Re: Turner's Marina LLC v. Caput, Hyde
Case No.: 2024-000105

Ms. Kitchings-

I am writing you this morning after my conversation with Kheesia Ezans-Pryor with your office a few minutes ago. I represent the Respondent, Hyde in the above matter, and Harrison. Williams represents the Respondent, Caput. We are finalizing today our joint Initial Respondents' Brief and intend to file same today. The deadline for said filing is Friday July 5. In various portions of our Initial Brief, we will be discussing specific portions of financial statements and tax returns of the Appellant that are subject to a confidentiality agreement. Obviously I do not wish to breach the terms of the confidentiality agreement by following the typical procedure of e-filing our Initial Brief. I understand typically our Initial Brief, and all other filings, would be available for review by the public. In addition, we are proposing that the financial statements and tax returns we reference in our Initial Brief be included in the Record on Appeal, which would also be available for members of the public to review online.

Please advise how I should handle the filing of our Initial Brief, our Final Brief, and the additions to the Record on Appeal involving these financial documents subject to the confidentiality agreement executed between the parties.

I have copied opposing counsel, Thomas Taylor, with this communication with the Court.

Thanks very much.

Sincerely,
