On June 3, 2024, a Petition for Writ of Certiorari in the above-captioned matter was filed with this Court. On June 14, 2024, Respondent filed a Return to the Petition. The Return contains thirty-eighty (38) numbered pages. Rule 242 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules, entitled “Certiorari to the Court of Appeals,” sets forth in subsection (f) that “[t]he total length of the return shall not exceed twenty-five (25) pages.” No Motion appears to have been filed seeking to exceed the mandatory page limit set forth in the appellate court rules, and accordingly, Petitioners respectfully request the Court strike the contents in the Return which exceed the twenty-five (25) page limit.

Petitioners respectfully request the Court temporarily stay the ten-day deadline by which Petitioners are required to file a Reply to the Return pursuant to Rule 263(b) of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules. Good cause exists for such an extension, because until a Return that is in compliance with the Rules is filed, Petitioners are unable to discern which arguments are properly before the Court.

Accordingly, Petitioners in this matter ask the Court strike the portions of the Return that exceed the page limit and/or take other action as is necessary to ensure compliance with the Appellate Court Rules. Additionally, Petitioners request a temporary stay or extension of their deadline to file a Reply during the pendency of this Motion.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Steven J. Pugh
