Expedited Review

Neater version - I apologize for not re-writing this header on a separate sheet of paper I am out of paper after this

"Plaintiff begs the Court for an expedited review. He is currently party to a Federal Suit and is asking that Court to hold its dismissal of all SCTCA claims in abeyance until this state case is adjudicated.

The argument being made is that unless indigent Plaintiff is not allowed to file his case concerning fundamental Constitutional rights and were also SCTCA violations, and to proceed in forma pauperis, then he isn't allowed to participate or pursue the "sole remedy" cited under SCTCA claims and therefore this amounts to their being no effective remedy for this indigent plaintiff to pursue his tort claims - and this ~~is~~ would be tantamount to a due process violation. [The complaint cites cruel and unusual punishment and other SC state and Federal Constitutional violations.]
