SC COURT of Appeals

To Whom to may concern,

My name is Jennifer Nicole Burns I am 41 years old. I am from Greenville, Sc. My mother and father both raised me until my father passed away by a heart attack when I was just 3 years old. I was then raised by my mother as a single parent to my brother and myself. I then graduated from Pickens High School. When I was just 24 years old I had my only child Kathryn Craft who is now 15 years old. My daughter Kathryn really needs me in her life her father is in federal prison so she really needs me in your life as her mother started to dabble into selling drugs when I fell onto hard times as a single mother. Never in my right mind did I think I ever would be a person charged with these offenses. The reason I feel as if I was unjustly sentenced is because I have no previous record and my lawyer who did not represent me to her full ability. My representation me going into court that day she expected me to get 25 years or less. This whole process has been a huge wake up call for me in realizing how much I would love to help my community with education of drug awareness. The amount of drugs I was selling I was forced into selling. I was trying to find away out but my daughter and myself life was be threatened numerous times. Thank you for this chance and please do accept my appeal.
