Due to the court reporting shortage, I am working on this transcript for the appeal as expediently as I can. I have many, many time sensitive transcripts to produce and I, physically, cannot work any more hours than I already do in a day. I pride myself on timely transcripts and have countless attorneys who can attest to my timeliness.

As with all areas of the workforce, good help is hard to find. I cannot find workers who are able to spell, much less punctuate a simple sentence, so I have to do all of my proofing myself to ensure accuracy.

Thank you for your understanding and your patience.

Sincerely,

Lisa M. Adams, CVR-M

Dear Sir or Madam:

We have been advised by the Court of Appeals that we should send a message to you regarding the transcript of this trial. Please be advised that I did speak with the Court Reporter for this case about two weeks ago and inquired as to the status of the completion of the transcript for this matter. There were actually two days of trial for this case, separated by two months. The CR has completed the transcript for the first date, but she indicated she has not yet completed the transcript for the second day.

I will contact the court reporter again today and advise her with respect to your message. I will likewise ask her to advise you as to the status of the completion of the transcript for the second day.

Please advise if I should provide you with any further information at this time.

Thank you.

Clarke W. McCants, III
