APPELLANTS' MOTION FOR ADDITIONAL EXTENSION

This Court previously granted Appellants' Motion for an Extension in which to petition for rehearing of Unpublished Opinion No. 24-UP-194, giving Appellants until July 15, 2024 to file the same. Appellants Charlesetta S. Aiken and Palmer E. Simmons, individually and as Trustee of the Charles E. Simmons, Jr. and Rosa G. Simmons

Revocable Trust dated May 5, 2016, by and through their undersigned counsel, pursuant to Rule 263(b), SCACR, hereby respectfully move for an additional extension for Appellants to petition for rehearing of this matter.

Counsel for Respondents have graciously consented to an extension of fifteen (15) days. This motion is made in good faith, and it is not for the purpose of delay.

The undersigned attorney is mindful that lengthy extensions are given only in exceptional circumstances, and she attests that the grounds for this motion are beyond exceptional. In a nutshell, the undersigned attorney's father, who suffers from dementia, has fallen victim to a large-scale financial crime, the extent of which is mind-boggling and the aftermath (both financial and practical) of which has required—and continues to require—an extraordinary amount of time and energy. It has truly been a full-time job, and the end is not yet in sight.

For this reason, Appellants respectfully request that this Court would grant their request for extension until July 31, 2024.

Respectfully submitted,
