

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

Bridgette M. Chabot, Appellant,

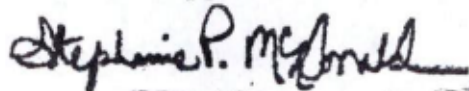

v.

South Carolina Department of Employment and Workforce and Wells Fargo & Company, Inc., Respondents.

Appellate Case No. 2024-000251

ORDER

On June 3, 2024, Appellant filed motions to strike the initial briefs filed by Respondents because their respective statements of the case contained contested matters. Respondents filed separate returns. After careful consideration, we grant Appellant's motion to strike Respondent Wells Fargo & Company, Inc.'s initial brief and deny Appellant's motion to strike Respondent South Carolina Department of Employment and Workforce's initial brief. See Rule 208(b)(2), SCRE ("The brief of respondent shall conform to the requirements of Rule 208(b)(1)(A)-(F), except that a statement of the issues, of the case, or of the standard of review need not be made unless the respondent is dissatisfied with the statement of the issues, of the case, or of the standard of review by appellant."); Rule 208(b)(1)(C), SCACR ("The statement [of the case] shall contain a concise history of the proceedings, insofar as necessary to an understanding of the appeal. The statement shall not contain contested matters . . ."). Within twenty days of the date of this order, Respondent Wells Fargo & Company, Inc. shall file and serve an amended initial brief that complies with the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules.
