Re: John B. Robinson v. State
Appellate Case No. 2024-000594

Dear Mr. Robinson:

This Court has received a letter from your counsel on April 23, 2024, indicating that he notified you that you may file a pro se explanation under Rule 243(c), SCACR, as to why you believe the determination of the PCR court was improper. In addition, since you have filed multiple post-conviction relief applications challenging the underlying criminal conviction, the Court may decide to prohibit you from filing a post-conviction relief application, habeas corpus action or any other action, motion or petition in the circuit court challenging this conviction and sentence (including a motion under Rule 29 of the South Carolina Rules of Criminal Procedure) without first obtaining the permission of this Court to do so. If you believe that there is some reason(s) why such a prohibition should not be imposed on future filings by you in the circuit court, those reasons should also be provided within twenty days of the date of this letter.

Sincerely,

Patricia A. Howard
