Mr.Futral,

You are supposed to copy the court on any email you send me.

Lynn Falin and another supervisor, Shelley, said it was due yesterday May 29th and actually I was surprised to hear that because previously Ms. Falin had told me the weekends within the time period don't count as part of the thirty days and I thought it was due the first week of June. At that time when I asked her what the deadline was she said she couldn't tell me because it's a "legal "count". This is what I had been told with all my other documents I filed by my former case owner, Tyler Clark. He would give me the date which is not legal advice as Ms.Falin is trying to infer.

My final amended Reply Brief was stamped on the May 29 which was a Monday so the filing was not late and even if it was it not my fault that the clerks are not giving me accurate information about the deadlines. Ms. Falin even tried to tell me my final briefs were due at the same time as the Record on Appeal and I disagreed with her because I have a chart on the timelines.

I may write a letter to Ms.Kitchens because of the conflicting information I received from court ainistration and the person who is supposed to be helping me with my appeal, but I don't need to file a motion. I was late before because of an oversight and when I wrote the letter they excused and on this, I will let them make that decision rather than the opposing counsel who has a tendency to try and cause delays in the appeal once again.

Ms. Frisco,

The record on appeal was due yesterday. Specifically, pursuant to Rule 210, the record on appeal was due 30 days after the service of your amended reply brief. You served that brief on April 27, 2024 making the record on appeal due by May 27th. Because May 27th was a holiday, the record on appeal was due on Tuesday, May 28, 2024.

Because you have served the record on appeal late, you must file a motion with the Court of Appeals seeking their permission to serve the record out of time.

Stephanie Smith is no longer with our office. Please copy my paralegal Kristina Medlin at kmedlin@charlestonlaw.net

Best wishes,
