Re: Pamela Holliday Wallin v. Ross Samuel Holliday
Appellate Case No. 2022-000592

Dear Mrs. Harrison:

In response to the Court's letter of June 10, 2024, the undersigned counsel for Appellants is not available for oral arguments in the above matter on the dates identified for the September and October terms. As Chairman of the South Carolina Board of Law Examiners, I am responsible to oversee the grading of the July 2024 bar exams during this time. While an Order of Protection has not yet been entered by the Supreme Court as of the date of this correspondence, I anticipate my protection will extend from early August through late October 2024 (the current schedule has final grades due by October 18, 2024). As such, I would respectfully request that oral arguments be considered during the next available term after the dates listed in your letter.

Very truly yours,

THURMOND KIRCHNER & TIMBES, P.A.
