Clerk,

I would like to inform the court that I have not yet received the transcript from the reporter in this matter. I will let the court know as soon as I receive confirmation that the transcript is ready and have it filed with the court immediately.

Dorothy Pierce, Appellant.

Dear Clerk,

I am writing to provide an update and clarify my recent communications regarding the transcript request for Appellate Case No. 2024-000455. I submitted the initial request on March 19, 2024, and have been in regular contact with the court reporter/transcript office since then. Please note that payment has already been sent to commence work on the transcript.

I needed to amend the original request due to a clerical error regarding the hearing date; it was incorrectly listed as March 17, 2024, instead of the correct date, March 14, 2024. Additionally, I have included another case in the amendment, which was heard on the same date.

Attached you will find the amended Transcript Order Forms for your reference.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Best regards,

Dorothy Pierce
