The Governor does not oppose the relief sought in the motion. One note: The caption appears to be incomplete, as it does not include the Governor as a party.

As for the record on appeal, with the understanding that the Skop report is included with the State's motion to dismiss, the Governor does not have anything to add to the record on appeal. If you need our signature block for putting the cover to the record together, I'm happy to send you a Word version.

Regards,
Grayson
