Respondents Beacham O. Brooker, Jr., in his official capacity as Trustee and individually as a Beneficiary of the Janet B. Brooker Trust, and Ellen B. Corontzes individually as a Beneficiary of the Janet B. Brooker Trust (“Respondents”) hereby move pursuant to Section 19-11-20 of the South Carolina Code, the South Carolina Rules of Evidence, and the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure for an order precluding the Petitioner Julia B. Brooker (“Julia”) from testifying in the trial and George W. DuRant, CPA from testifying about the settlor’s intent and the construction or interpretation of the Trust and its Equalization Distribution in the above referenced matter.

Julia is the child of the Settlor Janet B. Brooker (“Janet” or “Mother”), as are Respondents Beacham O. Brooker, Jr. (“Beach”) and Ellen B. Corontzes (“Ellen”). Julia is to receive funds pursuant to the at-issue Equalization Distribution, which is in Article V of the Trust Agreement, which in turn is an attachment to the Last Will and Testament of Julia B. Brooker, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit A. Because Julia is a party to the action, who has an interest which will be affected by the trial, she is precluded from testifying in the trial of this matter. Moreover, her witnesses and counsel should be precluded from making arguments about, introducing, referring to or offering any evidence that contains Julia's deposition or other testimony about the Equalization Distribution and the intent of her Mother.

Next, George W. DuRant is the expert witness for Julia who calculated how much he believes she is entitled to under the Equalization Distribution. Mr. DuRant is not a lawyer or this Court, who is tasked with the duty of construing the intent of the Trust and its Equalization Distribution. He can only testify as to the figure that Julia would be entitled to if her interpretation of the Equalization Distribution is correct, which Respondents vigorously deny.

In anticipation of Petitioner's argument, Respondents also address the ability of W. Steven Johnson, the mother's estate planner, and William M. Reynolds, III, Johnson's partner, to testify. At the hearing on motion for summary judgment, Petitioner's counsel made a reference to whether the Dead Man's Statute precludes Steve Johnson from testifying, but South Carolina law is well-established on this issue. Attorneys who handled the estate planning are not subject to the Dead Man's Statute, as a matter of law.

I. JULIA IS PRECLUDED FROM TESTIFYING UNDER THE DEAD MAN'S STATUTE.

The Dead Man's Statute, codified at Section 19-11-20 of the South Carolina Code, serves to prohibit "any interest person from testifying concerning conversations or transactions with the decedent if the testimony could affect his or her interest." Hanahan v. Simpson, 326 S.C. 140, 151, 485 S.E.2d 903, 909 (1997), superseded by statute on unrelated grounds. "The rule is founded on the principle that it is against public policy to allow a witness thus interested to testify as to such matters when such testimony, if untrue, cannot be contradicted." Id.

The Dead Man's Statute provides, in pertinent part, as follows:

[N]o party to an action or proceeding, no person who has a legal or equitable interest which may be affected by the event of the action or proceeding . . . shall be examined in regard to any transaction or communication between such witness and a person at the time of such examination deceased . . . as a witness against a party then prosecuting or defending the action as executor, administrator, heir-at-law, next of kin, assignee, legatee, devisee or survivor of such deceased person . . . when such examination or any judgment or determination in such action or proceeding can in any manner affect the interest of such witness . . . .

S.C. Code Ann. § 19-11-20. In other words, the Dead Man's Statute disqualifies a party's testimony in the following circumstances:

1. in regard to any transaction or communication between the witness and a person deceased, insane or lunatic, and
2. against a party prosecuting or defending the action as executor, administrator, heir-at-law, next of kin, assignee, legatee, devisee, or survivor of such deceased person, or as assignee or committee of such insane person or lunatic, and
3. when the present or previous interest of the witness may in any manner be affected by the testimony or by the event of trial.

Long v. Conroy, 246 S.C. 225, 232, 143, S.E.2d 459, 462 (1965). The Dead Man's Statute does not apply unless the putative witness possesses all of these disqualifying characteristics. Id. "The test of the interest of a witness in the event which disqualifies him, under statute, from testifying in his own behalf against the personal representative of a deceased person, is that he will either gain or lose by the direct legal operation and effect of the judgment." Long, 246 S.C. at 234, 143 S.E.2d at 463 (quoting Riddle v. George, 181 S.C. 360, 187 S.E. 524 (1936)).

Julie falls squarely within the teeth of the Dead Man's Statute. She would be testifying about conversations with her mother about what the intent of the Equalization Distribution. Second, she would be testifying against a party defending the action as the trustee and heir-at-law of his mother. Third, her interest in the Equalization Distribution under the Trust will be directly affected by the testimony and the trial of this matter. She cannot be permitted to testify under the Dead Man's Statute.

II. GEORGE W. DURANT, CPA MAY NOT TESTIFY AS TO THE CONSTRUCTION OR INTERPRETATION OF THE TRUST AND ITS EQUALIZATION DISTRIBUTION OR THE MOTHER'S INTENT.

George DuRant may not testify about the intent of the Mother or the construction or interpretation of the Trust and the Equalization Distribution. He is a certified public accountant; but he is not a lawyer, nor he is the Court who is tasked with now determining the intent of the Mother and how to construe and interpret the Trust and Equalization Distribution. With all due respect, Mr. DuRant is not qualified to determine such matters, and his testimony cannot invade the province of this Court. See Rule 702, SCRE (“If scientific, technical, or other specialized knowledge will assist the trier of fact to understand the evidence or to determine a fact in issue, a witness qualified as an expert by knowledge, skill, experience, training, or education, may testify thereto in the form of an opinion or otherwise.”). Mr. DuRant has no legal training or specialized knowledge that would allow him to offer any testimony about the Mother’s intent or the construction and interpretation of the Equalization Distribution. Mr. DuRant cannot construe the Trust Agreement for his own reasons, and he cannot give his opinion on the ultimate issue regarding the Trust, as he has no knowledge, skill, experience, training, or education to form such an opinion. Mr. DuRant’s testimony must be limited to the calculation of Julia’s distribution under her theory of the construction of the Equalization Distribution.

III. STEVE JOHNSON AND BILL REYNOLDS ARE NOT PRECLUDED UNDER THE DEAD MAN’S STATUTE.

On the other hand, Steve Johnson, the Mother’s estate attorney, and his partner Bill Reynolds may be allowed to testify. South Carolina law unambiguously holds that “testimony of the attorney preparing the will is generally held admissible on the ground that the attorney is not an ‘interested person.’” Hanahan, 326 S.C. at 152, 485 S.E.2d at 910 (quoting Havird v. Schissell, 252 S.C. 404, 166 S.E.2d 801). This is true even when the attorney is entitled to fees or a lien for his services as a result of the trial. Havird, 252 S.C. at 412-13, 166 S.E.2d at 805-06. The attorney's entitlement to compensation is not a "legal or equitable interest" which "may be affected by the direct, legal operation and effect of the judgment." Id. at 412, 166 S.E.2d at 805.

While not addressed by a South Carolina appellate court, the issue of whether an attorney facing a malpractice claim has been addressed by other jurisdictions. They have concluded that the malpractice claim is not an "interest" that subjects the lawyer to the Dead Man's Statute. For example, in Illinois, an attorney was allowed to testify about the settlor's intent to transfer real property to a trust for the benefit of some, but not all, of their children and grandchildren. Michalski v. Chicago Title & Trust Co., 365 N.E.2d 654, 655-57 (Ill. Ct. App. 1997). The attorney prepared the deeds, and was allowed to testify about their preparation and execution, although no deeds could be found. Id. The court allowed the attorney to testify, noting that he had no direct interest in the suit and that there was no suit against him, causing the alleged "interest" to be speculative. Id. Illinois also allows an attorney to testify even if the malpractice claim is already pending. See Estate of Hurst v. Hurst, 769 N.E.2d 55, 63 (Ill. App. Ct. 2002) (permitting the attorney to testify where a related malpractice claim was pending, noting that for the attorney to be disqualified under the Dead Man's Statute, "[t]he interest of the witness must be direct and be such that a pecuniary gain or loss will inure to the witness directly as the immediate result of the judgment.").

Similarly, Colorado allowed attorneys facing malpractice claims to testify and not be disqualified under the Dead Man's Statute. David v. Powder Mountain Ranch, 656 P.2d 716, 718 (Colo. App. 1982) (finding attorney lacked direct interest in suit). The Colorado appellate court further held as follows:

We are aware of only one instance in which an attorney, by reasons of his services, was determined to have gained an interest in the outcome of the litigation to warrant disqualification of his testimony. This arises when the attorney has entered into a contingent fee arrangement with his client.

Id; see also Lee v. Leibold, 79 P.2d 1049, 1051-52 (Colo. 1938) (disqualifying lawyer's testimony when he represented client in contractual dispute against estate on a contingency fee basis).

Here, neither Johnson nor Reynolds has any interest in the present lawsuit. They have nothing to "gain or lose by the direct legal operation and effect of the judgment." Long, 246 S.C. at 234, 143 S.E.2d at 463. Johnson, who was the estate planner, and Reynolds, who consulted with Johnson about the Equalizing Distribution, should be allowed to testify to assist the Court in gleaned Janet Brooker's intent regarding the Equalizing Distribution. Steve Johnson will testify, in part, to the following:

- Beginning in September 2007, there was a heightened awareness of a need to make gifts of behalf of Janet Brook to lessen the estate taxes. (Johnson Dep. 11:7-16, Steve Johnson's Deposition is attached hereto as Exhibit B.)
- On September 25, 2007, Johnson met with the Brooker family to discuss the need to accelerate the gifts. (Johnson Dep. 11:17 – 13:1.)
- Janet did not want to disadvantage Julia so Johnson said he could put a provision in the will to "catch up" Julia for any gifts to the children's spouses. Additionally, they discussed the acceleration of gifts through 529 plans. (Id.)
- Janet did not want Julia to suffer as a result of these gifts. (Id.)
- Janet's major concern was the gifting to the children's spouses. (Id. 14:10-13.)
- Equalization meant to Johnson "don't let Julie be disadvantaged because gifts have been made to in-laws. (Id. 16:4-11.)
- Johnson talked with his partner Bill Reynolds about the equalization. He wanted a second set of eyes to review the language. (Id. 25:23 – 26:7.)
- "The whole conversation with Janet was about prospective gifts, not retrospective gifts." (Id. 28:12-13.)

- “You have to read the four corners of Paragraph 2, and it says from the date of the Trust forward looking at the lifetime gifts.” (Id. 29:6-8.)
- “You have to divide that by two to keep her equal with – I mean, if Ellen got half of that money – Ellen’s family got half of that money and Beach’s family got half of that money . . . then to keep Julie equal with them, she would get half that figure.” (Id. 33:7-12.)
- “[I]f you read the four corners of Paragraph 2, it intends to keep Julie equal with what Beach got and what Ellen got, but not to get her ahead.” (Id. 35:2-5.)
- “If there had been discussion of prior gifts, under the theory of accelerated gifts in 2007, I would have said, Janet, catch Julie up right this minute.” (Id. 36:4-7.)

In sum, this Court should not allow Julia to testify as she is the textbook example for the need and application of the Dead Man’s Statute. Additionally, George DuRant should not be allowed to testify about the Mother’s intent or the construction and interpretation of the Trust and Equalization Distribution. On the other hand, Steve Johnson and Bill Reynolds should be allowed to testify regarding the estate plan, the Equalizing Distribution, and Janet Brooker’s intent regarding the same.

CLERK OF DISTRICT COURT
RICHLAND COUNTY, S.C.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT
JANET B. BROOKER

Introductory Clause. I, JANET B. BROOKER, a resident of and domiciled in the County of Richland and State of South Carolina, do hereby make, publish and declare this to be my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all Wills and Codicils at any time heretofore made by me.

ITEM I

General Bequest of Personal and Household Effects With a Mandatory Memorandum. I give and bequeath all my personal and household effects of every kind including but not limited to furniture, appliances, furnishings, pictures, silverware, china, glass, books, jewelry, wearing apparel, boats, automobiles, and other vehicles, and all policies of fire, burglary, property damage, and other insurance on or in connection with the use of this property, as follows:

(1) I may leave written memoranda disposing of certain items of my tangible personal property. Any such item of tangible personal property shall pass according to the terms of such memoranda in existence at the time of my death. If no such written memoranda are found or identified by my Personal Representative within ninety (90) days after my Personal Representative's qualification, it shall be conclusively presumed that there are no such memoranda and any subsequently discovered memoranda shall be ineffective. Any property given and devised to a beneficiary who is not living at the time of my death and for whom no effective alternate provision has been made shall pass according to the provisions of the following paragraph, and not pursuant to any anti-lapse statute.

(2) In default of such memoranda; or to the extent such memoranda do not completely or effectively dispose of such property, I give and bequeath the rest of my personal and household effects of every kind to my children surviving me in approximately equal shares; provided, however, the issue of a deceased child surviving me shall take per stirpes the share their parent would have taken had he or she survived me. If my issue do not agree to the division of the property among themselves, my Personal Representative shall make such division among them, the decision of my Personal Representative to be in all respects binding upon my issue. If any beneficiary hereunder is a minor, my Personal Representative may distribute such minor's share to such minor or for such minor's use to any person with whom such minor is residing or who has the care or control of such minor without further responsibility and the receipt of the person to whom it is distributed shall be a complete discharge of my Personal Representative.

ITEM II

Pour-Over Gift to Trustee of Testatrix's Inter Vivos Trust. I give, devise and bequeath all the rest, residue and remainder of my property of every kind and description (including lapsed legacies and devises), wherever situate and whether acquired before or after the execution of this Will, to BEACHAM O. BROOKER, JR. AND JANET B. BROOKER as Trustee under that certain Trust Agreement between me as Settlor and BEACHAM O. BROOKER, JR. AND JANET B. BROOKER as Trustee executed prior to the execution of this Will on the 16th day of October, 2007. My Trustee shall add the property bequeathed and devised by this Item to the principal of the above Trust and shall hold, administer and distribute the property in accordance with the provisions of the Trust Agreement, including any amendments thereto made before my death.

ITEM III

Alternate Provision to Incorporate Trust by Reference if Pour-Over is Invalid. In the event for any reason the bequest and devise above is ineffective and invalid, then I hereby give, devise and bequeath the rest, residue and remainder of my property of every kind and description (including lapsed legacies and devises), wherever situate and whether acquired before or after the execution of this Will, to BEACHAM O. BROOKER, JR. AND JANET B. BROOKER as Trustee to be held, administered and distributed in accordance with the provisions of that certain Trust Agreement between me as Settlor and BEACHAM O. BROOKER, JR. AND JANET B. BROOKER as Trustee executed prior to the execution of this Will on the 16th day of October, 2007, which Trust Agreement including any amendments thereto made before my death is hereby incorporated by reference and made a part hereof the same as if the entire Trust Agreement were set forth herein. If for any reason BEACHAM O. BROOKER, JR. AND JANET B. BROOKER are unable or unwilling to serve then I hereby nominate, constitute and appoint as successor or substitute Trustee such Trustee or Trustees as are set forth in the above referenced Trust Agreement.

ITEM IV

Naming the Personal Representative, Personal Representative Succession, Personal Representative's Fees and Other Matters. The provisions for naming the Personal Representative, Personal Representative succession, Personal Representative's fees and other matters are set forth below:

(1) Naming an Individual Personal Representative. I hereby nominate, constitute and appoint as Personal Representative of this my Last Will and Testament my son, BEACHAM O. BROOKER, JR. and direct that he shall serve without bond.

(2) Naming Individual Successor or Substitute Personal Representative. If my individual Personal Representative should fail to qualify as Personal Representative hereunder, or for any reason should cease to act in such capacity, the successor or substitute Personal Representative who shall also serve without bond shall be my daughter, JULIA B. BROOKER.

(3) Final Succession If Individual Successor Personal Representative Cannot Act. If my individual successor Personal Representative should fail to qualify as Personal Representative hereunder, or for any reason should cease to act in such capacity, then the successor or substitute Personal Representative who shall also serve without bond shall be my daughter, ELLEN B. CORONTZES.

(4) Fee Schedule for Individual Personal Representative. For its services as Personal Representative, the individual Personal Representative shall receive reasonable compensation for the services rendered and reimbursement for reasonable expenses.

ITEM V

Definition of Personal Representative. Whenever the word "Personal Representative" or any modifying or substituted pronoun therefor is used in this my Will, such words and respective pronouns shall include both the singular and the plural, the masculine, feminine and neuter gender thereof, and shall apply equally to the Personal Representative named herein and to any successor or substitute Personal Representative acting hereunder, and such successor or substitute Personal Representative shall possess all the rights, powers and duties, authority and responsibility conferred upon the Personal Representative originally named herein.

ITEM VI

Powers for Personal Representative. By way of illustration and not of limitation and in addition to any inherent, implied or statutory powers granted to Personal Representatives generally, my Personal Representative is specifically authorized and empowered with respect to any property, real or personal, at any time held under any provision of this my Will: to allot, allocate between principal and income, assign, borrow, buy, care for, collect, compromise claims, contract with respect to, continue any business of mine, convey, convert, deal with, dispose of, enter into, exchange, hold, improve, incorporate any business of mine, invest, lease, manage, mortgage, grant and exercise options with respect to, take possession of, pledge, receive, release, repair, sell, sue for, to make distributions or divisions in cash or in kind or partly in each without regard to the income tax basis of such asset, and in general, to exercise all the powers in the management of my Estate which any individual could exercise in the management of similar property owned in his or her own right, upon such terms and conditions as to my Personal Representative may seem best, and to execute and deliver any and all instruments and to do all acts which my Personal Representative may deem proper or necessary to carry out the purposes of this my Will, without being limited in any way by the specific grants of power made, and without the necessity of a court order.

ITEM VII

Provision for Personal Representative to Act as Trustee for Beneficiary Under Age Twenty-One. If any share or property hereunder becomes distributable to a beneficiary who has not attained the age of Twenty-one (21) years or if any real property shall be devised to a person who has not attained the age of Twenty-one (21) years at the date of my death, then such share or property shall immediately vest in the beneficiary, but notwithstanding the provisions herein, my Personal Representative acting as Trustee shall retain possession of the share or property in trust for the beneficiary until the beneficiary attains the age of Twenty-one (21), using so much of the net income and principal of the share or property as my Personal Representative deems necessary to provide for the medical care, education, support and maintenance in reasonable comfort of the beneficiary, taking into consideration to the extent my Personal Representative deems advisable any other income or resources of the beneficiary, or his or her parents known to my Personal Representative. Any income not so paid or applied shall be accumulated and added to principal. The beneficiary's share or property shall be paid over, distributed and conveyed to the beneficiary upon attaining age Twenty-one (21), or if he or she shall sooner die, to his or her personal representatives. Whenever my Personal Representative determines it appropriate to pay any money for the benefit of a beneficiary for whom a trust is created hereunder, then the amounts shall be paid out by my Personal Representative in such of the following ways as my Personal Representative deems best: (1) directly to the beneficiary; (2) to the legally appointed guardian of the beneficiary; (3) to some relative or friend for the care, support and education of the beneficiary; (4) by my Personal Representative using such amounts directly for the beneficiary's care, support and education; (5) to a custodian for the beneficiary under the Uniform Gifts or Transfers to Minors Act. My Personal Representative as trustee shall have with respect to each share or property so retained all the powers and discretions conferred upon it as Personal Representative.

ITEM VIII

Discretion Granted to Personal Representative in Reference to Tax Matters. My Personal Representative as the fiduciary of my estate shall have the discretion, but shall not be required when allocating receipts of my estate between income and principal, to make adjustments in the rights of any beneficiaries, or among the principal and income accounts to compensate for the consequences of any tax decision or election, or of any investment or administrative decision, that my Personal Representative believes has had the effect, directly or indirectly, of preferring one beneficiary or group of beneficiaries over others; provided, however, my Personal Representative shall not exercise its discretion in a manner which would cause the loss or reduction of the marital deduction as may be herein provided. In determining the state or federal estate and income tax liabilities of my estate, my Personal Representative shall have discretion to select the valuation date and to determine whether any or all of the allowable administration expenses in my estate shall be used as state or federal estate tax deductions or as state or federal income tax deductions. If my estate plan includes a revocable trust agreement and it contains directions to my Personal Representative, I direct my Personal Representative to follow the directions in such trust agreement.

ITEM IX

Definitions of Family. The following definitions shall be used to define the family:

(1) Definition of Children. For purposes of this Will, "children" means the lawful blood descendants in the first degree of the parent designated; and "issue" and "descendants" mean the lawful blood descendants in any degree of the ancestor designated. The terms "child," "children," "issue," "descendant" and "descendants" or those terms preceded by the terms "living" or "then living" shall include the lawful blood descendant in the first degree of the parent designated even though such descendant is born after the death of such parent. For purposes of this my last will and testament the anti-lapse statute shall not apply as I have named successor takers where it is my intent so to do.

(2) Inclusion of Adopted Children. For purposes of this Will, if a person, who at the time of such legal adoption proceeding is commenced is then under the age of twenty-one (21) years, has been adopted, that person shall be considered a child of such adopting parent and such adopted child and his or her issue shall be considered as issue of the adopting parent or parents and of anyone who is by blood or adoption an ancestor of the adopting parent or either of the adopting parents.

(3) Definition of Per Stirpes. The term "per stirpes" as used herein has the identical meaning as the term "taking by representation" as defined in the South Carolina Probate Code.

ITEM X

Definition of Words Relating to the Internal Revenue Code. As used herein, words which from the context in which it or they are used refer to the Internal Revenue Code shall have the same meaning as such words have for the purposes of applying the Internal Revenue Code to my estate. Reference to sections of the Internal Revenue Code and to the Internal Revenue Code shall refer to the Internal Revenue Code amended to the date of my death.

ITEM XI

Simultaneous Death Provision Presuming Beneficiary Predeceases Testatrix. If any beneficiary and I should die under such circumstances as would make it doubtful whether the beneficiary or I died first, then it shall be conclusively presumed for the purposes of this Will that the beneficiary predeceased me.

ITEM XII

Direction to Pay Debts with Discretionary Refinancing by Personal Representative. I direct that all my legally enforceable debts, secured and unsecured, be paid as soon as practicable after my death. I direct that my Personal Representative may cause any debt to be carried, renewed and refinanced from time to time upon such terms and with such securities for its repayment as my Personal Representative may deem advisable taking into consideration the best interest of the beneficiaries hereunder.

ITEM XIII

I direct that:

(1) Direction to Pay All Taxes from Residuary Estate. Except as provided in (2) herein, all estate, inheritance, succession, death or similar taxes (except generation-skipping transfer taxes) assessed with respect to my estate herein disposed of, or any part thereof, or on any bequest or devise contained in this my Last Will (which term wherever used herein shall include any Codicil hereto), be paid out of my residuary estate and shall not be charged to or against any recipient, beneficiary, transferee or owner of any such property or interests in property included in my estate for such tax purposes.

(2) Apportion Taxes on Nonprobate Property. All such taxes in respect to any property or interests in property included in my gross estate under Sections 2035, 2036, 2037, 2038, 2039, 2040, 2041, 2042, and 2044 of the Internal Revenue Code shall be charged against and paid by the recipient or beneficiary of such property or interest in property or from the property or interest in the property, provided, however, there shall be no apportionment against any donee or recipient of any such property or interest in property which is a qualified charity under Section 2055 and the property or interest in property was allowed in my federal estate tax proceedings as a charitable deduction. The amount of the tax to be charged against such donee or recipient shall be determined by multiplying a fraction (the numerator of which shall be the federal estate tax value of the property to be apportioned as finally determined in my federal estate tax proceedings and the denominator of which shall be the total value of my taxable estate for such federal estate tax purposes) times the net amount of such taxes payable by my estate after the application of all credits against such taxes.

Testimonium, Attestation and Self-Proving Affidavit. I, JANET B. BROOKER, the Testatrix, sign my name to this instrument this the 16th day of October, 2007, and being first duly sworn, do hereby declare to the undersigned authority that I sign and execute this instrument as my last will and that I sign it willingly (or willingly direct another to sign for me), that I execute it as my free and voluntary act for the purposes therein expressed, and that I am eighteen years of age or older, of sound mind, and under no constraint or undue influence.

Introductory Clause. This Agreement made this the 16th day of October, 2007, between JANET B. BROOKER, hereinafter referred to as the Settlor and BEACHAM O. BROOKER, JR. AND JANET B. BROOKER, hereinafter referred to singularly as an individual trustee and hereinafter collectively referred to as the Trustees. During the lifetime of the Settlor and after the death of the Settlor but prior to final distribution herein this trust shall be known as the "JANET B. BROOKER TRUST".

ARTICLE I

Description of Property Transferred. The Settlor has paid over, assigned, granted, conveyed, transferred and delivered, and by this Agreement does hereby pay over, assign, grant, convey, transfer and deliver unto the Trustee the property described in Schedule A, annexed hereto and made a part hereof, and may cause the Trustee to be designated as beneficiary of certain life insurance policies. Any insurance policies that may be delivered to the Trustee hereunder or under which the Trustee may be designated as beneficiary, the proceeds of all such policies being payable to the Trustee, and any other property that may be received or which has been received by the Trustee hereunder, as invested and reinvested (hereinafter referred to as the "Trust Estate"), shall be held, administered and distributed by the Trustee as hereinafter set forth.

ARTICLE II

Provisions for Settlor During Lifetime. The Trustee shall hold, manage, invest and reinvest the Trust Estate (if any requires such management and investment) and shall collect the income, if any, therefrom and shall dispose of the net income and principal as follows:

(1) During the lifetime of the Settlor, the Trustee shall pay to or apply for the benefit of the Settlor all the net income from this Trust.

(2) During the lifetime of the Settlor, the Trustee may pay to or apply for the benefit of the Settlor such sums from the principal of this Trust as in its sole discretion shall be necessary or advisable from time to time for the medical care, education, support and maintenance in reasonable comfort of the Settlor, taking into consideration to the extent the Trustee deems advisable, any other income or resources of the Settlor known to the Trustee.

ARTICLE III

Settlor's Rights to Amend, Change or Revoke the Trust Agreement. The Settlor may, by signed instruments delivered to the Trustee during the Settlor's life: (1) withdraw property from this Trust in any amount and at any time upon giving reasonable notice in writing to the Trustee; (2) add other property to the Trust; (3) change the beneficiaries, their respective shares and the plan of distribution; (4) amend this Trust Agreement in any other respect; (5) revoke this Trust in its entirety or any provision therein; provided, however, the duties or responsibilities of the Trustee shall not be enlarged without the Trustee's consent nor without satisfactory adjustment of the Trustee's compensation.

ARTICLE IV

Discretionary Provisions for Trustee to Deal with Settlor's Estate and Make Payment of Debts and Taxes. After the Settlor's death, the Trustee, if in its discretion it deems it advisable, may pay all or any part of the Settlor's funeral expenses, legally enforceable claims against the Settlor or the Settlor's estate, reasonable expenses of administration of the Settlor's estate, any allowances by court order to those dependent upon the Settlor, any estate, inheritance, succession, death or similar taxes payable by reason of the Settlor's death, together with any interest thereon or other additions thereto, without reimbursement from the Settlor's personal representatives, from any beneficiary of insurance upon the Settlor's life, or from any other person. All such payments, except of interest, shall be charged generally against the principal of the Trust Estate includable in the Settlor's estate for Federal estate tax purposes and any interest so paid shall be charged generally against the income thereof; provided, however, any such payments of estate, inheritance, succession, death or similar taxes (except generation-skipping transfer taxes) shall be charged against the principal constituting the Trust Estate and any interest so paid shall be charged against the income thereof. If such share or trust was created as a fraction, then such taxes thus paid shall reduce the numerator of that share or trust and the Trust Estate, thus likewise reducing the denominator of the fraction. The Trustee may make such payments directly or may pay over the amounts thereof to the personal representatives of the Settlor's estate. Written statements by the personal representatives of such sums due and payable by the estate shall be sufficient evidence of their amount and propriety for the protection of the Trustee and the Trustee shall be under no duty to see to the application of any such payments. If administrative expenses are deducted on the estate's income tax return but paid from principal, then they shall be charged against the Trust Estate.

ARTICLE V

Specific Distributions. Upon the death of the Settlor, the Trustee shall make the following distributions:

(1) General Distribution of Personal and Household Effects With a Mandatory Memorandum. All the Settlor's personal and household effects of every kind including but not limited to furniture, appliances, furnishings, pictures, silverware, china, glass, books, jewelry, wearing apparel, boats, automobiles, and other vehicles, and all policies of fire, burglary, property damage, and other insurance on or in connection with the use of this property, shall be distributed as follows:

(a) The Settlor may leave written memoranda disposing of certain items of tangible personal property. Any such item of tangible personal property shall pass according to the terms of such memoranda in existence at the time of the Settlor's death. If no such written memoranda are found or identified by the Trustee within ninety (90) days after the Settlor's death, it shall be conclusively presumed that there are no such memoranda and any subsequently discovered memoranda shall be ineffective. Any property given and devised to a beneficiary who is not living at the time of the Settlor's death and for whom no effective alternate provision has been made shall pass according to the provisions of the following subparagraph, and not pursuant to any anti-lapse statute.

(b) In default of such memoranda, or to the extent such memoranda do not completely or effectively dispose of such property, the rest of the Settlor's personal and household effects of every kind shall be distributed to the Settlor's children surviving the Settlor, in approximately equal shares; provided, however, the issue of a deceased child surviving the Settlor shall take per stirpes the share their parent would have taken had he or she survived the Settlor. If the Settlor's issue do not agree to the division of the property among themselves, the Trustee shall make such division among them, the decision of the Trustee to be in all respects binding upon the Settlor's issue. If any beneficiary hereunder is a minor, the Trustee may distribute such minor's share to such minor or for such minor's use to any person with whom such minor is residing or who has the care or control of such minor without further responsibility and the receipt of the person to whom it is distributed shall be a complete discharge of the Trustee.

(2) Equalizing Distribution to the Settlor's Daughter, JULIA B. BROOKER. The Settlor has previously made lifetime gifts and intends to continue such gifting program until the date of the Settlor's death to the Settlor's children, the Settlor's issue and spouses of the Settlor's children. Because the Settlor's daughter, JULIA B. BROOKER is not married and has no children or issue, the Settlor intends that at the Settlor's death, an equalizing distribution will be made to the Settlor's said daughter pursuant to the terms of this paragraph for lifetime gifts made to such daughter's siblings' spouses or siblings' issue which equalizing distribution will be determined as follows:

(a) From the date of this trust forward the Trustee shall determine the date and the amount of any lifetime gifts made by the Settlor to issue of Ellen B. Corontzes and Beachum O. Brooker, Jr. as well as the spouses of Ellen B. Corontzes and Beachum O. Brooker, Jr.

(b) To such amount specified above from the date of such gift an interest rate of five (5%) percent shall be applied to the amount of such gift which interest rate shall continue until this distribution is satisfied and which rate shall not compound.

(c) The sum of (a) and (b) above shall be distributed to the Settlor's daughter, JULIA B. BROOKER if she shall survive the Settlor.

(3) Definition of Trust Estate. As used in this Trust Agreement, the words "Trust Estate" shall mean the entire Trust Estate minus the specific distributions under this Article.

ARTICLE VI

Trust Estate to Settlor's Issue. Upon the death of the Settlor, the Trust Estate (which shall include any property which may be added from the Settlor's general estate) shall be held in trust or paid over and distributed to the Settlor's surviving children in equal shares, provided, however, the then living issue of a deceased child of the Settlor shall take per stirpes the share their parent would have taken had he or she survived the Settlor. Provided, further, that any share due the Settlor's son, Beachum O. Brooker, Jr., if he shall survive the Settlor and any share due the Settlor's daughter, Ellen B. Corontzes, if she shall survive the Settlor shall first be allocated to the lifetime generation skipping trusts created for such named children ("Beachum

O. Brooker, Jr. Family Trust dated May 12, 1997;" "Ellen B. Corontzes Family Trust dated May 12, 1997") but only to the extent that the Settlor's estate has available generation skipping tax exemption remaining to be allocated among such trusts. The Settlor intends that any available generation skipping tax exemption be allocated equally among the "Beacham O. Brooker, Jr. Family Trust dated May 12, 1997" and the "Ellen B. Corontzes Family Trust dated May 12, 1997."

ARTICLE VII

Trustee Succession, Trustee's Fees and Other Matters. The provisions for naming the Trustee, Trustee succession, Trustee's fees and other matters are set forth below:

(1) Individual Trustees Succession. If the individual Trustee should fail to qualify as Trustee hereunder, or for any reason should cease to act in such capacity, the remaining individual Trustee shall continue to serve without a successor or substitute.

(2) Succession If Original Trustees Cannot Act. If all the Settlor's original Trustees should fail to qualify as Trustee hereunder, or for any reason should cease to act in such capacity, then the successor or substitute Trustee who shall also serve without bond shall be the Settlor's daughter, JULIA B. BROOKER.

(3) Final Succession If All Individual Trustees Cannot Act. If all the Settlor's individual Trustees should fail to qualify as Trustee hereunder, or for any reason should cease to act in such capacity, then the successor or substitute Trustee who shall also serve without bond shall be the Settlor's daughter, ELLEN B. CORONTZES.

(4) Fee Schedule for Individual Trustee. For its services as Trustee, the individual Trustee shall receive reasonable compensation for the services rendered and reimbursement for reasonable expenses.

(5) Delegation Among Trustees. When there is more than one individual or entity serving as co-Trustees, then any Trustee may delegate to any other Trustee the power to exercise any or all of the powers granted to the Trustees in this Trust Agreement, including those powers, which are discretionary, to the extent allowed by law. Any delegating Trustee may revoke any such delegation with written notice to the other serving co-Trustees. The delegation of any such power, as well as the revocation of any such delegation, shall be evidenced by an instrument in writing signed by the delegating co-Trustee. As long as any such delegation is in effect, any of the delegated powers may be exercised by the Trustee receiving such delegation with the same force and effect as if the delegating Trustee had personally joined in the exercise of such power. Provided, however, that if such Trustee, or co-Trustee, shall also be a current beneficiary and such delegation shall be deemed to create in that Trustee a right that shall be deemed to be a general power of appointment, then such individual Trustee shall not be vested with such right to delegate such power.

(6) Limitations on Trustees. No person who at any time is acting as Trustee hereunder shall have any power or obligation to participate in any discretionary authority which the Settlor has given to the Trustee to pay principal or income to such person, or for his or her benefit or in relief of his or her legal obligations; provided, however, if an individual trustee (who is also a beneficiary) is the sole trustee or at any time is acting as the sole trustee, and such trustee has discretion to invade principal for himself or herself and such discretionary authority is limited by an ascertainable standard, then such trustee may invade principal (if limited by such standard) for himself or herself but not in relief of his or her legal obligations.

(7) Trustee Accountings and Settlement. The Trustee shall report on Trust activities and account to the beneficiaries, as follows:

(a) Trustee Accountings. If there are more than nominal assets in the Trust, the Trustee shall render an accounting of the Trust's receipts and disbursements and a statement of the assets and liability of the Trust at least annually to each current income beneficiary and all beneficiaries entitled by law to receive an accounting. The Trustee may, but shall not be required to, file such accountings with the Court having jurisdiction of the Trust. The Settlor specifically waives any requirement for formal or court approved accounting. If the Trustee provides an accounting to each current income beneficiary and all beneficiaries entitled by law and those beneficiaries do not notify the Trustee in writing of an objection to such accounting within ninety (90) days of the receipt of such accounting, then the accounting shall be deemed accepted and approved by such beneficiary.

(b) Settlement of Trustee Accounting. During the period of time that this Trust may be revoked by the Settlor, the Trustee may render an accounting of its administration of the Trust to the Settlor. The Settlor's written acceptance and approval of such accounting shall be binding upon all present and future Trust beneficiaries.

(c) Settlement of Trustee Accounting by Beneficiaries. The Trustee may at any time settle its account with respect to the Trust Estate, or any separate share of the Trust Estate, by a written agreement. The written agreement shall be between the Trustee and all appropriate living income beneficiaries and remainder beneficiaries for the Trust Estate, or separate Trust share as appropriate. If a beneficiary is either a minor or incompetent, then the guardian for such person may represent such individual. Such agreement shall bind all persons then or thereafter entitled to such share of the Trust Estate for which the Trustee and beneficiaries reached written agreement. Such agreement shall constitute a complete release and discharge of the Trustee for the acts of the Trustee covered in the accounting and the period covered by the agreement.

(d) Settlement of Trustee Accounting Upon Termination of Trust. Prior to either delivering the Trust Estate to a successor Trustee or making a complete distribution of all or a separate share of the Trust Estate, the Trustee shall prepare and deliver its accounting of the Trust or the applicable Trust share, as appropriate, to the appropriate beneficiaries. The Settlor and/or applicable beneficiaries may waive such requirements for such accounting.

ARTICLE VIII

Definition of Trustee. Whenever the word "Trustee" or any modifying or substituted pronoun therefor is used in this Trust, such words and respective pronouns shall include both the singular and the plural, the masculine, feminine and neuter gender thereof, and shall apply

equally to the Trustee or Co-trustees named herein and to any successor or substitute Trustee or Co-trustee acting hereunder, and such successor or substitute Trustee or Co-trustee shall have all the rights, powers and duties, authority and responsibility conferred upon the Trustee originally named herein.

ARTICLE IX

Powers for Trustee. The Trustee is authorized in its fiduciary discretion (which shall be subject to the standard of reasonableness and good faith to all beneficiaries) with respect to any property, real or personal, at any time held under any provision of this Trust Agreement and without authorization by any court and in addition to any other rights, powers, authority and privileges granted by any other provision of this Trust Agreement or by statute or general rules of law:

(1) To collect trust property and accept or reject additions to the Trust Estate from a Settlor or any other person.

(2) To retain in the form received any property or undivided interests in property donated to, or otherwise acquired as a part of the Trust Estate, including residential property and shares of the Trustee's own stock, regardless of any lack of diversification, risk or nonproductivity, as long as it deems advisable, and to exchange any such security or property for other securities or properties and to retain such items received in exchange, although such property represents a large percentage of the total property of the Trust Estate or even the entirety thereof.

(3) To deposit trust money in accounts of all types, including margin accounts, in all types of regulated financial service institutions.

(4) To invest and reinvest all or any part of the Trust Estate in any property and undivided interests in property, wherever located, including bonds, debentures, notes, secured or unsecured, stocks of corporations regardless of class, interests in limited partnerships, limited liability companies or similar entities, real estate or any interest in real estate whether or not productive at the time of investment, interests in trusts, investment trusts, whether of the open and/or closed fund types, and participation in common, collective or pooled trust funds of the Trustee, insurance contracts on the life of any beneficiary or annuity contracts for any beneficiary, without being limited by any statute or rule of law concerning investments by fiduciaries.

(6) To sell or dispose of or grant options to purchase any property, real or personal, constituting a part of the Trust Estate, for cash or on credit, at public or private sale, to exchange any property of the Trust Estate for other property, at such times and upon such terms and conditions as it may deem best, and no person dealing with it shall be bound to see to the application of any monies paid.

(7) To hold any securities or other property in its own name as Trustee, in its own name, in the name of a nominee (with or without disclosure of any fiduciary relationship) or in bearer form.

(8) To keep, at any time and from time to time, all or any portion of the Trust Estate in cash and uninvested for such period or periods of time as it may deem advisable, without liability for any loss in income by reason thereof.

(9) To sell or exercise stock subscription or conversion rights.

(10) To refrain from voting or to vote shares of stock which are a part of the Trust Estate at shareholders' meetings in person or by special, limited, or general proxy and in general to exercise all the rights, powers and privileges of an owner in respect to any securities constituting a part of the Trust Estate.

(11) To participate in any plan of reorganization or consolidation or merger involving any company or companies whose stock or other securities shall be part of the Trust Estate, and to deposit such stock or other securities under any plan of reorganization or with any protective committee and to delegate to such committee discretionary power with relation thereto, to pay a proportionate part of the expenses of such committee and any assessments levied under any such plan, to accept and retain new securities received by the Trustee pursuant to any such plan, to exercise all conversion, subscription, voting and other rights, of whatsoever nature pertaining to such property, and to pay any amount or amounts of money as it may deem advisable in connection therewith.

(12) To borrow money with or without security and to encumber, mortgage or pledge any asset of the Trust Estate for a term within or extending beyond the term of the trust, in connection with the exercise of any power vested in the Trustee.

(13) To pledge the Trust Estate and to cause this Trust to guarantee loans made by others to a beneficiary or any business owned by the Trust.

(14) To enter for any purpose into a lease as lessor or lessee, including a lease or other arrangement for exploration and removal of natural resources, with or without option to purchase or renew for a term within or extending beyond the term of the Trust.

(15) To subdivide, develop, or dedicate real property to public use or to make or obtain the vacation of plats and adjust boundaries, to adjust differences in valuation on exchange or partition by giving or receiving consideration, and to dedicate public or private easements to private or public use without consideration, including by way of example qualified conservation and facade easements.

(16) To make ordinary or extraordinary repairs or alterations in buildings or other structures, to demolish any improvements, to raze existing or erect new party walls or buildings.

determines that the administration as a single trust is consistent with the Settlor's intent, and facilitates the trust's administration without defeating or impairing the interests of the beneficiaries.

(35) To divide any trust into separate shares or separate trusts or to create separate trusts if the Trustee reasonably deems it appropriate and the division or creation is consistent with the Settlor's intent, and facilitates the trust's administration without defeating or impairing the interests of the beneficiaries.

(36) To divide property in any trust being held hereunder with an inclusion ratio, as defined in section 2642(a)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as from time to time amended or under similar future legislation, of neither one nor zero into two separate trusts representing two fractional shares of the property being divided, one to have an inclusion ratio of one and the other to have an inclusion ratio of zero, to create trusts to receive property with an inclusion ratio of either one or zero and if this cannot be done to refuse to accept property which does not have a matching inclusion ratio to the receiving trust's ratio, all as the Trustee in its sole discretion deems best.

(37) If the Trustee shall act as the Personal Representative of the Settlor's estate, to elect to allocate any portion or all the Settlor's generation-skipping transfer exemption provided for in Code section 2631 or under similar future legislation, in effect at the time of the Settlor's death, to any portion or all of any other trusts or bequests in the Settlor's Will or any other transfer in which the Settlor is the transferor for purposes of the generation-skipping tax. Generally, the Settlor anticipates that the Settlor's Personal Representative will elect to allocate this exemption first to direct skips as defined in Code section 2612, then in such other manner as the Trustee deems appropriate, unless it would be inadvisable based on all the circumstances at the time of making the allocation; and to make the special election under section 2652(a)(3) of the Code to the extent the Settlor's Personal Representative deems in the best interest of the Settlor's estate.

ARTICLE X

Provision for Trustee to Act as Trustee for Beneficiary Under Age Twenty-One. If any share hereunder becomes distributable to a beneficiary who has not attained the age of Twenty-one (21), such share shall immediately vest in the beneficiary, but notwithstanding the provisions herein, the Trustee shall retain possession of the share in trust for the beneficiary until the beneficiary attains the age of Twenty-one (21), using so much of the net income and principal of the share as the Trustee deems necessary to provide for the medical care, education, support and maintenance in reasonable comfort of the beneficiary, taking into consideration to the extent the Trustee deems advisable any other income or resources of the beneficiary or his or her parents known to the Trustee. Any income not so paid or applied shall be accumulated and added to principal. The beneficiary's share shall be paid over and distributed to the beneficiary upon attaining age Twenty-one (21), or if he or she shall sooner die, to his or her personal representatives. The Trustee shall have with respect to each share so retained all the powers and discretions it had with respect to the trusts created herein generally.

ARTICLE XI

Trustee's Discretion in Making Payments to a Person Under Age Twenty-One, Incompetent, or Incapacitated Person. In case the income or principal payment under any trust created hereunder or any share thereof shall become payable to a person under the age of Twenty-one (21), or to a person under legal disability, or to a person not adjudicated incompetent, but who, by reason of illness or mental or physical disability, is, in the opinion of the Trustee unable properly to administer such amounts, then such amounts shall be paid out by the Trustee in such of the following ways as the Trustee deems best: (1) directly to the beneficiary; (2) to the legally appointed guardian of the beneficiary; (3) to some relative or friend for the medical care, education, support and maintenance in reasonable comfort of the beneficiary; (4) by the Trustee using such amounts directly for the beneficiary's care, support and education; (5) to a custodian for the beneficiary under the Uniform Gifts or Transfers to Minors Act.

ARTICLE XII

Discretion in Trustee to Terminate Small Trust and Distribute to Income Beneficiary. If at any time any trust created hereunder has a fair market value as determined by the Trustee of Fifty Thousand ($50,000.00) Dollars or less, the Trustee, in its absolute discretion if it determines that it is uneconomical to continue such trust, may terminate such trust and distribute the trust property to the person or persons then entitled to receive or have the benefit of the income therefrom or the legal representative of such person. If there is more than one income beneficiary, the Trustee shall make such distribution to such income beneficiaries in the proportion in which they are beneficiaries or if no proportion is designated in equal shares to such beneficiaries.

ARTICLE XIII

Definitions of Family. The following definitions shall be used to define the family:

(1) Definition of Children. For purposes of this Trust, "children" means the lawful blood descendants in the first degree of the parent designated; and "issue" and "descendants" mean the lawful blood descendants in any degree of the ancestor designated. The terms "child," "children," "issue," "descendant" and "descendants" or those terms preceded by the terms "living" or "then living" shall include the lawful blood descendant in the first degree of the parent designated even though such descendant is born after the death of such parent. For purposes of this trust the anti-lapse shall not apply as the Settlor has named successor takers where it is the Settlor's intent so to do.

(2) Inclusion of Adopted Children. For purposes of this Trust, if a person, who at the time of such legal adoption proceeding is commenced is then under the age of twenty-one (21) years, has been adopted, that person shall be considered a child of such adopting parent and such adopted child and his or her issue shall be considered as issue of the adopting parent or parents and of anyone who is by blood or adoption an ancestor of the adopting parent or either of the adopting parents.

(3) Definition of Per Stirpes. The term "per stirpes" as used herein has the identical meaning as the term "taking by representation" as defined in the South Carolina Probate Code.

ARTICLE XIV

Definition of Words Relating to the Internal Revenue Code. As used herein, words which from the context in which it or they are used refer to the Internal Revenue Code shall have the same meaning as such words have for the purposes of applying the Internal Revenue Code to the Settlor's estate. For purposes of this Trust Agreement, the Settlor's "available generation-skipping transfer exemption" means the generation-skipping transfer tax exemption provided in section 2631 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, in effect at the time of the Settlor's death reduced by the aggregate of (1) the amount, if any, of the Settlor's exemption allocated to lifetime transfers of the Settlor by the Settlor or by operation of law, and (2) the amount, if any, the Settlor has specifically allocated to other property of the Settlor's gross estate for federal estate tax purposes. For purposes of this Trust Agreement if at the time of the Settlor's death the Settlor has made gifts with an inclusion ratio of greater than zero for which the gift tax return due date has not expired (including extensions) and the Settlor has not yet filed a return, it shall be deemed that the Settlor's generation-skipping transfer exemption has been allocated to these transfers to the extent necessary (and possible) to exempt the transfer(s) from generation-skipping transfer tax. Reference to sections of the Internal Revenue Code and to the Internal Revenue Code shall refer to the Internal Revenue Code amended to the date of the Settlor's death.

ARTICLE XV

Simultaneous Death Provision Presuming Beneficiary Predeceases Settlor. If any beneficiary and the Settlor should die under such circumstances as would make it doubtful whether the beneficiary or the Settlor died first, then it shall be conclusively presumed for the purposes of this Trust that the beneficiary predeceased the Settlor.

ARTICLE XVI

State Law to Govern. This Trust Agreement and the trusts created hereby shall be construed, regulated and governed by and in accordance with the laws of the State of South Carolina.

ARTICLE XVII

Spendthrift Provision. Except as otherwise provided herein, all payments of principal and income payable, or to become payable, to the beneficiary of any trust created hereunder shall not be subject to anticipation, assignment, pledge, sale or transfer in any manner, nor shall any beneficiary have the power to anticipate or encumber such interest, nor shall such interest, while in the possession of the fiduciary hereunder, be liable for, or subject to, the debts, contracts, obligations, liabilities or torts of any beneficiary.

Testimonium Clause. IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Settlor and the Trustee have executed this Trust Agreement.

(INDEX AT REAR OF TRANSCRIPT)

1                               W. STEVEN JOHNSON,
2   being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

3                               EXAMINATION

4   BY MR. GRIFFIN:

5               Q.    Good morning, Mr. Johnson.

6               A.    Good morning.

7               Q.    My name is Jim Griffin.  I represent
8   Julia Brooker in a matter pending in Probate Court
9   regarding interpretation of a trust and application
10  of a trust.  We're here to take your deposition in 11  connection with that proceeding and I appreciate
12  your cooperation being here today.

13              Have you ever given a deposition before?

14              A.    I have.

15              Q.    All right.  So I'm not going to explain
16  what a deposition is to you.  I know you're well
17  aware of it and you're a licensed lawyer.  Under the 18  rules, they do require me to give you, I believe,
19  two instructions and so I'm going to do that.  One
20  is, if during my questioning if what I ask you is 21  unclear to you, then I'm required to tell you to ask
22  me to clarify the question and don't ask your lawyer
23  what's that guy talking about.  Could we do that?

24              A.    Yes.

25              Q.    And then secondly, the rules don't

1 permit off-the-record conversations about your
2 testimony now that you're sworn in and undergoing
3 examination unless it deals with a privilege issue.
4 And I'm supposed to tell you that, too. You
5 understand that?

6 A. I do.

7 MR. GRIFFIN: As to privilege issues,
8 I'm going to mark Petitioner's Exhibit Number 1, an 9 agreement that we've previously entered into in this
10 case that covers by agreement the file that you
11 produced and your testimony here today. And it
12 essentially is an agreement that all parties agree
13 that your act in producing the files that you did is 14 not a waiver of attorney/client or work product
15 privilege and that your testimony here today about 16 your file or any substance of your communications
17 with Ms. Janet Brooker would not be a waiver of that 18 privilege and that no one will use the deposition
19 here today in any further proceedings absent notice
20 to everyone and try to work out that.

21 And I'm going to mark Petitioner's
22 Exhibit Number 1 so we have it in the record.

23 (PET. EXH. 1, Agreement Regarding 24 Privilege, was marked for
25 identification.)

1 MR. GRIFFIN: Then I'm going to mark
2 Petitioner's Exhibit Number 2.

3 (PET. EXH. 2, Letter to Steve Johnson
4 from Jaime Harmon, Dated August 22,
5 2017, With Attachments, was marked for
6 identification.)

7 MS. DuRANT: Thank you.

8 BY MR. GRIFFIN:

9 Q. Mr. Johnson, Petitioner's Exhibit Number
10 2 is a subpoena for documents that we served on you
11 back in the fall. I think it's August something and 12 I just -- what I want to ask you, did you get a copy
13 the subpoena and have you, best of your knowledge,
14 fully complied with that subpoena?

15 A. To the best of my knowledge.

16 Q. Okay. And as part of this Petitioner's
17 Exhibit Number 1, agreement was that that allowed
18 you to produce your entire file without withholding
19 any documents for privilege. And is it your 20 understanding that you have produced your entire 21 file?

22 A. I have.

23 Q. And we have, gosh, over 4,000 documents
24 and so I don't intend to go over any of them. I've 25 copied a few of them here; but what I want to ask

1 you though, structurally, how do you maintain the 2 file here for Ms. Brooker? Do you have a box of 3 hard paper and then computer documents? Just 4 structurally, how is the file maintained?

5 A. I have an estate planning file that was
6 composed primarily of the written materials that I
7 had in connection with doing planning for Mrs.
8 Brooker. And then after her death, I had an estate
9 administration file, where most of the documents
10 that pertained to the administration of the estate
11 were kept.

12 Q. Okay. The estate planning file. Well,
13 first, does that comprise of paper?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Do you also have some component of that 16 that's on a computer server?

17 A. I have some drafts and scanned copies of 18 what she signed electronically saved on the 19 computer.

20 Q. Right. And one of the -- the petition
21 in this case involves a trust, the Janet B. Brooker
22 Trust, and it's dated October 20, 2007. To your 23 knowledge, do you know if you have that document on 24 a word processing software system on your current 25 computers?

1           A.    No.  I just have the original scanned
2 onto my server at the office.

3           Q.    Okay.  And that document has been
4 produced.  Do you still have the software that --
5 well, excuse me.  The Word -- I don't if it was 6 prepared in Word or Word Perfect.  Do you know what
7 processing software your firm used back in 2007?

8           A.    Well, the document was produced by 9 software known as Drafting Wills and Trust
10 Agreements.  And it asks you relevant questions and 11 then you answer the questions and then it produces a
12 document for you.  And I always had it produced in 13 Word.  And after it was produced in Word, I would 14 save that document to my -- to my server and I would 15 make modifications to that document on the server as 16 I needed to.

17          Q.    And thank you.  And my question really,
18 now that we've narrowed it down, is is that final
19 document still residing somewhere on your computer?

20          A.    Just a hard copy of it.  Just a copy of
21 it.

22          Q.    But not the Word version?

23          A.    Not the Word version.

24          Q.    Okay.  What happened to the Word
25 version?

1           A.    Jim, you know, let me go back.  I think
2 maybe the Word version is still on the -- on the
3 server.  So I think a scanned copy and the Word
4 version is still on the server.

5           Q.    Would you please not -- if it's there,
6 will you please not erase it?

7           A.    Sure.

8           Q.    So I can talk to your lawyer because --

9           A.    Sure.

10          Q.    And the next question is, you mentioned
11 you made modifications to the document.  And do you
12 recall what modifications were made once it was 13 exported to Word?

14          A.    Well, once you -- you get it in Word,
15 then I proofread it, you know.  And it never is -- 16 it never is a perfect document when you get it from 17 the software, so I go back and make the changes in 18 Word.  I would go back and make the changes in Word.

19          Q.    Okay.  And the reason I'm asking you not 20 to delete that, people who know a lot more about
21 this than I do may be able to go and see a history
22 of changes that were made from the document that 23 currently resides.

24          A.    All right.

25          Q.    I have no idea.

1 A. Right.

2 Q. But people charge me a lot of money
3 because they say they can do that.

4 A. Right.

5 Q. The file that I've looked through, it
6 did not appear that there were various drafts that
7 were printed out and saved to the file. Do you
8 recall whether you did that?

9 A. When I got the document from the 10 software, I would make the modifications. I would 11 make the modifications to the document in the 12 software. So, you know, there was only one draft.
13 And I would make -- I would make changes and save
14 the changes, so there's only -- there's only one
15 Word document.

16 Q. Right. Some firms, lawyers, they keep 17 on their system Version 1, Version 2, Version 3 as 18 the document changes with the different
19 modifications. Did you do that for this trust
20 agreement that we're talking about?

21 A. No.

22 MR. GRIFFIN: Okay. I'm going to mark
23 the agreement Petitioner's Exhibit 3. Let me mark
24 that Number 3.

25 (PET. EXH. 3, Last Will and Testament of

1 Janet B. Brooker and Trust Agreement,
2 was marked for identification.)

3 BY MR. GRIFFIN:

4 Q. Mr. Johnson, I'll show you what I've 5 marked as Petitioner's Exhibit 3, which is really
6 two documents. One is the Last Will and Testament
7 and then attached to that is the Janet B. Brooker
8 Trust. Do you recognize these documents?

9 A. I do.

10 Q. Okay. Did you prepare these documents?

11 A. I did.

12 Q. And on Page 3 of the trust document,
13 which is under Article V, Section 2, there's a
14 provision entitled equalization distribution to 15 settlor's daughter, Julia B. Brooker. Did you
16 prepare that paragraph?

17 A. I did.

18 Q. Okay. The software that you mentioned
19 that produces wills and trusts after you insert the 20 data, does it contain a template for equalization
21 distribution?

22 A. No.

23 Q. So Paragraph 2 here on Page 3, was it
24 generated as a result of any template that you have?

25 A. No.

1 Q. Had you previously ever drafted an
2 equalization distribution paragraph in a trust?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. Okay. Had you ever done one for Ms.
5 Brooker?

6 A. No.

7 Q. What do you recall about any discussions
8 you had specifically with Ms. Brooker about this 9 provision? When I say Ms. Brooker, I'm speaking of
10 Janet B. Brooker.

11 A. In September of 2007, I believe that 12 Mrs. Brooker's son came to me, Beach, and there was 13 a -- there was heightened awareness of a need to 14 make gifts on behalf of Mrs. Brooker to lessen the 15 amount of estate taxes that she might have to --
16 have to pay.

17 And there was subsequently -- according
18 to my time sheets, there was subsequently a meeting
19 at the end of September. I think it was September
20 the 25th, where I met with the -- time sheets say I
21 met with the family. So the family to me could have 22 meant all or part of the family; but at that time, I
23 remember discussing the need to make gifts, to 24 accelerate the gifts.

25 And I said to Janet, I said, Janet, you

1 know you can make gifts. You can make gifts of 2 course to children. You've made them in the past.
3 You can make gifts to grandchildren and you can make
4 gifts to spouses of children. And her comment to me
5 at that particular point in time was that, if I make
6 gifts -- if I make gifts to Dino and to Ellen's --
7 excuse me, Beach's wife, that that will disadvantage
8 Julie. She said, that will disadvantage Julie.

9           And I said to her at that time, well, if 10 you decide to go ahead and make those gifts, you can
11 put a provision in the document that at your death
12 will catch the -- will catch Julie up for the gifts
13 going forward that have been made to the spouses of 14 children. Also, we talked about accelerating the 15 pace of the gifts to the children through what's 16 known as a 529 account.

17           Q. The grandchildren?

18           A. The grandchildren. Excuse me.

19           Q. Right.

20           A. The grandchildren. And so that 21 discussion was part of the general discussion. And 22 Mrs. Brooker, I would say my impression was that she 23 didn't want -- she didn't want Julie to -- she 24 wanted to save the taxes, but she didn't want Julie 25 to suffer as a result of making these prospective

1 gifts that were going to be made.

2 Q. Petitioner's Exhibit 3, under Article V,
3 Subparagraph 2, the paragraph reads that -- it says
4 the settlor. The settlor would be Ms. Janet
5 Brooker; correct?

6 A. Correct.

7 Q. Has previously made lifetime gifts and 8 intends to continue such gifting program until the 9 date of settlor's death to the settlor's children.
10 Children here would be Beach, Julia and Ellen;
11 correct?

12 A. Correct.

13 Q. The settlor's issue and spouses. So
14 settlor's issue would be the same as settlor's
15 children?

16 A. Issue is a multigenerational term, which 17 could have included children, grandchildren, or 18 great grandchildren.

19 Q. So issue here includes the 20 grandchildren?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And were you aware in September of 2007
23 that Ms. Janet Brooker had been gifting to the 24 grandchildren?

25 A. I was.

1 Q. I think they had trusts set up for each
2 one?

3 A. They did.

4 Q. And spouses of the settlor's children is
5 what it reads. Okay. In your conversation, did Ms.
6 Janet Brooker express any concern about Julia being 7 disadvantaged because of the gifting to the 8 grandchildren?

9 A. No.

10 Q. So it was the disadvantage resulting 11 from gifting to the spouses of her issue, her
12 children?

13 A. That was her major concern.

14 Q. To your knowledge, had there been gifts
15 to Dino and Beth, the --

16 A. I didn't know at that time; but in going 17 back and looking through the file, it appears that 18 no -- no gifts were made to Dino and to Beth up
19 until 2007.

20 Q. And you said going back and looking at 21 the file. What are you looking at in the file that 22 makes you say that?

23 A. Gift tax returns.

24 Q. Now, have you looked at all the gift tax
25 returns that were filed?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. And you're aware there's significant
3 years where there are no gift tax returns filed?

4 A. There were significant years where no
5 gift tax returns were filed.

6 Q. And a gift tax return not necessarily 7 needs to be filed unless gifts were made over the 8 exclusion amount?

9 A. That's correct.

10 Q. Okay. So it's possible that Ms. Janet
11 Brooker could have gifted sums less than the annual 12 exclusion amount to Dino and Beth and it wouldn't 13 show up on a gift tax?

14 A. That's possible.

15 Q. You mentioned your bills and I have and 16 I plan to go over some of those with you. Let me
17 ask you if you don't mind. You said you looked at 18 your bills. Are there any other documents that you 19 looked at that refreshed your recollection of 20 events?

21 A. Yeah. I looked at my notes.
22 Unfortunately, on my notes, I didn't have dates on 23 my notes. So my primary source of information were 24 my bills.

25 Q. Okay. And I've got some of your notes,

1 too, and I noticed there weren't dates on those as
2 well.

3 A. Right.

4 Q. Did you see in any of your notes where
5 you made entries from your conversations with Ms.
6 Janet Brooker about her concern that it would be
7 unfair to Julia if she gave gifts to Dino and Beth?

8 A. I didn't see that specific reference;
9 but I did see a specific reference to equalization,
10 which meant to me, don't let Julie be disadvantaged
11 because gifts have been made to in-laws.

12 MR. GRIFFIN: Okay. I'm going to start
13 with Petitioner's Exhibit 4, I believe.

14 (PET. EXH. 4, Todd & Johnson, L.L.P.
15 Invoice Dated February 1, 2007 To Janet
16 B. Brooker, Bates Stamped T&J 02397, was
17 marked for identification.)

18 BY MR. GRIFFIN:

19 Q. Do you recognize Petitioner's Exhibit 4?

20 A. I do.

21 Q. And what is it?

22 A. It's a bill that was sent to Mrs.
23 Brooker.

24 Q. And what's the date?

25 A. The date is February the 1st, 2007.

1 Q. Okay. And it references -- well, you
2 have two entries. One January 17, 2007 and one
3 January 19, 2007; is that correct?

4 A. That's correct.

5 Q. And the 19th entry says, to client's
6 house to have health care power of attorney signed.
7 Do you recall performing this service?

8 A. I do.

9 Q. And tell me first, had Ms. Brooker had a
10 health care power of attorney up until that date to 11 your knowledge?

12 A. I don't believe she'd had one previously
13 and I think that was the reason that I went out to 14 her house, because Beach had called me and said Mom
15 doesn't have a health care power of attorney. And I
16 think I prepared one and went to her house to get it
17 signed.

18 Q. Was there a concern about her declining
19 health in January 2007 that prompted the execution
20 of the health care power of attorney?

21 A. No.

22 Q. When you met with her -- did you meet
23 with her personally?

24 A. I did.

25 Q. And how was her health?

1           A.    Fine.  She was -- you know, she was an
2  elderly lady at that time; but certainly conversant
3  and, you know, capable of understanding what she was 4  signing.

5           Q.    And the first entry, it says telephone
6  conversation with Beach Brooker.  And then it says
7  telephone conversation with Janet and Beach.  Did
8  Beach call you first?

9           A.    I don't remember.

10          Q.    Okay.  Does it appear to you from your 11  time entry that that would be the sequence of 12  events?

13          A.    I don't -- I couldn't say yes or no to 14  that.

15                MR. GRIFFIN:  Okay.  Show you what's 16  Petitioner's --

17                THE COURT REPORT:  Number 5.

18                MR. GRIFFIN:  -- 5.

19                (PET. EXH. 5, Todd & Johnson, L.L.P.
20                Telephone Conference Notes by Barbara
21                Hammond, Dated September 27, 2007, Bates
22                Stamped T&J_02906, was marked for
23                identification.)

24  BY MR. GRIFFIN:

25          Q.    Mr. Johnson, show you what we've marked

1 as Petitioner's Exhibit 5 and this was a document
2 that was produced to us.

3 A. (Reviewing.)

4 Q. Do you recognize this document?

5 A. I do.

6 Q. Okay. And at the top, it says telephone
7 conference notes of Barbara Hammond. Who is Barbara
8 Hammond?

9 A. She's a receptionist at my office.

10 Q. And this document, this is her normal
11 practice to maintain messages received by clients or 12 just people calling in when they leave a message, to 13 do it on this type of form?

14 A. Sometimes.

15 Q. Sometimes? Okay. Was this a message
16 for you to your knowledge?

17 A. Yes, it was a message to me. I was out
18 of town and Barbara sent me this message.

19 Q. Okay. And it says, Steve, Dino
20 Corontzes called and asked if he could have a copy
21 of Janet Brooker's power of attorney. I called Ms.
22 Brooker to see if this was all right and she said
23 she didn't know what he would want it for and she 24 called Dino. Dino then called me back and said that 25 she got very confused and didn't answer him. He

1 said that I should not have called her and to please
2 not call her again and that I should have just
3 called Beach and talked to him directly. I told him
4 I would wait until you returned on Monday.

5 Do you remember this event?

6 A. I do.

7 Q. What do you remember about it?

8 A. Exactly what's reported here, that. . .

9 Q. Did it strike you as odd that Ms.
10 Brooker -- that Ms. Brooker didn't want -- well, it
11 says, I called Ms. Brooker to see if this was all 12 right and she said she didn't know what he would 13 want it for and she called Dino. I mean, did any of 14 this struck you as odd?

15 A. No.

16 Q. Okay. When you would deal with issues
17 pertaining to Ms. Janet Brooker, did you speak with 18 Beach about those?

19 A. Beach had his mom's power of attorney,
20 so I felt comfortable in speaking with Beach about 21 Mrs. Brooker's business.

22 Q. Did he have power of attorney in 23 September 2007 to your knowledge?

24 A. No. The power of attorney was not
25 executed -- the power of attorney I did was not

1 executed until the time the trust agreement was
2 signed, which was October the 16th of '07, so. . .

3 Q. Right. Okay. Did you have a
4 conversation with Dino about his request for health
5 care power of attorney? I'm sorry, it's just power
6 of attorney. A copy of Janet Brooker's power of 7 attorney?

8 A. I subsequently provided Dino with a
9 power of attorney because he had accounts at 10 Stephens for Mrs. Brooker and he needed the power of 11 attorney for the -- for his back office at Stephens.

12 Q. Do you recall who had the power of 13 attorney or who was appointed under this power of 14 attorney in September 2007?

15 A. Beach was primary. Julie was alternate
16 and Ellen was second alternate.

17 MR. GRIFFIN: Okay. Six?

18 THE COURT REPORTER: Yes.

19 (PET. EXH. 6, Todd & Johnson, L.L.P.

20 Invoice Dated October 3, 2007 To Janet

21 B. Brooker, Bates Stamped T&J 02395, was
22 marked for identification.)

23 MS. DuRANT: Thank you.

24 BY MR. GRIFFIN:

25 Q. Show you Petitioner's Exhibit 6. Is

1 this an invoice from your firm?

2 A. It is.

3 Q. And there's two entries here. One is 4 September 6, 2007 and it appears to be an entry by 5 WSJ. Is that you?

6 A. That's correct.

7 Q. Okay. Says telephone conference with
8 Beach Brooker to discuss his mother's possible
9 gifts. And then there's another entry of 9/25/2007,
10 WSJ again. It says office conference with family to 11 discuss gifts of assets to children. And that entry
12 is -- 1.51 is the hours at a rate of $250 an hour.

13 Is the September 25th meeting the one
14 that you mentioned earlier in your testimony?

15 A. Yeah, I believe it is.

16 Q. And 1.51, is that an hour and a half?

17 A. It is.

18 Q. And it says family and it doesn't say
19 which family members, but do you believe Julie was 20 there?

21 A. I don't know. I don't remember.

22 Q. Okay. But do you remember that Ms.
23 Janet Brooker was there?

24 A. I do remember that Janet was there.

25 Q. Do you remember if Beach was there?

1           A.    Jim, I can't say for certain that Beach
2 was there with certainty.

3           Q.    Sure. Do you remember if Ellen was
4 there?

5           A.    Again, I can't say with certainty.

6           Q.    Can you remember any other family
7 members besides Ms. Janet Brooker being at this
8 meeting on September 25, 2007?

9           A.    I only remember Janet because that was 10 the meeting that I talked with Janet about the 11 equalization provision being added to the. . .

12          Q.    Okay.

13                   (PET. EXH. 7, Todd & Johnson, L.L.P.
14 Invoice Dated October 29, 2007 To Janet
15 B. Brooker, Bates Stamped T&J_02392, was
16 marked for identification.)

17                   THE COURT REPORTER: Number 7.

18 BY MR. GRIFFIN:

19          Q.    Mr. Johnson, I show you another bill
20 we've marked Petitioner's Exhibit Number 7. This is 21 another invoice from your firm?

22          A.    That's correct.

23          Q.    To Ms. Janet Brooker; correct?

24          A.    Correct.

25          Q.    Does it record services rendered during

1 the month of October 2007?

2 A. It does.

3 Q. Okay. And again October 1, 2007,
4 there's an entry with -- it says telephone
5 conference with client's son and son-in-law. Who is 6 the son here?

7 A. Beach.

8 Q. Okay. And the son-in-law would be?

9 A. Dino.

10 Q. Dino? And there's another entry for 11 CKO. Who is CKO?

12 A. Paralegal.

13 Q. And what's his or her name?

14 A. Cindy Owen.

15 Q. She still work with you?

16 A. She does.

17 Q. Okay. And then October 4 entry with 18 WSJ, telephone conference, Bill Sellars. Do you
19 remember what that conference was about?

20 A. I don't.

21 Q. Then the next entry is October 20 --
22 excuse me, October 15, 2007, an entry from WSJ. It
23 says, preparation of client's revocable trust and 24 pour over will. Now, that entry, does that 25 reference the document that we have marked as

1 Petitioner's Exhibit Number 3, although it obviously
2 was a first draft or some iteration of this
3 document? Is that what this entry is for?

4 A. That's correct.

5 Q. And then here again it says telephone
6 conference with client's son. Did you speak with 7 Beach at the time you were preparing the will and
8 trust?

9 A. We undoubtedly had a conversation
10 sometime that day while I was working on the
11 document.

12 Q. Do you know if you spoke with Beach
13 about the equalization provision in the trust?

14 A. I don't.

15 Q. You don't know one way or the other?

16 A. I don't know.

17 Q. Okay. Then the next entry is 18 interoffice conference with Steve Johnson to discuss
19 equalization provision. Proof, revise and edit
20 same. And the initials for that is BR. Who is 21 that?

22 A. Bill Reynolds.

23 Q. And who is Bill Reynolds?

24 A. He is my partner.

25 Q. Is he currently your partner?

1 A. He is.

2 Q. And do you recall what this entry is
3 documenting or what did you do?

4 A. Yes. I walked into Bill's office, gave
5 Bill a copy of the equalization provision and said
6 to Bill, will you review this for me. Just for a
7 second set of eyes.

8 Q. Okay. To your knowledge, did he make
9 any changes to it?

10 A. It says proof, revise and edit the same,
11 so I would assume he gave me some suggestions.

12 Q. And then on the 16th, there's an entry
13 from you, WSJ. It says revisions made to client's
14 estate planning documents. The estate planning
15 documents referenced in this entry, would that 16 include the Last Will and Testament of Janet B.
17 Brooker and the Janet B. Brooker Trust that are in 18 Exhibit 3?

19 A. It would.

20 Q. Okay. Were there other estate planning
21 documents?

22 A. The general durable power of attorney.

23 Q. Okay. And then it says office
24 conference with client to sign her estate planning
25 documents. And the client here would Ms. Brooker?

1           A.    That's correct.

2           Q.    And do you have an independent
3 recollection of this meeting?

4           A.    Jim, I can't say that I remember the 5 meeting, other than to get her into the office to 6 sign the documents.

7           Q.    Okay. Do you know if she came with 8 anyone?

9           A.    I don't.

10          Q.    Do you know whether before October 16,
11 2007 she had received a draft of the will and trust?

12          A.    I don't think she had.

13          Q.    Do you recall whether you explained it
14 to her or not?

15          A.    I do.

16          Q.    What do you recall doing?

17          A.    I recall saying to her, we're going from 18 a straight will, which she had from 1988, to a will 19 and revocable trust. And I remember discussing with 20 her that we would be funding the trust. I remember
21 discussing the equalization provision with her and I
22 remember telling her that her estate, as far as 23 Julie was concerned, would go outright to Julie; but 24 the portion of her estate that would go to Ellen and 25 to Beach would go to them in the form of a trust.

1 Q. Do you recall any questions that she had
2 of you about the equalization provision?

3 A. I don't.

4 Q. When you spoke with her, did you use the 5 phrase lifetime gifts?

6 A. I don't know.

7 Q. Do you know whether you explained to her
8 that there could be a difference in lifetime gifts?
9 I mean, gifts given prior to the date of the 10 execution of the trust versus gifts given after the 11 entry of the trust?

12 A. The whole conversation with Janet was 13 about prospective gifts, not retrospective gifts.

14 Q. Okay.

15 A. It was going forward, not looking back.

16 Q. Is there language in the trust agreement
17 that references past gifts?

18 A. No.

19 Q. Okay. If you'll look at Page 3 of the 20 trust.

21 A. (Complying.)

22 Q. And under Paragraph 2, says the settlor
23 has previously made lifetime gifts and continues --
24 and intends to continue such gifting program until 25 the date of settlor's death. When there's reference

1 here to previously made lifetime gifts, isn't that
2 referencing gifts that had been made before the
3 execution of this trust?

4 A. Yes, but that was -- that was qualified
5 by Paragraph (a), which says from the date of this 6 trust forward. You have to read the four corners of 7 Paragraph 2 and it says from the date of the trust
8 forward looking at the lifetime gifts.

9 Q. The trustee shall determine the date and 10 amount of any lifetime gifts?

11 A. From the date of the trust.

12 Q. Okay. And we can quarrel -- and I don't
13 want to quarrel with you, Mr. Johnson; but is there
14 room to read this to say that, from the date of the 15 trust forward, the trustee will make that 16 determination as to what the lifetime gifts are and 17 have been?

18 A. No.

19 MS. DuRANT: Object to the form.

20 BY MR. GRIFFIN:

21 Q. Okay. So let's go from this, from the 22 date of this trust forward, the trustee shall 23 determine the amount and any lifetime gifts made by 24 the settlor to the issue of Ellen Corontzes. The 25 issue of Ellen Corontzes would be her children?

1 A. Correct.

2 Q. Ms. Corontzes' children?

3 A. Correct.

4 Q. And Beach Brooker, Jr. and that would be
5 his children?

6 A. Correct.

7 Q. And the spouses of Ellen and Beach.
8 That would be -- I think her name is Beth or 9 Elizabeth and Dino; correct?

10 A. Correct.

11 Q. Okay. So according to this document,
12 the trustee being Beach Brooker; correct?

13 A. Correct.

14 Q. Is to make a determination from the date
15 and the amount of any -- from this trust forward,
16 shall determine the date and amount of any lifetime
17 gifts; right?

18 A. Correct.

19 Q. Now, is there any qualification on what 20 type of gift? I mean, is lifetime gifts defined to 21 mean, you know, annual 10,000, more than 5,000 or 22 would it include Christmas presents and birthday
23 presents?

24 A. It could have.

25 Q. Was that clarified?

1           A.    No.

2           Q.    Okay.  But it's clear that the trustee
3 is to make a determination of the lifetime gifts
4 made to Ellen's children, Beach's children and Beth 5 and Dino?

6           A.    From the date of the trust forward.

7           Q.    Okay.  And then from -- and then from 8 those amounts under Paragraph (b) it says, to such 9 amounts specified above from the date of such gift
10 an interest rate of five percent shall be applied to 11 the amount of such gift, which interest rate shall 12 continue until this distribution is satisfied and 13 which rate shall not compound.

14                    Can you explain what that means to me,
15 please?

16           A.    I didn't think it was fair for the gift 17 to be made and for Julie not to receive some 18 appreciation on that.  So I built into the trust
19 agreement that she would receive an equalizing
20 distribution, plus she would be entitled to five 21 percent because she essentially was losing the 22 money.  So that was my way of saying let's kept 23 Julie equal with what the other grandchildren and 24 spouses of children have received.  I thought that 25 was the fair way to do it.

1 Q. Okay. So under Paragraph (a) for
2 example, just follow me on a hypothetical. If in 3 2010, Ms. Janet Brooker gave cumulatively between 4 the four grandchildren and the two spouses,
5 cumulative for those six individuals, round number
6 $100,000 in 2010.

7 A. Each one got --

8 Q. No. Cumulative they all got $100,000,
9 you know, gross between all six of them. So would
10 the total gifts for that year under my hypothetical
11 be $100,000?

12 A. Correct.

13 Q. And then compounding interest at five
14 percent a year would be 5,000?

15 A. Not compounding.

16 Q. I'm sorry. Non-compound. So straight
17 interest would be 5,000 a year?

18 A. Right.

19 Q. And it says until the distribution is 20 satisfied, but let's just make it simple and say
21 five years under my hypothetical. That'd be five
22 years of interest at $25,000?

23 A. That's correct if the math is correct.

24 Q. Yes. Right.

25 A. Okay.

1 Q. And that's a leap of faith. I
2 appreciate that. So then the total under -- if my
3 math is correct, would be $125,000 under this
4 hypothetical; correct? And that would be -- if 5 there's nothing else that happened, then that would
6 be Ms. Julia Brooker's equalized distribution?

7 A. You have to divided that by two to keep
8 her equal with -- I mean, if Ellen got half of that 9 money -- Ellen's family got half of that money and 10 Beach's family got half of that money, of that 11 $125,000, then to keep Julie equal with them, she 12 would get half that figure.

13 Q. Is that what Subparagraph (b) says?

14 A. That's what it says to me.

15 Q. I'm sorry. What does Subparagraph (c)
16 say?

17 A. The sum of (a) and (b) shall be 18 distributed to the settlor's daughter.

19 Q. Under my --

20 A. So the equalizing distribution.
21 Equalizing distribution, plus the five percent would 22 be given to Julie.

23 Q. Well, under my hypothetical --

24 A. It wouldn't be -- it wouldn't be 25 equalizing if she got the whole 125,000. She would

1 be that much ahead of the other two because they had
2 to divide it by two in your example.

3 Q. Well, let me read the language here. It
4 says the sum of (a) and (b) above shall be
5 distributed to the settlor's daughter. So if we
6 apply the sum of (a) and (b) in my hypothetical,
7 would you agree you'd get $125,000 to Julia?

8 A. No. She'd get half that figure.

9 Q. All right. So the sum of (a) in my 10 hypothetical is $100,000 to all six.

11 A. But the intent is to keep her equal with 12 the others.

13 Q. Okay.

14 A. Not for her to get ahead, but to keep
15 her equal.

16 Q. Well, are you aware that the gift tax
17 returns show that Ms. Janet Brooker gifted over 18 $400,000 to Beach and Ellen's children up until 19 October 2007?

20 A. I'm not sure about your math, but I
21 reviewed the gift tax returns and I know significant 22 gifts were made to the spouses and to the
23 grandchildren.

24 Q. Right. Well, can you point to any 25 language in (a), (b) or (c) that says you divide (a)

1 in half before you distribute it under (c)?

2 A. Jim, if you -- if you read the four
3 corners of Paragraph 2, it intends to keep Julie
4 equal with what Beach got and what Ellen got, but 5 not to get her ahead. It says an equal. Equal
6 means equal to me.

7 Q. And under your analysis, Julia gets
8 ahead if you only consider the gifts given after 9 October 2008 -- 2007, I'm sorry?

10 A. Under the example you gave me, if you
11 don't divide it by two, Julie would get ahead,
12 because she would get 100,000. Okay? Or 125,000.
13 And then Ellen and Beach would have to split
14 125,000. So under your scenario, she would get 15 ahead.

16 Q. Well, let me throw up one more
17 hypothetical in there. What if in Year 2005, Ms.
18 Brooker gave those same six individuals cumulative
19 $200,000?

20 A. Well, the equalization only took place
21 from 2007 forward.

22 Q. Right. And that's to my point. Under
23 your analysis, Julia only gets ahead if you ignore
24 what happens before 2007; correct?

25 MS. DuRANT: Object to the form.

1                   THE WITNESS: In 2007, she was -- she
2 was directed to be made whole for the gifts. There
3 was no discussion -- there was no discussion of 4 2005. There was no discussion of 2004. If there
5 had been discussion of prior gifts, under the theory
6 of accelerated gifts in 2007, I would have said,
7 Janet, catch Julie up right this minute.

8 BY MR. GRIFFIN:

9                   Q. And what would have happened had she 10 caught Julie up right that minute? Would there have 11 been tax consequences?

12                  A. Yeah, but that would have actually been 13 good. Been good for the family because you take the 14 gift tax out of the equation, so that would have 15 been good. There was a taxable gift made in 2008
16 and there was actually some gift tax paid. So to 17 make the gift and to generate the tax is not a bad
18 idea.

19                  Q. There would have been tax consequences
20 if Ms. Brooker had gifted Julie $200,000 in --

21                  A. I'd have to go back and look and see 22 where they were on the gift tax returns relative to 23 how much credit was left to be applied against gift
24 tax before I could really answer that question.

25                  Q. But it --

1           A.   Likely -- you're likely correct.  You're 2 likely correct.  There would have been some gift tax
3 due at that time.

4           Q.   And if there would have been gift tax
5 due at that time under this, you know, under this
6 assumption, then there would have been gift tax due
7 from every gift going forward?

8           A.   No.  That's not correct.

9           Q.   If it was above the exclusionary limits?

10          A.   Yeah.  But the exclusion kept going up.
11 It kept being a moving target.  It went from 625 to 12 650 to a million to a million five to two million to 13 three million.  And it actually even went away in a
14 year and then it came back at higher levels.  So the 15 exemption was a moving target.

16          Q.   It moved in the future; but at the time,
17 you didn't know it was going to move?  In 2007, you
18 didn't predict it was going to go up?

19          A.   I'm not sure that I know the answer to 20 that because it might have been built into the 21 statute, where the statute projected what the future
22 amounts were going to be.

23          Q.   Okay.

24          A.   I don't know the answer to your
25 question.

1           Q.   Well, let me see if I can try one more
2 time to address (a), (b) and (c) here.  If you just
3 apply the math of the sum of (a) and (b) above under 4 (c) here, if you just apply the math as it's 5 written.  The sum of (a) and (b) above shall be 6 distributed to the settlor's daughter.  Under my 7 earlier hypothetical, when there's a total of 8 $125,000, then as written she would get $125,000;
9 correct?

10           A.   No.  She'd get half of that number.

11           Q.   And you --

12           A.   Because the equalizing amount would have 13 been half of the figure that went to Beach and 14 Ellen.

15           Q.   So in order to make it equal, (c) should 16 have read the sum of (a) and (b) divided by two?

17           A.   Not necessarily, because I didn't know
18 if the gifts were going to be made equal or unequal.
19 In other words, you know, Beach's side of the family
20 could have gotten 100,000 and Ellen's could have 21 gotten zero.  Under my theory, in that case, to keep
22 Julie equal, she would have gotten $100,000.

23           Q.   Then Ellen gets shortchanged?

24           A.   She would have.  I didn't equalize to 25 Ellen.  I equalized to Julie.

1 Q. Okay. Or you could -- or depending on
2 how things occurred, I mean, Beach could have been
3 shortchanged if Ellen had gotten more than Beach,
4 her family; correct?

5 A. That's correct.

6 Q. But as you explained the
7 disproportionate hypothetical, disproportionate
8 gifts to Beach versus Ellen, as I understood what 9 you just said is you would take the higher amount.
10 Say Beach gets 200,000, Ellen gets 150,000, you
11 would take Beach's 200,000 and then equalize that?

12 A. I think under that scenario, she would 13 get the higher amount.

14 Q. Okay. And if you did that, then Ellen 15 is getting it twice?

16 A. She would have been disadvantaged.

17 Q. Two times?

18 A. I don't understand your question.

19 Q. Well, she's getting the equivalent of 20 Beach and so Ellen is --

21 A. She would -- she would only get one
22 gift.

23 Q. Right.

24 A. Julie would only get one gift of what
25 was given to Beach.

1 Q. But if you average what Beach and Ellen
2 got, then. . .

3 A. I didn't address that.

4 Q. Right.

5 A. I didn't address that.

6 Q. And you didn't address that, dividing
7 (a) and (b) by two here, did you?

8 A. No, but I don't think that was 9 necessary.

10 Q. Okay.

11 MR. SALANE: Can we take a break to feed
12 the parking meters?

13 MR. GRIFFIN: Oh, absolutely. Sorry.

14 (A recess transpired.)

15 BY MR. GRIFFIN:

16 Q. Thank you, Mr. Johnson. Two more
17 questions on this trust agreement. The first 18 sentence under Article V, Paragraph 2 on Page 3 of 19 the agreement, trust agreement.

20 A. (Complying.)

21 MR. SALANE: I'm sorry. What page?

22 MR. GRIFFIN: Page 3 of the trust
23 agreement, Subparagraph 2, which is Article V,
24 Subparagraph 2.

25 Q. The first sentence says the settlor has

1 previously made lifetime gifts and intends to
2 continue such gifting program until the date of
3 settlor's death. My question is, for what purpose
4 did you include this sentence and the reference to 5 prior lifetime gifts and continue such gifting
6 program?

7 A. Just to give some history.

8 Q. Okay. And then the history is -- well,
9 your testimony earlier was that Ms. Janet Brooker
10 was concerned about disproportionate gifts to the 11 spouses of Beach and Ellen and that since Julie
12 didn't have a spouse that'd be not fair to her. Why
13 are the grandchildren included in the equalization
14 provisions here?

15 A. Because there was going to be
16 accelerated gifts made to the grandchildren by way
17 of the 529 accounts.

18 Q. Okay.

19 A. You could -- under 529, you could make a
20 $60,000 gift per grandchild. And she recognized
21 again that that was -- accelerated gifts like that 22 were disadvantageous to Julie and she wanted to make 23 sure that Julie was adequately provided for.

24 MR. GRIFFIN: Okay. I don't know what 25 number we're on.

1 THE COURT REPORTER: Eight.
2 (PET. EXH. 8, Todd & Johnson, L.L.P.
3 Revised Invoice Dated November 5, 2007
4 To Janet B. Brooker, Bates Stamped
5 T&J_02388 and 02389, was marked for
6 identification.)

7 BY MR. GRIFFIN:

8 Q. Let me show you Exhibit 8 and, at the 9 top, it says revised invoice. It's for the same
10 period of time as Exhibit 7, I believe. Do you
11 recognize this document? Do you have 7 in front of 12 you or did it get lost?

13 A. This is Number 8. I don't have 7.
14 Where is 7? Oh, here it is. Excuse me. Excuse me.
15 (Reviewing.) Okay.

16 Q. It appears that Exhibit 8 is a revised 17 invoice for the month of October and there's just 18 additional work that was not included in 7; is that
19 correct?

20 A. It appears that Bill Reynolds' time was 21 left off, the 10/31 time. It appears that Bill
22 Reynolds' time was left off. We were -- we were 23 working on a trust for Mrs. Brooker, where she gave 24 away or was to give away her house to the children.
25 And so that appears to me to be the revision.

1 Q. All right. Thanks.

2 (PET. EXH. 9, Todd & Johnson, L.L.P.
3 Invoice Dated January 4, 2008 To Janet
4 B. Brooker, Bates Stamped T&J_02380, was
5 marked for identification.)

6 BY MR. GRIFFIN:

7 Q. And show you Exhibit 9. If you could
8 identify that for the record, please.

9 A. It is an invoice dated January of '08
10 that includes December time.

11 Q. Okay. And here there's CKO. That's 12 your paralegal again?

13 A. It is.

14 Q. And does this deal exclusively with this 15 qualified property trust or whatever it's called?

16 A. There were two things that were going
17 on. We were going to make the gift of the house to 18 the qualified trust and the lease of the beach
19 house. The condominium at Debidue had come to an 20 end, where the children now owned the property and 21 it was advantageous for Mrs. Brooker to lease the 22 condominium back to the children. And you see the 23 reference there of the lease. That was the reason
24 for the lease because the Debidue condominium was 25 leased back to the -- to Mrs. Brooker and she made

1 the lease payments over to the kids. And the kids
2 took the lease payments and paid the expenses of the
3 Debidue condominium. Actually, from a tax
4 standpoint, it was a very good thing for that to 5 happen.

6 Q. Now, I want to be sure that there's no
7 misunderstanding. I think everyone believes you did
8 some very fine work when it comes to the Brooker
9 estate and the IRS.

10 The entry on December 6, 2007. There's
11 a reference to office conference with Julie Brooker.
12 I assume that's Julia. Julie, Julia; is that right?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. Do you recall what that was about? Was 15 that about the deed, lease, et cetera?

16 A. Probably both. The qualified trust that 17 going to be created, as well as the -- as well as 18 the lease.

19 MR. GRIFFIN: Okay. Now, I've marked
20 some handwritten notes and frankly -- I guess this
21 will be Number 10.

22 (PET. EXH. 10, Handwritten Notes, Bates
23 Stamped T&J_03003 through 03006, was 24 marked for identification.)

25 BY MR. GRIFFIN:

1 Q. And, Mr. Johnson, look through this
2 because I have to tell you I stapled them together
3 based on they look like similar handwriting; but as
4 you mentioned earlier, there are no dates, so I mean
5 I don't even know if these relate to one another.
6 The way I have organized it was not intended to 7 trick you in any way. I'm just trying to keep
8 things together, but if you could tell us. After 9 you look through those, tell us, first, are these 10 your notes, which ones are your notes, none of them
11 are your notes?

12 A. These are not my notes.

13 Q. None of these are your notes?

14 A. No.

15 Q. Do you know -- do you recognize the 16 handwriting?

17 A. I do.

18 Q. Whose notes are they?

19 A. Artie White.

20 Q. And who is Artie White?

21 A. He was an associate in my firm.

22 Q. Is he no longer with the firm?

23 A. He's of counsel to the firm. He 24 actually lives in Kentucky --

25 Q. Okay.

1 A. -- but he continues to do work for us.

2 Q. Now these -- I just want to mark mine.

3 What exhibit?

4 A. Ten.

5 Q. So it says Livingston at the top. Do
6 you know what that might be referencing?

7 A. I don't.

8 Q. And then underneath that it says, Janet
9 Brooker, I guess that's dementia, 24-hour nurses.
10 Gifting plan/program, look at QPRT or residence to 11 check out the time or something like that. Do you
12 remember whether you had assigned Mr. White to do
13 any work?

14 A. He was doing a family limited
15 partnership in about 2013 --

16 Q. Right.

17 A. -- where Mrs. Brooker contributed the 18 assets to a family limited partnership and the 19 children contributed assets to a family limited
20 partnership and then Mrs. Brooker subsequently gave 21 away her interest to the children in the family
22 limited partnership.

23 Q. Okay. If you'll look at the third page
24 in --

25 A. (Complying.)

1 Q. -- which has a Bates number at the
2 bottom, 3005 and 3006. Are these Mr. White's notes
3 as well or do you know Mr. Reynolds, whose name
4 appears at the top of this document?

5 A. These would be Mr. White's notes.

6 Q. Okay. And there's a date here 11/5/13,
7 so -- okay. Exhibit 11.

8 (PET. EXH. 11, Handwritten Notes, Bates
9 Stamped T&J_02954, 02955, 02969 through
10 02972, was marked for identification.)

11 BY MR. GRIFFIN:

12 Q. So I guess we'll take them one page at a 13 time. The first page, are these -- is this your 14 handwriting?

15 A. Okay. It is.

16 Q. And the second page, is that your
17 handwriting?

18 A. It is.

19 Q. Is the third page your handwriting?

20 A. It is.

21 Q. Is the fourth page your handwriting?

22 A. That's my handwriting.

23 Q. How about the fifth page?

24 A. That is not my handwriting.

25 Q. It says Janet Brooker and maybe Cyndi on

1 the left-hand side of it something. Do you know
2 whose handwriting this is?

3 A. Bill Reynolds.

4 Q. Okay. And then the last page of this
5 exhibit, is --

6 A. That's my handwriting.

7 Q. On the first page of Exhibit 11, Entry
8 Number 1 it says -- maybe I should get you to read
9 that, but it says do codicil. Is that what that is?

10 A. That's correct.

11 Q. With equalization provision. What does 12 that refer to?

13 A. Initially, when I was going to revise 14 Mrs. Brooker's documents in '07, I thought I could 15 do it with a codicil and I actually got the 16 paralegal to come up with a codicil that had 17 language in there. But I didn't like the language
18 and I subsequently decided that we would go from 19 just doing a codicil to a will and a revocable trust
20 to avoid probate. So we -- initially, the paralegal
21 roughed up a codicil for me; but I scrapped it.

22 Q. Okay. Now, I'm definitely outside of my 23 area here.

24 A. Okay.

25 Q. So a codicil is limited to a codicil to

1 a will or codicil to an existing trust or. . .

2 A. In 1988, that was when Mrs. Brooker's
3 last estate planning document that was in effect.
4 And I initially thought I could just do an amendment
5 to that '88 will and so I toyed with doing a codicil
6 with an equalization provision in it; but then
7 subsequently, I went to the -- to doing a new will 8 and a revocable trust.

9 Q. And we've got --

10 A. And there were several reasons for doing
11 that.

12 Q. Well, let me ask you first. We've got 13 4,000-something documents.

14 A. Right.

15 Q. And I didn't come across a codicil, but 16 I can't tell you that I looked at every page twice.

17 A. Right.

18 Q. Do you know whether you produced the 19 draft codicil?

20 A. I don't, but I've looked at it recently.
21 It's on my server.

22 Q. So please don't delete that.

23 A. All right.

24 Q. And do you recall, after looking at it
25 recently, if the language is any different from what

1 you ultimately used in the trust document?

2 A. It was totally different.

3 Q. In what ways?

4 A. It tried to equalize for gifts to all of
5 the children and I was only trying to equalize for 6 Julie.

7 Q. And did you begin work -- well, let me
8 ask you. These notes are not dated, but you believe
9 you started on these notes?

10 A. Well, if you go back and look at my time
11 records, you'll see CKO and she started generating 12 those documents. So she generated drafts of those 13 documents on or about the first of October of '07.

14 Q. So these notes, your work papers would 15 have been generated early October of '07, you think?

16 A. This?

17 Q. Yes, sir.

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Okay. Now, Number 3, it says -- well,
20 Number 2 says annual gifts of 12,000 in '07 and '08.
21 Do you know what that's referring to?

22 A. Just that we were contemplating making,
23 you know, gifts to the spouses.

24 Q. Oh, okay. And then Number 3 says Janet
25 pay -- what does that say?

1 A. Tuition.

2 Q. For tuition. And then it says college
3 and private school?

4 A. Right.

5 Q. It says, being done?

6 A. Right.

7 Q. Is private school referring to K through 8 12?

9 A. Either Hammond or Heathwood. I'm not 10 sure where the kids were going -- the grandchildren
11 were going.

12 Q. And the 529 plan, Entry Number 4, 13 $60,000, that's what -- we talked about that 14 earlier?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. And then Number 5, can you tell me what 17 that is?

18 A. It says FLP, which stands for family
19 limited partnership. So I was trying to throw out
20 as much as I could to get the -- to give the family
21 a buffet on what gifts they could make. And one of 22 those ideas was a family limited partnership, which 23 was not done until 2013 by Artie White. And that's 24 the notes that you were looking at previously.

25 Q. Okay. And does your note read, look

1 into doing? Is that look? Instead of cook, is that
2 look?

3 A. It's look. Look.

4 Q. Then Number 6 says QPRT on house and we
5 talked about that?

6 A. Which was subsequently done at the end
7 of '07.

8 Q. Okay. And Number 7 says 300,000 of the 9 one million exemption. What does that mean if you
10 know?

11 A. I don't know.

12 Q. And then there's some notes about
13 trustee income, five percent of something die. Do
14 you know what your note is referring to there?

15 A. I do. I do. In '07, when we were
16 revising Mrs. Brooker's documents, Julie said I
17 don't want my share of the estate to go into a
18 trust. I want it to go outright. This circle, this 19 diagram represents the benefits that Beach and Ellen 20 would receive through their inheritance going into a
21 trust.

22 Q. I see. And then below that, it says
23 gift something to?

24 A. Not to trust. That was Julie saying I
25 don't want my share of the estate to go into a

1 trust.

2 Q. So that last note gift, it references
3 Julie?

4 A. Right.

5 Q. Does this indicate that Julie was 6 present at maybe the family -- do you know whether
7 this was taken at the family meeting, sometime
8 afterwards?

9 A. I don't know.

10 Q. Okay. Then the next page, it says --
11 there's an arrow and then it says LM 100-plus
12 shares. I take it that's Lockheed Martin. Do you
13 know?

14 A. Probably.

15 Q. Right. And then below that, it says --
16 what's your -- aggressive something?

17 A. Aggressive gifting.

18 Q. And what's that last abbreviation?

19 A. I'm not sure.

20 Q. Okay. Then below that, there's -- is 21 that the word Julie?

22 A. It is.

23 Q. And below that it says equalization
24 clause?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. Okay. Is that the entry in your notes
2 that you mentioned earlier?

3 A. It is.

4 Q. And then below that, it says PRT trust?

5 A. Personal residence trust. That's the 6 gift of her house --

7 Q. Okay.

8 A. -- to a trust.

9 Q. And then Bill Sellars, he's the --

10 A. He was going to do the gift tax returns.

11 Q. Then there's something below Bill
12 Sellars. I can't make that out.

13 A. I can't. I'm not sure what that is.

14 Q. Okay. And then there's an entry that 15 says non-Lockheed Martin. Do you know what that 16 refers to?

17 A. I don't.

18 Q. And then below that, it looks like
19 you're diagramming another something, structure, I
20 take it?

21 A. I'm diagramming there how a family
22 limited partnership would work. Trying to explain
23 how the family limited partnership works and showing
24 a gift of assets or a transfer of assets into a
25 family limited partnership. And see where it says

1 expensive and high profile? I was telling the
2 clients that a family limited partnership was a
3 fairly -- was a fairly expensive transaction from 4 the standpoint of professional fees and that it had
5 a very high profile with the IRS because the IRS
6 really did not like them because the government had 7 been losing a good bit of revenue through the 8 implementation of these family limited partnerships.
9 So I was trying to warn them that it was, Number 1,
10 expensive and, Number 2, was a fairly high profile
11 thing to do.

12 Q. So do you believe that these notes at 13 the bottom, that this was a diagram that you made
14 and showed to somebody in a meeting?

15 A. I would say yes. That it was my attempt 16 to explain to the family how a family limited
17 partnership worked.

18 Q. Do you have any recollection who was 19 participating in the meeting?

20 A. Jim, I don't.

21 Q. Okay. And then the next entry -- I
22 mean, the next page says, Word Perfect, Janet 23 Brooker, print out and book. Do you know what that
24 means?

25 A. Yeah. That would have been the general

1 durable power of attorney.

2 Q. I see. I mean, you've got Word Perfect
3 down here; but then right below HPCOA, I guess
4 that's health care power of attorney information
5 entry, there's Brooker - L.W. Do you know what that
6 means?

7 A. Living well.

8 Q. And then below that, it says do
9 assignment of P&H something. What is that?

10 A. Once you form the trust agreement, you
11 assign personal and household effects over into the 12 trust to avoid probate.

13 Q. Okay. So then the next page looks like
14 another diagram of a structure. Can you tell me
15 what this is?

16 A. This is a diagram that attempts to 17 explain how a generation-skipping trust would work.
18 Money would be placed into a trust. The 19 beneficiaries of the trust would receive a stipend
20 from the trust for the rest of their life and, on 21 their death -- on the children's death, it would 22 drop down to the grandchildren.

23 This circle right below that is my 24 attempt to explain how a charitable remainder trust
25 works.

1 Q. Okay. And then we'll skip over Mr.
2 Reynolds' notes and go to the last page of Exhibit
3 11.

4 A. (Complying.)

5 Q. I think you said these were your notes?

6 A. They are.

7 Q. Do you know what these are -- well,
8 that's Barbara Howell. Do you know who that is?

9 A. I think that's another client.

10 Q. Unrelated? Okay.

11 A. Unrelated.

12 Q. There's an entry for Janet Brooker, says
13 Janet, 695,000 of her one million exclusion. Bill
14 Sellars. Do you know what that refers to?

15 A. I think that's a reference to the fact
16 that Janet has used up 695,000 of her one million
17 dollar exclusion.

18 Q. Okay. The entry at bottom, reference to 19 John Timmerman, Sr. Is that an unrelated matter?

20 A. That's an unrelated matter.

21 (PET. EXH. 12, E-mail Chain from David
22 Siddons to W. Steve Johnson, Bates
23 Stamped T&J_03177, was marked for
24 identification.)

25 THE COURT REPORTER: Twelve.

1 BY MR. GRIFFIN:

2 Q. Mr. Johnson, I'm going to show you
3 another document that was produced, Exhibit 12. It
4 appears to be an e-mail communication between you
5 and David Siddons?

6 A. Correct.

7 Q. Okay. And Mr. Siddons was representing
8 Julia in connection with the estate issues?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. And your e-mail at the bottom says,
11 David, attached are statements of Ms. Brooker's
12 brokerage accounts at Stephens Securities beginning
13 in 2011. These accounts should provide
14 documentation for the gifts from 2011 through 2015.
15 Speaking of 2015, the figures previously furnished
16 to you by me do not include the gifts made in 2015,
17 so the figures previously provided to you will have 18 to be adjusted upwards to reflect such gifts. And 19 then it goes on to talk about documentation and 20 firms.

21 What I want to ask you is, where were 22 you getting the information for gifts? I guess the 23 lifetime gifts. Who was providing that to you?

24 A. I was requesting the information from 25 Beach. My impression is that the information was

1 coming from Dino Corontzes.

2 Q. Okay. And the information you were
3 getting, I guess you had available to you the -- is 4 it 709 or 706, the gift tax return?

5 A. Well, I had those available to me; but
6 they had given me a handwritten list of the gifts
7 that were made from '07 forward. I mean, they 8 provided -- they provided me with the list of the 9 information. I wasn't pulling the information off a
10 statement. That information was being given to me
11 by Beach. And I think Beach had gotten the 12 information from Dino as to the amount of the annual 13 gifts.

14 Q. Okay. And do you know whether or not
15 college tuition was included in the information you
16 were provided by Beach?

17 A. The last figure that I gave to David
18 Siddons had an entry for tuition. It didn't
19 initially. When I initially gave David the figures,
20 it did not have that entry. It subsequently
21 included tuition paid in 2007.

22 Q. That was the contribution to the 529
23 plan?

24 A. No. That was in addition to the 25 contributions made to the 529 plan.

1 Q. Were there any tuition payments included
2 after '07 to your knowledge?

3 A. No, not according to the figures they 4 gave me.

5 Q. Okay.

6 (PET. EXH. 13, E-mail Chain from David
7 Siddons to W. Steve Johnson, Bates
8 Stamped T&J_03175, was marked for
9 identification.)

10 THE COURT REPORTER: Number 13.

11 BY MR. GRIFFIN:

12 Q. And do you recognize Exhibit 13?

13 A. I do.

14 Q. And what is that?

15 A. That's an e-mail to David, where I gave 16 him revised calculations as to the equalization
17 amount.

18 Q. Okay. And then it looks like there's 19 a -- at the bottom of the e-mail, it looks like 20 there's an attachment description, gifts made during 21 lifetime.2-23-16.xls.

22 A. I don't know what that is.

23 Q. Well, my experience, that would appear
24 to be an Excel spreadsheet attachment. Do you know
25 if your office prepared an Excel spreadsheet?

1           A.    I think we did and I think it was done
2 by a paralegal in my office, whose name was Billy
3 McMann.

4           MR. GRIFFIN:  Right.  Now, I have --
5 we'll mark this as Exhibit 14.

6                   (PET. EXH. 14, Gifts Made from 2007
7                   Through 2015, was marked for
8                   identification.)

9 BY MR. GRIFFIN:

10           Q.    I have this Exhibit 14, which I did not
11 get from your production, Mr. Johnson; but the 12 native version of it, which was e-mailed to me from 13 Mr. Siddons, the author on this document is Billy
14 McMann.  And I don't -- but I didn't see in your 15 production where you produced --

16           A.    This should have been in there.

17           Q.    Okay.  It could be, I just. . .

18           A.    Yeah.

19           Q.    I had a lot of stuff to look through.

20           A.    I've looked through it several times in 21 preparation for the deposition, so I have copies of 22 it or the original of it.

23           Q.    And this one has an entry for January 2,
24 2015.  And I guess the question, you think this is 25 the most up-to-date version you've got?

1           A.   No.  Actually, I think there's another
2 version of this which adds the tuition back up at
3 the top up here.

4           Q.   Okay.

5           A.   So I think this was like further
6 revised, too.  I don't see the tuition, but I have
7 another one with Billy's handwritten notes that have
8 tuition written up at the top.

9           Q.   Okay.

10          A.   And I have an additional figure up
11 there.

12          Q.   Well, that's helpful to know.  I'll look 13 for that.

14          A.   Okay.

15          Q.   Because that was going to be my 16 question, if there's additional tuition here that's 17 not shown.  Okay.  That's all.  But this one, it's 18 not the most recent one; but the information you got 19 to include -- your office got to include on this 20 spreadsheet came from Beach, Dino or Ellen?

21          A.   It came from -- it came from Beach by 22 way of Dino.

23          Q.   Okay.  The allocation at the bottom
24 under this version of the spreadsheet, where it says
25 one half given to Ellen's, one half given to Beach,

1 amount due Julia to equalize. I'm not to repeat all
2 the questions and the debate we just had.

3 A. Right.

4 Q. But was this an entry by you, your 5 paralegal or --

6 A. By the paralegal.

7 Q. At your direction?

8 A. At my direction.

9 Q. Okay. Before you made this allocation,
10 did you have any conversations with Beach about how 11 it should be allocated?

12 A. I don't believe so. I think I just took 13 Beach's figures. I didn't -- I didn't -- I didn't 14 quarrel with his figures. I just took his figures.

15 Q. Okay.

16 (PET. EXH. 15, E-mail Chain to Julia
17 Brooker from Steve Johnson, Bates
18 Stamped T&J_03131 and 03132, was marked
19 for identification.)

20 THE COURT REPORTER: Number 15.

21 BY MR. GRIFFIN:

22 Q. Mr. Johnson, 15 is an e-mail. The 23 second page is from Julia to you and then the first
24 page is your response to her and it's pretty
25 lengthy. I'll give you time to review it.

1 A. Okay.

2 Q. And just let me know when.

3 A. (Reviewing.) Okay.

4 Q. So the second page of the e-mail from 5 Julia to you is dated September 2, 2016; correct?

6 A. Correct.

7 Q. And in the second paragraph of this
8 e-mail, Ms. Julia is talking about a conversation
9 she had with her brother, Beach. And I'm going to 10 read it. It says, then he called me and I told him
11 I would like to review --

12 A. Wait a second. You're on the second 13 page?

14 Q. I'm sorry. The second paragraph.

15 A. Okay.

16 Q. Down in the middle, where the sentence
17 begins, then he called me. Are you there?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. He called me and I told him I would like
20 it review Stephens statements prior to mom's death
21 and asked for documentation and he refused saying
22 that anything prior to mom's will of 2008 is none of 23 my business.

24 And then below that, the last paragraph
25 it looks like or maybe there's a -- I don't know.

1 There's a big gap here. But then it says, as far as
2 the equalization, ask him to provide an accounting
3 of the lifetime gifts to the families with 4 supporting documents. To my knowledge, I've not
5 received anything from him.

6 And then you respond to this e-mail
7 on -- actually, this particular document doesn't
8 have a date, but says you're on your way out of town
9 for vacation. And then I want to direct your 10 attention at the end, where you say we are at an 11 impasse on the equalization of gifts prior to 2008;
12 but we made what I consider to be a careful search
13 of gifts from and after 2008. I do not have a
14 recommendation as to the gifts before 2008.

15 What do you mean? What do you mean by 16 saying I do not have a recommendation as to the 17 gifts before 2008?

18 A. That we were at an impasse. That, you
19 know, I didn't have any suggested solution to her
20 position that the gifts prior to 2007 should be 21 included and our position that the gifts should only
22 include gifts made after 2007.

23 Q. Okay. So is the recommendation as to 24 resolving the impasse?

25 A. Right.

1                   MR. GRIFFIN: Okay. I think I may be
2 done. Let me take a break and talk to my brains and
3 my client and then --

4                   MR. SALANE: That's fine.

5                   (A recess transpired.)

6 BY MR. GRIFFIN:

7                   Q. Mr. Johnson, going back to Number 3
8 again. That's the will.

9                   A. (Complying.)

10                  Q. Are you at Number -- do you have Number
11 3 in your hand?

12                  A. Yes.

13                  Q. So I want to ask you about the will 14 first. The will was -- at the bottom of every page
15 of the will, there are initials and a number. Did
16 Ms. Brooker write her initials and number these 17 pages?

18                  A. She did.

19                  Q. Did you instruct her to do that?

20                  A. I did.

21                  Q. Now the trust agreement, there are no
22 initials or numbers on the bottom of each page. Why 23 is that?

24                  A. Just my office procedure. It's just too
25 long. Just takes forever. And the trust agreement

1 is incorporated back into the will.

2 Q. Okay. Under the trust agreement, at the
3 end there's a signature witnessed. Is that you
4 witnessing?

5 A. It is.

6 Q. W --

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. And then Barbara Hammond?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. And then the settlor, it says Janet B.
11 Brooker and Beacham O. Brooker, Jr.?

12 A. Right.

13 Q. And he's the settlor because he had
14 power of attorney?

15 A. The settlor applies to the signature up
16 above and the individual trustees.

17 Q. Okay. And was Beach present when this 18 document was executed?

19 A. This indicates to me that he was.

20 Q. And the next page actually says -- the 21 probate page says, personally appeared the 22 undersigned witness and made oath that she saw the 23 within named settlor and trustee sign, seal. So
24 that would indicate they were together?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. After Ms. Brooker passed away, do you
2 recall having a discussion with Beach where he was
3 trying to get you to understand something about
4 either the will or the trust and that y'all had a
5 disagreement over?

6 A. I actually read Julie's deposition and I
7 could not follow that and do not remember Beach and 8 I having any controversy or discussion about the --
9 about the gifts. I don't remember that.

10 Q. And so give her the benefit of the doubt
11 and maybe she's wrong about the gifts. Do you
12 recall anything that y'all had a -- I wouldn't say a
13 disagreement over, but viewed something differently?

14 A. No.

15 Q. Okay.

16 A. No.

17 Q. And lastly, in response to the 18 interrogatories that were served upon Beach as 19 trustee and then Ellen and Beach individually, we 20 had asked that they identify any statements that 21 they contend support their interpretation of the 22 equalization distribution of the trust to apply only
23 to lifetime gifts made after the date of the trust.

24 In response, they say statements were
25 made by Janet Brooker to Steve Johnson that the

1 equalization distribution of the trust applied only
2 to lifetime gifts made after the date of the trust.
3 These statements were oral, and upon information and 4 belief, Janet Brooker and Steve Johnson were the 5 only parties that heard such statements.

6 Do you know if you had provided that
7 information to anyone before today?

8 A. No.

9 Q. Okay. Then it says, additionally Steve
10 Johnson asked Bill Reynolds about the trust language
11 regarding the equalization distribution of the 12 trust. The statement was oral and no other
13 individuals heard the statement.

14 Do you recall any conversations you had
15 with Bill Reynolds about the equalization provision
16 in the trust?

17 A. You remember looking at my time records,
18 that I went into Bill's office and asked him to 19 review the equalization provision just to have a
20 second set of eyes on the equalization provision?
21 That was the only conversation I had with Bill about
22 the equalization provision.

23 MR. GRIFFIN: Okay. That's all the 24 questions I have. Thank you.

25 THE WITNESS: Okay.

1 MS. DuRANT: Nothing from me.

2 MR. SALANE: No questions.

3 (The witness, after having been advised
4 of his right to read and sign this transcript,
5 waives that right.)

6 (The deposition was concluded at 12:55
7 p.m.)

Respondents submit this memorandum in opposition to Petitioner’s claim for an award of attorney fees and in objection to the sufficiency of the Affidavit of James M. Griffin in Support of Award of Attorneys’ Fees and Reimbursement of Expenses to support any such award, on the following grounds:

Under well-established South Carolina law,

Six factors are normally considered in determining an award of attorney's fees: ‘(1) nature, extent, and difficulty of the legal services rendered; (2) time and labor devoted to the case; (3) professional standing of counsel; (4) contingency of compensation; (5) fee customarily charged in the locality for similar services; and (6) beneficial results obtained.’

Rowell v. Whisnant, 360 S.C. 181, 185–86, 600 S.E.2d 96, 99 (Ct. App. 2004) (citing Blumberg v. Nealco, Inc., 310 S.C. 492, 494, 427 S.E.2d 659, 660 (1993). “Trial courts should make specific findings of fact on the record for each of the factors set out above.” Id.

The factual record is insufficient to support an award of attorney fees where the attorney affidavit “merely provides a general description of the tasks he performed.” Id. at 186. An affidavit providing only “conclusory information of total time expended and hourly rate charged . . . is insufficient to provide the evidentiary basis necessary to support the award, even with [client] confirming the amounts actually paid.” Griffith v. Griffith, 332 S.C. 630, 646, 506 S.E.2d 526, 534 (Ct. App. 1998) (reversing award where “attorney's fees affidavit consists of two paragraphs which provide in summary form that the wife's attorney expended 57.5 hours on the case at the rate of $175 per hour, for a total attorney's fee of $10,062.50.”). An attorney’s “vague estimations of time and labor devoted to the case and extent of legal services rendered do not support an award of $35,000 in attorney's fees.” Johnson v. Johnson, 288 S.C. 270, 278, 341 S.E.2d 811, 816 (Ct. App. 1986) (finding insufficient “a one half page statement of estimated time spent on the case, totalling ninety hours.”).

As the S.C. Supreme Court explained in Strickland v. Strickland,

The record does not support the award of attorney's fees. The only evidence introduced was an affidavit stating that more than 20 hours had been spent on the preparation of the case. Therefore, the factors cited above could not have been considered by the court because of the lack of evidence. Each party shall be responsible for their own attorney's fees.

297 S.C. 248, 253, 376 S.E.2d 268, 270 (1989).

The Courts have also emphasized the centrality of the results of the case in determining the appropriateness of attorney fees. In Cox v. Cox, for example, the Court of Appeals rejected an argument that a litigant was entitled to attorney fees where he prevailed on some but not all of the claims in the case. (“[T]he husband contends the trial judge erred in denying him attorney's fees and costs. We disagree . . . . [W]hile the husband relies heavily on the fact that he prevailed in the wife's suit against him in arguing his entitlement to fees, he ignores the fact that he lost on his counterclaims.”). 310 S.C. 127, 131, 425 S.E.2d 761, 764 (Ct. App. 1992).

In the case at hand, even assuming that the Petitioner is entitled to an award of attorney fees, which is disputed, the evidentiary record is grossly insufficient to support any such award:

- 1.) Petitioner has articulated no statutory or contractual right, and no basis in justice or equity, for an award of attorney fees and expenses.
- 2.) The affidavit of Petitioner’s counsel provides no information whatsoever regarding the “(1) nature, extent, and difficulty of the legal services rendered; . . . (3) professional standing of counsel; (4) contingency of compensation; (5) fee customarily charged in the locality for similar services; [or] (6) beneficial results obtained.” Rowell, supra.
- 3.) With regard to the sixth factor, “beneficial results obtained”, the issue is not yet ripe as the matter is under advisement. Accordingly, Petitioner has no basis at this time to argue that any beneficial result has been obtained. See Cox, supra.
- 4.) The affidavit provides only broadly conclusory and wholly inadequate information regarding the “time and labor devoted to the case.” Rowell, supra. The affidavit includes as an attachment a table of claimed attorney/staff time and associated fees. The table provides absolutely no description of how any of this time was spent, completely precluding any analysis of the fundamental question of whether the claimed fees are reasonable.
- 5.) The attorney fee table also lists dates associated with hourly totals for each attorney and staff. It is assumed that these dates are associated with monthly billing totals, which makes it even more difficult to identify what work was performed, when, and why. If, on the other hand, the dates are intended to correspond with hours worked on each specific date, then the table is even more problematic, as it includes single entries of 21.5, 23.7, 22.3, 39.3, 32.5 hours by individual attorneys and/or staff.

- 6.) While the affidavit lists no hourly rates, the professional fee table indicates an hourly rate of $550 per hour for James M. Griffin, Esq. Petitioner has provided no indication, and Respondents dispute, that this hourly fee is in the range of what is customarily charged for similar services in the Columbia area.
- 7.) As with attorney fees, the table attached to the affidavit purporting to itemize litigation costs and expert witness fees includes only expenses associated with certain months (or days) and no explanation of the nature or purpose of the expenditures. There is no detail whatsoever to indicate or support the reasonableness of the DuRant fees and costs.
- 8.) All of the deficiencies listed above are of increased importance due to the size of the award Petitioner is claiming, which includes $99,644 in attorney/staff fees and $62,026.25 in litigation and expert costs.
- 9.) The evidentiary record, including Petitioner's attorney affidavit, provides the Court with no possible basis to make "specific findings of fact on the record for each of the factors set out above." Rowell, supra.

Accordingly, Respondents' respectfully request that the Court reject the Petitioner's claim for an award of attorney fees and costs.

RESPONDENTS' MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION AND TO
ALTER OR AMEND UNDER RULES
52 AND 59(e), SCRPC

Pursuant to Rules 52 and 59(e) of the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure, Respondents Beacham O. Brooker, Jr., in his official capacity as Trustee and individually as a Beneficiary of the Janet B. Brooker Trust ("Beach"), and Ellen B. Corontzes individually as a Beneficiary of the Janet B. Brooker Trust ("Ellen"), hereby move the Court to reconsider and/or alter or amend its Order Calculating Equalization Distribution of Lifetime Gifts ("Order"), dated June 22, 2019<sup>1</sup> and filed June 20, 2019. Respondents received written notice of the entry of this Court's Order via an email from this Court's Judicial Law Clerk, Matthew Brock, on June 20, 2019. The grounds for this motion are as follows:

First, this Court did not explicitly rule on the threshold question of whether the Trust Agreement is ambiguous. The question of whether a trust is ambiguous is a question of law. See Wallace v. Day, 390 S.C. 69, 74-75, 700 S.E.2d 446, 449 (Ct. App. 2010). The answer to this question determines if extrinsic or parol evidence may be used. “If the language of the trust instrument is plain and capable of legal construction, that language determines the force and effect of the instrument. Under such circumstances, extrinsic evidence will not be admitted to alter the plain language of the instrument. Conversely, when there is no defect on the face of a document but an uncertainty appears upon attempting to effectuate the document, then the document contains a latent ambiguity and parol evidence is admissible to determine the settlor’s intent.” Bowles v. Bradley, 319 S.C. 377, 380, 461 S.E.2d 811, 813 (1995) (internal citations omitted). Here, the Order contains no explicit finding as to whether the Trust Agreement or its equalization distribution provision is ambiguous, which would allow for parol or extrinsic evidence. The question of ambiguity should be explicitly ruled upon by the Court.

Second, the Settlor Janet Brooker’s (“Settlor” or “Janet”) intent was ignored by this Court. The Settlor’s intent is of paramount concern. Bowles v. Bradley, 319 S.C. at 380, 461 S.E.2d at 813. If this Court determined that the Trust Agreement was ambiguous, it should have relied upon the testimony of the estate lawyer, W. Steven Johnson, Esquire, and his partner, William Reynolds, III, Esquire, who knew the Settlor’s intent, unlike any of the other witnesses who testified. Yet, Johnson’s testimony that the Settlor did not intend for the equalization distribution to capture any gifts prior to the execution of the Trust Agreement was not relied upon by this Court. (See, e.g. Trial Tr. 100:23 – 101:4; 103:5-13 & 141:8 – 146:23, attached hereto as Exhibit A.) Similarly, Reynolds’ testimony that Johnson accurately captured the Settlor’s intent was not relied upon by this Court. (Trial Tr. 182:8 – 183:6, attached hereto as Exhibit B.) If the Trust Agreement is ambiguous, the only witnesses competent to testify about the Settlor's intent are Johnson and Reynolds, but their testimony about the Settlor's intent was ignored. Importantly, their testimony compels the conclusion that Respondents' construction of the Settlor's intent is the correct construction, and the amount awarded to Petitioner should be reduced appropriately.

Additionally, the Court's interpretation of the equalization provision renders the phrase "[f]rom the date of this trust forward, the Trustee shall . . ." meaningless, which is not favored by South Carolina courts. See Stevens Aviation, Inc. v. DynCorp Int'l LLC, 407 S.C. 407, 417, 756 S.E.2d 148, 153 (2014) (holding "an interpretation that gives meaning to all parts of the contract is preferable to one which renders provisions in the contract meaningless or superfluous." (internal citation and quotation marks omitted)). The Settlor was not imposing a duty on the Trustee to equalize Beach, Ellen, and Julia for gifts made prior to the Trust. The Settlor had substantially better knowledge as to the gifts she made to each child and grandchild prior to the Trust. To the extent the Court's Order intended to adopt Petitioner's argument that the phrase, "From the date of this trust forward ..." simply serves to establish the date the Trustee began exercising his authority, it would be redundant to his actual appointment as Trustee in the same instrument. The Court should read the clause so "that no word, clause, sentence, provision, or part shall be rendered surplusage, or superfluous." In re Matter of Decker, 322 S.C. 215, 219, 471 S.E.2d 462, 463 (1995) (quoting 82 C.J.S. Statutes § 346). The Settlor expressed her intent through this phrase, and her intent was for Beach, as Trustee, to calculate all of the gifts from the date of the Trust forward to provide the figures for the equalization distribution. The Settlor's intent should not be thwarted.

Third, this Court erroneously relied on the testimony of Petitioner Julia Brooker ("Julia"), which is in violation of both the Dead Man's Statute and the parol evidence rule. Even if the Court ruled the Trust Agreement is ambiguous, Julia's testimony regarding the Settlor's intent cannot be permitted or relied upon by this Court. The Dead Man's Statute precludes testimony from a witness in four classes:

1. A party to the action;
2. A person having an interest which may be affected by the trial's outcome;
3. A person who previously had an interest which may be affected by the trial; and,
4. An assignor of the thing in controversy.

Estate of Mason v. Mason, 289 S.C. 273, 278 n.2 346 S.E.2d 28, 31 (Ct. App. 1986); S.C. Code Ann. § 19-11-20 (Dead Man's Statute). Julia, as Petitioner and beneficiary, clearly falls under the scope of the Dead Man's Statute, and she was allowed to testify, over the objection and motion in limine of Respondents, regarding communications and transactions at issue. (See, e.g. Trial Tr. 8:15 – 14:19; 250:16 – 255:11, attached hereto as Exhibit C.) Under the Dead Man's Statute, Julia should not have been allowed to testify as to any matters related to her mother's intent, gift giving, or estate planning.

In addition to the Dead Man's Statute, the parol evidence rule should have precluded her from offering any testimony regarding the Trust Agreement if this Court determined the Trust Agreement was unambiguous. See Penton v. J.F. Cleckley & Co., 326 S.C. 275, 280, 486 S.E.2d 742, 745 (1997) ("Under the parol evidence rule, extrinsic evidence is inadmissible to vary or contradict the terms of an integrated agreement. However, where a contract is ambiguous, parol evidence is admissible to ascertain the true meaning and intent of the parties." (internal citations omitted)). This Court allowed such testimony, and it appears from the Order that the Court relied on the same in contravention of the Dead Man's Statute and possibly the parol evidence rule. Stated simply, Julia should not have been allowed to testify if the Trust Agreement was ambiguous or unambiguous. Rather, the only witnesses competent to testify under the Dead Man's Statute are Johnson and Reynolds, and their testimony was ignored. Their testimony compels the conclusion that Respondents' construction of the Settlor's intent is the correct construction, and the amount awarded to Petitioner should be reduced accordingly.

For the above reasons, Respondents respectfully request the Court to reconsider and/or alter or amend its Order, dated June 22, 2019 and filed June 20, 2019, consistent with the points made herein.

1 of the children. And when I mentioned to her
2 about making gifts to the spouses --

3 MR. GRIFFIN: Your Honor, I'm not sure if
4 he's still in this family meeting or some other,
5 so I'm going to object.

6 THE COURT: This is a private conversation
7 with her?

8 THE WITNESS: This was a conversation on
9 September 25th, and I believe at that time, Your
10 Honor, my time records will indicate that all the 11 family members were there. That it was a
12 family --

13 THE COURT: I also think I found a case that
14 deals with it. It's the concept of a lawsuit
15 between the beneficiary's heirs that the
16 conversations between the deceased and the
17 deceased's attorney are not privileged in the 18 sense that the testimony of that particular
19 witness is necessary to resolve litigation between 20 the heirs of the devisees, which is what we have
21 here, in my opinion.

22 BY MR. SOWELL:

23 Q All right. Now, was there ever any discussion
24 with Janet Brooker about an equalization for
25 retrospective gifts?

1 A No.

2 Q Was the only conversation with her related to
3 prospective gifts?

4 A Yes.

5 Q Now, when you drafted the Trust Agreement and
6 specifically paragraph 2(a) (b) and (c, which is
7 denominated equalizing distribution to the
8 Settlor's daughter Julia B. Brooker, was that
9 intended by Mrs. Brooker and by you to state that
10 this equalization was only to be made going
11 forward as indicated by subparagraph (a)'s
12 language, "From the date of this trust forward?"

13 A That is correct?

14 MR. GRIFFIN: Objection, Your Honor, as to
15 Mrs. Brooker's intent. He can testify to his
16 intent; he can testify what she told him, but he's
17 in her mind now and that's not permissible.

18 MR. SOWELL: That's precisely what he's here
19 to testify about is her intent.

20 THE COURT: Right.

21 MR. SOWELL: He's the only person who can do
22 it.

23 THE COURT: He can testify about the
24 conversation that they had. What she said is more
25 important that what he thinks she said, is the

1           conversations that were retrospective in the
2           equalization. If you want to ask him a different
3           question that gets more to your point.

4 BY MR. SOWELL:

5 Q       Did Janet Brooker make statements to you that led
6       you to believe that she only wanted to equalize
7       going forward?

8 A       We never had a discussion about retroactive gifts,
9       so the discussion, the whole discussion centered
10       around gifts going forward.

11 Q       Was there ever any discussion whatsoever about
12       gifts going backward?

13 A       No.

14 Q       I'm going to show you Defendant's Exhibit No. 1
15       and ask you if you can identify it?

16 A       Yes, this is a schedule that was done by a
17       paralegal in my office that comes up with a figure
18       of $525,528, which is the amount that we computed
19       in determining the amount of the equalization that
20       we felt was due to Julia.

21 Q       Do you continue to believe, along with the
22       Trustee, that amount, the 525,000 and some odd
23       dollars is the amount owed to Julie for the 24       equalization?

25 A       Yes. With this exception: That computation of

1 A Apparently so, yes.

2 Q Is there any reason you didn't give them to
3 Mrs. Brooker when she was there signing the
4 documents?

5 A I don't remember why they were given to Dino, but
6 I would not have given them to Dino had Janet not
7 told me it was okay to give them to Dino.

8 Q I understand. And you have a specific
9 recollection of discussing with her the terms of
10 the equalization provision?

11 A I do. I said we'll catch Julie up at death for
12 gifts made from the Trust Agreement forward so
13 that she won't be prejudiced.

14 Q You remember saying "from the Trust Agreement 15 forward?"

16 A I do.

17 MR. GRIFFIN: Your Honor, this is the
18 deposition that Mr. Johnson gave on January 12,
19 2018. I'd like to show it to him. It's sealed.
20 I'm going to unseal it. For the record, it's 21 being unsealed.

22 THE COURT: The deposition of Mr. Johnson is
23 completely attached to your Motion in Limine. A
24 full copy, right?

25 MR. SOWELL: Yes, Your Honor.

1 BY MR. GRIFFIN:

2 Q Mr. Johnson, if you'll turn to page 27 of your
3 deposition.

4 A Okay.

5 Q And I'm asking you beginning at line 10 about her
6 Will and Trust, and then at line 13, I say, "Do
7 you recall whether you explained to her or not."
8 And your answer was, at line 15?

9 A Right.

10 Q And you said "I do," correct?

11 A Right.

12 Q Then line 16 I asked you, "What do you recall
13 doing." And if you'll read your answer in the 14 record, please.

15 A (As read) I recall saying to her we're going from 16 a straight will, which she had in 1988, to a will
17 and revocable trust. And I remember discussing
18 with her that we would be funding the trust. I
19 remember discussing the equalization provision
20 with her, and I remember telling her that her
21 estate, as far as Julie was concerned, would go
22 outright to Julie, but the portion that would go
23 to Ellen and Beach would go to them in the form of
24 a trust.

25 Q And then page 20, I asked, "Do you recall any

- 1 questions she had of you about the equalization
2 provision." And your answer was?
- 3 A "I don't recall any question she had about it."
- 4 Q And then 28, line 4, I said, "When you spoke with
5 her, did you use the phrase "lifetime gifts?" And
6 you said what?
- 7 A "I don't know."
- 8 Q And then you said, then I asked, "Do you know
9 whether you explained to her that there could be a
10 difference in lifetime gifts, I mean gifts given
11 prior to the date of the execution of the trust
12 versus gifts given after the entry of the trust?"
13 And you said?
- 14 A "The whole conversation with Janet was about 15 prospective gifts, not retrospective gifts."
- 16 Q And I said "okay," and you said it was going
17 forward not looking back?
- 18 A Right.
- 19 Q So that was the conversation?
- 20 A Right.
- 21 Q And then I asked you, "Is there any language in 22 the Trust Agreement that references past gifts?"
23 In line 18, you say "no." Is that right?
- 24 A That's right.
- 25 Q But there is -- I mean, in the Trust Agreement, it

1 says that Settlor has previously made lifetime
2 gifts, correct?

3 A Yeah, but, Jim, that was just to give a history of 4 what had happened, you know. I mean, that was my 5 drafting style.

6 Q Now, you're drafting style also -- you're saying
7 that we can read from your drafting style that the 8 sum of (a) and (b) above shall be distributed to 9 Settlor's daughter to mean that you look at the 10 pots of gifts and you give her the greatest
11 amount?

12 A I wanted to determine the gifts that had been
13 given to Ellen's side of the family, the gifts
14 that had been given to Beach's side of the family,
15 and then to add five percent to the greater
16 amount. And that was equalizing for Julie; that 17 was making sure that Julie was not disadvantaged;
18 that she received at least the higher number.
19 That's what I intended to do; that's what Janet 20 Brooker intended to do. Under your reading of the 21 Trust Agreement, she gets twice as much. There is 22 no way that Janet Brooker wanted Julie to get 23 twice as much as Beach or Ellen. That is just not 24 what she wanted.

25 Q Let's talk about the language you used. The sum

1 of (a) and (b) above. So is (a), when we say (a)
2 and (b), we're talking (a), in the same paragraph,
3 right?

4 A Well, first you've got to determine the amount of
5 the gifts.

6 Q And that would be in (a)?

7 A Yeah, but you've got to determine what was given
8 to Ellen and you've got to -- Ellen's side of the 9 family and what was given to Beach's side of the 10 family.

11 Q And then from that you add the interest?

12 A The five percent onto those two amounts. You
13 create two columns, Ellen's column and Beach's
14 column, and then you add five percent, and 15 whichever would be the higher. I didn't want
16 Julie to be disadvantaged. Whichever the higher,
17 she would get. Now what was confusing about that 18 is Beach kept the gifts even.

19 Q Let's go to the language. Would you agree that 20 there's no word "higher" in (a), (b), or (c)?

21 A I would agree to that.

22 Q Do you agree that there is nothing in (a), (b), or 23 (c) that talks about separating the pots out from 24 Ellen's issue and spouses to Beach's issue and 25 spouses?

1 A Well, if there's ambiguity there, I want you to
2 understand what Janet Brooker wanted. And she
3 wanted her daughter, Julie, to not be
4 disadvantaged because gifts had been given to
5 spouses and grandchildren. And this schedule
6 accomplishes that.

7 Q Are you aware that before the date of this Trust,
8 that Mrs. Janet Brooker had given the spouses and
9 issues of Ellen and Beach $900,000 in gifts?

10 A I wasn't aware of that, but Janet, you know, was
11 only going from 2007 forward.

12 Q So you think she was aware that she had been
13 giving Ellen and Beach $900,000 in gifts?

14 A I don't know, but I'll tell you what, she never
15 brought it up. If she did, if she'd have said to
16 me Julie should be equalized for that, I would
17 have said to her let's equalize it right this
18 minute, let's make a gift to her right this
19 minute, let's give her -- let's make a gift to
20 Julie right now if she's been so disadvantaged.
21 We're trying to reduce the size of your estate,
22 let's give her an amount right now that will make
23 her equal.

24 Q So then after Mrs. Brooker passes away, the -- was
25 a -- well, let me just ask you. What's this

1 provision that we've been discussing today.

2 Q Did you do that?

3 A I did that.

4 Q What did you conclude from reviewing that
5 provision?

6 A I thought it was appropriate for the circumstances
7 that I knew about.

8 Q And what circumstances did you understand before
9 you had that conversation?

10 A I knew that Janet Brooker had a fairly large
11 taxable estate. There was an attempt, pretty
12 aggressive attempt, to give nontaxable gifts, but
13 also an attempt to equalize for Julia Brooker.
14 And so that was the context I looked at the
15 provision for.

16 Q Was there ever any discussion with Steve about
17 equalizing these payments going backwards?

18 A No. He basically told me this is a -- because
19 we're starting this aggressive gifting program,
20 and of course, annual exclusion gifts, gifts for
21 tuitions, for medical payments, are really the
22 lowest hanging fruit in estate planning. There
23 was never any discussion about retrospective or
24 looking back. I think, at least in my experience,
25 if you look back, you gotta start somewhere. And

1 if they had decided to look back, Steve would have
2 asked Mrs. Brooker what were the gifts you've
3 given thus far; let's start with an amount or
4 let's write a check to even up Julia. But that
5 was never part of the discussion between Steve and
6 I.

7 Q Looking at this document, which is the Trust
8 Agreement, and we're looking here at the board,
9 which is 2(a), is there any reference in there to
10 a starting date for looking backwards?

11 A Well, the date that he references in 2(a), says,
12 "From the date of this Trust forward."

13 Q Right. Which was October of 2007?

14 A Right.

15 Q Now, you've heard the arguments Mr. DuRant made
16 about (a)+(b). What you think is the proper
17 interpretation and what did you think then was the
18 proper interpretation of (a), (b), and (c)?

19 A Well, when I first looked at it, reading the first
20 paragraph number 2, the main paragraph, it shows
21 what Janet's intent was. It was clear that she
22 said Julia's not married, she doesn't have
23 children; Ellen's married and has children; Beach
24 is married and has children, and we want to
25 equalize going forward. And (a) says to determine

RESPONDENTS' MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION AND TO ALTER OR AMEND UNDER RULES 52 AND 59(e), SCRPC

Trial Tr. 8:15 – 14:19; 250:16 – 255:11

1 be number one and hand it up to the Court.

2 MR. SOWELL: No objection.

3 (Whereupon, Trust Agreement was
4 introduced as Petitioner's Exhibit No.

7 MR. GRIFFIN: Your Honor, we have two
8 witnesses, Julia Brooker and then George DuRant.
9 And I'll call Ms. Brooker at this time.

10 Whereupon,

11 Julia Brooker,
12 being duly sworn and cautioned to speak the truth, the 13 whole truth, and nothing but the truth, testified as
14 follows:

15 MS. DURANT: Your Honor, if I may object
16 right now just to Ms. Brooker's testimony today as 17 outlined in our motion in limine. We believe 18 Ms. Julia Brooker is an interested party and 19 therefore disqualified under the dead man's 20 statute. Interestingly enough the dead man's 21 statute is not about the admissibility of 22 Ms. Brooker's testimony; it's more about the 23 competency of her to testify. I do have a case
24 for you, Your Honor. This is Estate of Mason B
25 Mason 289 SC 273, Court of Appeals 1986. And if I

1           may approach, Your Honor.

2           THE COURT: I may have it. Let me just look
3           and see. I'm going to let you hand it to me.

4           MS. DURANT: And what I've done, Your Honor,
5           is marked the salient provisions and I've also
6           marked the salient provisions for Mr. Griffin,
7           Ms. Fox and you and your law clerk. If you'll 8           note where I have the blue flag, Your Honor, I've 9           highlighted the relevant language that talks about 10          how the dead man's statute has to deal with 11          competency and not admissibility. It starts on 12          page 31 of the South Carolina Reporter, it's page 13          four of this PDF. And then at 278 of the 14          Southeastern 2nd Reporter, it says, "the dead
15          man's statute §19-11-20 Code of Laws of South
16          Carolina in substance provides that a witness may 17          not testify (will not be a competent witness)
18          should the witness be in either of the four 19          designated classes." And as outlined in our 20          brief, Your Honor, we believe Ms. Brooker is in 21          all four classes and therefore she's disqualified
22          from testifying in toto.

23          THE COURT: All right, Mr. Griffin.

24          MR. GRIFFIN: Your Honor, the case that she 25          cited goes on to say that if you're in that

1 category, then you can't testify if one, the
2 testimony is regarding any communication or
3 transaction between the witness and the deceased;
4 two, if the testimony is offered against the party
5 prosecuting or defending the action as executor or 6 administrator, heir-at-law, next of kin, assignee,
7 devisee, or survivor; and three, does the 8 testimony potentially affect the present or 9 previous interest of the witness.

10 So the first of those three tests, we don't 11 intend to offer any testimony, Your Honor, from 12 Ms. Julia Brooker about communications or the 13 transaction. I'd also -- and so the dead man's 14 statute does not preclude her testimony. There's 15 also a number of exceptions to the dead man's 16 statute. I'll hand up the case to Your Honor,
17 Hanahan v. Simpson. There's a flag on it that 18 says it's been overruled and superseded by 19 statute. I'll tell Your Honor the statute they're 20 talking about is the Frivolous Civil Proceedings
21 Act. It's a sanction statute that doesn't really
22 have -- had nothing to do with the dead man's 23 statute. And then in the case, the -- there's a
24 number of exceptions to the dead man's statute.
25 And it's -- it says first, the benefit of the

1 statute may be waived; they're not waving it.
2 Second, the testimony of an attorney preparing the
3 will is generally held admissible on the ground
4 that he's not an interested person. Third, a
5 witness is prohibited from testifying only if his 6 or her present or previous interest would be
7 affected by the event of trial, and if such, a
8 person is only disqualified if he has certain 9 legal and vested equitable interest which may be 10 affected. Fourth, a party may testify against his 11 own interest. Fifth, a witness may testify to a
12 transaction between the deceased and a third
13 party. Sixth, the statute's directed to the 14 competency of witnesses rather than the 15 transaction or communication itself, and thus, it
16 does not prohibit the introduction of documentary
17 evidence. And seventh, the Court has recognized
18 that notwithstanding the testimony of an 19 interested witness may generally fall within the 20 inhibition of the statute as to evidence of 21 transactions or communications with the decedent.
22 He may testify to acts, demeanor, or conduct of 23 the decedent where the testimony is offered on the 24 bearing of mental competency. So those are some 25 of the exceptions. I do have documents I plan to

1 introduce through Ms. Brooker that would not be
2 precluded under the dead man's statute. And, like
3 I said, her testimony proffered she plans to
4 testify as to who her mother was, who her father
5 was, who her sister is, her brother is, her nieces
6 and nephews are and the dates of their births and 7 the family history and the assets of the mother as
8 well as, frankly, the mother's history of gift
9 giving to the third parties. That would be the 10 proffer of the testimony.

11 MS. DURANT: Your Honor, briefly, I don't 12 disagree with Mr. Griffin's recitation of the 13 exceptions. However, I don't think any of them
14 apply with maybe the exception that it does not 15 prohibit -- the dead man's statute does not 16 prohibit the obstruction of documentary evidence.
17 The problems that I do have with what he said that 18 Ms. Brooker may testify to are the assets of the 19 mother and the history of the gift giving. That 20 goes straight to the communications and 21 transactions that are at issue in this case. And 22 Ms. Brooker should be precluded from testifying
23 regarding the mother's intent or history of gift
24 giving and the assets of the mother. That goes
25 directly to communications and transactions

1           between Ms. Julia Brooker and the decedent,
2           Ms. Janet Brooker.

3           MR. GRIFFIN: The issue in the case is the 4           interpretation of a trust agreement entered into
5           October of 2007, I believe it was, October 17th
6           or 19th, 2007. She's not going to testify about 7           any communication she had with her mother about 8           that agreement, about any catch up provisions, or 9           anything of that nature.

10          THE COURT: I do think the dead man statute
11          applies to certain potential testimony she may 12          want to tell us. It doesn't preclude her from 13          being a witness. We'll get started; I'm sure
14          you've instructed her what she should or shouldn't 15          get into, and I'm sure you'll be careful with your 16          questions, and I'll hear you. If you hear
17          something that is objectionable, please rise.

18          MS. DURANT: Yes, Your Honor, I will. And 19          may I add one more point and then I'll sit down
20          and be quiet?

21          THE COURT: Certainly.

22          MS. DURANT: I do want to add, Your Honor,
23          that under Merck v Merck, 89 SC 347 South Carolina
24          Supreme Court 1911, the term "transaction" under 25          the dead man's statute is a very comprehensive

1 term. It means the carrying of or through any
2 matter or affair. So not only is she precluded
3 from talking about the communications with the 4 mother, but we are talking about a very broad
5 transaction that renders Ms. Julia Brooker
6 incompetent from testifying about those matters.
7 And with that, I will be quiet.

8 THE COURT: I'll certainly hear you. If you
9 think we're tiptoeing into an area you're
10 concerned about, I will hear you.

11 MS. DURANT: Yes, Your Honor, thank you.

12 THE COURT: It's complicated. This is a very
13 complicated family dynamic; it's a complicated
14 prohibition that you can't talk about
15 communication within the family. So that lay
16 witnesses and people that are struggling with 17 this, it's an honest struggle. Can I get you just 18 to move that behind the table so that it doesn't
19 in any way interfere with Ms. Brooker's --

20 MR. SOWELL: If you don't need it, we'll just 21 put it down. You've got the document.

22 THE COURT: I do, but if you want it just to 23 stay in the room as a reminder to everybody, just 24 put it behind. Thank you. Of all the cases I've 25 been in statute, I didn't have this. And let me

1 Bring your water and your glasses and anything
2 else you need. Just a reminder you're still under 3 oath, okay.

4 THE WITNESS: Thank you.

5 - - - - -

6 FURTHER EXAMINATION (Julia Brooker)

7 BY MR. GRIFFIN:

8 Q Julia, I want to talk about first your efforts to 9 determine the amount of lifetime gifts. Now, I
10 know there's an issue as to what those encompass,
11 what period of time, but I just want to ask what 12 steps did you undertake to try to determine how 13 your mother's money was spent since 2007 when 14 Beach Brooker was given power of attorney?

15 A How was it spent?

16 Q What efforts did you undertake to try to find out
17 after your mother died what you were entitled to 18 under this clause?

19 A Can I start from kind of the beginning or 20 whatever?

21 Q Sure.

22 A Back in 1997, May of '97, my mother started doing
23 some estate planning. She opened up three family
24 trusts for my brother, sister and myself that we,
25 you know, put money in it. She wanted to -- she

1 called me and brought me over and said that she
2 was talking to me --

3 MS. DURANT: Your Honor, if I may, move to 4 strike that testimony. That's squarely within the 5 dead man's statute. She's talking about
6 communications with her mother.

7 THE WITNESS: Okay.

8 THE COURT: Well, maybe that last little
9 piece, but the history of this, unless it's false
10 information, should be very easily documented.
11 And I just need it to understand what her
12 timeframe is. If these trusts were created in May 13 of 1997, you can tell me that. They obviously 14 exist. Do you disagree that Mrs. Brooker created 15 three trusts for her children to May of '97?

16 MS. DURANT: No, ma'am.

17 THE COURT: This is just a factual piece that 18 I'm gonna capture. I hear you suggesting that --
19 tread carefully.

20 MR. GRIFFIN: You can't talk about what your 21 mother said about anything.

22 BY MR. GRIFFIN:

23 Q So you created these trusts?

24 A Uh-huh.

25 Q She did in 1997?

1 A Uh-huh. Gave gifts of about $400,000.

2 Q To each of you?

3 A No, total gifts. I believe if you look in the 4 gift rank in 1997, there's over $400,000 that she
5 gave gifts to. I think it's included. She did
6 DeBordieu in '92. She -- wait a minute, let me
7 get my dates right. We did a qualified
8 residential trust too where she did the 9 condominium at DeBordieu at this time, and in 10 about '94, I've got where she gave us gifts too,
11 or said that she was going to start giving us
12 gifts.

13 MS. DURANT: Again, Your Honor, she just 14 referenced what her mother did.

15 THE COURT: Yeah, I'm not sure what we're
16 doing here. I know you want to tell the whole
17 story and I know it would feel really good that 18 you tell the whole story, but we've got to be 19 really careful.

20 THE WITNESS: Okay.

21 THE COURT: Can we just go back to the
22 timeframe about -- I thought we were talking about 23 interest timeframe. Where were you going with 24 your first question?

25 MR. GRIFFIN: I'm trying to figure it out.

1 THE COURT: I think your question was, and
2 it's legitimate, what efforts did she personally
3 make to determine what gifts her mother had made
4 that met this provision.

5 MR. GRIFFIN: Yes.

6 BY MR. GRIFFIN:

7 Q I guess, let's just start here. You see this
8 document?

9 A Yes.

10 Q At some point in time, did you get a copy of this
11 document?

12 A Yes.

13 Q Did you agree with the numbers on this document?

14 A No.

15 Q Why did you not agree with the numbers on this
16 document? And when I say "this document," I'm 17 talking about Defendant's Exhibit No. 1. And
18 don't tell me what your mother said.

19 A Can I tell you what Steve said?

20 Q Tell us what Steve said, yes.

21 A Okay. The family had two meetings with Steve.
22 One after my mother died and one prior to my
23 mother dying. He brought us in and talked about
24 that mother was going to exaggerate some gifts,
25 give more gifts, and that what she was going to do

1 is catch me up at the end.

2 MS. DURANT: Again, Your Honor --

3 Q That's what Steve said, not your mother.

4 A That's what Steve said.

5 MS. DURANT: She said -- and then she said,
6 "my mother" --

7 THE COURT: That's already been testified by
8 Mr. Johnson.

9 MS. DURANT: I'm just really, Your Honor, I'm
10 just preserving the record.

11 THE COURT: And I hear you, but I heard her
12 say that's what Mr. Johnson said to her at the 13 family meeting. Did you hear her say that's what
14 her mother said?

15 MS. DURANT: I heard that Mr. Johnson said my
16 mother said she wants to catch up.

17 MR. GRIFFIN: That's certainly not precluded
18 by the dead man's statute.

19 THE COURT: I am hearing that Mr. Johnson has
20 already testified and told Julia at the very
21 family meeting he testified about that it was the
22 intention to catch her up at her mother's death.

23 MS. DURANT: Your Honor, Mr. Sowell brings up
24 a good point. Mr. Johnson is or was Ms. Janet
25 Brooker's lawyer, so he is just repeating what his

1 client said. So I think that also falls on the
2 teeth of the dead man's statute.

3 THE COURT: I'm going to disagree on the
4 concept that number one, he's already testified to
5 that himself, and at a family meeting, he is
6 sharing this information. He had a family
7 meeting, which means you have on some level a
8 waiver of the attorney-client privilege as to the
9 issues he's talking about at the family meeting
10 that he had with the family. The deceased
11 Mrs. Brooker was there. So overruled.

12 BY MR. GRIFFIN:

13 Q In the meeting after your mother died, what was
14 discussed?

15 A The lifetime gifts and that the lifetime gifts, I
16 was gonna be equalized with the lifetime gifts
17 that were given to my brother and sister.

18 Q Your brother and sisters' children?

19 A Children, family. Brother and sister's family.
20 Children and family.

21 Q Then when you got this document at some point in
22 time, you said you didn't disagree with it, but
23 you didn't agree with it. What were the parts you
24 didn't agree with?

25 A The year that the gifts began.

ORDER
CALCULATING EQUALIZATION
DISTRIBUTION OF LIFETIME GIFTS

FILED
2019 JUN 20 P 5:18
AMY W. McCULLER
PROBATE JUDGE
RICHLAND COUNTY, S.C.

THIS MATTER COMES BEFORE THE COURT upon the filing of a Summons and Petition for Declaratory Relief by Julia B. Brooker (hereinafter “Julia” or “Petitioner”), through her attorneys James M. Griffin, and Margaret N. Fox, on March 17, 2017. In the Petition, the Petitioner asks this Court to determine the intent of Janet B. Brooker (hereinafter also “Decedent” or “Settlor”) in the equalization clause of the Janet B. Brooker Trust and Decedent’s meaning of the words lifetime gifts, as it is used within the Decedent’s Trust document, to calculate the amount that should be paid to Julia to equalize her share of the Janet B. Brooker Trust. Beacham O. Brooker (hereinafter “Beacham”) and Ellen B. Corontzes (hereinafter “Ellen”) (hereinafter collectively “Respondents”) are the only other beneficiaries of the Janet B. Brooker Trust.

Beacham and Ellen were served with the Summons and Petition by certified mail as evidenced by the signed Certified Return Receipts filed with the Court on March 29, 2017 and April 3, 2017 respectively.

Respondents are represented by Thornwell F. “Biff” Sowell, III and Bess J. DuRant. Respondents filed an Answer to the Petition on May 17, 2017. The Respondents contend that their understanding and interpretation of the lifetime gift provision should control, and

1 of 10 an

additionally, that the amount of $525,528.08 offered to Julia as her disputed equalization share of the Janet B. Brooker Trust is accurate.

A bench trial was scheduled for and held on February 4, 2019. All parties were mailed Notice of Hearing and all parties were present with their attorneys. Additional witnesses were certified forensic accountant, George Durant and attorneys, W. Steven Johnson and William H. Reynolds, III.

Summary of Facts

The Decedent died on April 15, 2015. At her death she had three children: Beacham, Ellen, and Julia. Beacham is married to Beth Brooker and his children are Elizabeth Brooker and Grace Brooker. Ellen is married to Dino Corontzes and her children are Arthur Corontzes and Beacham Corontzes. Julia is not married and does not have children.

Before her death, the Decedent was represented by attorney W. Steven Johnson of the law firm of Todd and Johnson, LLP, in the creation of her 2007 estate planning documents. The Last Will and Testament of the Decedent, executed on October 16, 2007, names Beacham to serve as the Personal Representative and transfers the assets of the Decedent's Estate into a Trust known as the Janet B. Brooker Trust (hereinafter the "Trust"). Upon the death of the Decedent, the Trust was fully funded from the Estate. The beneficiaries of the Trust are her three children, Beacham, Ellen, and Julia. Beacham is the Trustee of the Trust. At the same time the Will and Trust were executed, the Decedent also appointed Beacham as her Agent under a Durable Power of Attorney.

All parties agree that a family meeting occurred on September 25, 2016 where all parties were present with W. Steven Johnson. All parties agree that Mr. Johnson advised them about an aggressive gifting program to the spouses and issue of Beacham and Ellen in an effort to minimize the amount of estate taxes that could be levied against the Decedent's estate at her death. As a part of this plan, all children of the Decedent received equal gifts, the additional gifts to the spouses and issue of Beacham and Ellen were to be equalized for Julia at the death of the Decedent. To accomplish this, the Trust provides for an equalization distribution that reads as follows:

(2) Equalization distribution to the Settlor's Daughter Julia B. Brooker. The Settlor has previously made lifetime gifts and intends to continue such gifting program until the date of the Settlor's death to the Settlor's children, the Settlor's issue and spouses of the Settlor's children.

2 7 10 am

Because the Settlor's daughter Julia B. Brooker is not married and has no children or issue, the Settlor intends that at the Settlor's death, an equalizing distribution will be made to the Settlor's said daughter pursuant to the terms of this paragraph for lifetime gifts made to such daughter's siblings' spouses or siblings' issue which equalizing distribution will be determined as follows:

- (a) From the date of this trust forward the Trustee shall determine the date and the amount of any lifetime gifts made by the Settlor to issue of Ellen B. Corontzes and Beacham O. Brooker, Jr., as well as the spouses of Ellen B. Corontzes and Beacham O. Brooker, Jr.
- (b) To such amount specified above from the date of such gift an interest rate of five (5 %) percent shall be applied to the amount of such gift which interest rate shall continue until this distribution is satisfied and which rate shall not compound.
- (c) The sum of (a) and (b) above shall be distributed to the Settlor's daughter Julia B. Brooker, if she shall survive the Settlor.

Argument of the Petitioner

Petitioner argues that an examination of the plain language found within the four corners of the Trust necessitates a finding that Petitioner is entitled to an equalizing share equivalent to the sum of all lifetime gifts to Respondents' spouses and children, with five (5%) percent interest applied to the amount of each gift. Petitioner believes that the first sentence of the applicable provision in Settlor's Trust that reads that the Settlor "previously made lifetime gifts and intends to continue such gifting program until the date of the Settlor's death to the Settlor's children, the Settlor's issue and spouses of the Settlor's children" is evidence of her intent that gifts made prior to the Trust's creation should be included in the equalization calculation.

Petitioner argues that Respondents rely on the following Trust language, "[f]rom the date of this trust forward, the Trustee shall determine the date and the amount of any lifetime gifts" to take the position that the calculation should be only gifts made after the Trust's creation. Petitioner believes that the language "from the date of this trust forward," merely establishes the date on which Beacham could begin exercising the authority delegated to him as Trustee to determine the date and amount of lifetime gifts.

Petitioner believes that if the Decedent had intended otherwise, the Trust language would have been worded in the future tense, such as "Settlor intends that at the Settlor's death, an equalizing distribution will be made to the Settlor's said daughter pursuant to the terms of this paragraph for lifetime gifts [to be made], [that will be made], [that Settlor intends to make pursuant to the gifting program] to such daughter's siblings' spouses or siblings' issue."

3/10 am

Petitioner believes that the use of past tense “lifetime gifts made to such daughter’s siblings’ spouses or siblings’ issue” is clear.

Finally, Petitioner argues that pursuant to the plain language of the Trust document, Petitioner’s Equalizing Share is calculated by adding the (a) the sum of all lifetime gifts to Respondents’ Children and Spouses and (b) five (5%) percent interest from there date of such gift to the date of distribution. Petitioner’s position is that Respondent “cannot create ambiguity in contract when it does not exist within the four corners...[h]ence words cannot be read into a contract which import an intent wholly unexpressed when the contract was executed.” Silver v. Abstract Pool & Spas, 658 S.E.2d 539 (S.C. Ct. App. 2008) (quoting McPherson v. J.E. Serrine & Co., 33 S.E.2d 501, 509 (1945).

Pursuant to this method of calculating, Petitioner believes she should receive the total of gifts made to Ellen’s spouse and children prior to October 16, 2007 of $502,755.92 and after October 16, 2007 of $396,305.23 plus the total of gifts made to Beacham’s spouse and children prior to October 16, 2007 of $495,113.92 and after October 16, 2007 of $408,194.00 for a total of $1,802,369.07 plus interest of $1,139,694.81 (as of the date of the hearing) for a final total of $2,942,063.87.

Argument of the Respondents

Respondents argue that the unambiguous terms of the Trust provide that Petitioner is entitled to a distribution from the date of the Trust until the death of the Settlor as the plain language of the Trust provides that “[f]rom the date of this trust forward,” the Trustee shall determine the amount of the gifts made to the children and spouses. Respondents point to Schulmeyer v. State Farm Fire & Cas. Co., 353 S.C. 491, 495, 579 S.E.2d 132, 134 (2003) “If the contract’s language is clear and unambiguous, the language alone determines the contract’s force and effect.”

Respondents’ position is that Petitioner is entitled to the sum of all gifts made to the children and spouses from October 16, 2007 until the date of Decedent’s death on April 16, 2015, divided by two (2), with the addition of interest in the amount of 5%. To make the point of their calculation, Respondents by example argue that Petitioner is not entitled to the sum of all gifts made to the grandchildren and spouses, plus 5% interest, because to do so would bestow a great windfall to the Petitioner. For example, under Petitioner’s construction of the Trust, if Beacham’s family received $100,000.00 and Ellen’s family received $100,000.00, Julia would receive $200,000.00 plus the 5% interest. Consequently, Julia would receive a windfall of $100,000.00 because Beacham's family received $100,000.00, Ellen's received $100,000.00, yet Julia received $200,000.00. Therefore, Respondents believe that the payment of $525,528.08, plus some calculation of interest after death, is correct.

4 of 10 am

Summary of Issues to be Resolved

- 1. Did the offer of $525,528.08 include all gifts? As stipulated by Mr. Sowell at the trial, it did not.
- 2. What time frame did the Decedent mean by lifetime gifts – all lifetime gifts or only gifts after the creation of the Trust?
- 3. How is the equalization to be calculated – add all gifts together to equalize, add all gifts together then divide by two, or add the gifts of Ellen's family and separately add the gifts of Beacham's family and determine which is larger and equalize Julia by the larger?

Findings by the Court during the Hearing

During the hearing, this court made certain findings with regard to the offer of $525,528.08 and interest related to when that offer was officially rejected. This Court also indicated to the parties that only after Trust gifts were being considered. After a full review of the hearing, the testimony, and the exhibits in evidence, those decisions are amended as the remainder of this order will document.

Testimony

Julia testified about her family, the manner in which their parents acquired their wealth, the individual trusts for each child created in 1997 by her parents, the trusts for each grandchild created close to their births by the Decedent, the Family Partnership, and what she believed to be her mother's intent with her estate plan as to the 2007 estate plan and the Trust that is the source of this litigation. She believes that the calculation of Decedent's lifetime gifts should include all gifts.

George Durant, a certified forensic accountant, testified, over the objection of Respondents' counsel, regarding his review of Decedent's brokerage statements, bank records and checks, Decedent's gift tax returns, deposition transcripts, and other spreadsheets and his calculations regarding the equalization for Petitioner, as directed by Mr. Griffin. Mr. Durant described how he calculated the amounts of the lifetime gifts received by the spouses and issue of Beacham and Ellen. Mr. Durant provided the Court with a list of all documents reviewed and a table showing all the lifetime gifts given by the Decedent before the execution of the Trust and the interest of that amount calculated at five percent (5%) until the day of the trial. He also provided the same calculations for gifts given after the execution of the Trust as well as the addition of those figures representing the total lifetime gift amounts given.

Over the initial objection and disagreement of Respondents, payments made to Hammond School, the school attended by all of the grandchildren, totaling $437,445.48, were included in Mr. Durant's calculations as gifts. Respondents argued that those payments should not be included because Mr. Durant could not determine what was tuition payments versus what were donations made by the Decedent. The court requested that Respondents review their tuition invoices for those years to be able to separate any donations. This court allowed all payments to Hammond School as gifts to the grandchildren to be included in the equalization calculations.

Additionally, at the time of his original calculation offered into evidence by the Petitioner, Mr. Durant included the following in his pre-Trust calculation: $24,000.00 ($12,000.00 x 2) for annual gifts to spouses made by Beacham on September 26, 2007 and $240,000.00 paid into 529 plans for grandchildren made by Beacham on October 1, 2007. After the court's request to include these gifts with the gifts made after the Trust's creation, as Beacham had included them in his original gift calculations as they were made in anticipation of the Trust's creation, all parties were in agreement to the accuracy of the numbers and calculations provided by Mr. Durant. These calculations have now become less relevant as the findings below will show.

Mr. Durant's testimony and calculations were relied on heavily by this court and ultimately agreed upon by all parties. All documents that were reviewed by Mr. Durant were admitted as a flash drive as Respondents Exhibit 8. These same documents were available for all parties throughout the discovery and deposition phase of this litigation.

W. Steven Johnson, estate planning attorney for the Decedent, testified about his conversations with the Decedent and her intent regarding the equalizing distribution summarized as follows:

- Beginning in September 2007, there was a heightened awareness of a need to make gifts on behalf of Decedent to lessen the estate taxes.
- In September of 2007, Mr. Johnson met with the Brooker family to discuss the need to accelerate the gifts that the Decedent needed to make to children, grandchildren and spouses of children, to include college and private school tuition and 529 plans for the grandchildren.

6 of 10 am

- Decedent did not want to disadvantage Julia so Mr. Johnson said he could put a provision in the will or trust to “catch up” Julia for any gifts made to her children’s spouses and children.
- Decedent did not want Julia to suffer as a result of these gifts.
- He does not recall if the meaning of lifetime gifts was ever discussed or if he defined that for the Decedent or the family at the family meeting.
- Mr. Johnson spoke with his law partner Mr. Reynolds about the equalization provision he drafted because he wanted a second set of eyes to review the language of the Trust.
- He does not recall the Decedent asking any questions about the lifetime gift equalization but he does remember that their conversations were about prospective gifts, not retrospective gifts.
- If there had been a discussion about prior gifts, Mr. Johnson would have recommended to the Decedent to catch up Julia for the prior gifts at that time, not at the Decedent’s death.
- Mr. Johnson was not aware that the Decedent had already given large sums as gifts to the spouses and children of Beacham and Ellen before the creation of the Trust.
- The way the equalization was to be calculated was from the date of the Trust forward to take the larger of the two gifting groups, Beacham’s spouse and children versus Ellen’s spouse and children, and then add the interest to achieve Petitioner’s share.
- The calculation of the equalization amount offered of $525,528.08 was made based on the numbers Beacham provided to the paralegal for Mr. Johnson.
- Neither Mr. Johnson nor his paralegal were given the bank statements or tax returns to calculate the equalization amount.
- In a document from Mr. Johnson’s file that he explained was created by his paralegal as a to do list, appearing to be created post death of the Decedent, noted is “to determine gifts made to the spouse and children of Beach and Ellen from May of 1997 forward to be distributed with five (5) percent interest to Julia”. Mr. Johnson explained that he told his paralegal that was incorrect.

William H. Reynolds, III, Mr. Johnson’s law partner, supported Mr. Johnson’s testimony because he reviewed the draft of the equalization provision. He testified that if a client wanted to look back, he would want to capture what those gifts had been to calculate the number to equalize. Mr. Reynolds agreed that the Petitioner should be equalized with the higher amount given to Beacham or Ellen.

Beacham testified he made the following pre-Trust gifts after the family meeting with Mr. Johnson in anticipation of the creation of the Trust: $24,000.00 ($12,00.00 x 2) for annual gifts to spouses on September 26, 2007 and $240,000.00 for 529 plans for grandchildren on October 1, 2007, and agreed they should be included in the equalization calculation that he offered Petitioner but that after the lawsuit he withdrew that as part of his calculation. On October 16, 2007, he became Trustee of the Trust; however, the Trust was not funded until the death of the Decedent in April of 2016. Beacham began the accelerated gifting program as the Decedent's signatory or agent under a Power of Attorney and does not remember if the Decedent individually continued gifting after the Trust. Specifically, Beacham reviewed the financial documents and could not find where she independently acted or gifted after the Trust's creation.

Beacham testified that he relied heavily on Dino Corontzes, who was the broker for the Decedent's investment accounts and the husband of Ellen, to make the annual gifts. Beacham agreed that the Decedent paid full tuition to Hammond School for his children and Ellen's children before the creation of the Trust and that he considered the payments a gift. He further stated that while he continued to pay Hammond School tuition for the grandchildren as signatory on the Decedent's account after the creation of the Trust, he did not consider it to be a part of the definition of lifetime gift for equalization in the Trust. He testified that he is not aware of other donations the Decedent made to Hammond School.

Beacham, after a one-day recess during the trial and his ability to go back through his records, agreed to Mr. Durant's review of the financial documents and Mr. Durant's calculations. Based on Mr. Durant's review and calculation, from the time Beacham took over managing the Decedent's gifting in September of 2007, the gift amount totaled $804,499.23. Of that total gift amount, $396,305.23 was received by the spouse, and issue of Ellen, and $408,194.00 was received by the spouse and issue of Beacham. Prior to the creation of the Trust, the Decedent had previously given gifts in the amount of $997,869.83. Of this prior gift amount, $495,113.92 was received by the spouse and issue of Beacham and $502,755.92 was received by the spouse and issue Ellen.

On May 31, 2016, an email was sent by Beacham offering the equalization distribution to his sister Julia in the amount of $525,528.08. This offer was a result of calculations by Mr. Johnson's paralegal based on numbers she received from Beacham regarding annual gift amounts to each spouse and their issue. While there is some disagreement about when the offer was received or when the offer was officially rejected, it is clear that the Petitioner received the offer and wanted additional documents to review to be able to determine if the amount was correct. This equalization distribution was ultimately rejected by Julia on or about August 31, 2016, due to her own investigation of previous lifetime gifts she believed should have been included in the equalization distribution calculation.

8 of 10 am

Having carefully considered all testimony, exhibits, and arguments presented at the hearing and the other submissions of the parties, the Court makes the following:

FINDING OF FACTS AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. Janet B. Brooker died on April 16, 2015 as a resident of Richland County, South Carolina, therefore the Probate Court has subject matter jurisdiction pursuant to S.C. Code Ann. § 62-1-302(a) and § 62-1-302(a)(3), 1976, as amended and venue is proper pursuant to S.C. Code Ann. 62-3-201(a)(1), 1976, as amended.
2. The Last Will and Testament of Janet B. Brooker, executed October 27, 2007, provides that the totality of her estate be poured over into the Janet B. Brooker Trust, established October 27, 2007.
3. Pursuant to S.C. Code Ann. § 62-7-201, 1976, as amended, the Probate Court has exclusive jurisdiction, to “ascertain beneficiaries, determine a question arising in the administration or distribution of a trust including, questions of construction of trust instruments...”
4. The Janet B. Brooker Trust is governed by the laws of the State of South Carolina.
5. The beneficiaries of the Trust are the children of Janet B. Brooker: Beacham, Ellen, and Julia.
6. The Trust provides for an equalization distribution for the Settlor’s daughter Julia upon the Settlor’s death, for all lifetime gifts given to the spouses and issue of Beacham and Ellen.
7. Prior to the October 16, 2007 execution of the Trust, W. Steven Johnson, as drafting attorney, represented the Settlor and met with the family to explain the Decedent’s estate plan.
8. At the time of the execution of the Trust instrument, the Decedent had previously given lifetime gifts in the amount of $997,869.83 to the spouses and issue of Beacham and Ellen.
9. These previous gifts were not discussed with Mr. Johnson.
10. The Decedent did not want Julia to be disadvantaged or treated differently because she did not have a spouse or children.
11. The Decedent wanted Julia equalized at her death.

9 of 10 am

12. Mr. Durant was able to capture gifts to the spouses and issue of Beacham and Ellen from approximately 1992 forward by a review of all account statements and tax returns available.
13. The phrase in the Trust document that “the Settlor has previously given lifetime gifts and will continue” is evidence that the Settlor intended that the previous lifetime gifts be included in the equalization calculation for Julia and comports with her desire for Julia to be treated the same.
14. Gifts such as private school tuition, college plan contributions, and college tuition are to be included as gifts in the equalization calculation.
15. The sum total of the lifetime gifts to the spouses and issue of Beacham and Ellen, as calculated by Mr. Durant is $1,802,369.07, with $899,061.15 to spouse and issue of Ellen and $903,307.92 to the spouse and issue of Beacham.
16. Five percent interest on that amount through the date of February 5, 2019 was $1,139,694.81.
17. The total of $2,942,063.88 will be divided by two to allow for Julia to be equalized to but not receive more than either the spouse and issue of Ellen or Beacham.
18. As of the trial date, the amount owed to Julia to equalize her to the lifetime gifts to her siblings’ spouses and children was $1,471,031.94 ( $$2,942,063.88 / 2$ ).
19. This same formula shall be used to calculate date of payment amount.

THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

- A. Julia B. Brooker was entitled to $1,471,031.94 as of February 5, 2019, as her equalization distribution of the Janet B. Brooker Trust.
- B. The Trustee of the Janet B. Brooker Trust shall pay the amount due to Julia B. Brooker using the formula as outlined above to calculate interest and final payment.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

ORDER ALLOWING ATTORNEY'S FEES

THIS MATTER COMES BEFORE THE COURT upon the filing of an Affidavit in Support of Award of Attorney's Fees and Reimbursement of Expenses, by Attorney James M. Griffin on behalf of his client Julia Brooker ("Petitioner") on February 28, 2019. The Affidavit asks for this Court to award attorney's fees and reimbursement to Julia Brooker for cost paid by her in the matter of the Janet B. Brooker Trust, case number 2017-GC-40-00036, from the Janet B Brooker Trust ("Trust"). Respondents, through their attorneys Thornwell F. "Biff" Sowell, III and Bess J. DuRant, of the law firm Sowell Durant, filed a Memorandum in Opposition to Petitioner's Fee Affidavit on April 10, 2019.

A hearing on the matter was scheduled and held on May 22, 2019. All parties were sent Notice of Hearing. All parties were present at the hearing with their respective counsels.

At the hearing, the Court heard arguments from both sides about the appropriateness of awarding attorney's fees in this case, including arguments based on the experience of the attorneys' on either side, and the differences in hourly rate charged by each set of attorneys based on that experience. Mr. Griffin argued that Respondents' legal fees are being paid by the Janet B. Brooker Trust, while Petitioner personally paid the fees and costs of her attorney. This court notes that after the hearing on the fee issue, this court issued its ruling in the case in favor of the Petitioner.

Because the remaining Trust corpus is to be split evenly between Respondents and Petitioner after the distribution ordered in this Court's Order filed June 20, 2019, having the Trust be responsible for some attorney's fees advantages some beneficiaries over others, reducing the amount of corpus left to be distributed to all beneficiaries. The Court views this as inequitable. For this reason, the Court required Respondents' to provide their itemized legal bill so that a comparison could be made with that of the Petitioner's.

The Probate Court has authority to award attorney's fees in this trust matter pursuant to S.C. Code Ann. § 62-7-1004 which states "In a judicial proceeding involving the administration of a trust, the court, as justice and equity may require, may award costs and expenses, including reasonable attorney's fees, to any party, to be paid by another party or from the trust that is the subject of the controversy.

After reviewing the legal bills and professional fees of both Respondents and Petitioner and finding them comparable, and weighing the equities of the case, Petitioner's Motion for Attorney's Fees and Reimbursement IS HEREBY GRANTED.

THE COURT FURTHER ORDERS THAT Petitioner's attorney's fees and reimbursement be paid out of the corpus of the Janet B. Brooker Trust, along with Respondents' attorney's fees.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

ORDER REGARDING MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION AND TO
ALTER OR AMEND UNDER RULES
52 AND 59(e), SCRPC

THIS MATTER COMES BEFORE THE COURT upon the filing of a Motion to Reconsider and to Alter or Amend Under Rules 52 and 59(e) (hereinafter "Motion") by Beacham O. Brooker (hereinafter "Beacham"), in his official capacity as Trustee and individually as a Beneficiary of the Janet B. Brooker Trust, and Ellen B. Corontez (hereinafter "Ellen"), individually as a Beneficiary of the Janet B. Brooker Trust, (hereinafter collectively "Respondents") through their attorneys Thornwell F. Sowell, III and Bess J. DuRant, filed on July 1, 2019. Julia B. Brooker (hereinafter "Julia"), through her attorneys James M. Griffin and Margaret N. Fox, filed a Response in Opposition to the Motion for Reconsideration on August 29, 2019. Rule 59(f), SCRPC, allows for a Rule 59(e) motion "in the discretion of the Court [to] be determined on briefs filed by the parties without oral argument."

The Motion asks this Court to reconsider and to alter or amend its Order Calculating Equalization Distribution of Lifetime Gifts (hereinafter "Order") dated June 22, 2019 and filed June 20, 2019. In the Order, the Court concludes that the language "lifetime gifts" in the equalization provision of the Janet B. Brooker Trust (hereinafter "Trust") included gifts Janet B. Brooker (hereinafter "Decedent" or "Settlor") made to the spouses and children of Beacham and Ellen prior to the creation of the Trust on October 16, 2007. The Court found that it was the Decedent's intent to have Julia B. Brooker (hereinafter "Julia") equalized at her death, therefore, the equalization provision was interpreted so that Julia would receive half of the sum total of all lifetime gifts made to the spouses and children of Beacham and Ellen, plus five percent interest, as calculated on the date of payment so that she may be equalized.

Respondents request the Court explicitly rule on the threshold question of whether the Trust Agreement is ambiguous (Motion at 2). Respondents also argue that the Court ignored the intent of the Settlor in making its findings and rendered the phrase “[f]rom the date of this trust forward, the Trustee shall...” meaningless (Motion at 2, 3). Respondents’ further claim the Court erroneously relied on the testimony of Julia in violation of the Dead Man’s Statute and the parol evidence rule (Motion at 3, 4).

This Court considers Respondent’s Motion and offers clarifications of its Order as set forth below.

The Equalization Provision of the Janet B. Brooker Trust Is Ambiguous

Respondents argue that the Court did not explicitly rule on the threshold question of whether the Trust Agreement or its equalization provision is ambiguous (Motion at 2). The Court has previously determined that the equalization provision is ambiguous, however, for clarification, the Court explicitly rules that the equalization provision of the Janet B. Brooker Trust is ambiguous. Even Beachum and his witness, drafting attorney Steven Johnson, had different interpretations of the Settlor’s intent regarding how to interpret the equalization calculation in the Trust document.

The Court Made Specific Findings and Conclusions Regarding the Settlor’s Intent

Respondents argue that the Court ignored the intent of the Settlor in making its findings (Motion at 2). The Court determined that the Settlor’s intent was for Julia not to be disadvantaged or treated differently because she did not have a spouse or children and that Julia should be equalized at the time of Janet’s death (Order at 10, 11). The Court based this determination on the plain language of the Janet B. Brooker Trust as well as the situation and purposes of the parties at the time the Trust was created. See Schulmeyer v. State Farm Fire and Casualty Company, 353 S.C. 491, 579 S.E.2d 132 (2003); Columbia East Associates v. Bi-Lo Inc., 299 S.C. 515, 386 S.E.2d 259 (Ct. App. 1989).

When considering the plain language of the Trust as a whole, “equal shares” appears twice, indicating that the Settlor intended her children to receive equally under the Trust:

- Article V (1)(b), General Distribution of Personal and Household Effects with a Mandatory Memorandum: “In default of such memoranda, or to the extent that such memoranda do not completely or effectively dispose of such property, the rest of the

2/26 am

Settlor's personal and household effects of every kind shall be distributed to the Settlor's children surviving the Settlor, in approximately equal shares..."

- Article VI, Trust Estate to Settlor's Issue: "Upon the death of the Settlor, the Trust Estate (which shall include any property which may be added from the Settlor's General Estate) shall be held in trust or paid over and distributed to the Settlor's surviving children in equal shares..."

Considering the context in which the Trust uses the phrase "equal shares" to indicate that the Settlor's intent was for her surviving children to receive equal shares of personal and household effects and of the Trust Estate, it follows that the Settlor's intent of the equalization provision in Article V(2) was also to ensure her children received equally, and therefore that Julia would be made equal as to all the lifetime gifts made to the spouses and children of Beacham and Ellen upon the Settlor's death.

Further, in determining the situation and purposes of the Settlor at the time the Trust was created, the Court also relied on the testimony of Steven Johnson, who testified on behalf of the Respondents. According to Johnson, the Settlor did not want Julia to be disadvantaged as a result of the lifetime gifts to the spouses and children of Beacham and Ellen since Julia was not married and had no children (Trial Tr. 102:6-11). Based on this express desire by the Settlor, Johnson testified that he told the Settlor that he could put in a provision to "catch up" Julia for gifts made to Beacham and Ellen's spouses and children (Trial Tr. 102:11-14).

Mr. Johnson further testified that, after the family meeting on September 25, 2001, he asked his paralegal to "prepare a codicil with an equalization provision in it" (Trial Tr. 135:4-8). The Court found persuasive the Draft First Codicil to Last Will and Testament of Janet Bloom Brooker, Plaintiff's Exhibit 9, which in pertinent part reads:

"I give, devise and bequeath such amount necessary to equalize for gifts given to any child of mine during my life. Thus, to the extent that I have not equalized for such gifts during my lifetime, I direct that at the time of my death my Personal Representative determine what gifts I made and whether I accomplished equalization and if not then I direct my Personal Representative to make equalizing gifts to my children or to such child's issue, per stirpes. Such equalization shall be made for the value of the gift given at the time such gift was made with no interest thereon."

Mr. Johnson agreed that this draft codicil created by his paralegal does not make a distinction between gifts given before and after the Trust was created (Trial Tr. 136:25 – 137: 1-5).

Additionally, the Court relies on the To Do List of Mr. Johnson's estate paralegal, submitted as Plaintiff's Exhibit 11, which states: "Need to know the amount of annual exclusion gifts to the children of Beach and Ellen, as well as the spouses of Beach and Ellen, beginning in May of 1997. The amount of these gifts will accrue interest at 5% from the date of the gift until the amount is distributed to Julia.” This exhibit clearly indicates the Trust’s equalization provision included the lifetime gifts made before the Trust was created.

3/26/19

Based on the above testimony and the evidence submitted, the Court considered the Settlor’s intent and determined that it was for Julia not to be disadvantaged or treated differently because she did not have a spouse or children (Order at 10, 11). As such, the Court determined that all lifetime gifts made to the spouses and children of Beacham and Ellen were to be included in the equalization distribution in order to ensure Julia were made equal (Order at 8).

The Court Determined that the Phrase “[f]rom the Date of This Trust Forward, the Trustee Shall...” Indicates the Beginning of Beacham’s Duties as Trustee

Respondents argue that the Court rendered the phrase “[f]rom the date of this trust forward, the Trustee shall...” within the equalization provision meaningless (Motion at 3). The Court determined that this phrase plainly marks the beginning of Beacham’s duties as Trustee.

Respondents argue that this language was not “imposing a duty on the Trustee to equalize Beach, Ellen, and Julia for gifts made prior to the Trust and the Settlor had substantially better knowledge as to the gifts she made to each child and grandchild prior to the Trust” (Motion at 3.) Respondents quote In re Matter of Decker, 322 S.C. 215, 219, 471 S.E.2d 462, 463 (1995), claiming that “no word, clause, sentence, provision or part shall be rendered surplusage, or superfluous....” however the portion cited applies to statute interpretation, not contract interpretation. Contract precedent determines that interpretation of the language in a testamentary trust must be reasonably supported by a plain reading of the document as a whole. See Epworth Children’s Home v. Beasley, 365 S.C. 157, 167, 616 S.E.2d 710, 715 (2005); Harper v. South Carolina Tax Commission, 267 S.C. 144, 149, 226 S.E.2d 699, 701 (1976). Therefore, the Court determined that the plain reading of the phrase “[f]rom the date of this trust forward, the Trustee shall...” indicates the beginning of the Trustee’s duties.

Further, although the Settlor may have had substantially better knowledge of the gifts she made to each child and grandchild prior to the Trust, the gifts were accurately identified by accountant George Durant via bank and investment statements of the Settlor (Order at 12). The sum total of all lifetime gifts was calculated to be $997,869.83 (Order at 8). Therefore, this point is moot.

The Court’s Order is not Based on Evidence Prohibited by the Dead Man’s Statute

Respondents contend the Court erroneously relied on Julia's testimony in violation of the Dead Man's Statute and the parol evidence rule (Motion at 3-4). This argument is without merit. There is no indication under the "Findings of Facts and Conclusions of Law" section of the Order that supports the assertion that the Court's decision is based, in whole or in part, on the testimony of Julia Brooker. The only allusion to Julia's testimony in the Order is found under a summary of all testimony provided by witnesses at the hearing. As set forth in the summary, Julia was permitted to testify as to what she believed her mother's intent was "as to the 2007 estate plan and the Trust" (Order at 5). A review of the transcript of her testimony illustrates that the Court carefully circumscribed the scope of her testimony. Julia was not permitted to testify as to any communications she had with her mother about her mother's intentions regarding the equalizing provision in the Trust. Rather, she was permitted to provide background information and to testify that in family meetings with Steve Johnson, she was told by Steve Johnson that her mother intended to "catch her up at the end" (Trial Tr. 254:1). This Court correctly ruled that such testimony is not prohibited by the Dead Man's Statute, nor is it prohibited from the Court's consideration based on a claim of attorney-client privilege (Id. at 254:23-255:11).

Moreover, the information provided to Julia in her testimony was duplicative of the information provided through Steve Johnson's testimony and documents introduced in to evidence. As recognized by the Court (Id. at 254:5-8), Mr. Johnson mimicked Julia's testimony that it was the Settlor's intent to catch Julia up at the end because Janet did not want Julia to be disadvantaged (Id. at 102:6-14). The gifts made by Janet Brooker prior to 2007, as testified by George Durant, were identified by the bank and investment account statements of Janet Brooker. Given the introduction of this evidence from permissible sources other than Julia, Respondents cannot support their argument that the Order necessarily relied on impermissible testimony provided by Julia.

The Court's Order Need Not Address the Admissibility of Parol Evidence

Lastly, Respondents never objected to parol evidence being considered by the Court during the hearing. A party cannot use a motion to alter or amend a judgment to present an issue that the party could have raised prior to judgment but failed to do so. MailSource, LLC v. M.A. Bailey & Associates, Inc., 356 S.C. 370, 374, 588 S.E.2d 639, 641 (Ct. App. 2003). Therefore, the Court need not address the admissibility of parole evidence.

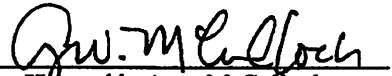

Upon review of the Order and consideration of Respondent's Motion for Reconsideration and to Alter or Amend and Petitioner's Response, the Court confirms and clarifies its Order

Calculating Equalization Distribution of Lifetime Gifts dated June 22, 2019 and filed June 20, 2019.

THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT respondents Motion to Reconsider and to Alter or Amend the Order issued by this Court dated June 22, 2019 and filed June 20, 2019, has been considered, and the Court hereby clarifies its Order.

1           Judge McCollough relied upon this. And you'll
2 see it in the transcript. We broke the trial down so that
3 Beach, who was the trustee and who was the PR, could
4 compare George Durant's calculations with his own records
5 and come back to court and say are there issues here, do
6 we have problems and that's why it didn't go from day one
7 to day two. It went from day one, there's a break and the 8 break for the trustee to examine our forensic accountant's
9 records and to see are there issues with it, do you have 10 problems with it. And it came back and the records were 11 solid, the math is solid and there was no significant 12 issue. I mean, there's interpretation of the trust, but 13 the fact that $997,000 was given before Ms. Brooker
14 executed the trust is undisputed. And, again, as I say
15 down here, Steven Johnson testified that he was not aware
16 of the mother giving this amount of money in lifetime
17 gifts prior to the date of the trust.

18           Now, I'm going back to what I mentioned earlier.
19 Judge McCollough then concluded that lifetime gifts mean
20 lifetime gifts, not gifts after a certain date of a trust
21 that was executed. But then she also said because the 22 reason she concludes that is because mother's intent as 23 glean from the documents, glean from, you know, the 24 testimony of Steve Johnson that Julia not be 25 disadvantaged. And that Steven Johnson was unaware of the

1 significant contributions before, but Judge McCollough has
2 to then take a equally -- well, frankly she has to take a
3 more aggressive interpretation of the plain language in
4 this provision in order to equalize it. And, again, as I
5 said, the mathematical formula is that you would add up as
6 what we said that Julia would get 2.9 million dollars
7 because that's the grand total of lifetime gifts plus
8 interest at 2.9 million dollars.

9           Judge McCollough said, no, that be a windfall
10 and the goal was to equalize it. So in order to get 11 Julia's award, we're going to take the sum of A and B and 12 we're going to divide it by two because each one of them
13 are brother and sister would have gotten half of this.
14 Well, they wouldn't have gotten half of this. They 15 wouldn't have gotten any of the interest, but they would 16 have got half of this. And so we're dividing that by two.
17 Otherwise, Julia would get a windfall.

18           Now, we didn't appeal that because what Judge
19 McCollough's ruling does it catches Julia up. It makes 20 her equal. It doesn't get anybody a windfall. They're 21 not complaining about this application because it provides
22 equality, but what they want is a $997,000 windfall here
23 plus interest at 1.8 million, you know, net that back.
24 They want your Honor to give them a windfall by cutting
25 off $970,000 of lifetime gifts that were given before the

1 date of the trust even when Steven Johnson who prepares an
2 equalization document includes gifts that predated the
3 trust and his evaluation because that's what he knew
4 about. He did not know $997,000. And, you know, for that
5 reason your Honor, we think strongly believe that Judge
6 McCollough got it right. She didn't -- she took her time.
7 And I know your Honor will, but she had the benefit of 8 weighing the credibility of the witnesses, comparing the 9 contradictory internal documents of Steven Johnson's 10 office, comparing the limitations in his testimony that he
11 was unaware of the roughly one million dollars of lifetime
12 gifts that were given. And he says to that had I known
13 what I would have told her is to catch up today and then 14 we'll go from there, but he didn't know about it. So he 15 couldn't give that advice.

16 And there's only one way to interpret this trust
17 agreement where it's equal for the three children, which 18 is all Ms. Janet Brooker ever wanted and that is how Judge
19 McCollough did. If you reverse this case, if you apply
20 their interpretation, Brother Beach and Brother Ellen get 21 a windfall to the tune of $997,000 plus interest. And we
22 respectfully request you shouldn't do that. Thank you.

23 THE COURT: Thank you, Mr. Griffin.

10                                    DIRECT EXAMINATION

11       BY MR. GRIFFIN:

12       Q     Julia, how old are you?

13       A     Sixty-five.

14       Q     Where were you born and raised?

15       A     I was born in Columbia, South Carolina and raised
16            in Columbia, South Carolina.

17       Q     Who are your parents?

18       A     Janet Bloom Brooker and Beacham Owens Brooker.

19       Q     Have you had any siblings?

20       A     Yes, two.

21       Q     Who are your siblings?

22       A     My brother Beacham Owens Brooker, Jr. and my 23            sister Ellen Brooker Corontzes.

24       Q     Are they here in the courtroom today?

25       A     They are.

1 and then they spun off another company,
2 Lockheed Martin Aggregates, which we were allowed
3 to buy stock in that company or switch to that
4 company if we choose to.

5 Q And how has Lockheed Martin done over the years as 6 an investment?

7 A Nice. It's done very well. It's defense stock,
8 and one of the biggest I guess defense stocks in
9 the country along with Boeing.

10 Q Julia, have you ever been married?

11 A No.

12 Q Do you have any children?

13 A No.

14 Q How about your brother Beach?

15 A He's married with two daughters.

16 Q Do you roughly remember when he got married?

17 A 1988 or '87.

18 Q And he's been married ever since?

19 A Yes.

20 Q And what is his wife's name?

21 A Elizabeth Kennedy Brooker. And I call her Beth.

22 Q So Beach and Beth. Do Beach and Beth have
23 children?

24 A They have two daughters, yes.

25 Q What are their children's names?

February 5&7, 2019

Julia B. Brooker v. Beacham O. Brooker, Jr., et al.

19

1 A From my understanding, yes, they did. They
2 started in South Kilbourne kindergarten, I think.
3 Kilbourne Park Kindergarten. And then went to 4 Hammond from first grade on, I believe.

5 Q Did they go to college?

6 A Yes. Elizabeth went to the University of South
7 Carolina, and Grace went to the University of 8 Colorado.

9 Q Do you know whether they went to grad school?

10 A Grace is in grad school right now. Elizabeth has 11 not gone to grad school.

12 Q Your sister, her name is Ellen?

13 A Right.

14 Q And is Ellen married?

15 A Yes.

16 Q Do you remember roughly when she got married?

17 A Yeah, she got married in '89, May of '89.

18 Q Who is her husband?

19 A Arthur Constantine Corontzes. He goes by Dino.

20 Q So Dino and Ellen were married in '89?

21 A May of '89, Mother's Day weekend.

22 Q Did Dino and Ellen have children?

23 A They have two boys.

24 Q What were the boys' names?

25 A The oldest one is Arthur Brooker Corontzes, and

1 Q Did she set up trusts for the grandkids when they
2 were born?

3 A Right, yes. Each grandchild got a trust set up by
4 my mother.

5 Q Do you remember when?

6 A Let's see, probably -- Arthur was born in '90, so
7 maybe starting in '92 or '93. Maybe '91. I don't
8 know. Each child got it, I think, as close to 9 their birth.

10 Q Do you know who your mother's estate lawyer was 11 after your father died?

12 A Well, at the end, it was Steven Johnson. He had 13 a -- was it a Brice in there with Todd, Al Todd
14 was part of it. And then SCN had -- did some 15 estate work.

16 Q Did the law firm of Todd & Johnson, as far as you
17 know, always do the estate work for your father?

18 A No. I don't even know -- I don't know when they
19 came, starting the corporation or the LLC started,
20 but they did a lot of work. South Carolina
21 National was the company's bank and my father and 22 mother's bank and they did some wills and stuff
23 through the trust department there.

24 Q In addition to trusts set up for the 25 grandchildren, did your mother set up trusts for

1           you and Ellen and Beach?

2     A     She did. In 1997, in May.

3     Q     In May of '97. Do you remember what kind of 4           trusts those were?

5     A     It was a family trust. It was a generation
6           skipping trust that what she put in the trust goes
7           to the children of us.

8     Q     It would skip your generation?

9     A     We were allowed to take income, the interest out
10          of the trust. I went back and read it, and I
11          think it was either $5,000 or 10 percent of the 12          principal per year.

13    Q     Was your generation skipping trust, did it remain
14          in place?

15    A     My generation -- it's still in place.

16    Q     Were there other estate planning -- Well, let me
17          ask, was there a family partnership that was 18          created?

19    A     Yeah. It was the partnership of BBB&C for Brooker
20          Brooker, Brooker, and Corontzes. That was my mom, 21          my brother, and mine and Ellen's first initial of 22          our last name.

23    Q     Who were the members of the family limited
24          partnership?

25    A     Originally, it was my mother, my sister, my

2 Q Who are the current members?

3 A My brother and sister and myself.

4 Q And the three of you own equal shares?

5 A Equal shares.

6 MR. GRIFFIN: I'm going to show you what I'm 7 going to mark as Exhibit No. 2, and I'll give the

14 Q Can you identify what Exhibit No. 2 is for Judge
15 McCulloch?

16 A It's a handwritten letter from my mother faxed to 17 Bill Sellers.

18 Q Did you find this document?

19 A Did I find it? Yes.

20 Q Where did you locate it?

21 A Back before my brother was here and my sister
22 lived in Colorado, Dad had surgery, open heart,
23 and at the time, Mom and Dad gave me a lot of 24 documents to hold onto just because I was the only 25 child here and for safekeeping. So I'm just

11 Q Knowing I will drawn an objection to this letter
12 to me. I'm going to mark Exhibit No. 3, please.

13 (Whereupon, List of Documents Examined
14 by Mr. George DuRant was introduced as 15 Petitioner's Exhibit No. 3.)

16

17 BY MR. GRIFFIN:

18 Q Mr. DuRant what is Exhibit No. 3 that I've just 19 marked?

20 A The first page of Exhibit No. 3 is a listing of 21 the documents that I examined. And these are, the 22 first one, Salomon Smith Barney account. These 23 are brokerage statements for the period indicated.
24 So there are 12 different sets of documents for 25 the periods indicated.

1 Q And then what's behind in the exhibit?

2 A Page two is a listing of other documents in
3 addition to the monthly statements on page one,
4 including deposition transcripts. Just the
5 information I reviewed in my work. The third page
6 is marked in the lower right-hand corner, Appendix
7 One. This is a summary of other spreadsheets
8 where I've -- if you look at the first -- the 9 fourth column beneficiary, Arthur B. Corontzes,
10 these are the transfers that I've identified as 11 going to or being gifted to Arthur B. Corontzes
12 for the period indicated in column two. The 13 amount column, of course. The number of days
14 represents, I believe those are the days to 15 May 31, 2018. That was the date of my report.
16 Interest is computed at five percent from the date
17 in column two on the amount in column five.

18 Q Just before we get into all that. Are the 19 spreadsheets that are attached to Exhibit No. 3
20 the summary of your work?

21 A Yes.

22 Q A detailed summary?

23 A Yes.

24 MR. GRIFFIN: Your Honor, we offer Exhibit
25 No. 3 in evidence at this time.

1 MR. SOWELL: No objection beyond the one
2 we've already made.

3 THE COURT: Admitted.

4 (Petitioner's Exhibit No. 3 was admitted
5 into evidence without objection.)

6 BY MR. GRIFFIN:

7 Q Now, George, now that Judge McCulloch has a copy
8 of what you're talking about, can you sort of go
9 back through and explain the first page. There's
10 a listing of accounts. What are these accounts?

11 A These are Mrs. Brooker's accounts that she had 12 control of. These were produced, I presume, I'm 13 not sure of that, by Salomon Smith Barney or 14 Stephens or First Community Bank. Copies of 15 monthly bank statements, monthly brokerage
16 statements. This is what I used to identify 17 transfers to children and grandchildren and 18 spouses of children.

19 Q So you actually had the financial statements going 20 back until -- how far back did you have? Do you
21 recall?

22 A December of 1998 for some.

23 Q And then you've got on the second page, it says
24 documents produced by William Sellers and there is 25 1400 pages. Do you recall whether you had access

1 to gift tax returns that Mr. Sellers had prepared?

2 A Yes. They were gift tax returns. I don't recall
3 this letter you were speaking of earlier, but I --
4 yes, they were gift tax returns.

5 Q And did you use the information from the gift tax
6 return as well as the financial statements to do
7 what? What did you do when you gathered all this 8 information?

9 A Well, for example, if there was a transfer of 10 shares of stock to Arthur Corontzes, that transfer
11 was likely -- I picked it up on the monthly
12 brokerage statement and likely saw it on a gift
13 tax return, reported to the government on a gift
14 tax return. So any clues to what was given,
15 Mrs. Brooker gave to these people, I tried to 16 document it and record it.

17 Q And the spreadsheets in Exhibit No. 3, Appendix
18 One, the first page identifies the beneficiary and 19 in fourth column from the left, and that says
20 Arthur B. Corontzes?

21 A Let me just go through this and acclimate all of 22 us. The first column, some of these were actually
23 checks written by Mrs. Brooker. So if it was a
24 check, I recorded the check number; the date of 25 the transfer, second column; a description of the

February 5&7, 2019

Julia B. Brooker v. Beacham O. Brooker, Jr., et al.

40

1 transfer. Like the first line is a 191 shares of
2 Martin Marietta stock on June 1, 1992, and that
3 was given to Arthur B. Corontzes. The value was 4 $9,979.75. The next column is the number of days
5 from June 1, 1992, to May 31, 2018, the day of my
6 report to you. The next column is interest
7 computed at five percent. The next column is a
8 reference to that transfer, and that is from 9 Mr. Sellers' documents that we were just talking
10 about, Bates stamped number ten. It's also from 11 an account, and right now I'd have to determine 12 what account that is. The next column file and 13 reference. So if I picked up a transfer in 14 brokerage statement and also picked it up on a
15 gift tax return, I would try to document it where 16 it can be located in both places.

17 Q Okay. Now, you said you did interest calculation
18 of five percent. Did you do that because I asked
19 you to do five percent?

20 A I did it because you asked me and because I'm
21 working off of the Trust Agreement.

22 Q So it says to such amounts specified above the 23 date such gift and interest rate of five percent
24 shall be applied. Did you do that?

25 A Yes.

ROA 421

1 BY MR. GRIFFIN:

2 Q So explain, please.

3 THE COURT: And if we interrupted your
4 thought, go ahead and kind of collect yourself
5 again.

7 A Well, I was just thinking, this is what I do. I
8 put numbers to what lawyers write. I'm asked to 9 do this all the time in buy/sell agreements and
10 partnership --

11 THE COURT: And there could be six different
12 interpretations of what that writing is to mean.
13 And that's where we're going to get into other 14 testimony based on the decedent's intent and 15 conversations, specifically Mr. Johnson's 16 testimony. Which is going to have the heavy
17 weight. So let's understand what you thought you
18 were reading, why you interpreted it that way, and 19 then how you calculated. I fully respect what 20 you're trying to tell me.

21 THE WITNESS: Thank you, Your Honor. Would 22 you ask me that question again.

23 BY MR. GRIFFIN:

24 Q The question is did it make a difference whether
25 one child got 400-and-something thousand dollar

1 MR. SOWELL: Other than the prior objection,
2 I have no objection to this. I mean, I think it's
3 just -- let me ask this. It's just a summary,
4 right, of these things you've been talking about?

5 MR. GRIFFIN: Right.

6 BY MR. GRIFFIN:

7 Q So what's Exhibit No. 4?

8 A Exhibit No. 4 is the information we were just 9 talking about except interest has been calculated
10 until today instead of May 31, 2018.

11 Q Did I ask you to prepare Exhibit No. 4 and split
12 the gifts from the date of the trust document?

13 A Yes.

14 Q And you've done that on Exhibit No. 4?

15 A Yes.

16 Q So that if Judge McCulloch determined the gifts
17 before the date of the trust document are not 18 included, then she could use this document --

19 A Yes.

20 Q -- in her ruling?

21 A That's right.

22 MR. GRIFFIN: We move Exhibit No. 4 into
23 evidence at this time.

24 MR. SOWELL: No objection beyond what we've 25 objected to before.

1 THE COURT: His interpretation, to be clear?

2 MR. SOWELL: Yes.

3 (Petitioner's Exhibit No. 4 was admitted
4 into evidence without objection.)

5 BY MR. GRIFFIN:

6 Q So can you walk through this document for Judge
7 McCulloch, please.

8 A Okay. It's divided, the top half of the analysis
9 is a summary of the gifts prior to
10 October 16, 2007. That date is the -- October 16,
11 2007 is the date of the Trust Agreement. So these 12 are the gifts that I identified in those bank
13 statements and brokerage statements prior to 14 October 16, 2007. And it shows by individual
15 Dino, Arthur, Beacham and Beth, Elizabeth and 16 Grace, the six individuals subject to this Article
17 5. So that the total of gifts prior to the date
18 of the Trust Agreement was $997,869.83, and 19 interest at five percent from the date of each one
20 of those gifts to today is $829,712.87. The 21 second half are the gifts, again coming exactly
22 off the same spreadsheet that we've been talking
23 about, gifts after October 15, 2007. So a total
24 of gifts to those six people $804,499.23, with 25 interest from the date of the gift through today

1 at five percent, interest was $309,981.94.

2 Q So what's the grand total of the gifts?

3 A The grand total of the gifts, $1,802,369.06.

4 Q Of that, were more given before the date of the 5 trust or after the date of the trust?

6 A Well, more was given before the date of the trust.
7 $997,869.83 was given before the date of the
8 trust.

9 Q And the total gifts you've calculated plus
10 interest is what?

11 A $2,942,063.87.

12 Q And that is through what date?

13 A Through today.

14 Q Okay. You calculated it for today's hearing?

15 A Yes.

16 Q And then you have daily interest after February 5,
17 2019, $246.90?

18 A On the total. On the grand total, yes.

19 (Whereupon, Todd & Johnson Documents was
20 introduced as Petitioner's Exhibit No.
21 5.)

22

23 BY MR. GRIFFIN:

24 Q I'll show you what's marked as Exhibit No. 5.

25 Were you provided a copy of Exhibit No. 5 as part

1 A I analyzed any transfers to Julia along with
2 Beacham, the son, and Ellen, the daughter. Her
3 brother and sister. Same type of investigation.

4 Q So is that in Exhibit No. 3?

5 A No.

6 Q Did you conclude that there had been some gifts to 7 Julia during this time period?

8 A In my production to you, there were spreadsheets
9 on all those transfers and -- what was your
10 question?

11 Q Did you investigate for gifts to Julia?

12 A I analyzed them, all of that. They weren't
13 relevant to Article 5 of the Trust.

14 Q Not even if every time a check was written to or 15 on behalf of Dino, Liz, Grace, or Arthur, one went 16 to Julia. You did not care about that?

17 A I don't know how to answer that. What I did, in 18 my work papers you will see where I analyze all 19 the transfers to the children including the 20 grandchildren with respect to the children. And 21 then the gifts were, I eliminated all the gifts
22 that were equal between Julia, Beacham, and Ellen.
23 After that I really wasn't -- I didn't do anything
24 because it wasn't relevant.

25 Q Okay. Well, let's look at Appendix One, page

1 Steve Johnson on page 35 of his deposition, "If
2 you read the four corners of paragraph 2, it
3 intends to keep Julie equal with what Beach got
4 and what Ellen got, but not to get her ahead. It
5 says equal, equal means equal to me"?

6 A Well, you know, my point again is that --

7 Q I know your point, but you got to answer my
8 question first, with all due respect. Did you
9 read that?

10 A Did I read what?

11 Q The extract from his deposition, or his
12 deposition?

13 A I've already testified that I remember reading it
14 because I testified about it in my deposition. I
15 don't recall it right now. But, again, the four 16 corners, here are the four corners; there's 17 nothing outside of the four corners that I was 18 asked to assume or even -- you know, I have great 19 respect for Steve Johnson. I've relied on him all
20 my career just about since 1986; he's a top
21 lawyer, and I don't dispute a word he says.

22 Q So you totally disregarded his testimony as the 23 trust and estate's lawyer, the trusted counsel for 24 Janet Brooker and came up with your own
25 construction of this Trust Agreement?

1 A I was not asked to look at all the testimony and
2 make a decision about what this will should have 3 said. I was asked to do an accounting based on 4 what the will actually said, not what it should
5 have said. That's not my area.

6 Q Let me ask you a couple of different questions and 7 I'll be through, I think. Now, with respect to 8 Exhibit No. 3, which is all of these appendices,
9 and going to a little bit broader question than my
10 question about Hammond donations or tuition
11 payments or whatever they were, you did not try to 12 differentiate in this exhibit whether this was a
13 gift or something else?

14 A No.

15 Q So it could have been, you know?

16 A You're talking in general, any of these.

17 Q Yeah, in general any of these?

18 A If a transfer to any of these individuals was 19 documented here, if it was for something else, if 20 it wasn't a gift, I don't know, other than there
21 are certain things not subject to dispute, those 22 of the items reported on a gift tax return, those 23 are obviously gifts. But if there's a transfer or 24 a check for --

25 THE COURT: I'm interrupting. Do we have the

1 gift tax returns? Are they coming into evidence?
2 Did you rely on any gift tax returns in commuting
3 your document? There's a lot of questions and
4 only one of those you may be able to answer. Why
5 aren't we relying on gift tax returns if we're
6 arguing lifetime gifts?

7 MR. GRIFFIN: Your Honor, the gift tax
8 returns are incomplete and so --

9 THE COURT: Why are they incomplete?

10 MR. GRIFFIN: The didn't file them in all the 11 years. So there were years where they weren't 12 filed. Gifts that are under $12,000 don't have to 13 go on a gift tax return; they were not included on 14 these tax returns.

15 THE COURT: Did you see any gift tax returns
16 in creating your document?

17 A Oh yes, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: Did you see what was available?

19 MR. GRIFFIN: Yeah, absolutely.

20 THE COURT: In my notes, I didn't write down
21 gift tax return. In his initial testimony, I
22 wrote brokerage statements and bank statements,
23 I'm sorry. Thank you.

24 MR. GRIFFIN: And I think he clarified. He
25 has Sellers reference, that's probably a gift tax

1 return, but I mean he could clarify it.

2 THE COURT: Sorry to interrupt.

3 MR. SOWELL: No problem.

4 BY MR. SOWELL:

5 Q In your deposition, I wrote down a couple things.

6 One, on line 15 I think you said, "I could not
7 differentiate whether it was a gift or something
8 else." That is still true?

9 A Yes -- Well, for all items that's true. Some 10 certainly were clearly gifts or not subject to 11 dispute.

12 Q And you also testified in your deposition, page
13 17, "As I said, I did not make a determination
14 that they were not gifts."

15 A Page 17?

16 Q Yes, it would be page 17 of your deposition.

17 A What line?

18 Q I don't know, but I can find it.

19 A I'm looking at page 17, tell me again what your 20 referring to.

21 Q Let me see if I can find it. Down at the bottom.
22 Right there, it's line 25.

23 A I was asked about a $114 transfer to Arthur
24 Corontzes and another for $100, I believe, to 25 Arthur and another for $350, and I answered

1 well -- I was asked, "How did you know that those
2 were gifts to Arthur?" My answer was, "Well, I
3 didn't. As I said, I did not make a determination
4 that they were not gifts. Some of these had
5 'happy birthday'; some were for Christmas,
6 obviously, December 25th."

7 MR. SOWELL: Your Honor, I'm through with
8 cross-examination, but I move to strike
9 Mr. DuRant's report and his testimony on the 10 ground that whatever's in here, we don't know
11 whether they're gifts or what the are,
12 particularly Hammond school?

13 THE COURT: I'm not striking them, but I hear
14 your argument and it's valid.

15 MR. SOWELL: Thank you.

16 THE COURT: That is an interpretation that is 17 difficult at best. It would have been lovely had 18 the family sat down through this list and said
19 these are the definite things we agree were gifts.
20 Only they would know collectively.

21 MS. DURANT: Your Honor, may I --

22 THE COURT: Are you both going to talk to me?

23 MR. SOWELL: She wants to confer.

24 MS. DURANT: Just briefly, I just want to 25 confer with Mr. Sowell before he closes up his

1 cross.

2 THE COURT: It sounds like you better listen
3 to your attorney.

4 MS. DURANT: One minute.

5 [Off the Record]

6 MS. DURANT: No further questions.

7 - - - - -

8 RE-DIRECT EXAMINATION

9 BY MR. GRIFFIN:

10 Q Just very briefly. George, did you look at gift
11 tax returns?

12 A I did.

13 Q Were there gift tax returns for every year?

14 A Not for every year.

15 Q What's required to be reported on a gift tax
16 return? Is there a threshold amount?

17 A Well, what's required -- the amount has differed
18 10,000, 12,000, $14,000 at different times, but a
19 lot of times you will report some of these gifts
20 just to document the value, establish that you're 21 claiming this value for the gift so going forward
22 there's no dispute with the IRS later on. But the 23 statute run on the gift tax return, I believe
24 that's kind of a posture that Bill Sellers might 25 have been following.

1 Q The initial report you prepared was dated May 31,
2 2018. Is that right?

3 A That's right.

4 Q That was eight months ago?

5 A Yes.

6 Q And do you know, have they come forward until 7 today and questioned any of the payments to 8 Hammond or any of these other things?

9 A I think the only time we've spoken is at my
10 deposition.

11 MR. GRIFFIN: That's all I have, Your Honor.

12 MR. SOWELL: Nothing further, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: Thank you very much. I assume he 14 can be released from his subpoena, if he's even 15 under subpoena?

16 MR. GRIFFIN: Please. Please, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: No objection?

18 MR. SOWELL: That's fine, Your Honor.

19 THE COURT: Sir, you are free to leave.

20 THE WITNESS: Thank you.

21 THE COURT: Can we break for lunch without 22 any motions, please?

23 MR. GRIFFIN: Sure.

24 THE COURT: I see that it's about 12:30. Can
25 we say two, please?

1 Brooker, who has the privilege. To the extent
2 that they're seeking to waive it through Beach
3 Brooker, to assist him in litigation for him, you
4 would certainly have a conflict to be serving in
5 that capacity as the Trustee. So, if she doesn't 6 have standing, then nobody has standing, and 7 actually, I'm sure that Mr. Johnson would not
8 violate the attorney-client privilege. So I'm --
9 whether I got standing or not, I feel confident
10 that he would not violate the attorney-client
11 privilege unless it's lawfully been waived.

12 THE COURT: I need to ask Mr. Johnson a few
13 questions before I rule, please.

14 Mr. Johnson, it is my understanding based on 15 conversations with the attorneys and possibly at a
16 previous hearing, that after this Trust was 17 drafted and executed, you had a family meeting
18 with the decedent/Settlor was present with her 19 children. Is that an accurate restatement of the 20 facts?

21 THE WITNESS: Your Honor, I need to look at 22 my time records. I had a meeting with 23 Mrs. Brooker on the 25th of September, with 24 Mrs. Brooker and her family. And then she
25 subsequently came to my office in October, the day

1 the Trust Agreement was signed.

2 THE COURT: At some point, she authorized you
3 to have a meeting with her family with her
4 present?

5 THE WITNESS: Yes.

6 THE COURT: Did you discuss her planning, the 7 reason for this trust document?

8 THE WITNESS: I did discuss her planning
9 before Mrs. Brooker as well as family members.

10 THE COURT: I think she waived the privilege
11 by inviting the family to a family meeting where 12 they discussed the issues that relate to this 13 planning document. So I'm going to allow his 14 testimony.

15 MR. GRIFFIN: Your Honor, just to be clear,
16 there was a subsequent meeting to execute and no
17 family members were present for that.

18 THE COURT: If the discussion was allowed,
19 and obviously, Mr. Johnson, Mr. Sowell, it's going 20 to be really important that you provide the 21 testimony that established these meetings or this
22 meeting and what, if anything, the conversation
23 was at the meeting and did it differ in private.
24 That would be something they need to reconsider in 25 terms of a form of a privileged communication. If

1 BY MR. SOWELL:

2 Q Mr. Johnson --

3 THE COURT: Mr. Griffin, I welcome your
4 objection at the appropriate time and we will --

5 MR. GRIFFIN: Thank you, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: -- as we did with the dead man's
7 statute, handle it as we get it. I'm sorry,
8 Mr. Sowell.

9 MR. SOWELL: No problem.

10 BY MR. SOWELL:

11 Q Give the court, if you would, your deep background
12 as a lawyer.

13 A I graduated from law school in 1973. I practiced
14 law with a real estate firm here in Columbia for 15 approximately three years. I worked in the trust
16 department at Bankers Trust of South Carolina for 17 approximately three years. And then in 1980, Al
18 Todd and I formed a law firm of Todd & Johnson.

19 Q And that law firm has been extant or existing ever
20 since that time?

21 A That's correct.

22 Q Although Al Todd prematurely passed away?

23 A That's correct.

24 Q Now, Bill Reynolds who is sitting back here, he 25 has been your partner for a period of what years?

1 A Well, Bill has been my partner for at least 15
2 years.

3 Q And both of you have been highly regarded by your
4 peers in terms of being elected to Best Lawyers
5 and such stuff as that?

6 A Well, I have been elected to the Best Lawyers. I
7 have been elected to Super Lawyers. I'm a
8 certified specialist by the South Carolina Supreme
9 Court. I have held various positions in the South
10 Carolina Bar Association, and I currently serve as 11 the Chairman of the Commission on CLE and Special
12 Sanctions for the South Carolina Supreme Court.

13 Q What field were you given your certification?

14 A Estate planning and probate.

15 Q Before the drafting of the Will and the Trust in 16 2007, had your firm represented the Brooker
17 family?

18 A According to our records, Al Todd first did some 19 work for the Brookers in the early 80s. He did
20 some estate planning for them. Subsequently,
21 Mr. Brooker died, as Julie testified, in '89 or 22 '90, I don't remember. And I assisted with the 23 administration of Mr. Brooker's estate. After 24 helping with the administration of Mr. Brooker's
25 estate, I assisted Janet Brooker in setting up

1 trusts for the grandchildren. I assisted her in 2 doing a what's known as the QPRT, which stands for
3 qualified personal residence trust on a
4 condominium at DeBordieu. As Julie testified, I
5 assisted her with setting up generation-skipping
6 trusts for the three children, and I believe that 7 was in '97. From '97 up through the time that she
8 came back to see me in 2007, I frankly don't
9 remember that much contact with Mrs. Brooker.

10 Q Now, during that period of time, say the 11 approximate ten-year period of time leading up to 12 September 2007, had the Martin Marietta stock, now
13 Lockheed Martin stock, appreciated in a
14 significant way?

15 A I think it was not only the Lockheed Martin stock,
16 but Mrs. Brooker, she owned a house in Columbia,
17 she had an investment account at one of the 18 brokerage firms. The Lockheed Martin stock, as I
19 remember, it paid a good dividend. She didn't 20 have any debts, so her estate in 2007, had become 21 quite large. And I think the person who 22 recognized that was son Beach, and Beach knew that 23 there were going to be some significant estate
24 taxes that were going to have to be paid when 25 Mrs. Brooker died. So Beach recognized that, and

1 Mrs. Brooker came back to me in 2007 to revise her
2 estate planning. It was not just because of the 3 taxes, the taxes are always important, but she 4 went from having a will which would send
5 everything through probate, she wrote a will in a
6 revocable trust. She partially funded that trust
7 so as to avoid probate. She assigned her personal
8 and household effects over into that revocable
9 trust in order to avoid probate. At that point in 10 time, there was a heightened awareness of the --
11 this was in '07 -- of the need to make some gifts
12 to accelerate her gifting program so that at her
13 death the estate taxes would be somewhat lessened.

14 MR. SOWELL: One minute, please, Your Honor.
15 Ms. Thompson, will you mark that as Defendant's
16 Exhibit No. 2.

17
18 (Whereupon, LWAT Janet B. Brooker was
19 introduced as Defendant's Exhibit No.
20 2.)

21
22 BY MR. SOWELL:

23 Q I'm going show you what's marked as Plaintiff's
24 Exhibit No. 1. Is that the Trust Agreement you
25 prepared for Mrs. Brooker?

1 A It is.

2 Q I'm going show you Defendant's Exhibit No. 2. Is
3 that the Last Will and Testament of Janet B.
4 Brooker with the Trust Agreement appended to it?

5 A It is, and the Trust Agreement is attached to it.

6 Q So you prepared both of those documents?

7 A I did.

8 Q Now, after this heightened awareness in September
9 of 2007 to make gifts to lessen estate taxes for 10 Janet at her death, did you schedule a family
11 meeting on September 25, 2007?

12 A There was a meeting on September 25, 2007.

13 Q Was that to discuss the acceleration of gifts?

14 A It was, among other things.

15 Q What was discussed at that meeting?

16 A That we would accelerate the gifts that 17 Mrs. Brooker was going to make; that we were going 18 to make gifts not only to children and 19 grandchildren, but that we would also make gifts
20 to in-laws. As an estate planner, you know, I was 21 primarily relying on Internal Revenue Code
22 Section 2503 and Code Section 529. And I talked
23 with Mrs. Brooker at that time about the avenues
24 that would be available to her to make gifts to 25 the children, the grandchildren, and the spouses

1 of the children. And when I mentioned to her
2 about making gifts to the spouses --

3 MR. GRIFFIN: Your Honor, I'm not sure if
4 he's still in this family meeting or some other,
5 so I'm going to object.

6 THE COURT: This is a private conversation
7 with her?

8 THE WITNESS: This was a conversation on
9 September 25th, and I believe at that time, Your
10 Honor, my time records will indicate that all the 11 family members were there. That it was a
12 family --

13 THE COURT: I also think I found a case that
14 deals with it. It's the concept of a lawsuit
15 between the beneficiary's heirs that the
16 conversations between the deceased and the
17 deceased's attorney are not privileged in the 18 sense that the testimony of that particular
19 witness is necessary to resolve litigation between
20 the heirs of the devisees, which is what we have
21 here, in my opinion.

22 BY MR. SOWELL:

23 Q All right. Now, was there ever any discussion
24 with Janet Brooker about an equalization for
25 retrospective gifts?

1 A No.

2 Q Was the only conversation with her related to
3 prospective gifts?

4 A Yes.

5 Q Now, when you drafted the Trust Agreement and
6 specifically paragraph 2(a) (b) and (c, which is
7 denominated equalizing distribution to the
8 Settlor's daughter Julia B. Brooker, was that
9 intended by Mrs. Brooker and by you to state that
10 this equalization was only to be made going
11 forward as indicated by subparagraph (a)'s
12 language, "From the date of this trust forward?"

13 A That is correct?

14 MR. GRIFFIN: Objection, Your Honor, as to
15 Mrs. Brooker's intent. He can testify to his
16 intent; he can testify what she told him, but he's
17 in her mind now and that's not permissible.

18 MR. SOWELL: That's precisely what he's here
19 to testify about is her intent.

20 THE COURT: Right.

21 MR. SOWELL: He's the only person who can do
22 it.

23 THE COURT: He can testify about the
24 conversation that they had. What she said is more
25 important than what he thinks she said, is the

1 point.

2 MR. SOWELL: Correct. And I agree and thank
3 you.

4 BY MR. SOWELL:

5 Q What did she say, Janet Brooker?

6 A As I was testifying earlier, when I suggested to 7 her that she could make annual gifts not only to 8 children and grandchildren, she could make gifts
9 to spouses of children, and she gave me some 10 pushback at that time saying that would
11 disadvantage Julie. And I said well, it will not 12 disadvantage Julie if we catch Julie up at your 13 death as to gifts that are going to be made to the 14 grandchildren as well as the spouses.

15 Q Did you understand and appreciate from what she 16 said that she was interested in an equalization
17 going forward?

18 MR. GRIFFIN: Objection, Your Honor. He's
19 testifying what she said --

20 THE COURT: I think it's in the way you're 21 phrasing your question, Mr. Sowell.

22 MR. SOWELL: It's fine. Yes, thank you.

23 THE COURT: I think you asked him if they 24 ever had conversations that were retrospective in 25 this equalization, and he remembers no

1           conversations that were retrospective in the
2           equalization. If you want to ask him a different
3           question that gets more to your point.

4 BY MR. SOWELL:

5 Q       Did Janet Brooker make statements to you that led
6           you to believe that she only wanted to equalize
7           going forward?

8 A       We never had a discussion about retroactive gifts,
9           so the discussion, the whole discussion centered
10          around gifts going forward.

11 Q       Was there ever any discussion whatsoever about
12          gifts going backward?

13 A       No.

14 Q       I'm going to show you Defendant's Exhibit No. 1
15          and ask you if you can identify it?

16 A       Yes, this is a schedule that was done by a
17          paralegal in my office that comes up with a figure
18          of $525,528, which is the amount that we computed
19          in determining the amount of the equalization that
20          we felt was due to Julia.

21 Q       Do you continue to believe, along with the
22          Trustee, that amount, the 525,000 and some odd
23          dollars is the amount owed to Julie for the 24          equalization?

25 A       Yes. With this exception: That computation of

1 interest only takes you through the date of death.
2 So she would be entitled to some additional amount
3 of interest on that money.

4 Q Now, with respect to that issue, additional amount
5 of interest, this number, this $525,000 and some
6 change, was it ever offered or tendered to Julia
7 Brooker or her counsel?

8 A Well, during the administration of the estate,
9 Julie was represented by a lawyer whose name is 10 David Siddons, and David and I had a number of 11 conversations, and these numbers on this
12 particular page were communicated to David on two 13 occasions by me and then on another occasion
14 brother Beach, who in May of '16, in May of '16,
15 wrote an email --

16 MR. GRIFFIN: Your Honor, I'm not sure he can 17 testify to what brother Beach told somebody. I'm 18 sorry. Hearsay, objection.

19 THE COURT: As to what you think Beach told
20 Mr. Siddons, sustained.

21 A Your Honor, this --

22 THE COURT: Mr. Sowell, I think --

23 MR. SOWELL: I thought it was an email.

24 A It was.

25 Q -- that you were copied on where Beach made it --

1 THE COURT: That's different.

2 MR. SOWELL: I know it is.

3 THE COURT: Am I going to see the email?

4 MR. SOWELL: Well, I don't think we have --
5 do we have it?

6 THE COURT: We got to back off from this.

7 MR. SOWELL: I don't know whether we have it
8 or not, but he saw it.

9 THE COURT: Mr. Brooker, who is being
10 referred to as Beach, just so we're clear for the 11 record, can testify what he told Mr. Siddons or we 12 can hear from Mr. Siddons. If we have the email
13 and Mr. Johnson was copied on it, I'll be glad to 14 let you pursue it.

15 MR. SOWELL: Do we have it? We might.

16 THE COURT: Show it to Mr. Griffin.

18 (Whereupon, Email was introduced as 19 Defendant's Exhibit No. 3.)

20 BY MR. SOWELL:

21 Q Do you recognize Defendant's Exhibit No. 3?

22 A I do.

23 Q What is that?

24 A It's a letter -- or an email between Julia Brooker
25 and myself. And in paragraph three it says, "I've

1 of gifts prior to '08." Which should've been '07.

2 Q Now, this doesn't have a date on it, but it makes
3 a reference to you will be out of town until when?
4 Sometime September 21st?

5 A September.

6 Q You think that is '16 or '15?

7 A I'm sorry, I didn't understand your question.

8 Q All right. Well, let me show you this.

9 MR. SOWELL: Let's have this marked as
10 Defendant's Exhibit No. 4.

11 (Whereupon, Email was introduced as 12 Defendant's Exhibit No. 4.)

13 BY MR. SOWELL:

14 Q I'm going to show you Defendant's Exhibit No. 4.
15 It's three pages. Do you recognize Defendant's
16 Exhibit No. 4?

17 A I do.

18 Q What is Defendant's Exhibit No. 4?

19 A Attached are the revised calculations on the 20 equalization due Julie pursuant to her mother's
21 Trust.

22 Q So that's the Trust's position with respect to 23 what she's owed?

24 A That's correct.

25 Q And that has the spreadsheet that's already been

1 put into evidence that has the $525,000 on it?

2 A That was the calculation that was sent to me.

3 Q Was it clear from this email and other emails that
4 that money was available to Julia if she wanted
5 it, the 525 plus change?

6 A As far as I was concerned, and as far as the 7 Trustee was concerned, that money was available to 8 her.

9 Q And that would've been sometime in 2016, February
10 through May?

11 A February 24th of '16.

12 Q With respect to the discussion that I had with 13 Mr. DuRant over (a), (b) and (c) of paragraph 2,
14 which is the equalizing distribution, do you
15 recall his testimony that he believes in his 16 construction, which we object to, that the sum of 17 (a) and (b) above shall be distributed to the 18 Settlor's daughter, Julia B. Brooker, if she shall 19 survive the Settlor. Did you hear that testimony?

20 A I did.

21 Q Do you agree with that?

22 A No.

23 Q Why not?

24 A My interpretation or my instructions of 25 Mrs. Brooker's intent was to look at gifts that

February 5&7, 2019

Julia B. Brooker v. Beacham O. Brooker, Jr., et al.

115

1 were given to Ellen's family and to look at gifts
2 that were given to Beach's family from 2007, not
3 looking back looking forward, to determine which
4 was the larger number to add five percent to it
5 and to distribute that much to Julie as an
6 equalizing distribution. So she would not be
7 disadvantaged; she would receive at least as much
8 as of the higher amount that was either going to 9 Ellen's side of the family or to Beach's side of 10 the family. I was not attempting to equalize all 11 gifts between all children. I was just trying to 12 make sure that Julie did not get disadvantaged.

13 MR. GRIFFIN: Your Honor, just for the 14 record, I move to strike that testimony because 15 it's extrinsic evidence that directly conflicts
16 with the language of the document. Thank you.

17 THE COURT: It just took me to another place.
18 Yeah. This is a combo of the children.

19 MR. SOWELL: True.

20 THE COURT: Not the higher of. Where's that
21 document?

22 MR. SOWELL: Well, I'll have to ask Steve
23 about that, I guess.

24 THE COURT: Where's that document?
25

1 BY MR. SOWELL:

2 Q Do you understand what Her Honor is saying?

3 A Well, the only reason that sheet is prepared like
4 it is is because the gifts were kept equal. But I
5 would stress to the Court that, at that time I
6 wrote the document, I didn't know that the gifts
7 were going to be equal. I mean, one child
8 could've had his tuition paid to Vanderbilt.

9 THE COURT: Here's the problem. I don't have 10 the documents that were relied on to create this.
11 Where are they? Where are they?

12 MR. SOWELL: Well, we've got Billie.

13 THE COURT: We've got Mr. -- who's Billie?

14 MR. SOWELL: That was Steve's paralegal. She 15 lives somewhere in Montana now.

16 THE COURT: You can't keep doing this first
17 name thing.

18 MR. SOWELL: Billie McMahan.

19 THE COURT: Well, she might've been the 20 paralegal that created it, but this cannot be
21 relied upon if I don't have the documents behind
22 it. Have y'all looked at the documents behind
23 this?

24 MR. GRIFFIN: No, Your Honor. We've looked
25 at all the documents, and George DuRant did

1 testimony and let's get moving on.

2 MR. SOWELL: Okay, thank you.

3 THE COURT: That's not what this is. This
4 chart is not showing me he knew the numbers were
5 equal. This chart D1 is very clearly a
6 combination of what all children and all spouses
7 got and the interest and how they got to this
8 offer of 525.

9 BY MR. SOWELL:

10 Q Okay, Mr. Johnson, I'm gonna ask you to take D1
11 and to explain how D1 was prepared and what the 12 underlying data was that went into D1 as a 13 summary.

14 A This information was supplied by Beach and we had 15 some notes that were given to us. And from those 16 notes, we prepared these figures. This indicates
17 that on 9/26/07, two gifts of $12,000 were made;
18 that on 10/1/07, $240,000 in gifts were made to a
19 future scholars plans for the grandchildren. It
20 shows that on 1/9/08, two more gifts were made in 21 the amount of $12,000. And it goes from '09
22 through '15. And each year, the annual exclusion
23 amount, which was $13,000, was multiplied times
24 six. That is two spouses and four grandchildren,
25 to come up with either 78 or $84,000 per year.

1 You accrued interest, you accrued interest on
2 those numbers and it was divided by two. Now,
3 this is what happened. This is what was reported
4 to me by Beach or reported to Billie by Beach. It
5 didn't necessarily have to happen like this. And 6 I didn't envision that it was going to be equal.
7 And here's why I didn't envision that it was going
8 to be equal. Internal Revenue Code Section 2503
9 says you can make an annual gift, and in addition
10 to the annual gift, you can pay for tuition at a
11 college and it doesn't count toward the annual 12 amount. Well, when I was drafting these 13 documents, when I was drafting these documents, as 14 I said earlier, I didn't know whether one spouse
15 would die, one grandchild would die, one
16 grandchild would go to Vanderbilt, one child would 17 go to USC. I didn't anticipate that the gifts
18 would be equal. If they were unequal, if the 19 gifts were unequal, I did not want Julia Brooker
20 to be disadvantaged. So I wanted her to get the 21 higher amount plus I wanted to add five percent to 22 that higher amount for the time value of money.
23 In other words, if you're given a hundred dollars
24 in '07 and you have to wait until mom dies in '15,
25 then you're entitled to the time value of some

1 Q Do you remember the date of this trust document?

2 A October 16th '07 .

3 Q Which is after 9/26/07, correct?

4 A That's correct.

5 Q But yet, your position is it should be included in
6 the equalization provision, right?

7 A Those numbers were provided to me by Beach. My 8 impression was that after the meeting that was 9 held in September of '07, he went out and 10 immediately made the gifts. But when he was 11 compiling the numbers, I don't think he wanted
12 Julie to be disadvantaged on that technicality.

13 Q When you said Beach went out and made the gifts,
14 did he have her power of attorney back in 15 September 2007?

16 A He did have her power of attorney. No, no excuse
17 me. The power of attorney was not done until 18 October of '07. The power of attorney was done at 19 the same time the will was done. There was an 20 existing power of attorney that dated back to 21 1988. I could never locate that power of 22 attorney. I don't know whether it named
23 Mr. Brooker, Sr. and Beach as the alternate. I
24 never found that power of attorney. That's a long
25 way of saying to you when the gift was made prior

1 to October of '07, I'm not sure whether Beach had
2 a power of attorney or not.

3 Q The other entry that predates the date of the 4 Trust is October 1, 2007, and that's the $240,000
5 529 contribution?

6 A That's correct.

7 Q And that does predate the date of the Trust,
8 correct?

9 A It does.

10 Q Now, you testified that in your mind -- you said,
11 "As far as I was concerned, this money was 12 available to Julie." And I think you're referring 13 to the $529,528.

14 A That's correct.

15 Q As far as you were concerned, the money was 16 available to Julie. That's as far as you know,
17 correct?

18 A As far as I know, we would have made that 19 distribution to her at that particular point in 20 time.

21 Q Was there anything to prevent you from saying
22 "Julie we owe you 525; I know you think you're 23 entitled to more, but here's the 525 that we admit
24 that we owe you." Was there any reason you
25 couldn't do that?

- 1 A Client never instructed me to do that.
- 2 Q And you didn't do it, did you?
- 3 A No.
- 4 Q And are you aware that the client is a client?
- 5 A The client that I represent was Beach Brooker as
- 6 Executor of the Estate and Trustee of the Trust.
- 7 Q Are you aware that Beach Brooker as Executor of
- 8 the Estate and Trustee of the Trust looked at your
- 9 Exhibit No. 1 in his deposition on January 24th
- 10 2018 and said there's too much money here going to
- 11 Julie? Did you know that?
- 12 A I wasn't aware of that.
- 13 Q Do you know that he disagrees that $240,000 should
- 14 go to Julie?
- 15 A I'm not aware of that.
- 16 Q And he didn't offer $525,000, to your knowledge,
- 17 did he?
- 18 A To my knowledge, going back to that email that I
- 19 saw, he wrote an email to Julie in May of '16 and
- 20 said to her we've provided you with the figures.
- 21 That would be the 525 figure, and encouraged her
- 22 to make a decision on the 525 figure.
- 23 Q You were here this morning when George DuRant
- 24 testified, correct?
- 25 A Right.

1 Q I think we've got some of those.

2 (Whereupon, Handwritten Meeting Notes of
3 Steve Johnson was introduced as
4 Petitioner's Exhibit No. 8.)

5

6 BY MR. GRIFFIN:

7 Q Do you recognize Plaintiff's Exhibit No. 8?

8 A I do.

9 Q Are these your notes from the meeting?

10 A Probably, Jim.

11 Q I think we went over them in your deposition.

12 MR. GRIFFIN: I'd like to introduce eight
13 into evidence.

14 MR. SOWELL: No objection.

15 (Plaintiff's Exhibit No. 8 was admitted
16 into evidence without objection.)

17 BY MR. GRIFFIN:

18 Q Mr. Johnson, number one on the list says -- can 19 you read that, it's your handwriting?

20 A It says, "Do codicil with equalization provision."

21 Q What do you mean by that?

22 A I was gonna look at her existing documents and see
23 if I could make just an amendment to her existing 24 documents by doing a codicil with an equalization
25 provision for the gifts that were going to be

1 given to Julie from that date forward.

2 Q When you say "existing documents," you mean her
3 existing Will?

4 A Yes.

5 Q And then there's other notes down here. It says,
6 "Janet paid for tuition college and private school
7 being done." What do you mean by that?

8 A I think that I made that recommendation to her in 9 that meeting, and apparently, she was doing that.

10 Q As part of the gifting program?

11 A As part of the gifting program.

12 Q And you don't consider tuition to Hammond to be 13 outside the gifting program?

14 A No.

15 Q And then there's an entry for 529 plans, and it
16 says 60,000. What do you recall that being about?

17 A That was my telling her that she had the 18 availability to make a $60,000 gift into a 529
19 plan for each one of the grandchildren. So
20 basically, what you could do is take $12,000
21 multiply it times five, because you could give 22 five years of annual gifts, and that comes up to 23 the $60,000 figure. If you take 60,000 and you
24 multiply it times four grandchildren, that's where 25 the $240,000 gift came in.

1 Q And that's what we see on Exhibit No. 1?

2 A Yes.

3 Q And then there's an "FLP, look into doing." Is 4 that a family limited partnership?

5 A It's a family limited partnership. I was
6 encouraging that they consider a family limited
7 partnership to cut down on the estate taxes.

8 Q And that was done, correct?

9 A It was not done until 2013.

10 Q QPRT, I think you mentioned that, qualified --

11 A Well, she had done in '92, she had done a
12 qualified personal residence trust on her
13 condominium at DeBordieu. The Internal Revenue
14 Code allows you to do two QPRTs. So that 15 recommendation was to do a QPRT on her house here
16 in Columbia.

17 Q And then there's some notes on the next page.
18 Going back to the first entry, "do codicil with 19 equalization provision," I think you testified
20 that you don't recall any discussions about 21 retroactive gifts. Is that right?

22 A Right.

23 Q But you're not telling Judge McCulloch that 24 Ms. Brooker said I do not want to equalize Julie 25 for previous gifts?

1 A The subject never came up; we never discussed it.

2 Q Then you prepared, first, a draft codicil,
3 correct?

4 A I did. I didn't prepare it; I had it done by a
5 paralegal in the office. After the meeting on the 6 26th, I went to the paralegal and said to her,
7 will you prepare a codicil with an equalization
8 provision in it.

9 Q And you told her about the meeting that you had 10 with the family?

11 A I told her to do an equalization provision and I
12 would edit it up from what she was going to give 13 me.

14 (Whereupon, Codicil was introduced as 15 Petitioner's Exhibit No. 9.)

16 MR. SOWELL: No objection.

17 BY MR. GRIFFIN:

18 Q Is Exhibit No. 9 the draft of the equalization
19 provision?

20 MR. GRIFFIN: Your Honor, they don't object,
21 I move it into evidence formally. And if I didn't 22 move Exhibit No. 9 formally into evidence, I would
23 do so at this time.

24 MR. SOWELL: Without objection.

25 (Plaintiff's Exhibit No. 8 & 9 were

1 admitted into evidence without
2 objection.)

3 BY MR. GRIFFIN:

4 Q So this is a codicil, that's what this document
5 purports to be, a draft codicil?

6 A It's a draft of a codicil that was done by a
7 paralegal in my office.

8 Q Under item number four, subparagraph one, can you
9 read that into the record, please?

10 A (As read) I give, devise and bequeath such amount
11 as may be necessary to equalize the gifts given to 12 any child of mine during my life. Thus to the 13 extent that I have not equalized such gifts during 14 my lifetime, I direct that at the time of my 15 death, my personal representative determine what
16 gifts I made, whether to accomplish equalization,
17 and if not, then I direct my personal
18 representative to make equalizing gifts to my 19 children or such children's issue per stirpes.
20 Such equalization shall be made for the value of 21 the gift given at the time the gift was made and 22 no interest thereon. My personal representative's
23 best faith efforts to determine the value shall be 24 final and binding upon the beneficiaries.

25 Q Now, you would agree that this draft codicil makes

1 no distinction between before and after gifts,
2 correct?

3 A I would agree to that, but I want to stress to you
4 that that was done by a paralegal without my being
5 able to edit it up. And when I got it from the 6 paralegal, my thought process was this is totally
7 inadequate, this is totally inadequate. So then I
8 went to my software and I drafted the pour-over
9 will and the Trust Agreement with the equalization
10 provision in it.

11 Q If we go back to exhibit, whatever your time
12 records are, Exhibit No. 7, Plaintiff's Exhibit
13 No. 7, and if you could go to page 2392. The 14 first entry on October 1, 2007, is a telephone
15 conference that you had with the client's son and 16 son-in-law. And that would be Beach and Dino?

17 A It would be.

18 Q Did you talk to them about the codicil
19 equalization provision?

20 A No.

21 Q And then CKO on that same day, is that your 22 paralegal?

23 A It is.

24 Q Is this documenting the draft codicil that she 25 did?

- 1 A That's correct.
- 2 Q And then there's an entry on 10/4, you had a call
3 to Bill Sellers. Is that correct?
- 4 A That's correct.
- 5 Q And then 10/15, it says that you prepared the 6 revocable trust and pour-over will on 10/15. You
7 also spoke to, I guess, Beach again?
- 8 A I did.
- 9 Q And then -- well, BR, is that Mr. Reynolds back 10 here?
- 11 A It is.
- 12 Q And what's this entry indicate?
- 13 A After I drafted the document, I went into Bill
14 Reynolds' office and asked him to take a look at 15 it.
- 16 Q .25, does that mean a quarter of an hour or 25
17 minutes?
- 18 A Means a quarter of an hour.
- 19 Q So it was 15 minutes?
- 20 A Yeah.
- 21 Q So you met with Mr. Reynolds for 15 minutes after 22 drafting the --
- 23 A I gave it to Bill and I said look at it. He 24 probably spent 15 minutes looking at it.
- 25 Q Do you recall whether he made changes to it?

1 A Apparently so, yes.

2 Q Is there any reason you didn't give them to
3 Mrs. Brooker when she was there signing the
4 documents?

5 A I don't remember why they were given to Dino, but
6 I would not have given them to Dino had Janet not
7 told me it was okay to give them to Dino.

8 Q I understand. And you have a specific
9 recollection of discussing with her the terms of
10 the equalization provision?

11 A I do. I said we'll catch Julie up at death for
12 gifts made from the Trust Agreement forward so
13 that she won't be prejudiced.

14 Q You remember saying "from the Trust Agreement 15 forward?"

16 A I do.

17 MR. GRIFFIN: Your Honor, this is the
18 deposition that Mr. Johnson gave on January 12,
19 2018. I'd like to show it to him. It's sealed.
20 I'm going to unseal it. For the record, it's
21 being unsealed.

22 THE COURT: The deposition of Mr. Johnson is
23 completely attached to your Motion in Limine. A
24 full copy, right?

25 MR. SOWELL: Yes, Your Honor.

1 BY MR. GRIFFIN:

2 Q Mr. Johnson, if you'll turn to page 27 of your
3 deposition.

4 A Okay.

5 Q And I'm asking you beginning at line 10 about her
6 Will and Trust, and then at line 13, I say, "Do
7 you recall whether you explained to her or not."

8 And your answer was, at line 15?

9 A Right.

10 Q And you said "I do," correct?

11 A Right.

12 Q Then line 16 I asked you, "What do you recall
13 doing." And if you'll read your answer in the
14 record, please.

15 A (As read) I recall saying to her we're going from
16 a straight will, which she had in 1988, to a will
17 and revocable trust. And I remember discussing
18 with her that we would be funding the trust. I
19 remember discussing the equalization provision
20 with her, and I remember telling her that her
21 estate, as far as Julie was concerned, would go
22 outright to Julie, but the portion that would go
23 to Ellen and Beach would go to them in the form of
24 a trust.

25 Q And then page 20, I asked, "Do you recall any

1 questions she had of you about the equalization
2 provision." And your answer was?

3 A "I don't recall any question she had about it."

4 Q And then 28, line 4, I said, "When you spoke with
5 her, did you use the phrase "lifetime gifts?" And
6 you said what?

7 A "I don't know."

8 Q And then you said, then I asked, "Do you know
9 whether you explained to her that there could be a
10 difference in lifetime gifts, I mean gifts given
11 prior to the date of the execution of the trust
12 versus gifts given after the entry of the trust?"
13 And you said?

14 A "The whole conversation with Janet was about
15 prospective gifts, not retrospective gifts."

16 Q And I said "okay," and you said it was going
17 forward not looking back?

18 A Right.

19 Q So that was the conversation?

20 A Right.

21 Q And then I asked you, "Is there any language in
22 the Trust Agreement that references past gifts?"
23 In line 18, you say "no." Is that right?

24 A That's right.

25 Q But there is -- I mean, in the Trust Agreement, it

1 A Well, if there's ambiguity there, I want you to
2 understand what Janet Brooker wanted. And she
3 wanted her daughter, Julie, to not be
4 disadvantaged because gifts had been given to
5 spouses and grandchildren. And this schedule
6 accomplishes that.

7 Q Are you aware that before the date of this Trust,
8 that Mrs. Janet Brooker had given the spouses and
9 issues of Ellen and Beach $900,000 in gifts?

10 A I wasn't aware of that, but Janet, you know, was
11 only going from 2007 forward.

12 Q So you think she was aware that she had been
13 giving Ellen and Beach $900,000 in gifts?

14 A I don't know, but I'll tell you what, she never
15 brought it up. If she did, if she'd have said to
16 me Julie should be equalized for that, I would
17 have said to her let's equalize it right this
18 minute, let's make a gift to her right this
19 minute, let's give her -- let's make a gift to
20 Julie right now if she's been so disadvantaged.
21 We're trying to reduce the size of your estate,
22 let's give her an amount right now that will make
23 her equal.

24 Q So then after Mrs. Brooker passes away, the -- was
25 a -- well, let me just ask you. What's this

1 document? It came from your file. Do you
2 recognize the document?

3 A I recognize it. I'm trying to figure out whether 4 it's not -- whether it's an attachment to the 5 estate tax return. And what it's attempting to do
6 is to show what Julie got; it's attempting to show
7 what Beacham O. Brooker, Jr. family trust got; and
8 an attempt to show what the Ellen Corontzes'
9 family trust is. So this is like looking at the 10 estate tax return and determining who gets what.
11 And according to this, Julie would have received
12 $2,173,000 --

13 Q What's Julie's catch up? What's her equalization
14 amount?

15 A $311,000. But that was a preliminary figure, Jim.
16 That was a preliminary figure that was refined
17 later on. When we did the estate tax return, we 18 refined that figure and communicated to David
19 Siddons what our refinement was.

20 (Whereupon, Billie McMahan Notes was
21 introduced as Petitioner's Exhibit No.
22 11.)

23 BY MR. GRIFFIN:

24 Q I'll show you what we've marked as Plaintiff's
25 Exhibit No. 11. It came from your files. Can you

1 identify this?

2 A Yes. This looks like notes that were taken by
3 Billie McMahan to complete the estate tax return.

4 THE COURT: The document before this, did you
5 enter that into evidence?

6 MR. GRIFFIN: No, I withdrew it. I'd like to
7 introduce Plaintiff's Exhibit No. 11 at this time.
8 Any objection?

9 MR. SOWELL: No, no objection.

10 (Petitioner's Exhibit No. 11 was
11 admitted into evidence without
12 objection.)

13 BY MR. GRIFFIN:

14 Q Will you read into the record and for Judge
15 McCulloch's benefit number one on this to do list
16 by your estate paralegal?

17 A "Need to know the amount of annual exclusion gifts
18 to the children of Beach and Ellen, as well as 19 spouses of Beach and Ellen, beginning in May 20 of 1997. These amounts will accrue interest at 21 five percent."

22 Q Now, 1997 goes a long way back compared to what
23 you've offered Julie in this Exhibit No. 1 going
24 back to September 2007?

25 A Jim, I think Billie was simply mistaken about what

1 she wrote in her notes right here. Because I
2 corrected her later on. She was a paralegal.

3 Q Was she the paralegal that wrote the codicil or
4 was that a different paralegal?

5 A That was another paralegal.

6 MR. GRIFFIN: That's all the questions I
7 have, Your Honor.

8 - - - - -

9 RE-DIRECT EXAMINATION

10 BY MR. SOWELL:

11 Q May it please the Court very briefly.
12 Mr. Johnson, with respect to Defendant's Exhibit
13 No. 1, which is the spreadsheet that notes the 14 distributions of $525,528.07, that spreadsheet
15 went to David Siddons?

16 A It did.

17 Q Did David Siddons ever object to that spreadsheet?

18 A No. As a matter of fact, he said it looks
19 reasonable to me. He said that.

20 MR. GRIFFIN: Objection to what --

21 THE COURT: Sustained. Sustained. Hearsay.
22 He's telling you what Mr. Siddons said.

23 MR. SOWELL: May I argue? If you don't want
24 me to, I won't, obviously. I'll shut up.

25 THE COURT: You can put anything on the

1 up with this. What was he told to keep a record
2 of? So starting in -- if the argument is that
3 this is from the Trust forward and the Trustee is
4 now responsible for this, was he given instruction
5 or was there communication about how he was to 6 accumulate this information over the years? Was 7 that something you remember?

8 A I don't, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: You're very firm in your
10 statement that Beach kept them equal, them being 11 the spouses and the children, that they are 12 virtually equal. How did he keep them equal? Did
13 he review them annually and do some kind of 14 equalization annually between them that kept them
15 equal or do you even know?

16 A I don't know, Your Honor. I didn't orchestrate
17 the gifts.

18 THE COURT: It's all him.

19 A I advised the client in '07 that they could use
20 the 529, Internal Revenue Code Section 529. I
21 told them that they could make annual gifts. At 22 that time, the annual gift exclusion was $12,000.
23 And I told them that, under 2503, you could pay
24 tuition, you could pay tuition at colleges and it
25 would not count against the $12,000. So you can

1 make the 12,000 plus you can pay for tuition.
2 That was a way of maximizing the gifts and pushing
3 the gifts forward, but I certainly intended for 4 those gifts to be cataloged and to make sure that
5 when mom died, Julie got the higher amount plus
6 five percent. She was not to be disadvantaged;
7 she was to be kept equal. And I think that
8 happened, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: Did my questions make you want to 10 ask anything else, Mr. Sowell?

11 MR. SOWELL: Yes, Your Honor. You know,
12 something I had this morning, I had about four 13 copies of it, now I cannot for the life of me find
14 it, is that document where Billie McMahan said
15 this may not be the right date. Do you remember
16 your question about that?

17 THE COURT: I haven't seen it.

18 MR. SOWELL: I haven't found it, the second
19 time. But I do want to ask him about another
20 document.

21 THE COURT: If my questions brought something
22 back around or something new, then you certainly
23 have that right. Both of you do.

24 MR. SOWELL: He has no objection, so I'm
25 going to ask Ms. Thompson to mark this.

1 MR. GRIFFIN: I'm happy for him to talk about
2 that, but that's not what his testimony was just
3 now. He was talking about how every year how they
4 determined to give gifts.

5 THE COURT: Well, isn't that his behavior?

6 MR. GRIFFIN: These are transactions
7 involving his mother's money --

8 THE COURT: I've yet to hear him say "my 9 mother said."

10 MR. GRIFFIN: They're transactions involving 11 his mother's money.

12 THE COURT: That he did; that is not dead
13 man.

14 A Each year we would determine --

15 THE COURT: Who's the "we" in this?

16 A Dino Corontzes and I would determine what the 17 amount of the annual gift tax exclusion, what the 18 federal gift tax exclusion was, and it began at 19 $12,000; and therefore, we would give out $12,000
20 to each of the four grandchildren and the two 21 spouses plus, of course, the three children. And 22 that was the maximum you could give without 23 incurring a gift tax. And that's what we did
24 continuing the succeeding years. And during those 25 succeeding years, the annual gift tax exclusion,

1 the IRS's annual gift tax exclusion, went up from
2 12 to 13 to 14. Now, this chart also includes at
3 the top two gifts, one of $24,000. Two times
4 $12,000, which went to my wife and Ellen's
5 husband, and then a couple weeks later, the 6 funding of the 529 plan of 240,000. Even though
7 those two gifts I just mentioned predated the date
8 of the Trust, I didn't feel it was fair to exclude 9 them because we had already had that meeting and 10 decided what we were going to do, this aggressive
11 gifting program. So I included that in what I
12 gave Steve's office as the equalization amount.
13 The backup documents, of course, the January
14 statements from Stephens, and I think a couple
15 years before that when he was at Morgan Stanley.
16 So if you got the January statements in each of 17 these years, you would see doling out of $12,000
18 to Elizabeth Brooker's account at Stephens drawing
19 out to Beacham Brooker's account at Stephens,
20 drawing out to Arthur Corontzes, and then the only 21 unusual one would be a check to my wife Beth 22 because she had no account at Stephens. But that 23 would also be shown on that statement. So it was 24 simple. I didn't consider it even though I'm sure
25 it is discretionary either with my mother or

1 BY MR. GRIFFIN:

2 Q Mr. Brooker, it's your understanding of this
3 Exhibit No. 1 that you have in front of you, the
4 gift amounts starting 1/09/2008 times two, 13,000
5 times six, et cetera, are you saying those are the 6 gift tax exclusion amounts?

7 A Yes, it would be 12,000 times two, that's correct.

8 Q Okay. Well, so -- and you said you went back to 9 source documents -- I guess, let me ask you first.
10 Did you prepare this document or was this
11 something that Mr. Johnson's office prepared?

12 A Mr. Johnson's office.

13 Q And you provided who what underlying source
14 documents to prepare Exhibit No. 1?

15 A I don't know. I would imagine it would've been an 16 email or maybe it was on a telephone call, but 17 what I was saying is the evidence of it would be 18 the Stephens statements.

19 Q So did you provide an email or telephone call
20 giving this information and they just recorded it?

21 A Yes.

22 Q And at the time you gave this information, were
23 you working off the Stephens statements?

24 A I think what I did was I may have called Bill
25 Sellers and said I know that I gave these tax

1 exclusion amount each year to each of these
2 people, what was the tax exclusion amount, and
3 then conveyed that information.

4 Q So you just took what you understood to be the 5 maximum exclusion amount per person, and that's
6 the information you gave Mr. Sellers?

7 A That's correct, yes, sir.

8 Q So that I understand, there's no tuition payments
9 to Hammond over and above the maximum exclusion
10 amount in Exhibit No. 1, right?

11 A That's correct.

12 Q You had two children went through Hammond?

13 A Yes.

14 Q Did your mother pay their tuition?

15 A Yes.

16 Q The entire time?

17 A Yes.

18 Q When did your oldest daughter graduate from 19 Hammond? Do you remember?

20 A No.

21 Q How old is she?

22 A She's 26.

23 Q So let's say she graduated eight years ago, that
24 should be 18, that would be 2011? Does that sound
25 about right?

1 A 2010, 2011.

2 Q So from -- so from all of 2008, 2009, 2010, 2011,
3 your mother would've paid full tuition for your
4 oldest daughter?

5 A Correct, as she had since the first grade.

6 Q And as well as your second daughter?

7 A Correct.

8 Q Paid full tuition all the way through?

9 A Correct.

10 Q What about Ellen's children? Did your mother pay
11 full tuition to Hammond all the way through for 12 them?

13 A The same, yes, sir, that's correct.

14 Q And none of those tuition payments are showing up
15 on Exhibit No. 1, correct?

16 A That's correct.

17 Q Are you aware whether your mother gave, like, some 18 big scholarship or donation to Hammond or Hammond
19 Foundation?

20 A I'm not aware, no.

21 Q You did take the position in your deposition that 22 the 240,000 should not be included in the 23 equalization?

24 A That's correct, because it predated the Trust, and 25 the Trust is the first equalization clause and

1 then in her estate documents.

2 Q And you did take the position that the other
3 entry, 24,000, on this exhibit, should not be 4 included?

5 A That's correct.

6 Q And you never wrote a check to Julia for any 7 amount of money that you considered not to be in
8 dispute for her catch up provision?

9 A No, I didn't. At that time, Julie was represented
10 by David Siddons, the estate was represented by 11 Steve's firm, they were communicating. I was not
12 to communicate with David Siddons directly.

13 MR. GRIFFIN: That's all the questions I
14 have.

15 MR. SOWELL: Nothing for me, Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: Just a couple.

17 - - - - -

18 EXAMINATION

19 BY THE COURT:

20 Q Mr. Brooker, the numbers that you sent to 21 Mrs. McMahan and either Mr. Johnson in either an 22 email or a letter or a phone call, the numbers
23 that you gave, when did you give them?

24 A Let me explain, Your Honor. It's a bit
25 embarrassing. I kept my emails at my former

1 Q And you weren't asked to do that?

2 A I was not. In May of 1997, I lived in Arlington,
3 Virginia, and I was not dealing with this sort of 4 family thing.

5 THE COURT: Mr. Sowell, again, I apologize.
6 Anything?

7 MR. SOWELL: Nothing else.

8 THE COURT: Mr. Griffin?

9 MR. GRIFFIN: I don't have any questions.

10 THE COURT: Be very careful stepping down,
11 sir.

12 MR. SOWELL: The defendant calls Bill
13 Reynolds.

14 Whereupon,

15 William Reynolds,
16 being duly sworn and cautioned to speak the truth, the
17 whole truth, and nothing but the truth, testified as 18 follows:

19 - - - - -

20 EXAMINATION

21 BY MR. SOWELL:

22 Q Mr. Reynolds, state your full name.

23 A William M. Reynolds, III.

24 Q Are you a lawyer in the firm of Todd & Johnson?

25 A I am.

1 Q Have you been one for several years?

2 A I've been one since October of 2000.

3 Q Were you primarily trained by Albert Creswell
4 Todd, III?

5 A I was.

6 Q And you've continued as an estate planning lawyer?

7 A Yes.

8 Q Since then?

9 A Yes.

10 Q There was a reference by Mr. Griffin, I don't know
11 which exhibit it is, but I've got a copy of it, it
12 has a 10/15/2007 time entry, BRIII. Is that 13 William Reynolds, III?

14 A That's me.

15 Q What is the date on that statement?

16 A 10/15/07.

17 Q What does the time entry say?

18 A "Inner-office conference with Steve Johnson to 19 discuss equalization provision. Proof, revise,
20 edit the same."

21 Q What were your conversations with Steve Johnson?

22 A Well, just to give you some background, Steve and
23 I bounce provisions, drafting provisions, ideas,
24 off each other a good amount of time, and he came
25 to me and asked me to review the equalization

1 provision that we've been discussing today.

2 Q Did you do that?

3 A I did that.

4 Q What did you conclude from reviewing that
5 provision?

6 A I thought it was appropriate for the circumstances
7 that I knew about.

8 Q And what circumstances did you understand before
9 you had that conversation?

10 A I knew that Janet Brooker had a fairly large
11 taxable estate. There was an attempt, pretty
12 aggressive attempt, to give nontaxable gifts, but
13 also an attempt to equalize for Julia Brooker.
14 And so that was the context I looked at the
15 provision for.

16 Q Was there ever any discussion with Steve about
17 equalizing these payments going backwards?

18 A No. He basically told me this is a -- because
19 we're starting this aggressive gifting program,
20 and of course, annual exclusion gifts, gifts for
21 tuitions, for medical payments, are really the
22 lowest hanging fruit in estate planning. There
23 was never any discussion about retrospective or
24 looking back. I think, at least in my experience,
25 if you look back, you gotta start somewhere. And

1 if they had decided to look back, Steve would have
2 asked Mrs. Brooker what were the gifts you've
3 given thus far; let's start with an amount or
4 let's write a check to even up Julia. But that
5 was never part of the discussion between Steve and
6 I.

7 Q Looking at this document, which is the Trust
8 Agreement, and we're looking here at the board,
9 which is 2(a), is there any reference in there to
10 a starting date for looking backwards?

11 A Well, the date that he references in 2(a), says,
12 "From the date of this Trust forward."

13 Q Right. Which was October of 2007?

14 A Right.

15 Q Now, you've heard the arguments Mr. DuRant made
16 about (a)+(b). What you think is the proper
17 interpretation and what did you think then was the
18 proper interpretation of (a), (b), and (c)?

19 A Well, when I first looked at it, reading the first
20 paragraph number 2, the main paragraph, it shows
21 what Janet's intent was. It was clear that she
22 said Julia's not married, she doesn't have
23 children; Ellen's married and has children; Beach
24 is married and has children, and we want to
25 equalize going forward. And (a) says to determine

1 the gifts made to Ellen's family and to Beach's
2 family for the purpose of equalizing under
3 paragraph number two, and then apply five percent
4 and add the result of (a) and the result of (b)
5 and come up with a sum.

6 Q Is there anything in (a) that implies or imports
7 to you that the gifts to Ellen's family and the 8 gifts to Beach's family should be added together?

9 A No. And if you were to read it that way, it
10 wouldn't comport with 2, the main paragraph of 2,
11 which says to equalize. And it wouldn't comply
12 with (a), which says determine the lifetime gifts
13 between the two.

14 MR. SOWELL: Thank you, that's all I have,
15 Your Honor.

16 - - - - -

17 CROSS EXAMINATION

18 BY MR. GRIFFIN:

19 Q You spent 15 minutes looking at this?

20 A I did.

21 Q It says, "From the date of this Trust forward, the 22 trustee shall determine the date and the amount of 23 my lifetime gifts made to the Settlor -- "

24 THE COURT: "by"

25 Q -- "by the Settlor to the issue of Ellen Corontzes

1 Attorneys, come on, please.

2 [Off the Record]

3 THE COURT: We're back on the record.

4 Mr. Brooker is back on the witness stand.

5 - - - - -

6 FURTHER EXAMINATION (Beacham O. Brooker, Jr.)

7 BY THE COURT:

8 Q I think I confused you, sir, so I'm going to 9 apologize. The concept here is I'm trying to 10 understand a family dynamic that is complicated in 11 the sense that this is not the only estate
12 document that drove or led the way from '07 to her
13 death.

14 So when this Trust is created in '07, are you
15 aware of this Trust?

16 A Yes, I was there when it was signed.

17 Q You were there when she signed it. I know it's 18 initially funded with a dollar.

19 A Yes.

20 Q And at the time of your mother's signing this
21 Trust document, you are also being made the power
22 of attorney?

23 A Correct.

24 Q Is that correct?

25 A And Trustee under the Trust. Personal

1 Representative of the Will, Trustee under the
2 Trust, is what I --

3 Q So you're wearing a lot of fiduciary hats?

4 A Yes.

5 Q A lot of things that can get confusing, I get.
6 When your mother, from the '07 Trust forward, did
7 she continue to personally give lifetime gifts?
8 Personally.

9 A Without my knowledge, I wouldn't know.

10 Q Without your knowledge, you wouldn't know?

11 A I mean, if she gave --

12 Q Let me explain where I'm coming from. You're 13 given a directive here.

14 A Correct.

15 Q As the Trustee, you are to determine any lifetime
16 gifts, and you can see from '07 forward or all the 17 way back in '97 forward, that's not the point
18 right now, you have to know what she, she's the 19 Settlor, gave to your wife, Ellen's husband and 20 all of the grandchildren.

21 A Correct.

22 Q So you're given that directive. And the Trust
23 isn't funded until her death, yes?

24 A Correct.

25 Q So you're looking for gifts she made from other

1 sources. Did you do that?

2 A Yes. And the only liquid account she had at the
3 time of her death, or after the time of her death,
4 were an account with Stephens of the Janet B.
5 Brooker Estate, an account with Stephens,
6 Incorporated of the Janet B. Brooker Revocable
7 Trust, which then becomes irrevocable. There was
8 an IRA, I think at Stephens. Plus a checking
9 account at First Community Bank. Upon death, I
10 put together -- I knew that each year, I would 11 instruct Dino Corontzes to transfer out 14,000, or 12 whatever the death tax exclusion amount was in 13 January of that year to each of the children,
14 grandchildren and spouses.

15 Q How are you directing him to do that? As her
16 power of attorney?

17 A I don't know if I thought about that. I knew that 18 I was instructed --

19 Q Well, you're not doing it as a trustee because 20 there's no money in the Trust.

21 A Correct.

22 Q So how are you directing Dino to do that?

23 A From whatever funds that he had on account for my 24 mother.

25 Q As her power of attorney, as her agent under this

1 Power of Attorney?

2 A I think you're asking me for -- I didn't think
3 about that at the time, so I wouldn't want to 4 testify that hey, I'm calling you as -- but he
5 would confirm that I had the authority to do it
6 and I know that he had the Power of Attorney on
7 file.

8 Q Who is he?

9 A Dino Corontzes.

10 Q Well, he's not here to confirm that. You don't 11 know how you acted or how you captured what your 12 mother gifted? Did your mother continue to gift
13 herself?

14 A I don't think so, no.

15 Q You don't think so?

16 A No.

17 Q So did you continue to gift as her power of 18 attorney?

19 A Yes.

20 Q You're acting like that's a question when you say,
21 "yes," like you're not -- You've been given a
22 responsibility here.

23 A Right.

24 Q And it doesn't sound like I'm confident and that
25 you've gone and looked. That's your job. Are you

1 believing that the lifetime gifts are only the
2 gifts reported on these gift tax returns? You're 3 not gonna include tuition or anything else she 4 gifted?

5 A No, I'm taking the annual gifts that she made to 6 children, grandchildren, spouses --

7 Q Did she make them or did you do it on her behalf?

8 A They come from her assets, from her estate. I
9 would make the phone call to Dino Corontzes and 10 say transfer from her assets that you're holding 11 this amount --

12 Q As her agent?

13 A As her agent.

14 Q Did you pay the tuition for all the kids as her
15 agent?

16 A That was from her checking account. I think in 17 the later years I had signatory authority on the 18 checking account and I would sign the checks.

19 Q So from '07 forward, does she ever make those
20 checks out to Hammond?

21 A Does she sign them? No, I believe it's probably 22 my signature on the checks.

23 Q So you're making an independent decision to 24 continue to do that as gifting on her behalf?

25 A That's correct.

1 DAY TWO - Thursday, February 7, 2019

2 - - - - -

3 THE COURT: We're back on the record in the 4 trust matter regarding Janet B. Brooker,
5 2017-GC-40-36. I need to acknowledge that we've 6 actually had a day and about a half break in an
7 effort to verify -- and attorneys, please know
8 that you're welcome to clarify or correct what I'm
9 saying -- in an effort to make sure all bank
10 records have been reviewed, obtained and reviewed.
11 I believe that Mr. Griffin and Mr. Sowell, you
12 both agree that has happened.

13 MR. GRIFFIN: Yes, Your Honor.

14 MR. SOWELL: Yes. With the exception of now
15 these First Community Bank records, which would 16 touch upon these baby gifts, we call them corn
17 dogs, $45 gifts. Those have not been completely
18 reviewed because we haven't had time, but we're 19 satisfied. If the Court's not, then we will 20 review.

21 THE COURT: Let's be clear on what that 22 means. Mr. DuRant, who has testified and is 23 available and here today, did review those 24 records --

25 MR. SOWELL: Yes.

1 not had time to go back and pull each of those
2 out. I need to actually -- I think I actually
3 have to get to Morgan Stanley, which my
4 brother-in-law who manages this no longer works
5 for. If they've kept them, I'm going have to beg
6 for them. I have not gone through page by page
7 the First Community bank statements over these 8 seven years, I think it's some 11,000 pages of 9 documents, to pull out these gifts. There are not
10 many of them that come from the First Community
11 Bank that were made out of the account of First 12 Community Bank. But, in other words, there are 13 very few needles, but it's a huge haystack. I
14 would have to go through tons of pages of papers
15 scrolling down to find those actual canceled
16 checks.

17 Q But you've seen Mr. DuRant's report.

18 A I have, yes.

19 Q Is it, with respect to a review these records,
20 acceptable to you?

21 A Yes, it is.

22 Q And so, these numbers you've got in here, they are 23 taken from the records, but also confirmed by 24 Mr. DuRant's report?

25 A Correct. With a difference of 24,000, which he

1 found, which I have not been able to locate.
2 $24,000.

3 Q So you do not know what that discrepancy is 4 attributable to?

5 A I've worked on it all morning; I can't find it.

6 Q So your report, your chart in response to the 7 Court's email request of a couple days ago, is 8 satisfactory to you, except for you cannot discern 9 where that $24,000 difference is between your 10 numbers and George DuRant's numbers?

11 A That's correct?

12 THE COURT: More or less?

13 Q Is it more or less?

14 A Mr. DuRant had 768,000. My calculation was 15 744,000. So roughly 24,000, a little bit more 16 than 24,000 difference. Which seems to suggest to 17 me they were two $12,000 gifts that were either I
18 didn't pick up or he double counted and we're 19 still working on it.

20 MR. SOWELL: Those are the discrepancies
21 between George DuRant and Mr. Brooker. Now, if 22 you want us to, Mr. Brooker can go get those First
23 Community Bank statements. They're in that thumb
24 drive.

25 THE COURT: I'm about to say, you have them.

1 MR. SOWELL: We have them, but we haven't had
2 a chance to review in sufficient time. If you
3 want us to do it, we can do it, but, personally, I
4 don't think we need to because Mr. Brooker agrees
5 with Mr. DuRant except for $24,000.

6 THE COURT: Do you want to ask him anymore
7 questions?

8 MR. SOWELL: No.

9 THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Griffin?

10 MR. GRIFFIN: I'm in October 2016 emails, can 11 I look through?

12 THE COURT: Yes. Here's some things that I
13 am wanting to know. There are three entities that 14 he or his mother banked with: Stephens, Morgan
15 Stanley, and First Community.

16 MR. SOWELL: Correct.

17 THE COURT: No other banks? No other --

18 MR. SOWELL: As I understand it, that's the 19 universe.

20 THE COURT: Well, that's for him to answer,
21 right?

22 MR. SOWELL: I can ask him.

23 BY MR. SOWELL:

24 Q Is that the universe?

25 A That is. Given that there were several accounts

1 at Stephens.

2 Q So several accounts at Stephens, First Community
3 and the other brokerage, that is the universe
4 places from which gifts would derive?

5 A That's correct.

6 MR. SOWELL: They're all on that thumb drive
7 that is Exhibit No. 8. They're all there. The 8 issue is that Mr. Brooker has not had sufficient 9 time to review all of those, but we are willing to 10 accept Mr. DuRant's numbers with the exception of 11 this difference, distinction, whatever, of 12 $24,000?

13 THE COURT: Power of attorney? When he 14 began?

15 BY MR. SOWELL:

16 Q Okay. When did you get the power? I think it was 17 the same time that you got the Trust created, was 18 it not?

19 A I believe it was the same date as the Trust was 20 signed I was given power of attorney.

21 Q October of 2007?

22 A October 16, 2007.

23 Q So you got the power of attorney then?

24 A I did.

25 Q When did you begin to exercise it?

1 A Well, I don't know if I can say I ever did rely on
2 that. It was on file with Stephens. And when I
3 asked for a withdrawal, I guess they might have 4 used that as evidence of my authority, but I was 5 actually just helping my mother by making these
6 gifts pursuant to her instructions in the Trust
7 Agreement. I was a signatory on her First
8 Community Bank checking account; she filled out
9 the card to do that, so. As far as acting as 10 power of attorney under the terms of the Power of 11 Attorney, I guess you could say I did, but I don't 12 think I actually needed to because I was carrying 13 out her wishes for any transaction I made.

14 Q Now, every time you made a gift to children, and 15 I'm talking about you, Ellen or Julia, were they 16 equal?

17 A Every time my mother would make a gift to a child,
18 yes, they would be equal with the exception of 19 some small birthday gifts. There were two 20 children each of Ellen and myself.

21 Q I'm talking about the gifts to the children:
22 Yourself, Julia, and Ellen. Anytime they were 23 made by your mother or by you through the POA,
24 were they equal?

25 A Yes.

1 MR. SOWELL: That's all I have.

2 THE COURT: Mr. Griffin, are you ready?

3 - - - - -

4 FURTHER EXAMINATION

5 BY MR. GRIFFIN:

6 Q To understand Defendant's Exhibit No. 7 that you
7 have in front of you, how did you create this
8 document?

9 A I started with Mr. DuRant's chart, his exhibits.
10 Went through that mainly, then I would cross check
11 that with the chart that's in exhibit on the 12 annual exclusion gifts that came from 13 Mr. Johnson's office to make sure.

14 Q Let me make sure we've got that. That's -- it's 15 attached to Defendant's Exhibit No. 4. Is that 16 the document?

17 A Yes, sir.

18 Q And that's -- and so Defendant's Exhibit No. 4,
19 had a total of annual exclusion gifts of 852,000.
20 Is that correct?

21 A Yes, sir.

22 Q And then Defendant's Exhibit No. 4, adds interest
23 on the 852,000 from the date of the annual 24 exclusion gifts up until April 16, 2015. Is that 25 right?

1 A I think so.

2 Q And what was the significance of April 16, 2015?

3 A That's when that was created by Steve Johnson's
4 office to my understanding.

5 Q And so when some representation is made that
6 Ms. Julia Brooker had the opportunity to accept 7 this proffer in May of 2016, she was not receiving
8 interest up until the end of May '16, it would've
9 only been through April 16, 2015, right?

10 A Correct.

11 Q And that's 18 months worth of interest at five 12 percent?

13 A Yes.

14 Q Now, the document you brought today after working 15 all day yesterday has total gift amount of 16 $1,068,565. Is that right?

17 A Yes.

18 Q So that's, by my math, is a little over $200,000
19 more?

20 A Correct.

21 Q Do you know where you found that $200,000? I
22 mean, what's in that 200,000 number?

23 A The Judge instructed us, I don't know if it was a
24 ruling, that the tuition paid by my mother to 25 Hammond would be included in post-2007 gifts.

1 Q And that number's about 80,000, was it not?

2 A No. I don't --

3 Q Anyway, that's in Mr. DuRant's report. So in
4 addition to the Hammond tuition, was there
5 anything else that makes up the difference?

6 A There were the smaller birthday gifts from time to
7 time.

8 Q Did you find those in those investment statements
9 or were those in Mr. DuRant's report?

10 A I used Mr. DuRant's numbers. I found a lot of 11 them in the few checking accounts I was able to 12 get through First Community.

13 Q So, essentially, your basic gift amounts are --
14 materially match for this period of time. When 15 you did the interest calculation, to bring us up
16 to today, can you tell us how you did that?

17 A Yes, sir. If you look on the chart, I have a
18 number of days column labeled Number of Days to 19 5/31/2016, and Number of Days to Current Date.
20 For the annual exclusion gifts, I would use the 21 number of days to 5/31/2016. Of course, in both 22 cases, beginning with the date of the gift or 23 transfer itself. For the Hammond tuition payments
24 and deposits, I would use the number of days to 25 current date and multiply that by the daily

1 MR. SOWELL: There it is.

2 THE COURT: May I see it?

3 BY MR. SOWELL:

4 Q One more question, Mr. Brooker, make sure we're
5 straight on this. Bill Sellers who was engaged by 6 the estate to look into these stock accounts at 7 Stephens and the other place, he concluded there
8 were no missing shares. Is that correct?

9 A I think that's correct, yes, sir.

10 MR. SOWELL: Your Honor, we'll find out when 11 that was and submit a stipulation. We'll write it
12 up and send it to the Court for that date. Does 13 that suit you?

14 THE COURT: Well, I think it's a pertinent
15 piece of this that shuts the door on -- Let me
16 make sure everyone understands. I believe
17 Ms. Brooker's asking to see records to verify the 18 number she's being offered or that are being
19 discussed is valid.

20 MR. SOWELL: Understood.

21 THE COURT: If she wants to see them to 22 support and help her make a decision, that's good
23 sense, that's logical, that's a good
24 business-minded person. So I'm not going to stop
25 the interest until I see her questions being

1 resolved because I think seeing, asking for access
2 is relevant.

3 MR. SOWELL: Just remember, Mr. Brooker's
4 testimony is that she was given access to those 5 accounts.

6 THE COURT: Not until after August of '16.

7 MR. SOWELL: True.

8 THE COURT: Okay, well now we are moving from 9 May of 16, which I was led to believe was some 10 kind of drop dead timeframe to now August of '16.
11 And by his own testimony, October of '16.

12 BY MR. SOWELL:

13 Q May I ask this question? Mr. Brooker, do you know
14 approximately when Julia Brooker was given access
15 to those stock accounts that Dino had worked from?

16 A I do not.

17 Q Was it sometime in 2016?

18 THE COURT: It's after August of '16.

19 Q Sometime shortly after August of 2016 when she was 20 making inquiry?

21 A I don't recall.

22 MR. SOWELL: Thank you.

23 THE COURT: So, when in your mind,
24 Mr. Brooker, did she reject with finality your
25 offer of 525?

1 gifting, only after the Trust creation or from
2 some arbitrary timeframe that I haven't put my
3 mind around, but I think I heard at some point it
4 may have been sometime in 1997. Still don't know
5 that. That is something I'm, in my mind, still 6 having to decide. The third piece is how it's
7 calculated. Is it the larger of the two gifting
8 pots as Mr. Johnson suggests, and by pots, I mean
9 Ellen's family, Beach's family. Is it the average
10 of the two? The two divided by -- the two added
11 and divided by two? Or is it the two added
12 together, always plus interest, but the two added
13 together without a division into two, without an 14 average. That's still in play. So your 15 suggestion is that he has not presented evidence
16 on two and three of my concept of what I'm 17 deciding?

18 MS. DURANT: Yes, Your Honor, I think you
19 described that very well, the three issues.

20 THE COURT: Thank you very much. And you're 21 saying, suggesting that I should shut the door on 22 this and leave it to Mr. Brooker's interpretation
23 only, that the rest of the litigation should be 24 ended?

25 MS. DURANT: Yes, Your Honor, that you should

1 base it on Mr. Brooker's testimony, Steve
2 Johnson's testimony, and the four corners of the 3 document itself.

4 THE COURT: While I respect your argument,
5 and at the end of the day, you may win on certain
6 pieces of that, I think I still must hear a little
7 bit more information with regard to the timeframe
8 on the interest, which I think is in play most 9 definitely. And I need Mr. DuRant's testimony.
10 So to the extent that helps at all, overruled.

11 MS. DURANT: Thank you, Your Honor.

12 MR. GRIFFIN: George is trying to -- he's 13 feverishly working, so we may --

14 THE COURT: I want to hear from your client.
15 She's got to give me testimony about this interest
16 offer timeframe.

17 MR. GRIFFIN: Sure.

18 THE COURT: I think, and you can all disagree
19 with me, I think everyone was so nervous about her
20 getting on the witness stand and the dead man's 21 statute, that you may have missed an opportunity
22 to get her to deal with this.

23 MR. GRIFFIN: Okay.

24 THE COURT: So she needs to testify at a
25 minimum about that. Ms. Brooker, come around.

1 THE COURT: I think your question was, and
2 it's legitimate, what efforts did she personally
3 make to determine what gifts her mother had made
4 that met this provision.

5 MR. GRIFFIN: Yes.

6 BY MR. GRIFFIN:

7 Q I guess, let's just start here. You see this
8 document?

9 A Yes.

10 Q At some point in time, did you get a copy of this
11 document?

12 A Yes.

13 Q Did you agree with the numbers on this document?

14 A No.

15 Q Why did you not agree with the numbers on this
16 document? And when I say "this document," I'm
17 talking about Defendant's Exhibit No. 1. And
18 don't tell me what your mother said.

19 A Can I tell you what Steve said?

20 Q Tell us what Steve said, yes.

21 A Okay. The family had two meetings with Steve.
22 One after my mother died and one prior to my
23 mother dying. He brought us in and talked about
24 that mother was going to exaggerate some gifts,
25 give more gifts, and that what she was going to do

1 is catch me up at the end.

2 MS. DURANT: Again, Your Honor --

3 Q That's what Steve said, not your mother.

4 A That's what Steve said.

5 MS. DURANT: She said -- and then she said,
6 "my mother" --

7 THE COURT: That's already been testified by
8 Mr. Johnson.

9 MS. DURANT: I'm just really, Your Honor, I'm
10 just preserving the record.

11 THE COURT: And I hear you, but I heard her
12 say that's what Mr. Johnson said to her at the
13 family meeting. Did you hear her say that's what
14 her mother said?

15 MS. DURANT: I heard that Mr. Johnson said my
16 mother said she wants to catch up.

17 MR. GRIFFIN: That's certainly not precluded
18 by the dead man's statute.

19 THE COURT: I am hearing that Mr. Johnson has
20 already testified and told Julia at the very
21 family meeting he testified about that it was the
22 intention to catch her up at her mother's death.

23 MS. DURANT: Your Honor, Mr. Sowell brings up
24 a good point. Mr. Johnson is or was Ms. Janet
25 Brooker's lawyer, so he is just repeating what his

1 client said. So I think that also falls on the
2 teeth of the dead man's statute.

3 THE COURT: I'm going to disagree on the
4 concept that number one, he's already testified to
5 that himself, and at a family meeting, he is
6 sharing this information. He had a family
7 meeting, which means you have on some level a
8 waiver of the attorney-client privilege as to the
9 issues he's talking about at the family meeting
10 that he had with the family. The deceased
11 Mrs. Brooker was there. So overruled.

12 BY MR. GRIFFIN:

13 Q In the meeting after your mother died, what was
14 discussed?

15 A The lifetime gifts and that the lifetime gifts, I
16 was gonna be equalized with the lifetime gifts
17 that were given to my brother and sister.

18 Q Your brother and sisters' children?

19 A Children, family. Brother and sister's family.
20 Children and family.

21 Q Then when you got this document at some point in
22 time, you said you didn't disagree with it, but
23 you didn't agree with it. What were the parts you
24 didn't agree with?

25 A The year that the gifts began.

1 Q And you believe it should go back farther?

2 A That's what I was led to believe with the
3 discussions or our meetings with Steve. That it
4 was all lifetime gifts to families.

5 Q So that was a dispute that you had. And assume
6 Judge McCulloch determines that this language only
7 applies from the gifts made in contemplation of 8 the Trust and then from the Trust forward, that
9 these gifts on this page, did you get any backup
10 documentation to support these numbers?

11 A It took a while.

12 Q Tell me how you tried to get backup documentation?

13 A Well, how I tried to?

14 Q Yeah.

15 A Well, I was asking Beach. Beach, first of all,
16 called me and said he was ready to settle and, you
17 know, the equalization clause was gonna be 18 $300,000.

19 Q 300,000 was his first number?

20 A Yes, first offer. And I said something's not 21 right here, where did you come up with this money?
22 And he said that's what we're going to give you.

23 Q Did he give you any further explanation?

24 A No further explanation, no documentation, nothing.
25 So that's when I started meeting with Steve, Bill

1 Sellers, and then finally I ended up hiring David
2 Siddons.

3 Q So you started out, your offer under equalization
4 was 300 some-thousand dollars?

5 A 300,000 even.

6 Q So then you had to hire a lawyer?

7 A Uh-huh.

8 Q And that was David Siddons?

9 A Uh-huh.

10 Q Did you seek to get records at that point in time?

11 A Yeah, we tried. We got some, but they were coming
12 in sporadically. One page, then another page.

13 And one record, Dino said he didn't have because 14 that's the merger of Smith Barney. I got an email

15 merger Smith Barney -- well, how did it go -- with 16 that merger in 2010. And there was no statement

17 produced. David discovered, he said what is this 18 240,000, and that was on that particular

19 statement, the one produced. And then Dino 20 finally produced the last page with the 240,000 in

21 it.

22 Q And so the 240,000 is the 529 contributions?

23 A Uh-huh. David found that on some of the gift
24 taxes.

25 Q So you had to hire a lawyer; he found the 240?

1 A Right.

2 Q Up until that point did you know about the 240?

3 A No, sir.

4 Q And so then, eventually, the 240 gets put into
5 this document, correct?

6 A Yes.

7 Q Does that take it from 300 to five-something?

8 A 540, I guess.

9 Q Right. And then there was another -- Okay. Did
10 you ever get all the Stephens and Smith Barney --

11 THE COURT: Hey, hey, hey. I don't think
12 that's proper. He's a potential witness going
13 back up on the stand. Come back over here.

14 MR. SOWELL: You were talking to me?

15 THE COURT: Yeah.

16 MR. SOWELL: I just wanted to be sure.

17 THE COURT: Okay.

18 BY MR. GRIFFIN:

19 Q Do you know if you ever got all of the statements?

20 A Probably not. Probably not from the backups.
21 Beach and Ellen destroyed them.

22 Q How do you know they destroyed the statements?

23 A I watched them do it.

24 Q When did they destroy the statements?

25 A When we were cleaning mom's house out. She saved

1 every statement and they took them and bagged them
2 and threw them away, burned them. I assume they
3 burned them. Ellen said she could take them to 4 her house and burn them.

5 Q Was this after your mother died?

6 A Uh-huh.

7 Q Were you there?

8 A I was there.

9 Q Did you ask them not to destroy the statements?

10 A At the time, I didn't know what was going on. I
11 mean, you know, we were cleaning out. But I was 12 going through while I'm doing all the clothes and 13 all this and they're in there just going through 14 all the records and books and statements and . . .

15 Q Did that raise suspicions in your mind later?

16 A Absolutely.

17 Q Once we were hired, did we send subpoenas out on 18 your behalf to try to get all these records?

19 A Yes.

20 Q Because we couldn't get them from any other
21 source?

22 A I was not successful getting them by asking them
23 for -- I went to Ellen one time and I got an email
24 on that that I asked her to, I wanted to see the 25 records, and she told me not to give her a pity

1 party.

2 Q Not to give you a pity party.

3 A Not to give her a pity party.

4 Q Then after you hired us, did we introduce you to 5 Georgia DuRant over there?

6 A Right.

7 Q And has he been working to try to piece all this

8 together for you?

9 A He has.

10 Q And George can testify, have you spent over

11 $60,000 with George trying to get to the bottom of

12 this?

13 A Yes, sir. And more with David Siddons and Bill

14 Sellers.

15 Q Before we filed this lawsuit, the most they

16 suggested that you were entitled to was $525,000?

17 A Yes, sir.

18 Q Did you know when you got this that the Hammond

19 tuition was not included?

20 A No. I was under the understanding Hammond tuition

21 was included.

22 Q The Hammond tuition was included in that 525?

23 A Uh-huh.

24 Q It was only after you had to spend substantial

25 sums of money, you learned it wasn't included,

1 right?

2 A I don't -- I still think it should be.

3 Q Oh, no, it should be. I'm just saying -- when you
4 were handed this --

5 A Oh, it wasn't included.

6 Q Yeah, you weren't aware that it did not include
7 Hammond tuition.

8 A Right.

9 Q And those were one of the questions you had?

10 A Uh-huh.

11 THE COURT: Can you say what this is.

12 MR. GRIFFIN: Defendant's Exhibit No. 1,
13 which is the chart showing $525,000.

14 THE COURT: It's clearly missing on there.
15 There's no entry for Hammond tuition, that's 16 clearly all taxable gift amounts.

17 BY MR. GRIFFIN:

18 Q So it doesn't show up there. Why did you think it
19 was included?

20 A Well, I can't say. I guess from conversations and 21 meeting with Steve Johnson.

22 Q That you were entitled to be caught up for Hammond
23 tuition?

24 A Uh-huh. That that was part of gifting program.

25 Q So today, after your brother's done some work

1           yesterday, had come up with this Exhibit No. 7,
2           which shows offering -- well, it shows 561,827,
3           which would be half of the total gifts and
4           interest and payment -- interest through May 2016
5           for the 525, and then the balance of 744,634. Has 6           anyone ever offered you $744,000 to -- for your
7           rights under equalization provision?

8    A       I mean, that's the new number.

9    Q       Right.

10   A       I don't, I don't -- I can't say.

11   Q       Until today, have you ever -- well, still haven't
12           been offered it, but today, has anyone ever -- up
13           till today, has anyone ever offered you anything
14           more than --?

15   A       I can't say, but I think this was the highest 16           number that was offered.

17   Q       Was it offered in the form of a check? Were you
18           ever given a check?

19   A       No, I was never given any money.

20   Q       Did you understand that if you had accepted
21           whatever's on that sheet that you would waive any 22           rights to any more money?

23   A       That's what I was understanding, yes.

24           MR. GRIFFIN: Is there anything else you'd 25           like for me to ask her, Judge McCulloch?

1 your witness.

2 MS. DURANT: That's fine.

4 FURTHER EXAMINATION

5 BY MS. DURANT:

6 Q Ms. Brooker, isn't it true that Bill Sellers is 7 your accountant today?

8 A Yes, he is.

9 Q And isn't it true that you have confidence in
10 Mr. Sellers?

11 A I can't answer that.

12 Q Do you remember being deposed by Mr. Sowell?

13 A Oh, yeah.

14 Q On September 1, 2017?

15 A I remember being deposed, but a lot has happened
16 since that date.

17 Q Do you remember -- do you want to read your answer
18 to Mr. Sowell about having confidence in
19 Mr. Sellers?

20 A No. I did at that time, yes. I mean . . .

21 Q Do you think Mr. Sellers is an honest man?

22 A A lot has changed since that date.

23 Q Ms. Brooker, didn't you and your mother -- or 24 didn't you take a bunch of trips with your mother?

25 A Yes, I did.

February 5&7, 2019

Julia B. Brooker v. Beacham O. Brooker, Jr., et al.

266

1 Q Didn't she pay for the flights and hotels?

2 A For me, yes.

3 Q Weren't those trips to Peru and the Galapagos
4 Islands?

5 A One of them, yes.

6 Q Wasn't one of those trips to Japan, Bali, Hong
7 Kong and Indonesia?

8 A They were.

9 Q Wasn't there another trip to China and Beijing?

10 A There were.

11 Q And wasn't there another trip to Spain?

12 A I paid for that one.

13 Q Wasn't there another trip to France?

14 A Ellen went on that one, too.

15 Q But your mother paid for it, correct?

16 A Yeah, she paid for her, too.

17 Q And another trip to Africa, and you had some 18 safaris in Kenya?

19 A That was one trip.

20 Q But your mother paid for that trip?

21 A She got me there. That's about all I'm going to 22 say. But she gave trips to the other family
23 members, too.

24 MS. DURANT: No further questions, Your 25 Honor.

FURTHER EXAMINATION

BY MR. GRIFFIN:

Q What trips did she give to the other family members?

A She gave my brother and his family a trip to Disney World. She gave my sister a trip to, with us, Ellen didn't go at the same time, but she gave a Paris trip to France. She also went with us to Hawaii. Mom gave Beach's children and Ellen's children and Ellen a trip out west to the Grand Canyon and Yellowstone and the forest and all the national forests. Those are just some of them I know.

Q Did she treat everyone roughly evenly when it came to giving trips?

A For my understanding, yeah.

MR. GRIFFIN: That's all I have.

THE COURT: What a lovely mom. Step down. You're all fortunate.

THE WITNESS: Yes, we are.

MR. GRIFFIN: I don't know where Mr. DuRant is. Can I check with him?

[Off the Record]

MR. GRIFFIN: Speaking with Mr. DuRant, he

1 I don't want to go. Can he have this, please? Do
2 I need to make a copy of this for you?

3 [Off the Record]

4 THE COURT: Mr. DuRant, just help me a
5 second; I really am just needing some help.

8 FURTHER EXAMINATION (George DuRant)

9 BY THE COURT:

10 Q So Mr. Brooker, his first entry date is 11 September 26, '07, which is capturing some of the 12 things -- well, hold on. I also need
13 Mr. Johnson's. Can he have this, please. Defense
14 1, Plaintiff 6, and Defense 7. Defense 1,
15 Petitioner's 6. So what I see, Mr. DuRant, is 16 that the September 26 entry of 24,000 is the first
17 two entries of Mr. Brooker, these two 12 numbers.
18 Are you with me so far?

19 A I am.

20 Q Then the next entry of Mr. Brooker is the four 21 60,000s, which is your 240. On your after 22 October 15, 2007 numbers, you've added at the 23 bottom the 240?

24 A That's right.

25 Q But you didn't yet include the 24. Which I want

1 you to do. Did y'all follow me on that?

2 MS. DURANT: Your Honor, are you talking
3 about the 24, the two 9/26/07 entries?

4 THE COURT: Yes.

5 MS. DURANT: Okay, thank you.

6 BY THE WITNESS:

7 A Your Honor, you want me to add that on this?

8 Q Yes, sir.

9 THE COURT: Let Mr. Brooker come sit beside
10 somebody that's got these numbers.

11 MS. DURANT: I think I've got them all.

12 THE COURT: Come sit beside Ms. DuRant. So
13 the 24 is included in Mr. Brooker's, but it wasn't 14 included in his add-on earlier. So I wanted to 15 add the 24 into his calculations. It's going to 16 get funky.

17 MS. DURANT: Uh-oh.

18 THE COURT: There are gonna be some findings
19 on what's to happen, so if you want to capture it.

20 MR. SOWELL: I have delegated Ms. DuRant.

21 THE COURT: Well, she's also trying to hold
22 numbers, so somebody over there with a pad and 23 pen. Ready?

24 BY THE WITNESS:

25 A I've done that.

1 Q So as I see it, Mr. Brooker included the 240 and
2 the 24 in his calculation initially that this 525
3 number should go to his sister Julia. You with me
4 so far?

5 A I am.

6 Q So in the concept of when interest on this
7 particular amount of money should or shouldn't end
8 as Mr. Griffin has argued, that interest
9 calculation of the number 525 and what it includes
10 is going to matter. And then, of course,
11 everything else. And by everything else, I mean
12 everything else of your number. So backing out
13 the 240 and the 24 from a certain pot of money for 14 interest and the 525 number for a certain pot of 15 interest. And I might be saying it in a way that 16 that's not how you're actually going to have to 17 calculate it. But that's my concept. I see that 18 this 525 number and the communications and the 19 testimony so far ends at a certain date. In 20 question was initially May, and now I'm taking 21 that all the way to the end of August. That is 22 going to be one of the findings. While there is 23 no specific testimony of when she said no, that's 24 as close as it's going to get, because I know she 25 got these numbers, she's told me that. She

1           deserved to get bank statements, I agree with her.
2           I believe she got all the information she could
3           have possibly gotten if she wanted to get it. I'm
4           ending it at the end of August. So that will be
5           one of the findings.

6                     MR. SOWELL: August 31?

7                     THE COURT: August 31.

8

9           BY THE WITNESS:

10          A        2016?

11          Q        Yes, sir. Everything else that is in your number
12                    is through today.

13          A        So would that be the same as saying if I accrued
14                    interest at five percent on everything, and then 15                    did a credit for interest on $525,528 from 16                    September 1, 2016 through today, that would be the 17                    easy way to do it, as I understand what you're 18                    saying.

19          Q        Yes.

20          A        I believe I've got that calculation. Did you get 21                    that back to me?

22                    MR. GRIFFIN: Yes.

23                                [Off record discussion]

24                    MS. DURANT: These two $12,000, they should 25                    be segregated for each family. One is for Ellen

1 and one is for Beach. Only one should go towards
2 Mr. DuRant's analysis, is what I'm understanding.

3 THE COURT: Well, then you can make the same
4 argument all the way down. That's not correct.
5 Then we're gonna divide 240 when you divide, if 6 you divide.

7 MR. GRIFFIN: Correct.

8 MS. DURANT: Can we just lodge that
9 objection?

10 THE COURT: I'm not even sure I understand
11 what you're saying. Say it a different way so I
12 can understand it, what you're objecting to.

13 MS. DURANT: My understanding is what you're 14 instructing or asking Mr. DuRant to do, is to add
15 24,000 into his figure and also all the future
16 scholars money.

17 THE COURT: Well, just to say it again,
18 because I don't know if that's what -- exactly
19 like that. In Mr. Brooker's offer to his sister
20 in this document that supports it, 24,000 and 240
21 are included that were not included initially in 22 Mr. DuRant's after October 15, '07 numbers on this
23 graph. Which is a summary of this other chart.
24 The bottom on the handwritten, he starts adding
25 the 240. He never added the 24. What I am asking

1 him to do is, because Mr. Brooker included the 24
2 and the 240 in his offer number to his sister, to
3 back that out of the calculation of interest. I
4 think it's when you divide if you divide.

5 MR. GRIFFIN: I think if she sees this. So
6 that's the gross number and that's cutting it in
7 half, and that's the credit for the interest.

8 THE COURT: These numbers --

9 MR. GRIFFIN: So he cuts it in half.

10 THE COURT: -- don't change based on who got
11 a higher family amount. Not on this chart.

12 MS. DURANT: I'm with you. I think what 13 Mr. Brooker is saying is that, if I could -- is 14 that on his initial offer, the 24,000 and 240 were 15 ultimately divided in half.

16 THE COURT: Right, I got it.

17 MS. DURANT: Okay.

18 THE COURT: The reason they were easily
19 divided in half is because no family was different
20 on this chart.

21 MR. GRIFFIN: I'm going have to reprimand
22 Mr. DuRant, he came out a little lower than 23 Mr. Brooker.

24 THE COURT: What are you talking about, Mr.
25 Griffin?

1 MR. GRIFFIN: I don't know what I'm talking
2 about really.

3 THE COURT: Did he just give you the
4 calculation that I just asked him to do?

5 MR. GRIFFIN: Uh-huh, I'm giving it to you.

6 THE COURT: That's what this is?

7 MR. GRIFFIN: Yes.

8 THE COURT: Thank you.

9 MR. GRIFFIN: That's why I'm going to 10 reprimand him. Here's this sheet.

11 BY THE COURT:

12 Q Help me out. Who created this? This is your 13 typing?

14 A Yes, Your Honor.

15 Q I'm a little lost, to be honest.

16 A May I come up and show you, Your Honor?

17 Q Yes, and the attorneys need to come too. It's 18 confusing when somebody's breathing down your neck
19 it's even harder to calculate. Being asked to 20 calculate on the witness stand is most 21 complicated.

22 A Let me go check that.

23 Q You want to just take a moment and let's just go
24 off the record.

25 [Off the Record]

1 THE COURT: Mr. DuRant, have you had enough
2 time.

3 MR. DURANT: I have.

4 THE COURT: Do y'all have copies of this?

5 MR. GRIFFIN: Yes, we do.

6 THE COURT: I'll just let you lead us through
7 it.

8 BY THE WITNESS:

9 A Okay, I'm looking at what was Plaintiff's six, and
10 at the bottom I've added the September 26, 2007
11 24,000 transfer. And I've also added the interest
12 on that of $13,643.84 for a total addition of 13 $37,643.84, which brings my total of interest and 14 gifts since October 15, 2007, plus the additional 15 24,000, $1,528,398.97. Now, the second page is 16 I've computed a credit on the interest using the 17 $525,528.08 amount shown on Defendant's number 18 one. I've computed that interest credit from 19 August 31, 2016, through February 5, 2019, 888
20 days, five percent annual interest for a total of 21 $63,927.25. I've subtracted that 63,000 from my 22 total interest and gifts, Plaintiff's six,
23 $1,528,398.97 minus $63,927.25 is $1,464,471.72.
24 One half of that amount is $732,235.86.

25 THE COURT: Do you want to ask him any --

1 MR. GRIFFIN: No, Your Honor.

2 MS. DURANT: No, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: Based on my directives to him,
4 you believe in his calculation; I certainly do.

5 MR. GRIFFIN: Yeah.

6 THE COURT: Do you want to direct him to do
7 it any other way? I know you want to direct him
8 to do it legally a different way.

9 MR. GRIFFIN: I'd point out this number is a
10 little lower than what Mr. Brooker has brought to 11 court. Mr. DuRant can't really reconcile it here
12 and now, but. So his number's about 12 grand 13 lower than what Mr. Brooker brought.

14 THE WITNESS: I rely on my numbers.

15 THE COURT: I believe Mr. DuRant's number.

16 MR. GRIFFIN: We'll take the higher number if 17 it comes down to equity and all.

18 THE COURT: I will recognize that he has 19 additionally done the calculation on your concept
20 of things.

21 MR. GRIFFIN: Right.

22 THE COURT: So if you want to make that an
23 additional exhibit.

24 MR. GRIFFIN: I think's it's fine we'll just 25 keep it Plaintiff's six.

1 THE COURT: This certainly needs to be --

2 MR. GRIFFIN: Sure. Let's mark that.

3 THE COURT: This yellow paper. So if you'll
4 get both of these into evidence.

5 MR. GRIFFIN: Yeah, we'll mark them
6 separately.

7 THE COURT: Don't you have them in your hand?

8 MR. GRIFFIN: I have copies.

9 THE COURT: Right.

10 MR. GRIFFIN: So let's make this the next
11 exhibit.

12 (Whereupon, Duplicate P-Exhibit No. 6
13 was introduced as Petitioner's Exhibit
14 No. 16.)

15 (Whereupon, Handwritten Calculation was
16 introduced as Petitioner's Exhibit No.
17 17.)

18 MR. GRIFFIN: So the revised Plaintiff's six
19 is now Plaintiff's 16, and this handwritten
20 calculation will be Plaintiff's 17.

21 THE COURT: Questions?

22 MS. DURANT: No, Your Honor.

23 THE COURT: Questions?

24 MR. GRIFFIN: No, your Honor.

25 THE COURT: Thank you so much.

1 MR. DURANT: Thank you.

2 MR. SOWELL: No questions. I did want to
3 say, though, since he's testified subsequent to 4 our motion for a directed verdict, that we would 5 renew our motion for directed verdict on the 6 ground that the only reasonable inference to be 7 drawn from all the evidence and testimony is that
8 our construction and interpretation of the Trust
9 document paragraph two is the only reasonable
10 construction.

11 MR. GRIFFIN: Your Honor, there's -- you
12 can't have extrinsic evidence to alter the plain
13 terms of the agreement. I understand there may be 14 some ambiguity in what lifetime gifts mean and 15 when they began, and I understand you allowed
16 evidence on that. But to read in to the language
17 of that equalization clause the mathematical
18 formula espoused by Mr. Johnson is rewriting the 19 whole clause. I mean it clearly says you
20 determine the amount of gifts for the issue of 21 Ellen Corontzes and Beach Brooker as well as their 22 spouses, then to the amount specified from the 23 date of the gift you add five percent. And then 24 it says the sum of (a) and (b) above shall be 25 distributed. You can't rewrite that. They wrote

1           it. And the issue is what did Mrs. Brooker intend
2           when she signed it? And there's been no
3           testimony. There's testimony what Mr. Johnson
4           intended when he wrote it, but you can't read this
5           and in any way glean that this intent here is you
6           take the greater of these two pots and you add
7           five percent and you compare the two and that's
8           what she gets. Now, it says equalization
9           distribution. And I think it's important to look
10          at it in the whole context. And as Mr. DuRant did
11          the lifetime gifts, we know that before the date
12          of this agreement, depending on how you do the 13          240, but it's pretty much equal. Before it was 14          either 700,000 or 900,000, depending if you do the 15          529. Before the date of this. After the date,
16          it's 800, we now know it's over a million. But 17          what's interesting is before and after they're 18          pretty much close to the same. And so you do get 19          to equalization if you sum (a) and (b). If you
20          take into account lifetime gifts, not just gifts
21          given after the date of this. And so the question
22          is what does Mrs. Brooker intend? And the only 23          thing we can say is she signed this document, she 24          had to read it like the rest of us. And she had 25          to know that before the date of this agreement,

Subject: 10:30 Hearing Preparation

Dear Attorneys,

In preparation for the 10:30 hearing, it is imperative that we all are working under the same definition of what "any lifetime gifts" would be. Judge McCulloch sees it as Mr. Brooker's fiduciary duty, given the directives in the trust and as the Decedent's agent under any power of attorney he may have had, to review all records of his mother, Mrs. Brooker, and to review all accounts, including bank accounts, investment accounts, or any other assets held, looking for transfers she made from 2007 to her death. This is necessary to, and the Judge expects to see, a chart that documents any transfers from the Trustee or Settlor to all spouses and grandchildren. Also, please provide to the Judge all account statements in support of these investigations.

Thank you so much in advance.

TRUST AGREEMENT

Introductory Clause. This Agreement made this the 16th day of October, 2007, between JANET B. BROOKER, hereinafter referred to as the Settlor and BEACHAM O. BROOKER, JR. AND JANET B. BROOKER, hereinafter referred to singularly as an individual trustee and hereinafter collectively referred to as the Trustee. During the lifetime of the Settlor and after the death of the Settlor but prior to final distribution herein this trust shall be known as the "JANET B. BROOKER TRUST".

ARTICLE I

Description of Property Transferred. The Settlor has paid over, assigned, granted, conveyed, transferred and delivered, and by this Agreement does hereby pay over, assign, grant, convey, transfer and deliver unto the Trustee the property described in Schedule A, annexed hereto and made a part hereof, and may cause the Trustee to be designated as beneficiary of certain life insurance policies. Any insurance policies that may be delivered to the Trustee hereunder or under which the Trustee may be designated as beneficiary, the proceeds of all such policies being payable to the Trustee, and any other property that may be received or which has been received by the Trustee hereunder, as invested and reinvested (hereinafter referred to as the "Trust Estate"), shall be held, administered and distributed by the Trustee as hereinafter set forth.

ARTICLE II

Provisions for Settlor During Lifetime. The Trustee shall hold, manage, invest and reinvest the Trust Estate (if any requires such management and investment) and shall collect the income, if any, therefrom and shall dispose of the net income and principal as follows:

(1) During the lifetime of the Settlor, the Trustee shall pay to or apply for the benefit of the Settlor all the net income from this Trust.

(2) During the lifetime of the Settlor, the Trustee may pay to or apply for the benefit of the Settlor such sums from the principal of this Trust as in its sole discretion shall be necessary or advisable from time to time for the medical care, education, support and maintenance in reasonable comfort of the Settlor, taking into consideration to the extent the Trustee deems advisable, any other income or resources of the Settlor known to the Trustee.

ARTICLE III

Settlor's Rights to Amend, Change or Revoke the Trust Agreement. The Settlor may, by signed instruments delivered to the Trustee during the Settlor's life: (1) withdraw property from this Trust in any amount and at any time upon giving reasonable notice in writing to the Trustee; (2) add other property to the Trust; (3) change the beneficiaries, their respective shares and the plan of distribution; (4) amend this Trust Agreement in any other respect; (5) revoke this Trust in its entirety or any provision therein; provided, however, the duties or responsibilities of the Trustee shall not be enlarged without the Trustee's consent nor without satisfactory adjustment of the Trustee's compensation.

ARTICLE IV

Discretionary Provisions for Trustee to Deal with Settlor's Estate and Make Payment of Debts and Taxes. After the Settlor's death, the Trustee, if in its discretion it deems it advisable, may pay all or any part of the Settlor's funeral expenses, legally enforceable claims against the Settlor or the Settlor's estate, reasonable expenses of administration of the Settlor's estate, any allowances by court order to those dependent upon the Settlor, any estate, inheritance, succession, death or similar taxes payable by reason of the Settlor's death, together with any interest thereon or other additions thereto, without reimbursement from the Settlor's personal representatives, from any beneficiary of insurance upon the Settlor's life, or from any other person. All such payments, except of interest, shall be charged generally against the principal of the Trust Estate includable in the Settlor's estate for Federal estate tax purposes and any interest so paid shall be charged generally against the income thereof; provided, however, any such payments of estate, inheritance, succession, death or similar taxes (except generation-skipping transfer taxes) shall be charged against the principal constituting the Trust Estate and any interest so paid shall be charged against the income thereof. If such share or trust was created as a fraction, then such taxes thus paid shall reduce the numerator of that share or trust and the Trust Estate, thus likewise reducing the denominator of the fraction. The Trustee may make such payments directly or may pay over the amounts thereof to the personal representatives of the Settlor's estate. Written statements by the personal representatives of such sums due and payable by the estate shall be sufficient evidence of their amount and propriety for the protection of the Trustee and the Trustee shall be under no duty to see to the application of any such payments. If administrative expenses are deducted on the estate's income tax return but paid from principal, then they shall be charged against the Trust Estate.

ARTICLE V

Specific Distributions. Upon the death of the Settlor, the Trustee shall make the following distributions:

(1) General Distribution of Personal and Household Effects With a Mandatory Memorandum. All the Settlor's personal and household effects of every kind including but not limited to furniture, appliances, furnishings, pictures, silverware, china, glass, books, jewelry, wearing apparel, boats, automobiles, and other vehicles, and all policies of fire, burglary, property damage, and other insurance on or in connection with the use of this property, shall be distributed as follows:

(a) The Settlor may leave written memoranda disposing of certain items of tangible personal property. Any such item of tangible personal property shall pass according to the terms of such memoranda in existence at the time of the Settlor's death. If no such written memoranda are found or identified by the Trustee within ninety (90) days after the Settlor's death, it shall be conclusively presumed that there are no such memoranda and any subsequently discovered memoranda shall be ineffective. Any property given and devised to a beneficiary who is not living at the time of the Settlor's death and for whom no effective alternate provision has been made shall pass according to the provisions of the following subparagraph, and not pursuant to any anti-lapse statute.

(b) In default of such memoranda, or to the extent such memoranda do not completely or effectively dispose of such property, the rest of the Settlor's personal and household effects of every kind shall be distributed to the Settlor's children surviving the Settlor, in approximately equal shares; provided, however, the issue of a deceased child surviving the Settlor shall take per stirpes the share their parent would have taken had he or she survived the Settlor. If the Settlor's issue do not agree to the division of the property among themselves, the Trustee shall make such division among them, the decision of the Trustee to be in all respects binding upon the Settlor's issue. If any beneficiary hereunder is a minor, the Trustee may distribute such minor's share to such minor or for such minor's use to any person with whom such minor is residing or who has the care or control of such minor without further responsibility and the receipt of the person to whom it is distributed shall be a complete discharge of the Trustee.

(2) Equalizing Distribution to the Settlor's Daughter, JULIA B. BROOKER. The Settlor has previously made lifetime gifts and intends to continue such gifting program until the date of the Settlor's death to the Settlor's children, the Settlor's issue and spouses of the Settlor's children. Because the Settlor's daughter, JULIA B. BROOKER is not married and has no children or issue, the Settlor intends that at the Settlor's death, an equalizing distribution will be made to the Settlor's said daughter pursuant to the terms of this paragraph for lifetime gifts made to such daughter's siblings' spouses or siblings' issue which equalizing distribution will be determined as follows:

(a) From the date of this trust forward the Trustee shall determine the date and the amount of any lifetime gifts made by the Settlor to issue of Ellen B. Corontzes and Beachum O. Brooker, Jr. as well as the spouses of Ellen B. Corontzes and Beachum O. Brooker, Jr.

(b) To such amount specified above from the date of such gift an interest rate of five (5%) percent shall be applied to the amount of such gift which interest rate shall continue until this distribution is satisfied and which rate shall not compound.

(c) The sum of (a) and (b) above shall be distributed to the Settlor's daughter, JULIA B. BROOKER if she shall survive the Settlor.

(3) Definition of Trust Estate. As used in this Trust Agreement, the words "Trust Estate" shall mean the entire Trust Estate minus the specific distributions under this Article.

ARTICLE VI

Trust Estate to Settlor's Issue. Upon the death of the Settlor, the Trust Estate (which shall include any property which may be added from the Settlor's general estate) shall be held in trust or paid over and distributed to the Settlor's surviving children in equal shares, provided, however, the then living issue of a deceased child of the Settlor shall take per stirpes the share their parent would have taken had he or she survived the Settlor. Provided, further, that any share due the Settlor's son, Beachum O. Brooker, Jr., if he shall survive the Settlor and any share due the Settlor's daughter, Ellen B. Corontzes, if she shall survive the Settlor shall first be allocated to the lifetime generation skipping trusts created for such named children ("Beacham

O. Brooker, Jr. Family Trust dated May 12, 1997;" "Ellen B. Corontzes Family Trust dated May 12, 1997") but only to the extent that the Settlor's estate has available generation skipping tax exemption remaining to be allocated among such trusts. The Settlor intends that any available generation skipping tax exemption be allocated equally among the "Beacham O. Brooker, Jr. Family Trust dated May 12, 1997" and the "Ellen B. Corontzes Family Trust dated May 12, 1997."

ARTICLE VII

Trustee Succession, Trustee's Fees and Other Matters. The provisions for naming the Trustee, Trustee succession, Trustee's fees and other matters are set forth below:

(1) Individual Trustees Succession. If the individual Trustee should fail to qualify as Trustee hereunder, or for any reason should cease to act in such capacity, the remaining individual Trustee shall continue to serve without a successor or substitute.

(2) Succession If Original Trustees Cannot Act. If all the Settlor's original Trustees should fail to qualify as Trustee hereunder, or for any reason should cease to act in such capacity, then the successor or substitute Trustee who shall also serve without bond shall be the Settlor's daughter, JULIA B. BROOKER.

(3) Final Succession If All Individual Trustees Cannot Act. If all the Settlor's individual Trustees should fail to qualify as Trustee hereunder, or for any reason should cease to act in such capacity, then the successor or substitute Trustee who shall also serve without bond shall be the Settlor's daughter, ELLEN B. CORONTZES.

(4) Fee Schedule for Individual Trustee. For its services as Trustee, the individual Trustee shall receive reasonable compensation for the services rendered and reimbursement for reasonable expenses.

(5) Delegation Among Trustees. When there is more than one individual or entity serving as co-Trustees, then any Trustee may delegate to any other Trustee the power to exercise any or all of the powers granted to the Trustees in this Trust Agreement, including those powers, which are discretionary, to the extent allowed by law. Any delegating Trustee may revoke any such delegation with written notice to the other serving co-Trustees. The delegation of any such power, as well as the revocation of any such delegation, shall be evidenced by an instrument in writing signed by the delegating co-Trustee. As long as any such delegation is in effect, any of the delegated powers may be exercised by the Trustee receiving such delegation with the same force and effect as if the delegating Trustee had personally joined in the exercise of such power. Provided, however, that if such Trustee, or co-Trustee, shall also be a current beneficiary and such delegation shall be deemed to create in that Trustee a right that shall be deemed to be a general power of appointment, then such individual Trustee shall not be vested with such right to delegate such power.

(6) Limitations on Trustees. No person who at any time is acting as Trustee hereunder shall have any power or obligation to participate in any discretionary authority which the Settlor has given to the Trustee to pay principal or income to such person, or for his or her benefit or in relief of his or her legal obligations; provided, however, if an individual trustee (who is also a beneficiary) is the sole trustee or at any time is acting as the sole trustee, and such trustee has discretion to invade principal for himself or herself and such discretionary authority is limited by an ascertainable standard, then such trustee may invade principal (if limited by such standard) for himself or herself but not in relief of his or her legal obligations.

(7) Trustee Accountings and Settlement. The Trustee shall report on Trust activities and account to the beneficiaries, as follows:

(a) Trustee Accountings. If there are more than nominal assets in the Trust, the Trustee shall render an accounting of the Trust's receipts and disbursements and a statement of the assets and liability of the Trust at least annually to each current income beneficiary and all beneficiaries entitled by law to receive an accounting. The Trustee may, but shall not be required to, file such accountings with the Court having jurisdiction of the Trust. The Settlor specifically waives any requirement for formal or court approved accounting. If the Trustee provides an accounting to each current income beneficiary and all beneficiaries entitled by law and those beneficiaries do not notify the Trustee in writing of an objection to such accounting within ninety (90) days of the receipt of such accounting, then the accounting shall be deemed accepted and approved by such beneficiary.

(b) Settlement of Trustee Accounting. During the period of time that this Trust may be revoked by the Settlor, the Trustee may render an accounting of its administration of the Trust to the Settlor. The Settlor's written acceptance and approval of such accounting shall be binding upon all present and future Trust beneficiaries.

(c) Settlement of Trustee Accounting by Beneficiaries. The Trustee may at any time settle its account with respect to the Trust Estate, or any separate share of the Trust Estate, by a written agreement. The written agreement shall be between the Trustee and all appropriate living income beneficiaries and remainder beneficiaries for the Trust Estate, or separate Trust share as appropriate. If a beneficiary is either a minor or incompetent, then the guardian for such person may represent such individual. Such agreement shall bind all persons then or thereafter entitled to such share of the Trust Estate for which the Trustee and beneficiaries reached written agreement. Such agreement shall constitute a complete release and discharge of the Trustee for the acts of the Trustee covered in the accounting and the period covered by the agreement.

(d) Settlement of Trustee Accounting Upon Termination of Trust. Prior to either delivering the Trust Estate to a successor Trustee or making a complete distribution of all or a separate share of the Trust Estate, the Trustee shall prepare and deliver its accounting of the Trust or the applicable Trust share, as appropriate, to the appropriate beneficiaries. The Settlor and/or applicable beneficiaries may waive such requirements for such accounting.

ARTICLE VIII

Definition of Trustee. Whenever the word "Trustee" or any modifying or substituted pronoun therefor is used in this Trust, such words and respective pronouns shall include both the singular and the plural, the masculine, feminine and neuter gender thereof, and shall apply

equally to the Trustee or Co-trustees named herein and to any successor or substitute Trustee or Co-trustee acting hereunder, and such successor or substitute Trustee or Co-trustee shall have all the rights, powers and duties, authority and responsibility conferred upon the Trustee originally named herein.

ARTICLE IX

Powers for Trustee. The Trustee is authorized in its fiduciary discretion (which shall be subject to the standard of reasonableness and good faith to all beneficiaries) with respect to any property, real or personal, at any time held under any provision of this Trust Agreement and without authorization by any court and in addition to any other rights, powers, authority and privileges granted by any other provision of this Trust Agreement or by statute or general rules of law:

(1) To collect trust property and accept or reject additions to the Trust Estate from a Settlor or any other person.

(2) To retain in the form received any property or undivided interests in property donated to, or otherwise acquired as a part of the Trust Estate, including residential property and shares of the Trustee's own stock, regardless of any lack of diversification, risk or nonproductivity, as long as it deems advisable, and to exchange any such security or property for other securities or properties and to retain such items received in exchange, although such property represents a large percentage of the total property of the Trust Estate or even the entirety thereof.

(3) To deposit trust money in accounts of all types, including margin accounts, in all types of regulated financial service institutions.

(4) To invest and reinvest all or any part of the Trust Estate in any property and undivided interests in property, wherever located, including bonds, debentures, notes, secured or unsecured, stocks of corporations regardless of class, interests in limited partnerships, limited liability companies or similar entities, real estate or any interest in real estate whether or not productive at the time of investment, interests in trusts, investment trusts, whether of the open and/or closed fund types, and participation in common, collective or pooled trust funds of the Trustee, insurance contracts on the life of any beneficiary or annuity contracts for any beneficiary, without being limited by any statute or rule of law concerning investments by fiduciaries.

(5) To abandon or decline to administer property of no value or of insufficient value to justify its collection or continued administration.

(6) To sell or dispose of or grant options to purchase any property, real or personal, constituting a part of the Trust Estate, for cash or on credit, at public or private sale, to exchange any property of the Trust Estate for other property, at such times and upon such terms and conditions as it may deem best, and no person dealing with it shall be bound to see to the application of any monies paid.

(7) To hold any securities or other property in its own name as Trustee, in its own name, in the name of a nominee (with or without disclosure of any fiduciary relationship) or in bearer form.

(8) To keep, at any time and from time to time, all or any portion of the Trust Estate in cash and uninvested for such period or periods of time as it may deem advisable, without liability for any loss in income by reason thereof.

(9) To sell or exercise stock subscription or conversion rights.

(10) To refrain from voting or to vote shares of stock which are a part of the Trust Estate at shareholders' meetings in person or by special, limited, or general proxy and in general to exercise all the rights, powers and privileges of an owner in respect to any securities constituting a part of the Trust Estate.

(11) To participate in any plan of reorganization or consolidation or merger involving any company or companies whose stock or other securities shall be part of the Trust Estate, and to deposit such stock or other securities under any plan of reorganization or with any protective committee and to delegate to such committee discretionary power with relation thereto, to pay a proportionate part of the expenses of such committee and any assessments levied under any such plan, to accept and retain new securities received by the Trustee pursuant to any such plan, to exercise all conversion, subscription, voting and other rights, of whatsoever nature pertaining to such property, and to pay any amount or amounts of money as it may deem advisable in connection therewith.

(12) To borrow money with or without security and to encumber, mortgage or pledge any asset of the Trust Estate for a term within or extending beyond the term of the trust, in connection with the exercise of any power vested in the Trustee.

(13) To pledge the Trust Estate and to cause this Trust to guarantee loans made by others to a beneficiary or any business owned by the Trust.

(14) To enter for any purpose into a lease as lessor or lessee, including a lease or other arrangement for exploration and removal of natural resources, with or without option to purchase or renew for a term within or extending beyond the term of the Trust.

(15) To subdivide, develop, or dedicate real property to public use or to make or obtain the vacation of plats and adjust boundaries, to adjust differences in valuation on exchange or partition by giving or receiving consideration, and to dedicate public or private easements to private or public use without consideration, including by way of example qualified conservation and facade easements.

(16) To make ordinary or extraordinary repairs or alterations in buildings or other structures, to demolish any improvements, to raze existing or erect new party walls or buildings.

(17) To continue and operate any business or other enterprise owned by the Settlor at the Settlor's death, whether an interest in a proprietorship, partnership, limited liability company, business trust, corporation, or other form of business or enterprise, and to do any and all things deemed needful or appropriate by the Trustee, including the power to incorporate the business and to put additional capital into the business, for such time as it shall deem advisable by shareholders, members, or property owners, without liability for loss resulting from the continuance or operation of the business except for its own negligence; and to merge or otherwise change the form of business organization or contribute additional capital, close out, liquidate, or sell the business at such time and upon such terms as it shall deem best.

(18) To collect, receive, and receipt for rents, issues, profits, and income of the Trust Estate.

(19) To insure the assets of the Trust Estate against damage or loss and to insure the Trustee, the Trustee's agents, and beneficiaries against liability arising from the administration of the Trust.

(20) To select a mode of payment under any employee benefit or retirement plan, annuity, or life insurance payable to the Trustee, exercise rights thereunder, including exercise of the right to indemnification for expenses and against liabilities, and take appropriate action to collect the proceeds.

(21) In buying and selling assets, in lending and borrowing money, and in all other transactions, irrespective of the occupancy by the same person of dual positions, to deal with itself in its separate, or any fiduciary capacity.

(22) To compromise, adjust, arbitrate, sue on or defend, abandon or decline to administer property of no value or of insufficient value to justify its collection or continued administration, or otherwise deal with and settle claims in favor of or against the Trust Estate or to prosecute or defend an action, claim, or judicial proceeding in any jurisdiction to protect the Trust Estate and the Trustee in the performance of the Trustee's duties, as the Trustee shall deem best.

(23) To exercise elections with respect to federal, state, and local taxes.

(24) To employ and compensate agents, accountants, investment advisers, brokers, attorneys-in-fact, attorneys-at-law, tax specialists, realtors, appraisers, and other assistants and advisors deemed by the Trustee needful for the proper administration of the Trust Estate, and to do so without liability for any neglect, omission, misconduct, or default of any such agent or professional representative provided such person was selected and retained with reasonable care.

(25) To appoint a Trustee to act in another jurisdiction with respect to the Trust Estate located in the other jurisdiction, confer upon the appointed Trustee all of the powers and duties of the appointing Trustee, require that the appointed Trustee furnish security, and remove any Trustee so appointed.

(26) To determine what shall be fairly and equitably charged or credited to income and what to principal.

(27) To resolve a dispute concerning the interpretation of the Trust or its administration by mediation, arbitration, or other procedure for alternative dispute resolution.

(28) To hold and retain the principal of the Trust Estate undivided until actual division shall become necessary in order to make distributions; to hold, manage, invest, and account for the several shares or parts thereof by appropriate entries on the Trustee's books of account; and to allocate to each share or part of share its proportionate part of all receipts and expenses; provided, however, the carrying of several trusts as one shall not defer the vesting in title or in possession of any share or part of share thereof.

(29) To make payment in cash or in kind, or partly in cash and partly in kind upon any division or distribution of the Trust Estate (including the satisfaction of any pecuniary distribution) without regard to the income tax basis of any specific property allocated to any beneficiary and to value and appraise any asset and to distribute such asset in kind at its appraised value; and when dividing fractional interests in property among several beneficiaries to allocate entire interests in some property to one beneficiary and entire interests in other property to another beneficiary or beneficiaries.

(30) In general, to exercise all powers in the management of the Trust Estate which any individual could exercise in his or her own right, upon such terms and conditions as it may reasonably deem best, and to do all acts which it may deem reasonably necessary or proper to carry out the purposes of this Trust Agreement.

(31) To purchase property, real or personal, from the Settlor's general estate upon such terms and conditions as to price and terms of payment as the Settlor's personal representatives and the Trustee shall agree, to hold the property so purchased as a part of the Trust Estate although it may not qualify as an authorized trust investment except for this provision, and to dispose of such property as and when the Trustee shall deem advisable. The fact that the Settlor's personal representatives and the Trustee are the same shall in no way affect the validity of this provision.

(32) To lend funds to the Settlor's general estate or to a beneficiary upon such terms and conditions as to interest rates, maturities, and security as the Settlor's personal representatives and the Trustee shall consider to be fair and reasonable under the circumstances, the fact that they may be the same in no way affecting the validity of this provision.

(33) To receive property bequeathed, devised or donated to the Trustee by the Settlor or any other person; to receive the proceeds of any insurance policy which names the Trustee as beneficiary; to execute all necessary receipts and releases to Personal Representatives, donors, insurance companies and other parties adding property to the Trust Estate.

(34) To combine assets of two or more trusts if the provisions and terms of each trust are substantially identical, and to administer them as a single trust, if the Trustee reasonably

determines that the administration as a single trust is consistent with the Settlor's intent, and facilitates the trust's administration without defeating or impairing the interests of the beneficiaries.

(35) To divide any trust into separate shares or separate trusts or to create separate trusts if the Trustee reasonably deems it appropriate and the division or creation is consistent with the Settlor's intent, and facilitates the trust's administration without defeating or impairing the interests of the beneficiaries.

(36) To divide property in any trust being held hereunder with an inclusion ratio, as defined in section 2642(a)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as from time to time amended or under similar future legislation, of neither one nor zero into two separate trusts representing two fractional shares of the property being divided, one to have an inclusion ratio of one and the other to have an inclusion ratio of zero, to create trusts to receive property with an inclusion ratio of either one or zero and if this cannot be done to refuse to accept property which does not have a matching inclusion ratio to the receiving trust's ratio, all as the Trustee in its sole discretion deems best.

(37) If the Trustee shall act as the Personal Representative of the Settlor's estate, to elect to allocate any portion or all the Settlor's generation-skipping transfer exemption provided for in Code section 2631 or under similar future legislation, in effect at the time of the Settlor's death, to any portion or all of any other trusts or bequests in the Settlor's Will or any other transfer in which the Settlor is the transferor for purposes of the generation-skipping tax. Generally, the Settlor anticipates that the Settlor's Personal Representative will elect to allocate this exemption first to direct skips as defined in Code section 2612, then in such other manner as the Trustee deems appropriate, unless it would be inadvisable based on all the circumstances at the time of making the allocation; and to make the special election under section 2652(a)(3) of the Code to the extent the Settlor's Personal Representative deems in the best interest of the Settlor's estate.

ARTICLE X

Provision for Trustee to Act as Trustee for Beneficiary Under Age Twenty-One. If any share hereunder becomes distributable to a beneficiary who has not attained the age of Twenty-one (21), such share shall immediately vest in the beneficiary, but notwithstanding the provisions herein, the Trustee shall retain possession of the share in trust for the beneficiary until the beneficiary attains the age of Twenty-one (21), using so much of the net income and principal of the share as the Trustee deems necessary to provide for the medical care, education, support and maintenance in reasonable comfort of the beneficiary, taking into consideration to the extent the Trustee deems advisable any other income or resources of the beneficiary or his or her parents known to the Trustee. Any income not so paid or applied shall be accumulated and added to principal. The beneficiary's share shall be paid over and distributed to the beneficiary upon attaining age Twenty-one (21), or if he or she shall sooner die, to his or her personal representatives. The Trustee shall have with respect to each share so retained all the powers and discretions it had with respect to the trusts created herein generally.

ARTICLE XI

Trustee's Discretion in Making Payments to a Person Under Age Twenty-One, Incompetent, or Incapacitated Person. In case the income or principal payment under any trust created hereunder or any share thereof shall become payable to a person under the age of Twenty-one (21), or to a person under legal disability, or to a person not adjudicated incompetent, but who, by reason of illness or mental or physical disability, is, in the opinion of the Trustee unable properly to administer such amounts, then such amounts shall be paid out by the Trustee in such of the following ways as the Trustee deems best: (1) directly to the beneficiary; (2) to the legally appointed guardian of the beneficiary; (3) to some relative or friend for the medical care, education, support and maintenance in reasonable comfort of the beneficiary; (4) by the Trustee using such amounts directly for the beneficiary's care, support and education; (5) to a custodian for the beneficiary under the Uniform Gifts or Transfers to Minors Act.

ARTICLE XII

Discretion in Trustee to Terminate Small Trust and Distribute to Income Beneficiary. If at any time any trust created hereunder has a fair market value as determined by the Trustee of Fifty Thousand ($50,000.00) Dollars or less, the Trustee, in its absolute discretion if it determines that it is uneconomical to continue such trust, may terminate such trust and distribute the trust property to the person or persons then entitled to receive or have the benefit of the income therefrom or the legal representative of such person. If there is more than one income beneficiary, the Trustee shall make such distribution to such income beneficiaries in the proportion in which they are beneficiaries or if no proportion is designated in equal shares to such beneficiaries.

ARTICLE XIII

Definitions of Family. The following definitions shall be used to define the family:

(1) Definition of Children. For purposes of this Trust, "children" means the lawful blood descendants in the first degree of the parent designated; and "issue" and "descendants" mean the lawful blood descendants in any degree of the ancestor designated. The terms "child," "children," "issue," "descendant" and "descendants" or those terms preceded by the terms "living" or "then living" shall include the lawful blood descendant in the first degree of the parent designated even though such descendant is born after the death of such parent. For purposes of this trust the anti-lapse shall not apply as the Settlor has named successor takers where it is the Settlor's intent so to do.

(2) Inclusion of Adopted Children. For purposes of this Trust, if a person, who at the time of such legal adoption proceeding is commenced is then under the age of twenty-one (21) years, has been adopted, that person shall be considered a child of such adopting parent and such adopted child and his or her issue shall be considered as issue of the adopting parent or parents and of anyone who is by blood or adoption an ancestor of the adopting parent or either of the adopting parents.

(3) Definition of Per Stirpes. The term "per stirpes" as used herein has the identical meaning as the term "taking by representation" as defined in the South Carolina Probate Code.

ARTICLE XIV

Definition of Words Relating to the Internal Revenue Code. As used herein, words which from the context in which it or they are used refer to the Internal Revenue Code shall have the same meaning as such words have for the purposes of applying the Internal Revenue Code to the Settlor's estate. For purposes of this Trust Agreement, the Settlor's "available generation-skipping transfer exemption" means the generation-skipping transfer tax exemption provided in section 2631 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, in effect at the time of the Settlor's death reduced by the aggregate of (1) the amount, if any, of the Settlor's exemption allocated to lifetime transfers of the Settlor by the Settlor or by operation of law, and (2) the amount, if any, the Settlor has specifically allocated to other property of the Settlor's gross estate for federal estate tax purposes. For purposes of this Trust Agreement if at the time of the Settlor's death the Settlor has made gifts with an inclusion ratio of greater than zero for which the gift tax return due date has not expired (including extensions) and the Settlor has not yet filed a return, it shall be deemed that the Settlor's generation-skipping transfer exemption has been allocated to these transfers to the extent necessary (and possible) to exempt the transfer(s) from generation-skipping transfer tax. Reference to sections of the Internal Revenue Code and to the Internal Revenue Code shall refer to the Internal Revenue Code amended to the date of the Settlor's death.

ARTICLE XV

Simultaneous Death Provision Presuming Beneficiary Predeceases Settlor. If any beneficiary and the Settlor should die under such circumstances as would make it doubtful whether the beneficiary or the Settlor died first, then it shall be conclusively presumed for the purposes of this Trust that the beneficiary predeceased the Settlor.

ARTICLE XVI

State Law to Govern. This Trust Agreement and the trusts created hereby shall be construed, regulated and governed by and in accordance with the laws of the State of South Carolina.

ARTICLE XVII

Spendthrift Provision. Except as otherwise provided herein, all payments of principal and income payable, or to become payable, to the beneficiary of any trust created hereunder shall not be subject to anticipation, assignment, pledge, sale or transfer in any manner, nor shall any beneficiary have the power to anticipate or encumber such interest, nor shall such interest, while in the possession of the fiduciary hereunder, be liable for, or subject to, the debts, contracts, obligations, liabilities or torts of any beneficiary.

Testimonium Clause. IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Settlor and the Trustee have executed this Trust Agreement.

FIRST CODICIL TO LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF
JANET BLOOM BROOKER

I, Janet Bloom Brooker, executed my Last Will and Testament on October 31, 1988. I do hereby make, publish and declare this to be the First Codicil to my said Last Will and Testament.

FIRST:

I do hereby revoke Item IV of my said Last Will and Testament in its entirety and substitute in lieu thereof a new Item with the same number which Item shall read as follows:

ITEM IV

I give, devise and bequeath all the rest, residue and remainder of my property of every kind and description (including lapsed legacies and devises) wherever situate and whether acquired before or after the execution of this Will, as follows:

(1) I give, devise and bequeath such amount as shall be necessary to equalize for gifts given to any child of mine during my life. Thus, to the extent that I have not equalized for such gifts during my lifetime, I direct that at the time of my death my Personal Representative determine what gifts I made and whether I accomplished equalization and if not then I direct my Personal Representative to make equalizing gifts to my children or to such child's issue, per stirpes. Such equalization shall be made for the value of the gift given at the time such gift was made with no interest thereon. My Personal Representative's best faith effort to determine the value shall be final and binding upon any beneficiaries hereunder.

(2) I give, devise and bequeath all the remainder thereof in approximately equal shares to such of my children, Beacham Owens Brooker, Jr., Julia Barnes Brooker and Ellen Montague Brooker as shall survive me; provided, however, the issue surviving me of a predeceased child of mine shall take, per stirpes, the share such child would have taken had such child survived me.

SECOND:

I hereby republish and reaffirm my said Last Will and Testament as herein modified, amended and supplemented by this First Codicil and self-proving page, intending that it make my Last Will and Testament and this Codicil self-proving, as if the same were set out here in full and do incorporate the same by this reference thereto, and do hereby republish and declare my said Last Will and Testament as amended, modified and supplemented as my Last Will and Testament.

TRUST AGREEMENT

FILE COPY

Introductory Clause. This Agreement made this the 16th day of October, 2007, between JANET B. BROOKER, hereinafter referred to as the Settlor and BEACHAM O. BROOKER, JR. AND JANET B. BROOKER, hereinafter referred to singularly as an individual trustee and hereinafter collectively referred to as the Trustee. During the lifetime of the Settlor and after the death of the Settlor but prior to final distribution herein this trust shall be known as the "JANET B. BROOKER TRUST".

ARTICLE I

Description of Property Transferred. The Settlor has paid over, assigned, granted, conveyed, transferred and delivered, and by this Agreement does hereby pay over, assign, grant, convey, transfer and deliver unto the Trustee the property described in Schedule A, annexed hereto and made a part hereof, and may cause the Trustee to be designated as beneficiary of certain life insurance policies. Any insurance policies that may be delivered to the Trustee hereunder or under which the Trustee may be designated as beneficiary, the proceeds of all such policies being payable to the Trustee, and any other property that may be received or which has been received by the Trustee hereunder, as invested and reinvested (hereinafter referred to as the "Trust Estate"), shall be held, administered and distributed by the Trustee as hereinafter set forth.

ARTICLE II

Provisions for Settlor During Lifetime. The Trustee shall hold, manage, invest and reinvest the Trust Estate (if any requires such management and investment) and shall collect the income, if any, therefrom and shall dispose of the net income and principal as follows:

(1) During the lifetime of the Settlor, the Trustee shall pay to or apply for the benefit of the Settlor all the net income from this Trust.

(2) During the lifetime of the Settlor, the Trustee may pay to or apply for the benefit of the Settlor such sums from the principal of this Trust as in its sole discretion shall be necessary or advisable from time to time for the medical care, education, support and maintenance in reasonable comfort of the Settlor, taking into consideration to the extent the Trustee deems advisable, any other income or resources of the Settlor known to the Trustee.

ARTICLE III

Settlor's Rights to Amend, Change or Revoke the Trust Agreement. The Settlor may, by signed instruments delivered to the Trustee during the Settlor's life: (1) withdraw property from this Trust in any amount and at any time upon giving reasonable notice in writing to the Trustee; (2) add other property to the Trust; (3) change the beneficiaries, their respective shares and the plan of distribution; (4) amend this Trust Agreement in any other respect; (5) revoke this Trust in its entirety or any provision therein; provided, however, the duties or responsibilities of the Trustee shall not be enlarged without the Trustee's consent nor without satisfactory adjustment of the Trustee's compensation.

ARTICLE IV

Discretionary Provisions for Trustee to Deal with Settlor's Estate and Make Payment of Debts and Taxes. After the Settlor's death, the Trustee, if in its discretion it deems it advisable, may pay all or any part of the Settlor's funeral expenses, legally enforceable claims against the Settlor or the Settlor's estate, reasonable expenses of administration of the Settlor's estate, any allowances by court order to those dependent upon the Settlor, any estate, inheritance, succession, death or similar taxes payable by reason of the Settlor's death, together with any interest thereon or other additions thereto, without reimbursement from the Settlor's personal representatives, from any beneficiary of insurance upon the Settlor's life, or from any other person. All such payments, except of interest, shall be charged generally against the principal of the Trust Estate includable in the Settlor's estate for Federal estate tax purposes and any interest so paid shall be charged generally against the income thereof; provided, however, any such payments of estate, inheritance, succession, death or similar taxes (except generation-skipping transfer taxes) shall be charged against the principal constituting the Trust Estate and any interest so paid shall be charged against the income thereof. If such share or trust was created as a fraction, then such taxes thus paid shall reduce the numerator of that share or trust and the Trust Estate, thus likewise reducing the denominator of the fraction. The Trustee may make such payments directly or may pay over the amounts thereof to the personal representatives of the Settlor's estate. Written statements by the personal representatives of such sums due and payable by the estate shall be sufficient evidence of their amount and propriety for the protection of the Trustee and the Trustee shall be under no duty to see to the application of any such payments. If administrative expenses are deducted on the estate's income tax return but paid from principal, then they shall be charged against the Trust Estate.

ARTICLE V

Specific Distributions. Upon the death of the Settlor, the Trustee shall make the following distributions:

(1) General Distribution of Personal and Household Effects With a Mandatory Memorandum. All the Settlor's personal and household effects of every kind including but not limited to furniture, appliances, furnishings, pictures, silverware, china, glass, books, jewelry, wearing apparel, boats, automobiles, and other vehicles, and all policies of fire, burglary, property damage, and other insurance on or in connection with the use of this property, shall be distributed as follows:

(a) The Settlor may leave written memoranda disposing of certain items of tangible personal property. Any such item of tangible personal property shall pass according to the terms of such memoranda in existence at the time of the Settlor's death. If no such written memoranda are found or identified by the Trustee within ninety (90) days after the Settlor's death, it shall be conclusively presumed that there are no such memoranda and any subsequently discovered memoranda shall be ineffective. Any property given and devised to a beneficiary who is not living at the time of the Settlor's death and for whom no effective alternate provision has been made shall pass according to the provisions of the following subparagraph, and not pursuant to any anti-lapse statute.

(b) In default of such memoranda, or to the extent such memoranda do not completely or effectively dispose of such property, the rest of the Settlor's personal and household effects of every kind shall be distributed to the Settlor's children surviving the Settlor, in approximately equal shares; provided, however, the issue of a deceased child surviving the Settlor shall take per stirpes the share their parent would have taken had he or she survived the Settlor. If the Settlor's issue do not agree to the division of the property among themselves, the Trustee shall make such division among them, the decision of the Trustee to be in all respects binding upon the Settlor's issue. If any beneficiary hereunder is a minor, the Trustee may distribute such minor's share to such minor or for such minor's use to any person with whom such minor is residing or who has the care or control of such minor without further responsibility and the receipt of the person to whom it is distributed shall be a complete discharge of the Trustee.

(2) Equalizing Distribution to the Settlor's Daughter, JULIA B. BROOKER. The Settlor has previously made lifetime gifts and intends to continue such gifting program until the date of the Settlor's death to the Settlor's children, the Settlor's issue and spouses of the Settlor's children. Because the Settlor's daughter, JULIA B. BROOKER is not married and has no children or issue, the Settlor intends that at the Settlor's death, an equalizing distribution will be made to the Settlor's said daughter pursuant to the terms of this paragraph for lifetime gifts made to such daughter's siblings' spouses or siblings' issue which equalizing distribution will be determined as follows:

(a) From the date of this trust forward the Trustee shall determine the date and the amount of any lifetime gifts made by the Settlor to issue of Ellen B. Corontzes and Beachum O. Brooker, Jr. as well as the spouses of Ellen B. Corontzes and Beachum O. Brooker, Jr.

(b) To such amount specified above from the date of such gift an interest rate of five (5%) percent shall be applied to the amount of such gift which interest rate shall continue until this distribution is satisfied and which rate shall not compound.

(c) The sum of (a) and (b) above shall be distributed to the Settlor's daughter, JULIA B. BROOKER if she shall survive the Settlor.

(3) Definition of Trust Estate. As used in this Trust Agreement, the words "Trust Estate" shall mean the entire Trust Estate minus the specific distributions under this Article.

ARTICLE VI

Trust Estate to Settlor's Issue. Upon the death of the Settlor, the Trust Estate (which shall include any property which may be added from the Settlor's general estate) shall be held in trust or paid over and distributed to the Settlor's surviving children in equal shares, provided, however, the then living issue of a deceased child of the Settlor shall take per stirpes the share their parent would have taken had he or she survived the Settlor. Provided, further, that any share due the Settlor's son, Beachum O. Brooker, Jr., if he shall survive the Settlor and any share due the Settlor's daughter, Ellen B. Corontzes, if she shall survive the Settlor shall first be allocated to the lifetime generation skipping trusts created for such named children ("Beacham

O. Brooker, Jr. Family Trust dated May 12, 1997;" "Ellen B. Corontzes Family Trust dated May 12, 1997") but only to the extent that the Settlor's estate has available generation skipping tax exemption remaining to be allocated among such trusts. The Settlor intends that any available generation skipping tax exemption be allocated equally among the "Beacham O. Brooker, Jr. Family Trust dated May 12, 1997" and the "Ellen B. Corontzes Family Trust dated May 12, 1997."

ARTICLE VII

Trustee Succession, Trustee's Fees and Other Matters. The provisions for naming the Trustee, Trustee succession, Trustee's fees and other matters are set forth below:

(1) Individual Trustees Succession. If the individual Trustee should fail to qualify as Trustee hereunder, or for any reason should cease to act in such capacity, the remaining individual Trustee shall continue to serve without a successor or substitute.

(2) Succession If Original Trustees Cannot Act. If all the Settlor's original Trustees should fail to qualify as Trustee hereunder, or for any reason should cease to act in such capacity, then the successor or substitute Trustee who shall also serve without bond shall be the Settlor's daughter, JULIA B. BROOKER.

(3) Final Succession If All Individual Trustees Cannot Act. If all the Settlor's individual Trustees should fail to qualify as Trustee hereunder, or for any reason should cease to act in such capacity, then the successor or substitute Trustee who shall also serve without bond shall be the Settlor's daughter, ELLEN B. CORONTZES.

(4) Fee Schedule for Individual Trustee. For its services as Trustee, the individual Trustee shall receive reasonable compensation for the services rendered and reimbursement for reasonable expenses.

(5) Delegation Among Trustees. When there is more than one individual or entity serving as co-Trustees, then any Trustee may delegate to any other Trustee the power to exercise any or all of the powers granted to the Trustees in this Trust Agreement, including those powers, which are discretionary, to the extent allowed by law. Any delegating Trustee may revoke any such delegation with written notice to the other serving co-Trustees. The delegation of any such power, as well as the revocation of any such delegation, shall be evidenced by an instrument in writing signed by the delegating co-Trustee. As long as any such delegation is in effect, any of the delegated powers may be exercised by the Trustee receiving such delegation with the same force and effect as if the delegating Trustee had personally joined in the exercise of such power. Provided, however, that if such Trustee, or co-Trustee, shall also be a current beneficiary and such delegation shall be deemed to create in that Trustee a right that shall be deemed to be a general power of appointment, then such individual Trustee shall not be vested with such right to delegate such power.

(6) Limitations on Trustees. No person who at any time is acting as Trustee hereunder shall have any power or obligation to participate in any discretionary authority which the Settlor has given to the Trustee to pay principal or income to such person, or for his or her benefit or in relief of his or her legal obligations; provided, however, if an individual trustee (who is also a beneficiary) is the sole trustee or at any time is acting as the sole trustee, and such trustee has discretion to invade principal for himself or herself and such discretionary authority is limited by an ascertainable standard, then such trustee may invade principal (if limited by such standard) for himself or herself but not in relief of his or her legal obligations.

(7) Trustee Accountings and Settlement. The Trustee shall report on Trust activities and account to the beneficiaries, as follows:

(a) Trustee Accountings. If there are more than nominal assets in the Trust, the Trustee shall render an accounting of the Trust's receipts and disbursements and a statement of the assets and liability of the Trust at least annually to each current income beneficiary and all beneficiaries entitled by law to receive an accounting. The Trustee may, but shall not be required to, file such accountings with the Court having jurisdiction of the Trust. The Settlor specifically waives any requirement for formal or court approved accounting. If the Trustee provides an accounting to each current income beneficiary and all beneficiaries entitled by law and those beneficiaries do not notify the Trustee in writing of an objection to such accounting within ninety (90) days of the receipt of such accounting, then the accounting shall be deemed accepted and approved by such beneficiary.

(b) Settlement of Trustee Accounting. During the period of time that this Trust may be revoked by the Settlor, the Trustee may render an accounting of its administration of the Trust to the Settlor. The Settlor's written acceptance and approval of such accounting shall be binding upon all present and future Trust beneficiaries.

(c) Settlement of Trustee Accounting by Beneficiaries. The Trustee may at any time settle its account with respect to the Trust Estate, or any separate share of the Trust Estate, by a written agreement. The written agreement shall be between the Trustee and all appropriate living income beneficiaries and remainder beneficiaries for the Trust Estate, or separate Trust share as appropriate. If a beneficiary is either a minor or incompetent, then the guardian for such person may represent such individual. Such agreement shall bind all persons then or thereafter entitled to such share of the Trust Estate for which the Trustee and beneficiaries reached written agreement. Such agreement shall constitute a complete release and discharge of the Trustee for the acts of the Trustee covered in the accounting and the period covered by the agreement.

(d) Settlement of Trustee Accounting Upon Termination of Trust. Prior to either delivering the Trust Estate to a successor Trustee or making a complete distribution of all or a separate share of the Trust Estate, the Trustee shall prepare and deliver its accounting of the Trust or the applicable Trust share, as appropriate, to the appropriate beneficiaries. The Settlor and/or applicable beneficiaries may waive such requirements for such accounting.

ARTICLE VIII

Definition of Trustee. Whenever the word "Trustee" or any modifying or substituted pronoun therefor is used in this Trust, such words and respective pronouns shall include both the singular and the plural, the masculine, feminine and neuter gender thereof, and shall apply

equally to the Trustee or Co-trustees named herein and to any successor or substitute Trustee or Co-trustee acting hereunder, and such successor or substitute Trustee or Co-trustee shall have all the rights, powers and duties, authority and responsibility conferred upon the Trustee originally named herein.

ARTICLE IX

Powers for Trustee. The Trustee is authorized in its fiduciary discretion (which shall be subject to the standard of reasonableness and good faith to all beneficiaries) with respect to any property, real or personal, at any time held under any provision of this Trust Agreement and without authorization by any court and in addition to any other rights, powers, authority and privileges granted by any other provision of this Trust Agreement or by statute or general rules of law:

(1) To collect trust property and accept or reject additions to the Trust Estate from a Settlor or any other person.

(2) To retain in the form received any property or undivided interests in property donated to, or otherwise acquired as a part of the Trust Estate, including residential property and shares of the Trustee's own stock, regardless of any lack of diversification, risk or nonproductivity, as long as it deems advisable, and to exchange any such security or property for other securities or properties and to retain such items received in exchange, although such property represents a large percentage of the total property of the Trust Estate or even the entirety thereof.

(3) To deposit trust money in accounts of all types, including margin accounts, in all types of regulated financial service institutions.

(4) To invest and reinvest all or any part of the Trust Estate in any property and undivided interests in property, wherever located, including bonds, debentures, notes, secured or unsecured, stocks of corporations regardless of class, interests in limited partnerships, limited liability companies or similar entities, real estate or any interest in real estate whether or not productive at the time of investment, interests in trusts, investment trusts, whether of the open and/or closed fund types, and participation in common, collective or pooled trust funds of the Trustee, insurance contracts on the life of any beneficiary or annuity contracts for any beneficiary, without being limited by any statute or rule of law concerning investments by fiduciaries.

(5) To abandon or decline to administer property of no value or of insufficient value to justify its collection or continued administration.

(6) To sell or dispose of or grant options to purchase any property, real or personal, constituting a part of the Trust Estate, for cash or on credit, at public or private sale, to exchange any property of the Trust Estate for other property, at such times and upon such terms and conditions as it may deem best, and no person dealing with it shall be bound to see to the application of any monies paid.

(7) To hold any securities or other property in its own name as Trustee, in its own name, in the name of a nominee (with or without disclosure of any fiduciary relationship) or in bearer form.

(8) To keep, at any time and from time to time, all or any portion of the Trust Estate in cash and uninvested for such period or periods of time as it may deem advisable, without liability for any loss in income by reason thereof.

(9) To sell or exercise stock subscription or conversion rights.

(10) To refrain from voting or to vote shares of stock which are a part of the Trust Estate at shareholders' meetings in person or by special, limited, or general proxy and in general to exercise all the rights, powers and privileges of an owner in respect to any securities constituting a part of the Trust Estate.

(11) To participate in any plan of reorganization or consolidation or merger involving any company or companies whose stock or other securities shall be part of the Trust Estate, and to deposit such stock or other securities under any plan of reorganization or with any protective committee and to delegate to such committee discretionary power with relation thereto, to pay a proportionate part of the expenses of such committee and any assessments levied under any such plan, to accept and retain new securities received by the Trustee pursuant to any such plan, to exercise all conversion, subscription, voting and other rights, of whatsoever nature pertaining to such property, and to pay any amount or amounts of money as it may deem advisable in connection therewith.

(12) To borrow money with or without security and to encumber, mortgage or pledge any asset of the Trust Estate for a term within or extending beyond the term of the trust, in connection with the exercise of any power vested in the Trustee.

(13) To pledge the Trust Estate and to cause this Trust to guarantee loans made by others to a beneficiary or any business owned by the Trust.

(14) To enter for any purpose into a lease as lessor or lessee, including a lease or other arrangement for exploration and removal of natural resources, with or without option to purchase or renew for a term within or extending beyond the term of the Trust.

(15) To subdivide, develop, or dedicate real property to public use or to make or obtain the vacation of plats and adjust boundaries, to adjust differences in valuation on exchange or partition by giving or receiving consideration, and to dedicate public or private easements to private or public use without consideration, including by way of example qualified conservation and façade easements.

(16) To make ordinary or extraordinary repairs or alterations in buildings or other structures, to demolish any improvements, to raze existing or erect new party walls or buildings.

(17) To continue and operate any business or other enterprise owned by the Settlor at the Settlor's death, whether an interest in a proprietorship, partnership, limited liability company, business trust, corporation, or other form of business or enterprise, and to do any and all things deemed needful or appropriate by the Trustee, including the power to incorporate the business and to put additional capital into the business, for such time as it shall deem advisable by shareholders, members, or property owners, without liability for loss resulting from the continuance or operation of the business except for its own negligence; and to merge or otherwise change the form of business organization or contribute additional capital, close out, liquidate, or sell the business at such time and upon such terms as it shall deem best.

(18) To collect, receive, and receipt for rents, issues, profits, and income of the Trust Estate.

(19) To insure the assets of the Trust Estate against damage or loss and to insure the Trustee, the Trustee's agents, and beneficiaries against liability arising from the administration of the Trust.

(20) To select a mode of payment under any employee benefit or retirement plan, annuity, or life insurance payable to the Trustee, exercise rights thereunder, including exercise of the right to indemnification for expenses and against liabilities, and take appropriate action to collect the proceeds.

(21) In buying and selling assets, in lending and borrowing money, and in all other transactions, irrespective of the occupancy by the same person of dual positions, to deal with itself in its separate, or any fiduciary capacity.

(22) To compromise, adjust, arbitrate, sue on or defend, abandon or decline to administer property of no value or of insufficient value to justify its collection or continued administration, or otherwise deal with and settle claims in favor of or against the Trust Estate or to prosecute or defend an action, claim, or judicial proceeding in any jurisdiction to protect the Trust Estate and the Trustee in the performance of the Trustee's duties, as the Trustee shall deem best.

(23) To exercise elections with respect to federal, state, and local taxes.

(24) To employ and compensate agents, accountants, investment advisers, brokers, attorneys-in-fact, attorneys-at-law, tax specialists, realtors, appraisers, and other assistants and advisors deemed by the Trustee needful for the proper administration of the Trust Estate, and to do so without liability for any neglect, omission, misconduct, or default of any such agent or professional representative provided such person was selected and retained with reasonable care.

(25) To appoint a Trustee to act in another jurisdiction with respect to the Trust Estate located in the other jurisdiction, confer upon the appointed Trustee all of the powers and duties of the appointing Trustee, require that the appointed Trustee furnish security, and remove any Trustee so appointed.

(26) To determine what shall be fairly and equitably charged or credited to income and what to principal.

(27) To resolve a dispute concerning the interpretation of the Trust or its administration by mediation, arbitration, or other procedure for alternative dispute resolution.

(28) To hold and retain the principal of the Trust Estate undivided until actual division shall become necessary in order to make distributions; to hold, manage, invest, and account for the several shares or parts thereof by appropriate entries on the Trustee's books of account; and to allocate to each share or part of share its proportionate part of all receipts and expenses; provided, however, the carrying of several trusts as one shall not defer the vesting in title or in possession of any share or part of share thereof.

(29) To make payment in cash or in kind, or partly in cash and partly in kind upon any division or distribution of the Trust Estate (including the satisfaction of any pecuniary distribution) without regard to the income tax basis of any specific property allocated to any beneficiary and to value and appraise any asset and to distribute such asset in kind at its appraised value; and when dividing fractional interests in property among several beneficiaries to allocate entire interests in some property to one beneficiary and entire interests in other property to another beneficiary or beneficiaries.

(30) In general, to exercise all powers in the management of the Trust Estate which any individual could exercise in his or her own right, upon such terms and conditions as it may reasonably deem best, and to do all acts which it may deem reasonably necessary or proper to carry out the purposes of this Trust Agreement.

(31) To purchase property, real or personal, from the Settlor's general estate upon such terms and conditions as to price and terms of payment as the Settlor's personal representatives and the Trustee shall agree, to hold the property so purchased as a part of the Trust Estate although it may not qualify as an authorized trust investment except for this provision, and to dispose of such property as and when the Trustee shall deem advisable. The fact that the Settlor's personal representatives and the Trustee are the same shall in no way affect the validity of this provision.

(32) To lend funds to the Settlor's general estate or to a beneficiary upon such terms and conditions as to interest rates, maturities, and security as the Settlor's personal representatives and the Trustee shall consider to be fair and reasonable under the circumstances, the fact that they may be the same in no way affecting the validity of this provision.

(33) To receive property bequeathed, devised or donated to the Trustee by the Settlor or any other person; to receive the proceeds of any insurance policy which names the Trustee as beneficiary; to execute all necessary receipts and releases to Personal Representatives, donors, insurance companies and other parties adding property to the Trust Estate.

(34) To combine assets of two or more trusts if the provisions and terms of each trust are substantially identical, and to administer them as a single trust, if the Trustee reasonably

determines that the administration as a single trust is consistent with the Settlor's intent, and facilitates the trust's administration without defeating or impairing the interests of the beneficiaries.

(35) To divide any trust into separate shares or separate trusts or to create separate trusts if the Trustee reasonably deems it appropriate and the division or creation is consistent with the Settlor's intent, and facilitates the trust's administration without defeating or impairing the interests of the beneficiaries.

(36) To divide property in any trust being held hereunder with an inclusion ratio, as defined in section 2642(a)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as from time to time amended or under similar future legislation, of neither one nor zero into two separate trusts representing two fractional shares of the property being divided, one to have an inclusion ratio of one and the other to have an inclusion ratio of zero, to create trusts to receive property with an inclusion ratio of either one or zero and if this cannot be done to refuse to accept property which does not have a matching inclusion ratio to the receiving trust's ratio, all as the Trustee in its sole discretion deems best.

(37) If the Trustee shall act as the Personal Representative of the Settlor's estate, to elect to allocate any portion or all the Settlor's generation-skipping transfer exemption provided for in Code section 2631 or under similar future legislation, in effect at the time of the Settlor's death, to any portion or all of any other trusts or bequests in the Settlor's Will or any other transfer in which the Settlor is the transferor for purposes of the generation-skipping tax. Generally, the Settlor anticipates that the Settlor's Personal Representative will elect to allocate this exemption first to direct skips as defined in Code section 2612, then in such other manner as the Trustee deems appropriate, unless it would be inadvisable based on all the circumstances at the time of making the allocation; and to make the special election under section 2652(a)(3) of the Code to the extent the Settlor's Personal Representative deems in the best interest of the Settlor's estate.

ARTICLE X

Provision for Trustee to Act as Trustee for Beneficiary Under Age Twenty-One. If any share hereunder becomes distributable to a beneficiary who has not attained the age of Twenty-one (21), such share shall immediately vest in the beneficiary, but notwithstanding the provisions herein, the Trustee shall retain possession of the share in trust for the beneficiary until the beneficiary attains the age of Twenty-one (21), using so much of the net income and principal of the share as the Trustee deems necessary to provide for the medical care, education, support and maintenance in reasonable comfort of the beneficiary, taking into consideration to the extent the Trustee deems advisable any other income or resources of the beneficiary or his or her parents known to the Trustee. Any income not so paid or applied shall be accumulated and added to principal. The beneficiary's share shall be paid over and distributed to the beneficiary upon attaining age Twenty-one (21), or if he or she shall sooner die, to his or her personal representatives. The Trustee shall have with respect to each share so retained all the powers and discretions it had with respect to the trusts created herein generally.

ARTICLE XI

Trustee's Discretion in Making Payments to a Person Under Age Twenty-One, Incompetent, or Incapacitated Person. In case the income or principal payment under any trust created hereunder or any share thereof shall become payable to a person under the age of Twenty-one (21), or to a person under legal disability, or to a person not adjudicated incompetent, but who, by reason of illness or mental or physical disability, is, in the opinion of the Trustee unable properly to administer such amounts, then such amounts shall be paid out by the Trustee in such of the following ways as the Trustee deems best: (1) directly to the beneficiary; (2) to the legally appointed guardian of the beneficiary; (3) to some relative or friend for the medical care, education, support and maintenance in reasonable comfort of the beneficiary; (4) by the Trustee using such amounts directly for the beneficiary's care, support and education; (5) to a custodian for the beneficiary under the Uniform Gifts or Transfers to Minors Act.

ARTICLE XII

Discretion in Trustee to Terminate Small Trust and Distribute to Income Beneficiary. If at any time any trust created hereunder has a fair market value as determined by the Trustee of Fifty Thousand ($50,000.00) Dollars or less, the Trustee, in its absolute discretion if it determines that it is uneconomical to continue such trust, may terminate such trust and distribute the trust property to the person or persons then entitled to receive or have the benefit of the income therefrom or the legal representative of such person. If there is more than one income beneficiary, the Trustee shall make such distribution to such income beneficiaries in the proportion in which they are beneficiaries or if no proportion is designated in equal shares to such beneficiaries.

ARTICLE XIII

Definitions of Family. The following definitions shall be used to define the family:

(1) Definition of Children. For purposes of this Trust, "children" means the lawful blood descendants in the first degree of the parent designated; and "issue" and "descendants" mean the lawful blood descendants in any degree of the ancestor designated. The terms "child," "children," "issue," "descendant" and "descendants" or those terms preceded by the terms "living" or "then living" shall include the lawful blood descendant in the first degree of the parent designated even though such descendant is born after the death of such parent. For purposes of this trust the anti-lapse shall not apply as the Settlor has named successor takers where it is the Settlor's intent so to do.

(2) Inclusion of Adopted Children. For purposes of this Trust, if a person, who at the time of such legal adoption proceeding is commenced is then under the age of twenty-one (21) years, has been adopted, that person shall be considered a child of such adopting parent and such adopted child and his or her issue shall be considered as issue of the adopting parent or parents and of anyone who is by blood or adoption an ancestor of the adopting parent or either of the adopting parents.

(3) Definition of Per Stirpes. The term "per stirpes" as used herein has the identical meaning as the term "taking by representation" as defined in the South Carolina Probate Code.

ARTICLE XIV

Definition of Words Relating to the Internal Revenue Code. As used herein, words which from the context in which it or they are used refer to the Internal Revenue Code shall have the same meaning as such words have for the purposes of applying the Internal Revenue Code to the Settlor's estate. For purposes of this Trust Agreement, the Settlor's "available generation-skipping transfer exemption" means the generation-skipping transfer tax exemption provided in section 2631 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, in effect at the time of the Settlor's death reduced by the aggregate of (1) the amount, if any, of the Settlor's exemption allocated to lifetime transfers of the Settlor by the Settlor or by operation of law, and (2) the amount, if any, the Settlor has specifically allocated to other property of the Settlor's gross estate for federal estate tax purposes. For purposes of this Trust Agreement if at the time of the Settlor's death the Settlor has made gifts with an inclusion ratio of greater than zero for which the gift tax return due date has not expired (including extensions) and the Settlor has not yet filed a return, it shall be deemed that the Settlor's generation-skipping transfer exemption has been allocated to these transfers to the extent necessary (and possible) to exempt the transfer(s) from generation-skipping transfer tax. Reference to sections of the Internal Revenue Code and to the Internal Revenue Code shall refer to the Internal Revenue Code amended to the date of the Settlor's death.

ARTICLE XV

Simultaneous Death Provision Presuming Beneficiary Predeceases Settlor. If any beneficiary and the Settlor should die under such circumstances as would make it doubtful whether the beneficiary or the Settlor died first, then it shall be conclusively presumed for the purposes of this Trust that the beneficiary predeceased the Settlor.

ARTICLE XVI

State Law to Govern. This Trust Agreement and the trusts created hereby shall be construed, regulated and governed by and in accordance with the laws of the State of South Carolina.

ARTICLE XVII

Spendthrift Provision. Except as otherwise provided herein, all payments of principal and income payable, or to become payable, to the beneficiary of any trust created hereunder shall not be subject to anticipation, assignment, pledge, sale or transfer in any manner, nor shall any beneficiary have the power to anticipate or encumber such interest, nor shall such interest, while in the possession of the fiduciary hereunder, be liable for, or subject to, the debts, contracts, obligations, liabilities or torts of any beneficiary.

Testimonium Clause. IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Settlor and the Trustee have executed this Trust Agreement.

GENERAL DURABLE
POWER OF ATTORNEY

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS that as principal (the "Principal") I, Janet Bloom Brooker, a resident of the state and county aforesaid, have made, constituted and appointed and by these presents do make, constitute and appoint my son, Beecham O. Brooker, Jr., as my true and lawful attorney ("Attorney") acting on my behalf, for the purposes hereinafter set forth.

Subject to the limitations set forth in this paragraph, I have also made, constituted and appointed and by these presents do make, constitute and appoint my daughter, Julia B. Brooker, and my daughter, Ellen B. Corontzes, as my true and lawful attorney for the purposes hereinafter set forth. So long as the limitations described below shall apply to Julia B. Brooker and Ellen B. Corontzes, they shall be referred to herein as "Standby Attorney". The term "Attorney" as used herein shall apply to any Standby Attorney at such time as the limitations described below no longer apply.

(a) The limitations referred to above upon the authority of my Standby Attorney to act hereunder are as follows:

(i) In no event is Julia B. Brooker authorized to act hereunder so long as Beecham O. Brooker, Jr. is living, competent to act and has not resigned nor been removed.

(ii) In no event is Ellen B. Corontzes authorized to act hereunder so long as Beecham O. Brooker, Jr. or Julia B. Brooker is living, competent to act and has not resigned nor been removed.

(b) The limitations upon the authority of a Standby Attorney to act shall not apply if such Standby Attorney has executed and delivered an affidavit setting forth that the limitations described above upon such Standby Attorney's authority to act do not then apply. Upon the execution and delivery of such an affidavit by a Standby Attorney, such Standby Attorney shall be authorized to act as Attorney and no person acting in reliance upon such affidavit shall incur liability to me or to my estate.

(c) A named Attorney is subject to removal as provided in Article II, Paragraph D, hereof.

(d) For purposes of making gifts to my acting Attorney under Article I, Section F, since my acting Attorney is prohibited from making gifts to himself or herself, I specifically authorize my Standby Attorney (notwithstanding that their "Standby Attorney" status still applies for all other purposes herein) to make any transfers, checks, deeds, instructions, withdrawals, and to take any other action necessary to make gifts to my acting Attorney. In acting under the authority of this paragraph to make gifts to my acting Attorney, my Standby Attorney shall evidence Attorney's authority to act by executing the affidavit referred to in Paragraph (b) above.

Empowerment of Attorney

Attorney is authorized in Attorney's absolute discretion from time to time and at any time with respect to my property, real or personal, at any time owned or held by me and without authorization of any court and in addition to any other rights, powers or authority granted by any other provision of this Power of Attorney or by statute or general rules of law (and regardless of whether I am mentally incompetent or physically or mentally disabled or incapable of managing my property and income), with full power of substitution, as follows:

A. Powers in General

To do and perform all and every act, deed, matter, and thing whatsoever in and about my estate, property and affairs as fully and effectually to all intents and purposes as I might or could do in my own proper person, if personally present, the specifically enumerated powers described below being in aid and exemplification of the full, complete, and general power herein granted and not in limitation or definition thereof.

B. Powers Relating to Management of Assets

1. To buy, receive, lease as lessor, accept or otherwise acquire; to sell, convey, mortgage, grant options upon, hypothecate, pledge, transfer, exchange, quit-claim, or otherwise encumber or dispose of; or to contract or agree for the acquisition, disposal, or encumbrance of any property whatsoever or any custody, possession, interest, or right therein, for cash or credit and upon such terms, considerations and conditions as Attorney shall think proper; and no person dealing with Attorney shall be bound to see to the application of any monies paid;

2. To take, hold, possess, invest or otherwise manage any or all of my property or any interest therein; to eject, remove or relieve tenants or other persons from, and recover possession of, such property by all lawful means; and to maintain, protect, preserve, insure, remove, store, transport, repair, build on, raze, rebuild, alter, modify, or improve the same or any part thereof, and/or to lease any property, real or personal for me or my benefit, as lessee, with or without option to renew; to collect, receive and receipt for rents, issues and profits of my property;

3. To make, endorse, accept, receive, sign, seal, execute, acknowledge, and deliver deeds, assignments, agreements, certificates, endorsements, hypothecations, checks, notes, mortgages, vouchers, receipts; consents, waivers, releases, undertakings, satisfactions, acknowledgments and such other documents or instruments in writing of whatever kind and nature as may be necessary, convenient, or proper in the premises;

4. To subdivide, develop or dedicate real property to public use or to make or obtain the vacation of plats and adjust boundaries, to adjust differences in valuation on exchange or partition by giving or receiving consideration, and to dedicate easements to public use without consideration;

5. To invest and reinvest all or any part of my property in any property and undivided interests in property, wherever located, including bonds, debentures, notes, secured or unsecured, stocks of corporations regardless of class, interests in limited partnerships, real estate or any interest in real estate whether or not productive at the time of investment, interests in trusts, investment trusts, whether of the open and/or closed fund types, and participation in common, collective or pooled trust funds or annuity contracts without being limited by any statute or rules of law concerning investments by fiduciaries;

6. To continue and operate any business owned by me and to do any and all things deemed needful or appropriate by Attorney, including the power to incorporate the business and to put additional capital into the business, for such time as Attorney shall deem advisable, without liability for loss resulting from the continuance or operation of the business except for Attorney's own negligence; and to close out, liquidate, or sell the business at such time and upon such terms as Attorney shall deem best;

7. To transfer all of my stock and/or securities to Attorney, as agent (with the beneficial ownership thereof remaining in me) if necessary or convenient in order to exercise the powers with respect to such stock and/or securities granted herein;

8. To sell or exercise stock subscription or conversion rights;

9. To refrain from voting or to vote shares of stock owned by me at shareholders meetings in person or by special, limited, or general proxy and in general to exercise all the rights, powers and privileges of an owner in respect to any securities constituting my property;

10. To participate in any plan of reorganization or consolidation or merger involving any company or companies with respect to stock or other securities which I own and to deposit such stock or other securities under any plan of reorganization or with any protective committee and to delegate to such committee discretionary power with relation thereto, to pay a proportionate part of the expenses of such committee and any assessments levied under any such plan, to accept and retain new securities received by Attorney pursuant to any such plan, to exercise all conversion, subscription, voting and other rights, of whatsoever nature pertaining to such property, and to pay any amount or amounts of money as Attorney may deem advisable in connection therewith;

11. To purchase, maintain, surrender, collect, or cancel (a) life insurance or annuities of any kind on my life or the life of any one in whom I have an insurable interest, (b) liability insurance protecting me and my estate against third party claims (c) hospital insurance, medical insurance, Medicare supplemental insurance, custodial care insurance, and disability income insurance for me or any of my dependents and (d) casualty insurance insuring assets of mine against loss or damage due to fire, theft, or other commonly insured risk; to pay all insurance premiums, to select any options under such policies, to increase coverage under any such policy, to borrow against any such policy, to pursue all insurance claims on my behalf, to adjust insurance losses, and the foregoing powers shall apply to private and public plans, including but not limited to Medicare, Medicaid, SSI and Worker's Compensation;

12. To represent me in all tax matters; to prepare, sign, and file federal, state, and local income, gift and other tax returns of all kinds, including, where appropriate, joint returns, FICA returns, payroll tax returns, claims for refunds, requests for extensions of time, to file returns and pay taxes due, to file extensions and waivers of applicable periods of limitation, protests and petitions to administrative agencies or courts; to collect and make such disposition of refunds as my Attorney shall deem appropriate, post bonds, receive confidential information and contest deficiencies determined by the Internal Revenue Service or any other authority; to exercise any election I may have under federal, state or local tax law; to allocate any generation-skipping tax exemption to which I am entitled, and generally to represent me or obtain professional representation for me in all tax matters and proceedings of all kinds and for all periods before all officers of the Internal Revenue Service and state and local authorities and in any and all courts, to engage, compensate and discharge attorneys, accountants and other tax and financial advisers and consultants to represent or assist me in connection with any and all tax matters involving or in any way related to me or any property in which I have or may have an interest or responsibility; and on my behalf to execute IRS Form 2848 and appoint my Attorney or any suitable person selected by my Attorney as my representative before the Internal Revenue Service.

C. Powers Relating to Management of Assets and/or Custody of Person

1. To prepare, execute and file joint or separate income and other tax returns and amended returns and declarations of estimated tax for any year or years; to prepare, execute and file gift tax returns made by me or by Attorney on my behalf for any year or years; to consent to any gift and to utilize any gift splitting provision; to utilize or make any tax election; and to prepare, sign and file claims for refund of any tax and other governmental reports, applications, requests, and documents;

2. To deposit in my name and for my account, with any bank, banker or trust company or any building or savings and loan association or any other banking or similar institution, all moneys to which I am entitled or which may come into Attorney's hands as such attorney-in-fact, and all bills of exchange, drafts, checks, promissory notes and other securities for money payable belonging to me, and for that purpose to sign my name and endorse each and every such instrument for deposit or collection; and from time to time, or at any time, to withdraw any or all moneys deposited to my credit at any bank, banker or trust company or any building or savings and loan association or any other banking or similar institution having moneys belonging to me, and, in connection therewith, to draw checks or to make withdrawals in my name; to make, do, execute, acknowledge and deliver, for and upon my behalf and in my name, all such checks, notes and contracts;

3. To endorse, receive, and collect checks payable to my order drawn on the Treasurer or other fiscal officer or depository of the United States, or any sovereign state or authority, or any political subdivision or instrumentality thereof, or any private person, firm, corporation, or partnership;

4. To have access at any time or times to any safe deposit box rented by me, wheresoever located, and to remove the original of this General Durable Power of Attorney and all or any other part of the contents thereof, and to surrender or relinquish said safe deposit box, and any institution in which any such safe deposit box may be located shall not incur any liability to me or my estate as a result of permitting Attorney to exercise this power; and this power is exercisable without (i) any contact with or notice to me, my spouse or any interested persons to my estate; (ii) any prior court order or authorization; (iii) any knowledge of any prior determination as to my mental or physical capacity or incapacity; (iv) any knowledge as to my whereabouts regardless of whether my whereabouts are known or unknown; or (v) any other inquiry. My intention is for this authorization to meet the requirements of S.C. Code Annotated Section 34-19-120 so as to allow Attorney complete access to any safe deposit box rented by me;

5. To make, do, and transact all and every kind of business of any nature or kind whatsoever, including the receipt, recovery, collection, payment, compromise, settlement, and adjustment of all accounts, legacies, bequests, interests, dividends, annuities, demands, debts, taxes, and obligations, or any rebate, refund, or discount thereon, which may now or hereafter be due, owing, or payable by me or to me;

6. To institute, prosecute, defend, abandon, compromise, arbitrate, and dispose of legal, equitable, or administrative hearings, actions, suits, attachments, arrests, distresses or other proceedings, or otherwise engage in litigation involving me, my property or any interests of mine;

7. To borrow money and to encumber, mortgage or pledge any and all of my property in connection with the exercise of any power vested in Attorney;

8. To deal with Attorney in Attorney's individual, or any fiduciary, capacity, in buying and selling assets, in lending and borrowing money, and in all other transactions, irrespective of the occupancy by the same person of dual positions;

9. To employ and dismiss and compensate agents, accountants, investment advisers, brokers, attorneys-in-fact, attorneys-at-law, tax specialists, real estate agents and/or brokers, and other assistants and advisors deemed by Attorney needful for the proper administration of my property, and to do so without liability for any neglect, omission, misconduct, or default of any such agent or professional representative provided such agent or professional representative were selected and retained with reasonable care;

10. To apply for, settle, deposit and expend for my benefit any cash, rights or entitlements due me from any governmental agency or body, such as Supplemental Social Security Medicaid, Medicare, and Social Security Disability Insurance and for the purposes of receiving social security benefits, Attorney is hereby appointed my "Representative Payee"; to utilize all lawful means and methods to recover such assets and/or rights, to qualify me for such benefits and claim such benefits on my behalf, and to compromise claims and grant discharges in regard to the matters described herein;

11. To apply for a Certificate of Title upon, and endorse and transfer title thereto, any automobile, truck, pickup, van, motorcycle or other motor vehicle, and to represent in such transfer assignment that the title to said motor vehicle is free and clear of all liens and encumbrances except those specifically set forth in such transfer assignment;

12. To insure my property against damage or loss and Attorney against liability with respect to third persons;

13. To pay and adjust debts incurred by me or by Attorney in connection with any power authorized hereunder;

14. To elect to take any elective share due me from my deceased spouse, if appropriate; to retain any property which I have the right to elect to retain; to file petitions pertaining to the election, and to take all other actions that Attorney deems appropriate in order to effectuate the election, and if any such actions by Attorney require the approval of any court, to seek such approval;

15. To withdraw and/or receive the income or corpus of any trust over which I have a right of receipt or withdrawal; to request and receive the income or corpus of any trust with respect to which the trustee thereof has the discretionary power to make distributions to or on my behalf, and to execute and deliver to such trustee or trustees a receipt and release or similar document for the income or corpus so received;

16. To renounce or resign any fiduciary position to which I have been or may be appointed, including but not limited to Personal Representative, trustee, guardian or attorney-in-fact, to file an accounting with a court of competent jurisdiction or to otherwise settle such matters in the manner as Attorney shall deem appropriate;

17. To renounce and disclaim any property or interest in property or powers to which for any reason and by any means I may become entitled, whether by gift, testate or intestate succession; to release or abandon any property or interest in property or powers which I may now or hereafter own, including any interests in or rights over trusts, including the right to alter, amend, revoke or terminate. In exercising such discretion, Attorney shall consider any reduction in estate or inheritance taxes that may be due upon my death, and the effect of such renunciation or disclaimer upon persons interested in my estate and persons who would receive the renounced or disclaimed property; provided, however, that Attorney shall make no disclaimer that is expressly prohibited by other provisions of this instrument.

D. Powers Relating to Custody of Person

1. To be treated as I would be with respect to my rights regarding the use and disclosure of my individually identifiable health information or other medical records. This release authority applies to any information governed by the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (aka HIPAA), 42 USC 1320d and 45 CFR 160-164. I authorize any physician, health-care professional, dentist, health plan, hospital, clinic, laboratory, pharmacy or other covered health-care provider, any insurance company and the Medical Information Bureau Inc. or other health-care clearinghouse that has provided treatment or services to me, or that has paid for or is seeking payment from me for such services, to give, disclose and release to my agent, without restriction, all of my individually identifiable health information and medical records regarding any past, present or future medical or mental health condition, including all information relating to the diagnosis and treatment of sexually transmitted diseases, mental illness, and drug or alcohol abuse. The authority given Attorney shall supersede any prior agreement that I may have made with my health-care providers to restrict access to or disclosure of my individually identifiable health information. The authority given Attorney has no expiration date and shall expire only in the event that I revoke the authority in writing and deliver it to my health-care provider.

2. To establish where I shall reside, including the exact physical location, and the city, county, and state of residence and, if necessary, to make all necessary arrangements for me at any hospital, convalescent institution, nursing home or similar establishment, to have and exercise all rights on my behalf which I may have and possess at such residence or institution and to report such address as my official address to the United States Post Office and any other person, firm, corporation or governmental agency as may be necessary, desirable, convenient or appropriate;

3. To employ, dismiss and compensate medical personnel including physicians, surgeons, dentists, medical specialists, nurses, and paramedical assistants deemed by Attorney needful for the proper care, custody and control of my person and to do so without liability for any neglect, omission, misconduct or default of any such physician or other medical personnel, provided such physician or other medical personnel were selected and retained with reasonable care;

4. To authorize any and all kinds of medical procedures and treatment including but not limited to medication, therapy, surgical procedures, and dental care, and to consent to all such treatment, medication or procedures where such consent is required; to obtain the use of medical equipment, devices or other equipment and devices deemed by Attorney needful for proper care, custody and control of my person and to do so without liability for any neglect, omission, misconduct or fault with respect to such medical treatment or other matters authorized herein;

5. To purchase, dispose of and abandon clothing, food, medicine, household and personal effects of all kinds;

6. To arrange for transportation and travel for me for any purpose, including for medical treatment or recreation;

7. To make advance arrangements for funeral services including but not limited to purchase of a burial plot and marker and such other and related arrangements for services, flowers, ministerial services, transportation and other necessary, related, convenient or appropriate goods and services as my Attorney shall deem advisable or appropriate under the circumstances;

8. To apply for, elect, deposit and utilize on my behalf all benefits payable by any governmental body or agency, state, federal, county, city or other and to obtain, make claim upon, collect and dispose of insurance and insurance proceeds for my care, custody, and control;

9. To house (or provide for housing), support and maintain any animals which I own and to contract for and pay the expenses of proper veterinary care and treatment for such animals, or if the care and maintenance of such animals shall become unreasonably expensive in Attorney's opinion to dispose of such animals;

10. To employ, dismiss and compensate a Geriatric Care Manager deemed by Attorney necessary to conduct an assessment of my physical and psychological condition, and of the strengths and weaknesses of my living conditions, to develop an appropriate Geriatric Care Plan for me, to act as my advocate, to locate an appropriate service provider or qualified individual who will perform necessary Care Plan functions, and to assist me with activities of daily living and to do so without liability for any neglect, omission, misconduct, or default of any such Care Manager or provider, provided such Care Manager or provider were selected and retained with reasonable care.

Richland County Register of Deeds

E. Powers Relating to Transfers in Trust

1. To convey, assign and transfer to the Trustee under a Revocable Trust Agreement (the "Trust") with me as Settlor, dated before or after the execution of this Power of Attorney, all or any part of my property and income of every kind and description, real, personal, intangible or mixed, wherever located, and whether acquired before or after the execution of this Power of Attorney, said property and income to be held, administered and distributed in accordance with the terms of the Trust;

2. To assign to the Trust presently and prospectively (or designate Trustee as beneficiary of) the proceeds of any policies of insurance which I may now or hereafter become entitled to receive, including but not limited to insurance proceeds payable by reason of my disability, the said proceeds to be held, administered and distributed in accordance with the terms of the Trust;

3. To execute documents and papers, including deeds of my interests in real property, bills of sale of my personalty, assignments of my intangibles (including my Certificates of Deposit), to make and/or endorse my checks, make savings withdrawals from my savings accounts, enter my safe deposit box and remove all or any part of the contents thereof which, together with any other and further acts or things necessary, appropriate or incidental thereto, shall be necessary or appropriate in order to make the transfers described above in paragraphs 1 and 2 of this Section E;

4. No transfer to fund my Revocable Trust may be made, however, if removing such property from passing under my Last Will and Testament and causing it to pass under such Trust Agreement would cause it to pass to different beneficiaries because it was referred to in a specific devise or bequest under my said Will.

F. Powers Regarding Gifts

1. Annual Exclusion Gifts. To continue making gifts designed to qualify for the annual exclusion from taxable gifts for federal gift tax purposes and to direct the Trustee of any trust of which I am Settlor to make withdrawals to fund such gifts and to direct any agent of mine holding assets as Custodian to make gift transfers and to use any of my own assets, real or personal, to fund such gifts, and to sign any and all documentation necessary for the accomplishment of gifts, it being my intention that my Attorney have full and complete authority to make or direct others to make such transfers as shall be necessary to continue the program of making annual exclusion gifts which I have begun and directed myself. Such gifts shall be equal

Richland County Register of Deeds

John T. Hopkins II

Richland County Register of Deeds

to the amount of the annual exclusion and/or the exclusion allowed for certain educational or medical expenses or such other amount less than that as my Attorney shall direct and may be made to any one or more of those people to whom I have made annual exclusion gifts either prior to or after the time of signing this Power of Attorney. If my spouse agrees to treat such gifts as split gifts then they may equal one annual exclusion gift from each of us. If a person is added to a class of people (for example, birth of a child or grandchild), and most or all of the other members of such class have been gift recipients in the past, then the new member of such class shall be deemed a potential gift recipient. Subject to the limitations expressed herein, Attorney shall have complete authority to determine the amount and recipients of such gifts for the accomplishment of the continuation of my gift program unless Attorney shall determine it in my best interest that such gifts not be made. I do not consider it necessary for my Attorney to make a determination as to whether the continuance of my gift program is not in my best interest until such time as the total of my assets that will be taxable for federal estate tax purposes equal less than such amount as my Attorney shall determine is the amount of assets that I can pass to my beneficiaries free of federal estate taxes according to the law then in effect. Attorney shall exercise its authority in a fiduciary manner and Attorney shall not have any power hereunder which would be deemed a general power of appointment for federal estate or gift tax purposes. An Attorney may not make or direct gifts to himself or herself, Attorney's estate, Attorney's creditors, or the creditors of Attorney's estate, but may make or direct such gifts to another Attorney or Standby Attorney acting hereunder. Any agent holding assets of mine which makes transfers pursuant to the authority given Attorney under the terms of this paragraph shall be held harmless by my Estate for any question concerning the authority granted herein and gifts made by direction of my Attorney.

2. Taxable Gifts. If my personally directed gifting program involved making taxable gifts to purposely use all or a significant portion of my federal unified credit, and if there is tax legislation that becomes effective after the date of execution of this Power of Attorney that increases the amount that may be gifted without resulting in a gift tax becoming payable, then my Attorney may make taxable gifts to use up more of my original federal unified credit and as well any additional credit given by changes in the federal tax laws. Such taxable gifts may only be made to those beneficiaries who would qualify to receive annual exclusion gifts as provided in Paragraph 1. above and the authorizations, powers and not inconsistent limitations referred to in Paragraph 1. above shall also apply to such taxable gifts.

3. Lifetime Advancements of Testamentary Gifts. To advance specific gifts, devises or distributions directed in my Last Will & Testament or Revocable Trust Agreement and to make advance gifts of charitable bequests and devises and charitable distributions directed in my Will or Revocable Trust Agreement, if making such advancements to individual beneficiaries would qualify such gifts as annual exclusion gifts (with or without gift-splitting with my spouse, if available) thus resulting in lower estate taxes in the settlement of my estate and if making such advancements to charitable beneficiaries would result in an income tax charitable deduction that would otherwise be lost if such distributions were made by my Trustee or Personal Representative after the time of my death. My Attorney may execute any and all documents necessary to declare in a contemporaneous writing that such gift is to be treated as a full or partial satisfaction of the devise, bequest or other distribution otherwise directed in my Will or Trust Agreement and my Attorney shall have such authority as shall be necessary or appropriate to discuss with and receive from the devisee or donee an acknowledgment in writing that such gift is in satisfaction or partial satisfaction of a devise, bequest or distribution otherwise directed in my estate planning documents that would not otherwise be made until after the time of my death. For purposes of calculating the value of such satisfaction or partial satisfaction, any property given pursuant to the terms of this power of Attorney during my lifetime shall be valued at the time the donee comes into possession or enjoyment of such property. It is my intention that this paragraph may be used after such time as I become incapacitated with a reasonable expectation that I am terminally ill in order to fully or partially satisfy distributions that would otherwise be directed after my death in my estate planning documents in order to save estate or income taxes by doing so. Distributions made under the authority of this paragraph by my Attorney in good faith and pursuant to the terms of the document my Attorney believes is my proper Last Will and Testament and/or proper Trust Agreement shall not be subject to question by my family or beneficiaries if such distributions were made in a reasonable good faith reliance upon the documents believed to be the appropriate documents, even if they subsequently turn out not to have been the appropriate estate planning documents.

4. Charitable Gifts. To ascertain the amounts normally given by me on a yearly basis or pledged to be given or indicated intentions to complete or make a single gift or series of gifts, and to make such charitable gifts and devises as I was accustomed to making, based upon my Attorney's ascertainment of my accustomed manner of giving and such pledges and intention and obligations as may be ascertained in Attorney's review of my personal financial records. It is my intention that such regular tithes, offerings, gifts and other charitable transfers as I am accustomed to making be continued after my incapacity and only discontinued by Attorney in such situation that Attorney determines that my own assets, income and estate that are available for my care and support are insufficient for the likely expenses of my support and maintenance until the time of my expected demise.

Termination, Amendment, Resignation and Removal

A. Power not Affected by Principal's Incapacity

This power of attorney shall not be affected by physical disability or mental incompetence of the principal which renders the principal incapable of managing his own estate. It is my intent that the authority conferred herein shall be exercisable notwithstanding my physical disability or mental incompetence.

Richland County Register of Deeds

John T. Hopkins II

B. Termination

This power of attorney shall remain in full force and effect until the earlier of the following events: (i) Attorney has resigned as provided herein; (ii) I have revoked this General Durable Power of Attorney by written instrument recorded in the public records of the county aforesaid, or (iii) a conservator shall have been appointed for me by a court of competent jurisdiction. This power of attorney may be amended by me at any time and from time to time but such amendment shall not be effective as to third persons dealing with Attorney without notice of such amendment unless such amendment shall have been recorded in the public records of the county aforesaid.

C. Resignation

In the event that Attorney shall become unable or unwilling to serve or continue to serve, then Attorney may resign by delivering to me in writing a Copy of Attorney's resignation and recording the original in the public records of the county aforesaid. Upon such resignation and recording, Attorney shall thereupon be divested of all authority under this General Durable Power of Attorney.

D. Removal

Any person named herein as Attorney may be removed by written instrument executed by me and recorded in the public records of the county aforesaid.

ARTICLE III

Incidental Powers and Binding Effect

In connection with the exercise of the powers herein described, Attorney is fully authorized and empowered to perform any other acts or things necessary, appropriate, or incidental thereto on my behalf, with the same validity and effect as if I were personally present, competent, and personally exercised the powers myself. All acts lawfully done by Attorney hereunder during any period of disability or mental incompetence shall have the same effect and inure to the benefit of and bind me and my heirs, devisees, legatees and personal representatives as if I were mentally competent and not disabled. The powers herein conferred may be exercised by Attorney alone and the signature or act of Attorney on my behalf may be accepted by third persons as fully authorized by me and with the same force and effect as if done under my hand and seal and as if I were present in person, acting on my own behalf and competent. No person who may act in reliance upon the representations of Attorney for the scope of authority granted to Attorney shall incur any liability to me or to my estate as a result of permitting Attorney to exercise any power, nor shall any person dealing with Attorney be responsible to determine or insure the proper application of funds or property.

ARTICLE IV

Miscellaneous

A. Exculpation

Attorney, Attorney's heirs, successors and assigns are hereby released and forever discharged from any and all liability upon any claim or demand of any nature whatsoever by me, my heirs or assigns, the beneficiaries under my will or under any trust which I have created or shall hereafter create or any person whomsoever on account of any failure of Attorney to act pursuant to this Power of Attorney.

B. Definitions

Whenever the word "Attorney" or any modifying or substituted pronoun therefor is used in this Power of Attorney, such words and respective pronouns shall be held and taken to include both the singular and the plural, the masculine, feminine and neuter gender thereof.

C. Severability

If any part of any provision of this Power of Attorney shall be invalid or unenforceable under applicable law, said part shall be ineffective to the extent of such invalidity only, without in any way affecting the remaining parts of said provision or the remaining provisions of this Power of Attorney.

D. Compensation

Attorney shall be entitled to reimbursement for all reasonable costs and expenses actually incurred and paid by Attorney on my behalf pursuant to any provision of this Power of Attorney and shall also be entitled to reasonable compensation for services rendered hereunder.

E. Restrictions

Notwithstanding any provision herein to the contrary, Attorney shall not satisfy the legal obligations of Attorney out of any property subject to this Power of Attorney, nor may Attorney exercise this power in favor of Attorney, Attorney's estate, Attorney's creditors or the creditors of Attorney's estate.

F. Reservations

Notwithstanding any provision hereto to the contrary, Attorney shall have no power or authority whatever with respect to (a) any policy of insurance owned by me on the life of Attorney, and (b) any trust created by Attorney as to which I am a trustee.

G. Construction

It is my intention that no property subject to this power shall be includable in the gross estate (for federal or South Carolina estate tax purposes) of Attorney under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or any other applicable section, if any, of federal and/or South Carolina law.

H. No Disruption of Estate Plan

If it becomes necessary for Attorney to liquidate my assets in order to provide support for me, or if liquidation or conversion of assets becomes necessary for any other reason, whether specified in this instrument or otherwise, or such liquidation is deemed by Attorney to be appropriate or convenient, I direct that Attorney, to the extent reasonably possible, avoid disrupting the dispositive provisions of any estate plan of mine known to Attorney, whether or not such estate plan is embodied in a Will, a Trust, non-probate property, or otherwise. For example, if I own stocks or property that are specifically bequeathed to someone in my Will, I would want them to be the last sold for my care. If it is necessary to disrupt the dispositive provisions of such plan, then Attorney is directed to use Attorney's best efforts to restore the dispositive provisions of such plan as and when the opportunity to do so is available to Attorney. Attorney shall make reasonable efforts to obtain and review my estate plan and any person having knowledge thereof or possession of any documents implementing such estate plan is authorized to make disclosure thereof to Attorney, and to furnish Attorney with copies of such documents.

I. Health Care Power of Attorney and Living Will

If I execute a South Carolina statutory Health Care Power of Attorney, Declaration of a Desire for a Natural Death (Living Will) or other similar advance healthcare directive, then any provision therein that conflicts with any power given herein shall take precedence over and thus supersede any authority given in this Power of Attorney.

J. Revocation of Prior Powers of Attorney

I hereby specifically revoke any previous General Power of Attorney regardless of the state in which it was given and regardless of whether it was previously recorded or not. I specifically do not revoke any previously given Health Care Power of Attorney.

K. Appointment of Guardian. Constructional Preferences

I have selected the people I have named herein with the utmost thought and care. If any action is brought for the appointment of a Guardian or a Conservator, I wish to state in the clearest and most firm manner possible that I do not wish for a Guardian or a Conservator to be appointed on my behalf under any circumstances and I request that any court asked to appoint a

COUNTY OF RICHLAND ) IRREVOCABLE TRUST ) AGREEMENT OF
 ) JANET BLOOM BROOKER

This Trust, dated the 30 day of June, 1992, between Janet Bloom Brooker (hereinafter referred to as the "Grantor") and Beacham Owens Brooker, Jr., Julia Barnes Brooker and Ellen Brooker Corontzes, as Co-Trustees, hereinafter referred to as the "Trustee". References hereinafter to the "Trustee" shall refer collectively to all of the Co-Trustees named herein. This Trust shall be known as the "JANET BLOOM BROOKER PERSONAL RESIDENCE TRUST".

ARTICLE I

Recitals

1. The Grantor intends that this trust constitute a "qualified personal residence trust" within the meaning of Section 2702(a)(3)(A)(ii) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and Treas. Reg. Section 25.2702-5.
2. The Grantor deeds to the Trustees the personal residence located at DeBordieu Colony, Georgetown County, South Carolina. A copy of the deed is annexed as part of Schedule "A".
3. The Trustees agree to hold the residence and any other or additional property which is a part of this trust, including any accumulated income (the "Trust Estate"), according to the terms of this trust instrument.

ARTICLE II

Definitions

1.01 For purposes of this trust, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

(A) "Code" - the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as it may be amended from time to time. All references to a section or chapter of the Code shall be deemed to refer as well to any subsequent provision of law enacted in its place.

(B) "SCPC" - the South Carolina Probate Code, as it may be amended from time to time. All references to a section or chapter of the SCPC shall be deemed to refer as well to any subsequent provision of law enacted in its place.

(C) "Personal residence" - the meaning ascribed to it in Treas. Reg. Section 25.2702-5(c)(2).

(D) "Treas. Reg. Section 25.2702-5" - all references in this Trust to Treas. Reg. Section 25.2702-5 shall be deemed to refer as well to any rulings, notices or other administrative pronouncements that may be issued under it.

(E) "Trustees" or "Trustee" and all pronouns referring Trustees or Trustee - the Trustees or Trustee (including successors) serving under this trust at any time, construed in the masculine, feminine or neuter, singular or plural, whichever construction is consistent with the facts prevailing at any given time.

ARTICLE III

Irrevocability

3.01 This Trust is irrevocable. The Grantor waives any and all rights and powers, whether alone or in conjunction with others, and regardless of when and from what source the Grantor may have acquired those rights or powers, to alter, amend, revoke or terminate this trust.

ARTICLE IV

Term of Trust: Conversion to Grantor Retained Annuity Trust

4.01 Term of Trust. The trust shall be held and administered under Section 5.01 of Article Fifth until the first to occur of (i) the expiration of a term of ten (10) years from the date of this Indenture (the "Fixed Term") or (ii) the death of the Grantor (the earlier date referred to as the "Trust Term"), and then the Trust Estate, as it is then constituted, shall be disposed of under the provisions of Section 5.02 of Article Fifth.

4.02 Conversion to Grantor Retained Annuity Trust. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 4.01 of this Article if, during the Trust Term:

(A) The residence held by the Trustees ceases to be a personal residence because of a change in use, then, within thirty (30) days after the change in use, the Trust Estate, as it is then constituted, shall be transferred to the Trustees to be held, administered and disposed of under Article Sixth. However, any cessation of use as a personal residence shall be deemed to occur only if and when it is deemed to occur under Treas. Reg. Section 25.2702-5(c)(7).

(B) The residence held by the Trustees is sold, or damaged or destroyed, then any sales or insurance proceeds held by the Trustees after the earlier of (i) the date that is two (2) years after the date of sale, or damage to or destruction of, the residence, as the case may be or (ii) the date a new residence is acquired by the Trustees or the date replacement of or repairs to the residence are completed, as the case may be, shall, within thirty (30) days after, be transferred to the Trustees to be held, administered and disposed of as a separate share of this trust under Article Sixth.

(C) The residence held by the Trustees is damaged or destroyed so that it is unusable as a residence and, if a new residence is not acquired by the Trustees or replacement of or repairs to the residence are not completed within two (2) years after the damage or destruction, then, within thirty (30) days after, the Trust Estate, as it is then constituted, shall be transferred to the Trustees to be held, administered and disposed of under Article Sixth.

ARTICLE V

Personal Residence Trust

All property directed under Section 4.01 of Article Fourth to be disposed of under this Article Fifth shall be paid as follows:

5.01 During Trust Term. During the Trust Term, the Grantor shall have the right to the exclusive use, possession and enjoyment of any personal residence held by the Trustees, without rent or other charge. In addition, during the Trust Term, the Trustees shall pay or apply any net income at the end of each calendar quarter to or for the benefit of the Grantor.

5.02 Upon Expiration of Trust Term. Upon expiration of the Trust Term, the Assets held under this Article Fifth shall be disposed of as follows:

(1) Grantor Does Not Survive Fixed Term. If the Grantor dies prior to the expiration of the Fixed Term, upon the Grantor's death the Trust shall terminate and the balance of the Trust shall be paid to the Grantor's executors or administrators, to be disposed of as part of the Grantor's estate.

(2) Grantor Survives Fixed Term. If the Grantor survives the Fixed Term, the Trustees shall pay to the Grantor any undistributed net income and the balance of the trust shall be disposed of as follows:

(a) Distribution to Children. The Trust shall terminate upon the expiration of the Fixed Term and the Trustees shall pay the balance of the Trust, as it is then constituted, in three (3) equal shares to the Grantor's children, Beacham Owens Brooker, Jr., Julia Barnes Brooker, and Ellen Brooker Corontzes; provided, however, if a said child of the Grantor is not then living, then such child's then living issue shall take, per stripes, the share their parent would have taken had such parent then been living.

(b) Distribution of Cash Held for Expenses. Notwithstanding any other provision of paragraph "2" of this Section 5.02, if the Grantor survives the Fixed Term, upon the expiration of the Fixed Term the Trustees shall pay to the Grantor any portion of the trust which consists of cash held under Section 7.02A of Article Seventh for the payment of expenses, to the extent that cash is not used to pay trust expenses due and payable on the date of expiration of the Fixed Term (including expenses directly related to termination).

ARTICLE VI

Grantor Retained Annuity Trust

All property directed under Section 4.02 of Article Fourth to be held, administered and disposed under this Article Sixth shall be held for the following uses and purposes:

6.01 During Trust Term.

1. Payments and Source of Payments. In each taxable year of the trust beginning with the Cessation Date (as defined in paragraph "2" of this Section 6.01) and ending on the last day of the Trust Term, the Trustees shall pay to the Grantor the amount (the "Annuity Amount") set forth in paragraph "3" of this Section 6.01. The Annuity Amount shall be paid in equal quarterly installments, from the income of the Trust Estate, and, to the extent that the income is not sufficient, from the principal of the Trust Estate.

2. Cessation Date. The Cessation Date shall be the date of sale of the residence, the date of damage to or destruction of the residence, or the date on which the residence ceases to be used as a personal residence, as the case may be. Notwithstanding the preceding sentence, the Trustees may defer payment of the Annuity Amount otherwise payable after the Cessation Date until the date that is thirty (30) days after the trust assets are converted to a qualified annuity interest under Section 4.02 of Article Fourth ("Conversion Date"); provided that any deferred payment must bear interest from the Cessation Date at a rate not less than the Code Section 7520 rate in effect on the Cessation Date. The Trustees may reduce aggregate deferred annuity payments by the amount of income, if any, actually distributed by the trust to the Grantor during the deferral period.

3. Annuity Amount. If, under Section 4.02A or Section 4.02C of Article Fourth, the entire Trust Estate becomes subject to this Article Sixth, then the Annuity Amount shall be an amount equal to (i) the lesser of the value for Federal gift tax purposes of all interests retained by the Grantor in the residence transferred to this trust as of the date of this trust instrument (i.e., $ 258,036 ) or the value of the Trust Estate as of the Conversion Date divided by (ii) the annuity factor for the original Fixed Term of the trust determined under Section 7520 of the Code as of the date of this Trust instrument (i.e. 8.4 ). If under Section 4.02B of Article Fourth, only a portion of the sales or insurance proceeds received by the Trustees on account of the sale or damage to or destruction of a personal residence becomes subject to this Article Sixth, then the Annuity Amount shall be the amount determined immediately above, multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the excess of the fair market value of the Trust Estate on the Conversion Date over the amount (including acquisition costs) reinvested in the new residence or expended for repairs to the existing residence, and the denominator of which is the fair market value of the Trust Estate on the Conversion Date.

4. Incorrect Determinations. For purposes of determining the Annuity Amount, the value of the property transferred by the Grantor to the Trustees shall be its fair market value for Federal gift tax purposes. If the fair market value of this property is incorrectly determined, then within a reasonable period after the value is finally determined for Federal gift tax purposes, the Trustees shall pay to the Grantor (in the case of an undervaluation) or shall receive from the Grantor (in the case of an overvaluation) an amount equal to the difference between the annuity amounts properly payable and the annuity amounts actually paid.

(5) Proration. The Trustees shall prorate the Annuity Amount on a daily basis for a short first taxable year and for the short taxable year that payment of the Annuity Amount terminates.

(6) Undistributed Income. Any income in excess of the Annuity Amount shall be added to the principal of the Trust Estate.

6.02 Upon Expiration of Trust Term. Upon expiration of the Trust Term, the trust assets, as they are then constituted, shall be disposed of as follows:

(1) Grantor Does Not Survive Fixed Term. If the Grantor dies before the expiration of the Fixed Term, upon the Grantor's death the trust shall terminate and the Trustees shall distribute to the Grantor's executors or administrators, to be disposed of as part of the Grantor's estate, a fractional share of the trust assets having a numerator equal to the amount of the trust assets includable in the Grantor's gross estate for Federal estate tax purposes and a denominator equal to the value of the trust assets as determined in the Grantor's Federal estate tax proceeding. The Trustees shall distribute the balance, if any, of the trust assets to the Grantor's children, Beacham Owens Brooker, Jr., Julia Barnes Brooker and Ellen Brooker Corontzes; provided, however, if a said child of the Grantor is not then living, then such child's then living issue shall take, per stripes, the share their parent would of taken had such parent been then living.

(2) Grantor Survives Fixed Term. If the Grantor survives the Fixed Term, upon the expiration of the Fixed Term, the Trust shall terminate and the Trustees shall pay the balance of the Trust, as it is then constituted, to the Grantor's children, Beacham Owens Brooker, Jr., Julia Barnes Brooker and Ellen Brooker Corontzes; provided however, if a said child of the Grantor is not then living, then such child's then living issue shall take, per stripes, the share their parent would of taken had such parent been then living.

ARTICLE VII

Trust Assets

7.01 Personal Residence. Except as otherwise provided in Section 7.02 of this Article, the Trustees are prohibited during the Trust Term from holding any asset in the trust administered under Article Fifth other than one (1) residence (or an undivided interest in one (1) residence) to be used as a personal residence of the Grantor. The preceding sentence shall not apply to the annuity trust administered under Article Sixth.

7.02 Other Transfers. To the extent permitted by Treas. Reg. Section 25.2702-5(c)(5)(ii):

A. Cash for Expenses and Improvements. The Trustees may hold cash as part of the Trust Estate but not in excess of the amount required for the payment of trust expenses (including mortgage payments and other expenses included in mortgage payments) already incurred or reasonably expected to be incurred within six (6) months after the receipt of the cash by the Trustees, and for improvements to the personal residence to be paid for within six (6) months after the receipt of the cash by the trustees.

B. Proceeds of Sale. The Trustees may hold the proceeds from the sale of the personal residence (including the income on the proceeds).

C. Insurance and Insurance Proceeds. The Trustees may hold one or more policies of insurance on the residence. In addition, the Trustees may hold insurance proceeds paid to the Trustees as a result of damage to, destruction of, or involuntary conversion (within the meaning of Code Section 1033) of, the personal residence.

7.03 Distribution of Excess Cash. The Trustees shall distribute to the Grantor at the end of each calendar quarter any portion of the Trust Estate which consists of cash in excess of the amount permitted to be held by the Trustees under Section 7.02A of this Article for expenses and improvements.

ARTICLE VIII

No Commutation

8.01 The interest of the Grantor in any trust created under this instrument shall not be commuted.

ARTICLE IX

No Distribution to Others

9.01 The Trustees shall not pay over or apply any portion of the income or principal of the Trust Estate to or for the benefit of any person other than the Grantor before expiration of the Trust Term; provided, however, that this sentence shall not be construed to prevent the payment by the Trustees of expenses properly chargeable to the Trust Estate (e.g., expenses for improvements to the personal residence).

Purposes: Construction

10.01 The Grantor intends by this Indenture to create a qualified personal trust within in the meaning of Section 2702(a)(3)(A)(ii) of the Code and Treas. Reg. Section 25.2702-5. Accordingly, the provisions of this Indenture shall be construed and this trust shall be administered solely in accordance with this intent and in a manner consistent with that section of the Code and those regulations and any revenue rulings, revenue procedures, notices or other administrative pronouncements that may be issued by the Internal Revenue Service for qualified personal residence trusts. Should the provisions of this trust instrument be inconsistent or in conflict with that Code section, the regulations, any successor section or regulations, or any revenue rulings, revenue procedures, notices or other administrative pronouncements in effect or issued from time to time, then that Code section, the regulations, successor section or regulations, or rulings, procedures, notices or administrative pronouncements shall be deemed to override and supersede the provisions which are set forth in this trust instrument. If that Code section or the regulations, or any successor section or regulations, or any ruling, procedure, notice or other administrative pronouncement issued on qualified personal residence trusts at any time requires that agreements creating a trust to hold a personal residence contain provisions that are not expressly set forth in this trust instrument, those provisions shall be incorporated into this trust instrument by reference and shall be deemed to be a part of this trust instrument to the same extent as though they had been expressly set forth in this trust instrument.

ARTICLE XI

Waiver of Right to Payments in Discharge of Grantor's Income Tax Liability

11.01 The Grantor realizes that the Grantor may be taxed both on gains realized by the trust(s) created under this instrument and on trust income that is not distributed to the Grantor (from the trust administered under Article Sixth), and waives any right under the SCPC and any other similar law to be reimbursed for the income taxes (whether Federal, State or otherwise) on that gain or income.

Grantor's Power to Substitute Assets of Equivalent Value

12.01 At any time during the Trust Term, the Grantor shall have the power, in a non-fiduciary capacity, to reacquire any or all of the principal of any trust by substituting other assets of equivalent value. Notwithstanding the preceding sentence, during the Trust Term with respect to the trust being administered under Article Fifth, this power shall be limited to reacquire any personal residence held in the trust by substituting another personal residence of equivalent value. This power shall be exercised by written notice to the Trustees who shall promptly comply with the notice.

Right to Purchase Residence From Trust

13.01 At any time during the Trust term, the Grantor shall have the right to purchase any residence held by the Trustees under this trust. The purchase shall be upon the terms and conditions that the Grantor and the Trustees agree upon, provided that the purchase price shall be the residence's then fair market value. The determination of the Grantor and the Trustees shall be binding and conclusive upon all persons who may in any way be affected by their determination. The Trustees may continue to hold any promissory note and/or collateral received by the Trustees to secure any purchase money loan made by the Trustees to the Grantor, and the Trustees shall be under no liability to any person interested in the Trust Estate for any loss resulting to the Trust Estate from the inability of the Trustees to collect any purchase money loan made to the Grantor. Any sales proceeds held by the Trustees after the earlier of (i) the date of sale to the Grantor or (ii) the date a new residence is acquired by the Trustees shall, within thirty (30) days thereafter, be transferred to the Trustees to be held, administered and disposed of under Article Sixth.

Spendthrift Protection

14.01 All payments of income or principal made to any of the beneficiaries named in this trust shall be paid by the Trustees directly and only to the beneficiary. The Trustees are not to recognize any sale, transfer, pledge, mortgage, hypothecation, order or assignment or other encumbrance by any beneficiary of, or by way of anticipation of, the whole or any part of the trust income or principal. The principal or income of this trust shall not be subject in any manner to transfer by operation of law except as specifically provided in this trust instrument, and shall be exempt from the claim of creditors or other claimants, and any orders, decrees, levies, attachments, garnishments and executions, and other legal and equitable processes or proceedings to the fullest extent permissible by law.

14.02 If any attempt is made at any time by a beneficiary to alienate, to sell, to transfer, to assign, to pledge, to mortgage or otherwise encumber the whole or any part of the principal or income reserved to the beneficiary, or if any creditor, claimant or person having a claim or demand of any character against the beneficiary levies an attachment upon, garnishes or otherwise attempts to subject all or any portion of the principal or income to the satisfaction of the beneficiary's debts or other obligations, in that event and then and thereafter the rights of the beneficiary to trust principal or income before the termination of this trust shall cease and terminate. In that event, the Trustees may deem necessary for the maintenance and support of the beneficiary in his or her accustomed manner of living. However, the Trustees shall not be compelled to pay to or for the benefit of the beneficiary any part of the principal or income that would have been payable to the beneficiary before the termination of his rights under this trust but for the attempted sale, transfer, assignment, pledge, mortgage, levy, garnishment or other encumbrance, or alienation and any amount not paid to or applied for the beneficiary shall be accumulated and retained in this trust. After the satisfaction, cancellation or release or withdrawal of any instrument of sale, transfer, assignment, pledge, mortgage or other encumbrance or alienation or of any order, decree, levy, attachment, garnishment, execution or other claim or demand, the Trustees shall pay and deliver to the beneficiary any such accumulation.

14.03 The provisions of this Article are expressly subordinate to the overriding provisions of Section 6.01(1) of Article Sixth and Section 5.01 of Article Fifth.

ARTICLE XV

Trustee's Powers and Rights

15.01 Powers. In the administration of any property, real or personal, at any time forming a part of the Trust Estate, including any accumulated income, the Trustees shall have the following rights and powers, in addition to and not by way of limitation of the powers provided by Section 62-7-704 of the SCPC and other provisions of law, subject to any conditions or limitations stated elsewhere in this trust instrument, to be exercised in their absolute discretion:

A. Residence. To hold and retain any residence without regard to diversification of the Trust Estate.

B. Repairs. To make all repairs, alterations and improvements as they may deem advisable to any residence held under this trust.

C. Insurance. To purchase any type or kind of insurance that they may deem advisable to protect any residence held under this trust.

D. Compliance. To comply with all building codes, zoning and licensing requirements, and other Federal, State and local requirements for any residence held under this trust.

E. Condemnation. To act on behalf of this trust in any eminent domain proceedings for the condemnation of any residence held under this trust and, if they deem it advisable, to employ independent real estate experts for appraisal and testimony in connection with any eminent domain proceedings.

F. Casualty. For any residence held under this trust which is damaged or destroyed, whether by fire, storm or otherwise, to repair or rebuild the residence in the manner that they may determine, using the proceeds of any insurance which may become available as a result of the damage or destruction, or, to the extent that the insurance is not sufficient, the principal held under this trust.

G. Mortgage. To mortgage any residence held under this trust in the amount, on the conditions, and at the rates of interest, that they deem advisable.

H. Borrowing. To borrow money from any party, including the Grantor or the Trustees, to protect, preserve or improve any property held under this trust, or to pay the Annuity Amount, whenever in their judgment it is considered advisable; to execute promissory notes or other obligations for the borrowed amounts, and to secure the payment of the borrowed amounts by mortgage on, security interest in, or pledge of any property held under this trust.

I. Sale. To sell (for cash or deferred payment with or without security), to exchange, to partition or to otherwise dispose of any property which may at any time form part of the Trust Estate at the times and upon the terms and without court order that they deem advisable, and to make, execute and deliver any and all deeds, conveyances, bills of sale and other instruments necessary or proper in connection with this paragraph.

J. Investments. To invest and reinvest the Trust Estate in any kind of property, whether or not the investments are of the character permissible for investments by fiduciaries under applicable law, and without regard to the effect that the investment or reinvestment may have upon the diversification of the investments.

K. Claims. To compromise, submit to arbitration, abandon or otherwise adjust any claims against or in favor of this trust, and to commence or defend any litigation relating to this trust or the property of the trust that they deem advisable at the sole expense of the Trust Estate.

L. Expenses. To discharge all taxes, insurance premiums, operating expenses, overhead and other charges imposed upon or incurred in connection with the Trust Estate and properly incident to its care, preservations and management, and all other reasonable and necessary costs and charges incident to the administration of this trust, including not limited to the employment of any custodian, attorney, accountant, or any other agent or fiduciary to assist and advise the Trustees in the administration of the trust, and to rely on the advice, and to pay reasonable compensation for all professional services out of the principal of the Trust Estate.

M. Loans. To lend money to any person or persons, entity or entities, including the Grantor, upon the terms and in the ways and with the security that they deem advisable in the best interest of the beneficiaries under this trust.

N. Allocations. To determine the allocation of receipts and apportionment of expenses between principal and income of the Trust Estate in accordance with South Carolina law, and to pay from the income or principal of the Trust Estate, as the case may be, the expenses properly chargeable to the income or principal of the Trust Estate and permitted by Treas. Reg. Section 25.2702-5.

O. Voting. To vote on all securities of the Trust Estate, and to become a party to any agreements deemed advisable by them in connection with the securities.

P. Administration. To do any and all acts, to exercise any and all rights, to enter into any and all proceedings, contracts (including contracts containing guarantees, warranties, representations and indemnifications of any kind or nature), and other instruments (whether or not specified above and including but not limited to the preparation and filing of any and all documents and instruments and the payment of any and all expenses in that connection) necessary or proper in their opinion in the administration of this trust, as fully as if they were the absolute owners of the trust property.

15.02 Taxes. If the Trust Estate or any part of it is chargeable with any claim for estate, legacy, succession, transfer, inheritance or similar tax or duty (the "taxes") by reason of the death of any person, the Trustees may pay the taxes to the executors or administrators of the estate of that person or directly to any collector of the taxes and may subject themselves and this trust to the jurisdiction of any court within or without the State of South Carolina in order to determine or apportion the taxes, irrespective of the domicile of that person at his or her death. This paragraph shall not be deemed of itself to create any liability for any taxes or any part of any taxes.

15.03 Third Party Reliance. No person dealing with the Trustees shall be bound to see to the application or disposition of cash or other property transferred to them or to inquire into the authority for or propriety of any action by the Trustees.

15.04 Professional Advice. The Trustees are specifically authorized to rely, without liability except for their own actual fraud or willful wrongdoing, on the advice of investment counsel or other appropriate advisors (including any firm with which any of the Trustees may be affiliated). They may, under a contract or contracts with an investment counsel or other appropriate advisor, delegate all or a portion of their investment powers to an investment counsel or other appropriate advisor (notwithstanding any law or rule of law making trustees' powers non-delegable or any other law), and, if they do so, they shall not be liable for losses incurred by reason of that delegation or incurred in acting or refraining from acting in reliance on the advice of the investment counsel or other appropriate advisor.

15.05 Tax Law Restriction. Notwithstanding anything in this trust instrument to the contrary, no rights or powers stated in this trust instrument or accorded to trustees generally under law shall be construed to enable or to empower the Trustees, the Grantor, any person or entity serving as Trustee who may in any way be deemed to be the agent of the Grantor, to perform any act or omission that would subject all or any portion of the Trust Estate to inclusion in the Grantor's estate for Federal estate tax purposes or that would be inconsistent with the treatment of this trust as a qualified personal residence trust within the meaning of Section 2702(a)(3)(A)(ii) of the Code and Treas. Reg. Section 25.2702-5. This paragraph shall be construed as a precedent (and not as a subsequent) limitation or condition.

Accounting, Records, Tax Returns

16.01 The Trustees shall not be required to file any accounting with any public official. The Trustees shall, however, maintain complete and accurate records concerning any trust created under this trust instrument. Moreover, each year the Trustees shall furnish an annual accounting of each trust's condition, including receipts and disbursements to the Grantor. This required accounting may be satisfied by a copy of the trust's Federal income tax return.

Resignation or Death of Co-Trustees

17.01 Successor Trustees. Any of the Co-Trustees named herein may resign such Co-Trustee's trusteeship by delivering a written notice of such resignation to such other Co-Trustee(s) serving hereunder at least Sixty (60) days prior to the effective date thereof. Upon the resignation or death of a Co-Trustee named herein, the remaining Co-Trustee(s) named herein shall become the Co-Trustees (or sole Trustee upon the death or resignation of two of the Co-Trustees originally named herein) of the trust created hereunder and shall be vested with all the rights, powers and duties, authority and responsibility conferred upon the Co-Trustees originally named herein. If all of the Co-Trustees originally named herein shall resign or die during their trusteeship, the successor Trustee shall be such individual or bank and trust company as the Grantor's then living children shall designate or if none of the Grantor's children are then living, then such individual or bank and trust company as a majority of the Grantor's grandchildren shall designate. Such successor Trustee shall be vested with all the rights, powers and Co-Trustees originally named herein.

17.02 Powers and Limitation. All powers, authority and discretion conferred upon the Trustees by this trust instrument shall pass to and be exercisable by each successor Trustee. No Trustee shall participate in a decision to use the property of the trust in any manner as to discharge any obligation of the Trustee including but not limited to any obligation of support.

ARTICLE XVIII

Trustee Bond

18.01 With the exception of any Trustee appointed by any court, no Trustee shall be required to file or furnish any bond or other security.

ARTICLE XIX

Action by Trustees

19.01 Abstention. Any Trustee, at any time or from time to time, may decline to participate in any one or more decisions to be made by the Trustees by instrument in writing signed by that Trustee and mailed or personally delivered to the Co-Trustees.

19.02 Majority and Delegation. Except as otherwise provided by this trust instrument or by law, any decision of the Trustees may be made by a majority of the Trustees who are not precluded by law or this trust instrument from making the decision and who have not declined to participate in the decision. Ministerial duties of the Trustees (such as signing of checks, execution of brokerage transactions relating to securities or commodities, and the like) may be executed by any one Trustee.

ARTICLE XX

Applicable Law

20.01 This trust instrument is entered into in the State of South Carolina, and all questions pertaining to its construction, validity or administration shall be determined and controlled by the laws of South Carolina.

ARTICLE XXI

Janet Brooker Estate - needed information

1. Need to know the amount of annual exclusion gifts to the children of Beach and Ellen, as well as the spouses of Beach and Ellen, beginning in May of 1997. The amount of these gifts will accrue interest at 5% from the date of the gift until the amount is distributed to Julia.
2. Have the amount paid to Dunbar. Were there any amounts for flowers, pastor, singer, gravemarker, etc? How about expenses for food?
3. Clarification on which amounts paid were owed at her death and if owed when she died, we can deduct on the 706. I have deducted what I thought was owed as a debt at her death but nothing for the month after her death.
4. Think she have a lock box at First Community Bank, and just need to know whose name besides hers was on it.
5. Still need the value of the personal property she owned.
6. Have Ellen's tax ID for her family trust but not Beach's.

Indeed good news. Julie is demanding "access" to the estate's accounts at Stephens Inc. before she will agree to "proceed." I am not certain what this means or what her concerns are which have never been articulated to me in full. I am enclosing monthly statements from Stephens which is all the information that we get from them. As you know the critical issue at this time is the disposition of the residence at Graeme Drive which is a major cost to the estate and a liability in that it is not being maintained. David, can you help? We need 1) an agreement on the equalization distribution, 2) a contract and closing date on 2/3 share of 1705 Graeme Drive from Ellen and me to Julie.

JANET B. BROOKER

Introductory Clause. I, JANET B. BROOKER, a resident of and domiciled in the County of Richland and State of South Carolina, do hereby make, publish and declare this to be my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all Wills and Codicils at any time heretofore made by me.

I have three living children: ELLEN B. CORONTZES, JULIA B. BROOKER, and BEACHAM O. BROOKER, JR.

ITEM I

General Bequest of Personal and Household Effects With a Mandatory Memorandum. I give and bequeath all my personal and household effects of every kind including but not limited to furniture, appliances, furnishings, pictures, silverware, china, glass, books, jewelry, wearing apparel, boats, automobiles, and other vehicles, and all policies of fire, burglary, property damage, and other insurance on or in connection with the use of this property, as follows:

(1) I may leave written memoranda disposing of certain items of my tangible personal property. Any such item of tangible personal property shall pass according to the terms of such memoranda in existence at the time of my death. If no such written memoranda are found or identified by my Personal Representative within ninety (90) days after my Personal Representative's qualification, it shall be conclusively presumed that there are no such memoranda and any subsequently discovered memoranda shall be ineffective. Any property given and devised to a beneficiary who is not living at the time of my death and for whom no effective alternate provision has been made shall pass according to the provisions of the following paragraph, and not pursuant to any anti-lapse statute.

(2) In default of such memoranda, or to the extent such memoranda do not completely or effectively dispose of such property, I give and bequeath the rest of my personal and household effects of every kind to my children surviving me in approximately equal shares; provided, however, the issue of a deceased child surviving me shall take per stirpes the share their parent would have taken had he or she survived me. If my issue do not agree to the division of the property among themselves, my Personal Representative shall make such division among them, the decision of my Personal Representative to be in all respects binding upon my issue. If any beneficiary hereunder is a minor, my Personal Representative may distribute such minor's share to such minor or for such minor's use to any person with whom such minor is residing or who has the care or control of such minor without further responsibility and the receipt of the person to whom it is distributed shall be a complete discharge of my Personal Representative.

ITEM II

Pour-Over Gift to Trustee of Testatrix's Inter Vivos Trust. I give, devise and bequeath all the rest, residue and remainder of my property of every kind and description (including lapsed legacies and devises), wherever situate and whether acquired before or after the execution of this Will, to BEACHAM O. BROOKER, JR. AND JANET B. BROOKER as Trustee under that certain Trust Agreement between me as Settlor and BEACHAM O. BROOKER, JR. AND JANET B. BROOKER as Trustee executed prior to the execution of this Will on the 16th day of October, 2007. My Trustee shall add the property bequeathed and devised by this Item to the principal of the above Trust and shall hold, administer and distribute the property in accordance with the provisions of the Trust Agreement, including any amendments thereto made before my death.

ITEM III

Alternate Provision to Incorporate Trust by Reference if Pour-Over is Invalid. In the event for any reason the bequest and devise above is ineffective and invalid, then I hereby give, devise and bequeath the rest, residue and remainder of my property of every kind and description (including lapsed legacies and devises), wherever situate and whether acquired before or after the execution of this Will, to BEACHAM O. BROOKER, JR. AND JANET B. BROOKER as Trustee to be held, administered and distributed in accordance with the provisions of that certain Trust Agreement between me as Settlor and BEACHAM O. BROOKER, JR. AND JANET B. BROOKER as Trustee executed prior to the execution of this Will on the 16th day of October, 2007, which Trust Agreement including any amendments thereto made before my death is hereby incorporated by reference and made a part hereof the same as if the entire Trust Agreement were set forth herein. If for any reason BEACHAM O. BROOKER, JR. AND JANET B. BROOKER are unable or unwilling to serve then I hereby nominate, constitute and appoint as successor or substitute Trustee such Trustee or Trustees as are set forth in the above referenced Trust Agreement.

ITEM IV

Naming the Personal Representative, Personal Representative Succession, Personal Representative's Fees and Other Matters. The provisions for naming the Personal Representative, Personal Representative succession, Personal Representative's fees and other matters are set forth below:

(1) Naming an Individual Personal Representative. I hereby nominate, constitute and appoint as Personal Representative of this my Last Will and Testament my son, BEACHAM O. BROOKER, JR. and direct that he shall serve without bond.

(2) Naming Individual Successor or Substitute Personal Representative. If my individual Personal Representative should fail to qualify as Personal Representative hereunder, or for any reason should cease to act in such capacity, the successor or substitute Personal Representative who shall also serve without bond shall be my daughter, JULIA B. BROOKER.

(3) Final Succession If Individual Successor Personal Representative Cannot Act. If my individual successor Personal Representative should fail to qualify as Personal Representative hereunder, or for any reason should cease to act in such capacity, then the successor or substitute Personal Representative who shall also serve without bond shall be my daughter, ELLEN B. CORONTZES.

(4) Fee Schedule for Individual Personal Representative. For its services as Personal Representative, the individual Personal Representative shall receive reasonable compensation for the services rendered and reimbursement for reasonable expenses.

ITEM V

Definition of Personal Representative. Whenever the word "Personal Representative" or any modifying or substituted pronoun therefor is used in this my Will, such words and respective pronouns shall include both the singular and the plural, the masculine, feminine and neuter gender thereof, and shall apply equally to the Personal Representative named herein and to any successor or substitute Personal Representative acting hereunder, and such successor or substitute Personal Representative shall possess all the rights, powers and duties, authority and responsibility conferred upon the Personal Representative originally named herein.

ITEM VI

Powers for Personal Representative. By way of illustration and not of limitation and in addition to any inherent, implied or statutory powers granted to Personal Representatives generally, my Personal Representative is specifically authorized and empowered with respect to any property, real or personal, at any time held under any provision of this my Will: to allot, allocate between principal and income, assign, borrow, buy, care for, collect, compromise claims, contract with respect to, continue any business of mine, convey, convert, deal with, dispose of, enter into, exchange, hold, improve, incorporate any business of mine, invest, lease, manage, mortgage, grant and exercise options with respect to, take possession of, pledge, receive, release, repair, sell, sue for, to make distributions or divisions in cash or in kind or partly in each without regard to the income tax basis of such asset, and in general, to exercise all the powers in the management of my Estate which any individual could exercise in the management of similar property owned in his or her own right, upon such terms and conditions as to my Personal Representative may seem best, and to execute and deliver any and all instruments and to do all acts which my Personal Representative may deem proper or necessary to carry out the purposes of this my Will, without being limited in any way by the specific grants of power made, and without the necessity of a court order.

ITEM VII

Provision for Personal Representative to Act as Trustee for Beneficiary Under Age Twenty-One. If any share or property hereunder becomes distributable to a beneficiary who has not attained the age of Twenty-one (21) years or if any real property shall be devised to a person who has not attained the age of Twenty-one (21) years at the date of my death, then such share or property shall immediately vest in the beneficiary, but notwithstanding the provisions herein, my Personal Representative acting as Trustee shall retain possession of the share or property in trust for the beneficiary until the beneficiary attains the age of Twenty-one (21), using so much of the net income and principal of the share or property as my Personal Representative deems necessary to provide for the medical care, education, support and maintenance in reasonable comfort of the beneficiary, taking into consideration to the extent my Personal Representative deems advisable any other income or resources of the beneficiary or his or her parents known to my Personal Representative. Any income not so paid or applied shall be accumulated and added to principal. The beneficiary's share or property shall be paid over, distributed and conveyed to the beneficiary upon attaining age Twenty-one (21), or if he or she shall sooner die, to his or her personal representatives. Whenever my Personal Representative determines it appropriate to pay any money for the benefit of a beneficiary for whom a trust is created hereunder, then the amounts shall be paid out by my Personal Representative in such of the following ways as my Personal Representative deems best: (1) directly to the beneficiary; (2) to the legally appointed guardian of the beneficiary; (3) to some relative or friend for the care, support and education of the beneficiary; (4) by my Personal Representative using such amounts directly for the beneficiary's care, support and education; (5) to a custodian for the beneficiary under the Uniform Gifts or Transfers to Minors Act. My Personal Representative as trustee shall have with respect to each share or property so retained all the powers and discretions conferred upon it as Personal Representative.

ITEM VIII

Discretion Granted to Personal Representative in Reference to Tax Matters. My Personal Representative as the fiduciary of my estate shall have the discretion, but shall not be required when allocating receipts of my estate between income and principal, to make adjustments in the rights of any beneficiaries, or among the principal and income accounts to compensate for the consequences of any tax decision or election, or of any investment or administrative decision, that my Personal Representative believes has had the effect, directly or indirectly, of preferring one beneficiary or group of beneficiaries over others; provided, however, my Personal Representative shall not exercise its discretion in a manner which would cause the loss or reduction of the marital deduction as may be herein provided. In determining the state or federal estate and income tax liabilities of my estate, my Personal Representative shall have discretion to select the valuation date and to determine whether any or all of the allowable administration expenses in my estate shall be used as state or federal estate tax deductions or as state or federal income tax deductions. If my estate plan includes a revocable trust agreement and it contains directions to my Personal Representative, I direct my Personal Representative to follow the directions in such trust agreement.

ITEM IX

Definitions of Family. The following definitions shall be used to define the family:

(1) Definition of Children. For purposes of this Will, "children" means the lawful blood descendants in the first degree of the parent designated; and "issue" and "descendants" mean the lawful blood descendants in any degree of the ancestor designated. The terms "child," "children," "issue," "descendant" and "descendants" or those terms preceded by the terms "living" or "then living" shall include the lawful blood descendant in the first degree of the parent designated even though such descendant is born after the death of such parent. For purposes of this my last will and testament the anti-lapse statute shall not apply as I have named successor takers where it is my intent so to do.

(2) Inclusion of Adopted Children. For purposes of this Will, if a person, who at the time of such legal adoption proceeding is commenced is then under the age of twenty-one (21) years, has been adopted, that person shall be considered a child of such adopting parent and such adopted child and his or her issue shall be considered as issue of the adopting parent or parents and of anyone who is by blood or adoption an ancestor of the adopting parent or either of the adopting parents.

(3) Definition of Per Stirpes. The term "per stirpes" as used herein has the identical meaning as the term "taking by representation" as defined in the South Carolina Probate Code.

ITEM X

Definition of Words Relating to the Internal Revenue Code. As used herein, words which from the context in which it or they are used refer to the Internal Revenue Code shall have the same meaning as such words have for the purposes of applying the Internal Revenue Code to my estate. Reference to sections of the Internal Revenue Code and to the Internal Revenue Code shall refer to the Internal Revenue Code amended to the date of my death.

ITEM XI

Simultaneous Death Provision Presuming Beneficiary Predeceases Testatrix. If any beneficiary and I should die under such circumstances as would make it doubtful whether the beneficiary or I died first, then it shall be conclusively presumed for the purposes of this Will that the beneficiary predeceased me.

ITEM XII

Direction to Pay Debts with Discretionary Refinancing by Personal Representative. I direct that all my legally enforceable debts, secured and unsecured, be paid as soon as practicable after my death. I direct that my Personal Representative may cause any debt to be carried, renewed and refinanced from time to time upon such terms and with such securities for its repayment as my Personal Representative may deem advisable taking into consideration the best interest of the beneficiaries hereunder.

ITEM XIII

I direct that:

(1) Direction to Pay All Taxes from Residuary Estate. Except as provided in (2) herein, all estate, inheritance, succession, death or similar taxes (except generation-skipping transfer taxes) assessed with respect to my estate herein disposed of, or any part thereof, or on any bequest or devise contained in this my Last Will (which term wherever used herein shall include any Codicil hereto), be paid out of my residuary estate and shall not be charged to or against any recipient, beneficiary, transferee or owner of any such property or interests in property included in my estate for such tax purposes.

(2) Apportion Taxes on Nonprobate Property. All such taxes in respect to any property or interests in property included in my gross estate under Sections 2035, 2036, 2037, 2038, 2039, 2040, 2041, 2042, and 2044 of the Internal Revenue Code shall be charged against and paid by the recipient or beneficiary of such property or interest in property or from the property or interest in the property, provided, however, there shall be no apportionment against any donee or recipient of any such property or interest in property which is a qualified charity under Section 2055 and the property or interest in property was allowed in my federal estate tax proceedings as a charitable deduction. The amount of the tax to be charged against such donee or recipient shall be determined by multiplying a fraction (the numerator of which shall be the federal estate tax value of the property to be apportioned as finally determined in my federal estate tax proceedings and the denominator of which shall be the total value of my taxable estate for such federal estate tax purposes) times the net amount of such taxes payable by my estate after the application of all credits against such taxes.

Testimonium, Attestation and Self-Proving Affidavit. I, JANET B. BROOKER, the Testatrix, sign my name to this instrument this the 16th day of October, 2007, and being first duly sworn, do hereby declare to the undersigned authority that I sign and execute this instrument as my last will and that I sign it willingly (or willingly direct another to sign for me), that I execute it as my free and voluntary act for the purposes therein expressed, and that I am eighteen years of age or older, of sound mind, and under no constraint or undue influence.

JANET B. BROOKER

We, W. Steven Johnson and Barbara Hammond, the witnesses, sign our names to this instrument, being first duly sworn, and do hereby declare to the undersigned authority that the Testatrix signs and executes this instrument as her last will and that she signs it willingly (or willingly directs another to sign for her), and that each of us, in the presence and hearing of the Testatrix, hereby signs this will as witness to the Testatrix's signing, and that to the best of our knowledge the Testatrix is eighteen years of age or older, of sound mind, and under no constraint or undue influence.

TRUST AGREEMENT

Introductory Clause. This Agreement made this the 16th day of October, 2007, between JANET B. BROOKER, hereinafter referred to as the Settlor and BEACHAM O. BROOKER, JR. AND JANET B. BROOKER, hereinafter referred to singularly as an individual trustee and hereinafter collectively referred to as the Trustees. During the lifetime of the Settlor and after the death of the Settlor but prior to final distribution herein this trust shall be known as the "JANET B. BROOKER TRUST".

ARTICLE I

Description of Property Transferred. The Settlor has paid over, assigned, granted, conveyed, transferred and delivered, and by this Agreement does hereby pay over, assign, grant, convey, transfer and deliver unto the Trustee the property described in Schedule A, annexed hereto and made a part hereof, and may cause the Trustee to be designated as beneficiary of certain life insurance policies. Any insurance policies that may be delivered to the Trustee hereunder or under which the Trustee may be designated as beneficiary, the proceeds of all such policies being payable to the Trustee, and any other property that may be received or which has been received by the Trustee hereunder, as invested and reinvested (hereinafter referred to as the "Trust Estate"), shall be held, administered and distributed by the Trustee as hereinafter set forth.

ARTICLE II

Provisions for Settlor During Lifetime. The Trustee shall hold, manage, invest and reinvest the Trust Estate (if any requires such management and investment) and shall collect the income, if any, therefrom and shall dispose of the net income and principal as follows:

(1) During the lifetime of the Settlor, the Trustee shall pay to or apply for the benefit of the Settlor all the net income from this Trust.

(2) During the lifetime of the Settlor, the Trustee may pay to or apply for the benefit of the Settlor such sums from the principal of this Trust as in its sole discretion shall be necessary or advisable from time to time for the medical care, education, support and maintenance in reasonable comfort of the Settlor, taking into consideration to the extent the Trustee deems advisable, any other income or resources of the Settlor known to the Trustee.

ARTICLE III

Settlor's Rights to Amend, Change or Revoke the Trust Agreement. The Settlor may, by signed instruments delivered to the Trustee during the Settlor's life: (1) withdraw property from this Trust in any amount and at any time upon giving reasonable notice in writing to the Trustee; (2) add other property to the Trust; (3) change the beneficiaries, their respective shares and the plan of distribution; (4) amend this Trust Agreement in any other respect; (5) revoke this Trust in its entirety or any provision therein; provided, however, the duties or responsibilities of the Trustee shall not be enlarged without the Trustee's consent nor without satisfactory adjustment of the Trustee's compensation.

ARTICLE IV

Discretionary Provisions for Trustee to Deal with Settlor's Estate and Make Payment of Debts and Taxes. After the Settlor's death, the Trustee, if in its discretion it deems it advisable, may pay all or any part of the Settlor's funeral expenses, legally enforceable claims against the Settlor or the Settlor's estate, reasonable expenses of administration of the Settlor's estate, any allowances by court order to those dependent upon the Settlor, any estate, inheritance, succession, death or similar taxes payable by reason of the Settlor's death, together with any interest thereon or other additions thereto, without reimbursement from the Settlor's personal representatives, from any beneficiary of insurance upon the Settlor's life, or from any other person. All such payments, except of interest, shall be charged generally against the principal of the Trust Estate includable in the Settlor's estate for Federal estate tax purposes and any interest so paid shall be charged generally against the income thereof; provided, however, any such payments of estate, inheritance, succession, death or similar taxes (except generation-skipping transfer taxes) shall be charged against the principal constituting the Trust Estate and any interest so paid shall be charged against the income thereof. If such share or trust was created as a fraction, then such taxes thus paid shall reduce the numerator of that share or trust and the Trust Estate, thus likewise reducing the denominator of the fraction. The Trustee may make such payments directly or may pay over the amounts thereof to the personal representatives of the Settlor's estate. Written statements by the personal representatives of such sums due and payable by the estate shall be sufficient evidence of their amount and propriety for the protection of the Trustee and the Trustee shall be under no duty to see to the application of any such payments. If administrative expenses are deducted on the estate's income tax return but paid from principal, then they shall be charged against the Trust Estate.

ARTICLE V

Specific Distributions. Upon the death of the Settlor, the Trustee shall make the following distributions:

(1) General Distribution of Personal and Household Effects With a Mandatory Memorandum. All the Settlor's personal and household effects of every kind including but not limited to furniture, appliances, furnishings, pictures, silverware, china, glass, books, jewelry, wearing apparel, boats, automobiles, and other vehicles, and all policies of fire, burglary, property damage, and other insurance on or in connection with the use of this property, shall be distributed as follows:

(a) The Settlor may leave written memoranda disposing of certain items of tangible personal property. Any such item of tangible personal property shall pass according to the terms of such memoranda in existence at the time of the Settlor's death. If no such written memoranda are found or identified by the Trustee within ninety (90) days after the Settlor's death, it shall be conclusively presumed that there are no such memoranda and any subsequently discovered memoranda shall be ineffective. Any property given and devised to a beneficiary who is not living at the time of the Settlor's death and for whom no effective alternate provision has been made shall pass according to the provisions of the following subparagraph, and not pursuant to any anti-lapse statute.

(b) In default of such memoranda, or to the extent such memoranda do not completely or effectively dispose of such property, the rest of the Settlor's personal and household effects of every kind shall be distributed to the Settlor's children surviving the Settlor, in approximately equal shares; provided, however, the issue of a deceased child surviving the Settlor shall take per stirpes the share their parent would have taken had he or she survived the Settlor. If the Settlor's issue do not agree to the division of the property among themselves, the Trustee shall make such division among them, the decision of the Trustee to be in all respects binding upon the Settlor's issue. If any beneficiary hereunder is a minor, the Trustee may distribute such minor's share to such minor or for such minor's use to any person with whom such minor is residing or who has the care or control of such minor without further responsibility and the receipt of the person to whom it is distributed shall be a complete discharge of the Trustee.

(2) Equalizing Distribution to the Settlor's Daughter, JULIA B. BROOKER. The Settlor has previously made lifetime gifts and intends to continue such gifting program until the date of the Settlor's death to the Settlor's children, the Settlor's issue and spouses of the Settlor's children. Because the Settlor's daughter, JULIA B. BROOKER is not married and has no children or issue, the Settlor intends that at the Settlor's death, an equalizing distribution will be made to the Settlor's said daughter pursuant to the terms of this paragraph for lifetime gifts made to such daughter's siblings' spouses or siblings' issue which equalizing distribution will be determined as follows:

(a) From the date of this trust forward the Trustee shall determine the date and the amount of any lifetime gifts made by the Settlor to issue of Ellen B. Corontzes and Beachum O. Brooker, Jr. as well as the spouses of Ellen B. Corontzes and Beachum O. Brooker, Jr.

(b) To such amount specified above from the date of such gift an interest rate of five (5%) percent shall be applied to the amount of such gift which interest rate shall continue until this distribution is satisfied and which rate shall not compound.

(c) The sum of (a) and (b) above shall be distributed to the Settlor's daughter, JULIA B. BROOKER if she shall survive the Settlor.

(3) Definition of Trust Estate. As used in this Trust Agreement, the words "Trust Estate" shall mean the entire Trust Estate minus the specific distributions under this Article.

ARTICLE VI

Trust Estate to Settlor's Issue. Upon the death of the Settlor, the Trust Estate (which shall include any property which may be added from the Settlor's general estate) shall be held in trust or paid over and distributed to the Settlor's surviving children in equal shares, provided, however, the then living issue of a deceased child of the Settlor shall take per stirpes the share their parent would have taken had he or she survived the Settlor. Provided, further, that any share due the Settlor's son, Beachum O. Brooker, Jr., if he shall survive the Settlor and any share due the Settlor's daughter, Ellen B. Corontzes, if she shall survive the Settlor shall first be allocated to the lifetime generation skipping trusts created for such named children ("Beacham

O. Brooker, Jr. Family Trust dated May 12, 1997;" "Ellen B. Corontzes Family Trust dated May 12, 1997") but only to the extent that the Settlor's estate has available generation skipping tax exemption remaining to be allocated among such trusts. The Settlor intends that any available generation skipping tax exemption be allocated equally among the "Beacham O. Brooker, Jr. Family Trust dated May 12, 1997" and the "Ellen B. Corontzes Family Trust dated May 12, 1997."

ARTICLE VII

Trustee Succession, Trustee's Fees and Other Matters. The provisions for naming the Trustee, Trustee succession, Trustee's fees and other matters are set forth below:

(1) Individual Trustees Succession. If the individual Trustee should fail to qualify as Trustee hereunder, or for any reason should cease to act in such capacity, the remaining individual Trustee shall continue to serve without a successor or substitute.

(2) Succession If Original Trustees Cannot Act. If all the Settlor's original Trustees should fail to qualify as Trustee hereunder, or for any reason should cease to act in such capacity, then the successor or substitute Trustee who shall also serve without bond shall be the Settlor's daughter, JULIA B. BROOKER.

(3) Final Succession If All Individual Trustees Cannot Act. If all the Settlor's individual Trustees should fail to qualify as Trustee hereunder, or for any reason should cease to act in such capacity, then the successor or substitute Trustee who shall also serve without bond shall be the Settlor's daughter, ELLEN B. CORONTZES.

(4) Fee Schedule for Individual Trustee. For its services as Trustee, the individual Trustee shall receive reasonable compensation for the services rendered and reimbursement for reasonable expenses.

(5) Delegation Among Trustees. When there is more than one individual or entity serving as co-Trustees, then any Trustee may delegate to any other Trustee the power to exercise any or all of the powers granted to the Trustees in this Trust Agreement, including those powers, which are discretionary, to the extent allowed by law. Any delegating Trustee may revoke any such delegation with written notice to the other serving co-Trustees. The delegation of any such power, as well as the revocation of any such delegation, shall be evidenced by an instrument in writing signed by the delegating co-Trustee. As long as any such delegation is in effect, any of the delegated powers may be exercised by the Trustee receiving such delegation with the same force and effect as if the delegating Trustee had personally joined in the exercise of such power. Provided, however, that if such Trustee, or co-Trustee, shall also be a current beneficiary and such delegation shall be deemed to create in that Trustee a right that shall be deemed to be a general power of appointment, then such individual Trustee shall not be vested with such right to delegate such power.

(6) Limitations on Trustees. No person who at any time is acting as Trustee hereunder shall have any power or obligation to participate in any discretionary authority which the Settlor has given to the Trustee to pay principal or income to such person, or for his or her benefit or in relief of his or her legal obligations; provided, however, if an individual trustee (who is also a beneficiary) is the sole trustee or at any time is acting as the sole trustee, and such trustee has discretion to invade principal for himself or herself and such discretionary authority is limited by an ascertainable standard, then such trustee may invade principal (if limited by such standard) for himself or herself but not in relief of his or her legal obligations.

(7) Trustee Accountings and Settlement. The Trustee shall report on Trust activities and account to the beneficiaries, as follows:

(a) Trustee Accountings. If there are more than nominal assets in the Trust, the Trustee shall render an accounting of the Trust's receipts and disbursements and a statement of the assets and liability of the Trust at least annually to each current income beneficiary and all beneficiaries entitled by law to receive an accounting. The Trustee may, but shall not be required to, file such accountings with the Court having jurisdiction of the Trust. The Settlor specifically waives any requirement for formal or court approved accounting. If the Trustee provides an accounting to each current income beneficiary and all beneficiaries entitled by law and those beneficiaries do not notify the Trustee in writing of an objection to such accounting within ninety (90) days of the receipt of such accounting, then the accounting shall be deemed accepted and approved by such beneficiary.

(b) Settlement of Trustee Accounting. During the period of time that this Trust may be revoked by the Settlor, the Trustee may render an accounting of its administration of the Trust to the Settlor. The Settlor's written acceptance and approval of such accounting shall be binding upon all present and future Trust beneficiaries.

(c) Settlement of Trustee Accounting by Beneficiaries. The Trustee may at any time settle its account with respect to the Trust Estate, or any separate share of the Trust Estate, by a written agreement. The written agreement shall be between the Trustee and all appropriate living income beneficiaries and remainder beneficiaries for the Trust Estate, or separate Trust share as appropriate. If a beneficiary is either a minor or incompetent, then the guardian for such person may represent such individual. Such agreement shall bind all persons then or thereafter entitled to such share of the Trust Estate for which the Trustee and beneficiaries reached written agreement. Such agreement shall constitute a complete release and discharge of the Trustee for the acts of the Trustee covered in the accounting and the period covered by the agreement.

(d) Settlement of Trustee Accounting Upon Termination of Trust. Prior to either delivering the Trust Estate to a successor Trustee or making a complete distribution of all or a separate share of the Trust Estate, the Trustee shall prepare and deliver its accounting of the Trust or the applicable Trust share, as appropriate, to the appropriate beneficiaries. The Settlor and/or applicable beneficiaries may waive such requirements for such accounting.

ARTICLE VIII

Definition of Trustee. Whenever the word "Trustee" or any modifying or substituted pronoun therefor is used in this Trust, such words and respective pronouns shall include both the singular and the plural, the masculine, feminine and neuter gender thereof, and shall apply

equally to the Trustee or Co-trustees named herein and to any successor or substitute Trustee or Co-trustee acting hereunder, and such successor or substitute Trustee or Co-trustee shall have all the rights, powers and duties, authority and responsibility conferred upon the Trustee originally named herein.

ARTICLE IX

Powers for Trustee. The Trustee is authorized in its fiduciary discretion (which shall be subject to the standard of reasonableness and good faith to all beneficiaries) with respect to any property, real or personal, at any time held under any provision of this Trust Agreement and without authorization by any court and in addition to any other rights, powers, authority and privileges granted by any other provision of this Trust Agreement or by statute or general rules of law:

(1) To collect trust property and accept or reject additions to the Trust Estate from a Settlor or any other person.

(2) To retain in the form received any property or undivided interests in property donated to, or otherwise acquired as a part of the Trust Estate, including residential property and shares of the Trustee's own stock, regardless of any lack of diversification, risk or nonproductivity, as long as it deems advisable, and to exchange any such security or property for other securities or properties and to retain such items received in exchange, although such property represents a large percentage of the total property of the Trust Estate or even the entirety thereof.

(3) To deposit trust money in accounts of all types, including margin accounts, in all types of regulated financial service institutions.

(4) To invest and reinvest all or any part of the Trust Estate in any property and undivided interests in property, wherever located, including bonds, debentures, notes, secured or unsecured, stocks of corporations regardless of class, interests in limited partnerships, limited liability companies or similar entities, real estate or any interest in real estate whether or not productive at the time of investment, interests in trusts, investment trusts, whether of the open and/or closed fund types, and participation in common, collective or pooled trust funds of the Trustee, insurance contracts on the life of any beneficiary or annuity contracts for any beneficiary, without being limited by any statute or rule of law concerning investments by fiduciaries.

(5) To abandon or decline to administer property of no value or of insufficient value to justify its collection or continued administration.

(6) To sell or dispose of or grant options to purchase any property, real or personal, constituting a part of the Trust Estate, for cash or on credit, at public or private sale, to exchange any property of the Trust Estate for other property, at such times and upon such terms and conditions as it may deem best, and no person dealing with it shall be bound to see to the application of any monies paid.

(7) To hold any securities or other property in its own name as Trustee, in its own name, in the name of a nominee (with or without disclosure of any fiduciary relationship) or in bearer form.

(8) To keep, at any time and from time to time, all or any portion of the Trust Estate in cash and uninvested for such period or periods of time as it may deem advisable, without liability for any loss in income by reason thereof.

(9) To sell or exercise stock subscription or conversion rights.

(10) To refrain from voting or to vote shares of stock which are a part of the Trust Estate at shareholders' meetings in person or by special, limited, or general proxy and in general to exercise all the rights, powers and privileges of an owner in respect to any securities constituting a part of the Trust Estate.

(11) To participate in any plan of reorganization or consolidation or merger involving any company or companies whose stock or other securities shall be part of the Trust Estate, and to deposit such stock or other securities under any plan of reorganization or with any protective committee and to delegate to such committee discretionary power with relation thereto, to pay a proportionate part of the expenses of such committee and any assessments levied under any such plan, to accept and retain new securities received by the Trustee pursuant to any such plan, to exercise all conversion, subscription, voting and other rights, of whatsoever nature pertaining to such property, and to pay any amount or amounts of money as it may deem advisable in connection therewith.

(12) To borrow money with or without security and to encumber, mortgage or pledge any asset of the Trust Estate for a term within or extending beyond the term of the trust, in connection with the exercise of any power vested in the Trustee.

(13) To pledge the Trust Estate and to cause this Trust to guarantee loans made by others to a beneficiary or any business owned by the Trust.

(14) To enter for any purpose into a lease as lessor or lessee, including a lease or other arrangement for exploration and removal of natural resources, with or without option to purchase or renew for a term within or extending beyond the term of the Trust.

(15) To subdivide, develop, or dedicate real property to public use or to make or obtain the vacation of plats and adjust boundaries, to adjust differences in valuation on exchange or partition by giving or receiving consideration, and to dedicate public or private easements to private or public use without consideration, including by way of example qualified conservation and facade easements.

(16) To make ordinary or extraordinary repairs or alterations in buildings or other structures, to demolish any improvements, to raze existing or erect new party walls or buildings.

(17) To continue and operate any business or other enterprise owned by the Settlor at the Settlor's death, whether an interest in a proprietorship, partnership, limited liability company, business trust, corporation, or other form of business or enterprise, and to do any and all things deemed needful or appropriate by the Trustee, including the power to incorporate the business and to put additional capital into the business, for such time as it shall deem advisable by shareholders, members, or property owners, without liability for loss resulting from the continuance or operation of the business except for its own negligence; and to merge or otherwise change the form of business organization or contribute additional capital, close out, liquidate, or sell the business at such time and upon such terms as it shall deem best.

(18) To collect, receive, and receipt for rents, issues, profits, and income of the Trust Estate.

(19) To insure the assets of the Trust Estate against damage or loss and to insure the Trustee, the Trustee's agents, and beneficiaries against liability arising from the administration of the Trust.

(20) To select a mode of payment under any employee benefit or retirement plan, annuity, or life insurance payable to the Trustee, exercise rights thereunder, including exercise of the right to indemnification for expenses and against liabilities, and take appropriate action to collect the proceeds.

(21) In buying and selling assets, in lending and borrowing money, and in all other transactions, irrespective of the occupancy by the same person of dual positions, to deal with itself in its separate, or any fiduciary capacity.

(22) To compromise, adjust, arbitrate, sue on or defend, abandon or decline to administer property of no value or of insufficient value to justify its collection or continued administration, or otherwise deal with and settle claims in favor of or against the Trust Estate or to prosecute or defend an action, claim, or judicial proceeding in any jurisdiction to protect the Trust Estate and the Trustee in the performance of the Trustee's duties, as the Trustee shall deem best.

(23) To exercise elections with respect to federal, state, and local taxes.

(24) To employ and compensate agents, accountants, investment advisers, brokers, attorneys-in-fact, attorneys-at-law, tax specialists, realtors, appraisers, and other assistants and advisors deemed by the Trustee needful for the proper administration of the Trust Estate, and to do so without liability for any neglect, omission, misconduct, or default of any such agent or professional representative provided such person was selected and retained with reasonable care.

(25) To appoint a Trustee to act in another jurisdiction with respect to the Trust Estate located in the other jurisdiction, confer upon the appointed Trustee all of the powers and duties of the appointing Trustee, require that the appointed Trustee furnish security, and remove any Trustee so appointed.

(26) To determine what shall be fairly and equitably charged or credited to income and what to principal.

(27) To resolve a dispute concerning the interpretation of the Trust or its administration by mediation, arbitration, or other procedure for alternative dispute resolution.

(28) To hold and retain the principal of the Trust Estate undivided until actual division shall become necessary in order to make distributions; to hold, manage, invest, and account for the several shares or parts thereof by appropriate entries on the Trustee's books of account; and to allocate to each share or part of share its proportionate part of all receipts and expenses; provided, however, the carrying of several trusts as one shall not defer the vesting in title or in possession of any share or part of share thereof.

(29) To make payment in cash or in kind, or partly in cash and partly in kind upon any division or distribution of the Trust Estate (including the satisfaction of any pecuniary distribution) without regard to the income tax basis of any specific property allocated to any beneficiary and to value and appraise any asset and to distribute such asset in kind at its appraised value; and when dividing fractional interests in property among several beneficiaries to allocate entire interests in some property to one beneficiary and entire interests in other property to another beneficiary or beneficiaries.

(30) In general, to exercise all powers in the management of the Trust Estate which any individual could exercise in his or her own right, upon such terms and conditions as it may reasonably deem best, and to do all acts which it may deem reasonably necessary or proper to carry out the purposes of this Trust Agreement.

(31) To purchase property, real or personal, from the Settlor's general estate upon such terms and conditions as to price and terms of payment as the Settlor's personal representatives and the Trustee shall agree, to hold the property so purchased as a part of the Trust Estate although it may not qualify as an authorized trust investment except for this provision, and to dispose of such property as and when the Trustee shall deem advisable. The fact that the Settlor's personal representatives and the Trustee are the same shall in no way affect the validity of this provision.

(32) To lend funds to the Settlor's general estate or to a beneficiary upon such terms and conditions as to interest rates, maturities, and security as the Settlor's personal representatives and the Trustee shall consider to be fair and reasonable under the circumstances, the fact that they may be the same in no way affecting the validity of this provision.

(33) To receive property bequeathed, devised or donated to the Trustee by the Settlor or any other person; to receive the proceeds of any insurance policy which names the Trustee as beneficiary; to execute all necessary receipts and releases to Personal Representatives, donors, insurance companies and other parties adding property to the Trust Estate.

(34) To combine assets of two or more trusts if the provisions and terms of each trust are substantially identical, and to administer them as a single trust, if the Trustee reasonably

determines that the administration as a single trust is consistent with the Settlor's intent, and facilitates the trust's administration without defeating or impairing the interests of the beneficiaries.

(35) To divide any trust into separate shares or separate trusts or to create separate trusts if the Trustee reasonably deems it appropriate and the division or creation is consistent with the Settlor's intent, and facilitates the trust's administration without defeating or impairing the interests of the beneficiaries.

(36) To divide property in any trust being held hereunder with an inclusion ratio, as defined in section 2642(a)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as from time to time amended or under similar future legislation, of neither one nor zero into two separate trusts representing two fractional shares of the property being divided, one to have an inclusion ratio of one and the other to have an inclusion ratio of zero, to create trusts to receive property with an inclusion ratio of either one or zero and if this cannot be done to refuse to accept property which does not have a matching inclusion ratio to the receiving trust's ratio, all as the Trustee in its sole discretion deems best.

(37) If the Trustee shall act as the Personal Representative of the Settlor's estate, to elect to allocate any portion or all the Settlor's generation-skipping transfer exemption provided for in Code section 2631 or under similar future legislation, in effect at the time of the Settlor's death, to any portion or all of any other trusts or bequests in the Settlor's Will or any other transfer in which the Settlor is the transferor for purposes of the generation-skipping tax. Generally, the Settlor anticipates that the Settlor's Personal Representative will elect to allocate this exemption first to direct skips as defined in Code section 2612, then in such other manner as the Trustee deems appropriate, unless it would be inadvisable based on all the circumstances at the time of making the allocation; and to make the special election under section 2652(a)(3) of the Code to the extent the Settlor's Personal Representative deems in the best interest of the Settlor's estate.

ARTICLE X

Provision for Trustee to Act as Trustee for Beneficiary Under Age Twenty-One. If any share hereunder becomes distributable to a beneficiary who has not attained the age of Twenty-one (21), such share shall immediately vest in the beneficiary, but notwithstanding the provisions herein, the Trustee shall retain possession of the share in trust for the beneficiary until the beneficiary attains the age of Twenty-one (21), using so much of the net income and principal of the share as the Trustee deems necessary to provide for the medical care, education, support and maintenance in reasonable comfort of the beneficiary, taking into consideration to the extent the Trustee deems advisable any other income or resources of the beneficiary or his or her parents known to the Trustee. Any income not so paid or applied shall be accumulated and added to principal. The beneficiary's share shall be paid over and distributed to the beneficiary upon attaining age Twenty-one (21), or if he or she shall sooner die, to his or her personal representatives. The Trustee shall have with respect to each share so retained all the powers and discretions it had with respect to the trusts created herein generally.

ARTICLE XI

Trustee's Discretion in Making Payments to a Person Under Age Twenty-One, Incompetent, or Incapacitated Person. In case the income or principal payment under any trust created hereunder or any share thereof shall become payable to a person under the age of Twenty-one (21), or to a person under legal disability, or to a person not adjudicated incompetent, but who, by reason of illness or mental or physical disability, is, in the opinion of the Trustee unable properly to administer such amounts, then such amounts shall be paid out by the Trustee in such of the following ways as the Trustee deems best: (1) directly to the beneficiary; (2) to the legally appointed guardian of the beneficiary; (3) to some relative or friend for the medical care, education, support and maintenance in reasonable comfort of the beneficiary; (4) by the Trustee using such amounts directly for the beneficiary's care, support and education; (5) to a custodian for the beneficiary under the Uniform Gifts or Transfers to Minors Act.

ARTICLE XII

Discretion in Trustee to Terminate Small Trust and Distribute to Income Beneficiary. If at any time any trust created hereunder has a fair market value as determined by the Trustee of Fifty Thousand ($50,000.00) Dollars or less, the Trustee, in its absolute discretion if it determines that it is uneconomical to continue such trust, may terminate such trust and distribute the trust property to the person or persons then entitled to receive or have the benefit of the income therefrom or the legal representative of such person. If there is more than one income beneficiary, the Trustee shall make such distribution to such income beneficiaries in the proportion in which they are beneficiaries or if no proportion is designated in equal shares to such beneficiaries.

ARTICLE XIII

Definitions of Family. The following definitions shall be used to define the family:

(1) Definition of Children. For purposes of this Trust, "children" means the lawful blood descendants in the first degree of the parent designated; and "issue" and "descendants" mean the lawful blood descendants in any degree of the ancestor designated. The terms "child," "children," "issue," "descendant" and "descendants" or those terms preceded by the terms "living" or "then living" shall include the lawful blood descendant in the first degree of the parent designated even though such descendant is born after the death of such parent. For purposes of this trust the anti-lapse shall not apply as the Settlor has named successor takers where it is the Settlor's intent so to do.

(2) Inclusion of Adopted Children. For purposes of this Trust, if a person, who at the time of such legal adoption proceeding is commenced is then under the age of twenty-one (21) years, has been adopted, that person shall be considered a child of such adopting parent and such adopted child and his or her issue shall be considered as issue of the adopting parent or parents and of anyone who is by blood or adoption an ancestor of the adopting parent or either of the adopting parents.

(3) Definition of Per Stirpes. The term "per stirpes" as used herein has the identical meaning as the term "taking by representation" as defined in the South Carolina Probate Code.

ARTICLE XIV

Definition of Words Relating to the Internal Revenue Code. As used herein, words which from the context in which it or they are used refer to the Internal Revenue Code shall have the same meaning as such words have for the purposes of applying the Internal Revenue Code to the Settlor's estate. For purposes of this Trust Agreement, the Settlor's "available generation-skipping transfer exemption" means the generation-skipping transfer tax exemption provided in section 2631 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, in effect at the time of the Settlor's death reduced by the aggregate of (1) the amount, if any, of the Settlor's exemption allocated to lifetime transfers of the Settlor by the Settlor or by operation of law, and (2) the amount, if any, the Settlor has specifically allocated to other property of the Settlor's gross estate for federal estate tax purposes. For purposes of this Trust Agreement if at the time of the Settlor's death the Settlor has made gifts with an inclusion ratio of greater than zero for which the gift tax return due date has not expired (including extensions) and the Settlor has not yet filed a return, it shall be deemed that the Settlor's generation-skipping transfer exemption has been allocated to these transfers to the extent necessary (and possible) to exempt the transfer(s) from generation-skipping transfer tax. Reference to sections of the Internal Revenue Code and to the Internal Revenue Code shall refer to the Internal Revenue Code amended to the date of the Settlor's death.

ARTICLE XV

Simultaneous Death Provision Presuming Beneficiary Predeceases Settlor. If any beneficiary and the Settlor should die under such circumstances as would make it doubtful whether the beneficiary or the Settlor died first, then it shall be conclusively presumed for the purposes of this Trust that the beneficiary predeceased the Settlor.

ARTICLE XVI

State Law to Govern. This Trust Agreement and the trusts created hereby shall be construed, regulated and governed by and in accordance with the laws of the State of South Carolina.

ARTICLE XVII

Spendthrift Provision. Except as otherwise provided herein, all payments of principal and income payable, or to become payable, to the beneficiary of any trust created hereunder shall not be subject to anticipation, assignment, pledge, sale or transfer in any manner, nor shall any beneficiary have the power to anticipate or encumber such interest, nor shall such interest, while in the possession of the fiduciary hereunder, be liable for, or subject to, the debts, contracts, obligations, liabilities or torts of any beneficiary.

Subject: RE: Brooker Estate

Julie,

I am on my way out of town for a vacation and will not return until September 21st but wanted to respond to you prior to leaving. As to the house, can't we go ahead and close this transaction? I think the price has been agreed upon by the three of you. There are two primary benefits to getting this matter closed. First, if you intend to use this property as your primary residence, the Richland County real estate taxes are going to go down significantly. Second, Beach is concerned the insurance on the house is going to be cancelled due to the fact that the house is vacant. A third benefit is that it brings closure to this particular issue and moves us that further toward a settlement.

As to the Lockheed Martin dividends, such dividends are being deposited into two accounts at Stephens. One account is the estate account and the second account is a trust account. I believe you have those statements and it would be relatively easy to track the dividends. If you do not have all the statements you need since your Mom's death, please let me know.

I have given David a schedule of gifts from 2008 forward and I believe you have the statements documenting those gifts. If I am mistaken, please let me know and I will try to reconstruct such. As I remember there was maybe 1 year when you Mom's account was at Smith-Barney that we were unable to retrieve the statements. Smith Barney was purchased and the statements were just not available. Again, all of this is from my recollection and if I am not right, please let me know.

As to the gifts before 2008, about all I can offer is to go back through my files and reconstruct trusts created for grandchildren. This would, of course, be subject to Beach's approval. My question would be how far back do you want to go? From the birth of the oldest grandchild? I am confident that there may have been gifts before 2008 that did not come through my office and, of course, I would have no knowledge about such gifts. Whatever I come up with prior to 2008 will be obviously incomplete. We are at an impasse on the equalization of gifts prior to 2008 but we have made what I consider to be a careful search of gifts from and after 2008. I do not have a recommendation as to the gifts before 2008.

Thanks and I look forward to hearing from you or David.

David,

Attached are the revised calculations for the equalization due Julie pursuant to her mother's trust. I have the brokerage statements from 2007 that support these calculations except for 2010 as such statement was not available from Smith Barney probably due to the purchase of such firm. I will give the statements to you and Julie tomorrow as it was a little too much to scan and email.

Thanks.
