Dear Honorable Clerk:

I am writing to request more time to file a Reply Brief to the Respondent's initial brief. I have been sick for the last 10 days and my Legal Assistant, whom I rely on heavily, has been on vacation for that entire time. The hard copies of Defendant's filings have never been received in the mail to date. When I first received your email with the documents attached, I failed to realize that more than the first page was attached. I do not know if it was because I was ill or because my internet service was slow at home (as it often is), where I was convalescing.

For the same reasons I request an extension of time to get the final record on appeal prepared.

In any event, I just became aware of the situation today. I have not had time to discover if counsel for the Respondent consents or objects: however, he previously informed the Court that he did not object to any of my requests for extensions of time. I have not objected to any of his either.

Your consideration of this request is greatly appreciated.

Sincerely yours,
Joe Lyles
