "Cause Of Action Violation Of The Judgment And Final Order and Attorney's Misconduct and Stop Bond Payment.

Karen's property aka Mobile Home had lots of damage without running water. On September 9,2022, this act took place Karen still lives in her home with her dog with nowhere else to go and the Court told Karen to still make the Bond payment of $500 dollars and Karen continues to make payments as she did for Additional year of (2023)

Karen Petition For Violation Of The Judgment And Final Order filed (September 28,2022) and heard (November 7,2022) refiled again on (May 3, 2024) and Amend (May 10,2024) In "Beaufort County Court of Common Pleas Circuit Court Judge Case NO. 2020-CP-07-0899"
