SC Court of Appeals

Dear Court of Appeals:

I would like to have the decision of the common pleas court reviewed on effective assistance of counsel and that my plea was voluntarily made. And I would like to file for an appeal bond based on the evidence attached

To whom tis may concern,

My fiancé Brandon D. Wilson (#387041). Is currently incarcerated at Wateree Correctional in Rembert, SC. He has his PCR hearing on February 7, 2024, and was represented by his council Arthur Kerr Aiken. He was awaiting a decision from the presiding judge and was informed by both the judge and his lawyer that he would hear from Mr. Aiken once a decision had been reached. No further communication on Mr. Aiken's part has happened which left both Brandon and I on our own to make several attempts to reach out to Mr. Aiken via text message, email, and phone call regarding any updates. I reached out to the Orangeburg County Clerk of Court to inquire about the status of the case on my own per Brandon's request and was informed that a decision had been made on March 27, 2024, and filed April 8, 2024.

Hey!!! Brandon said he received the letter about what he will have to pay. Will he still receive a letter about the appeal? He also wants to know if he will be eligible for parole?

Wed, Feb 16, 1:22 PM

The documents regarding appeal were returned to me. Probably because he was transferred already. Will send again to Kirkland. Not sure about parole.

Ok. He's worrying about how long the appeal process is going to take. I told him it's no telling but to pray it doesn't take long

Good morning! I spoke with Brandon and he received the paperwork regarding his appeal. He said it was dismissed because it wasn't filed in a timely manner. Could you please give

Good morning!! Brandon spoke with his case worker this morning. He was told to let you know his sentencing information needs to be sent over to Trenton immediately because it's showing he has to serve a straight 5 year mandatory sentence. He is upset about this because this is not what he pleaded to

Fri, Apr 15, 2:23 PM

Good afternoon!! Brandon's case worker is still waiting for his sentencing papers to be sent to Trenton. We understand things do take time but this has been going on soon to be three weeks. You told me you had his file in which his sentencing papers should be in. Please send his paperwork so the prison can classify him and correct his prison time as it should be. His mom will be contacting you
