RE: Application for Post-Conviction Relief

Dear S. C. Supreme Court:

I was convicted of a crime in South Carolina in year 2015 and I am currently incarcerated serving time for the eighty year sentence. After that conviction I had filed an appeal, which was dismissed. Thereafter I mailed an Application For Post-Conviction Relief (PCR) to the town-clerk in Sumter County, but the town-clerk never docketed the PCR. I filed many complaints to many places without avial. I even filed a federal 'habeas corpus' but they said I ne ded to file my PCR first. Over the past six-years I have repeatedly mailed my PCR to town-clerk, but town-clerk continually fails to docket my PCR. I am lost as to what I need to do to obtain PCR hearing, Can you help?

Regards,

Robert Wazney
