Re: Karen Oliver v. CCHRA
Appellate Case No. 2023-001598

Dear Ms. Oliver:

The Court received your appellant's initial reply brief. Pursuant to Rule 208 of the South Carolina Appellant Court Rules, the appellant's initial reply brief is only permitted if a respondent's initial brief has been filed. At this time, a respondent's initial brief has not been filed. Accordingly, your appellant's initial reply brief is not accepted as filed, and will not be considered by this Court.

The Court has also received your request for additional time, but what deadline is needed to be extended has not been identified in the request. Therefore, no action will be taken on your filing.

Please be advised our records indicate that the respondent has not served and filed an initial brief and designation of matter. Therefore, you should proceed to serve and file your final brief and file the record on appeal, as provided in Rules 210(b) and 211(a) of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules, within twenty (20) days of the date of this letter.

Very truly yours,

A handwritten signature in blue ink that reads "Catherine Hannissaw, deputy". The signature is written in a cursive style with a large initial 'C'.
