

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

Molly M. Morpew, Appellant,

v.

Stephen Dudek and Doreen Cross, Respondents.

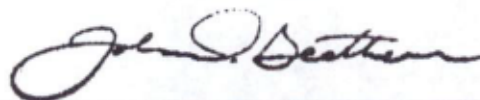

Appellate Case No. 2023-000879

---

ORDER

---

Appellant's successive motion to exclude items (3) and (4) from Respondent's designation of matter from the record on appeal is denied. As we previously explained in our April 24, 2024 order, item (4), the circuit court's October 11, 2022 order, is appropriate for inclusion in the record on appeal. Appellant asserts the October 11, 2022 order is "no longer in existence," but, in fact, the order is readily available online on the Dorchester County Public Index. As to item (3), the transcript of the October 2, 2019 hearing, Appellant has still failed to file any proof of communications with Court Administration or any other body demonstrating that there was no court reporter present.<sup>1</sup> Accordingly, within thirty days of the date of this order, Appellant shall serve and file her final Appellant's brief and a record on appeal that contains all matter designated for inclusion by the parties, pursuant to Rule 210, SCACR. Failure to do so will result in dismissal of this appeal. No further motions to strike Respondent's designated matters will be considered by this court. See Rule 221(c), SCACR ("The appellate court will not entertain petitions for rehearing on a motion or petition unless the action of the court on the motion or petition has the effect of dismissing or finally deciding a party's appeal.").

FOR THE COURT

---

<sup>1</sup> If Appellant is able to provide such proof, she may include this in place of Respondent's designated matter (3) in the record on appeal.
