Re: Anthony James, etal vs. William L. Runyon, Jr.

Dear Ms. Allen:

On December 4, 2012, the Honorable J.C. Nicholson, Jr. appointed me as attorney/guardian ad litem for Anthony James. Pursuant to the Order, I met with Mr. James to discuss his case and appeared at a hearing in Charleston, South Carolina, on or about April 23, 2013.

After the hearing, I advised Anthony James that there were no truly appealable issues involved in his case.

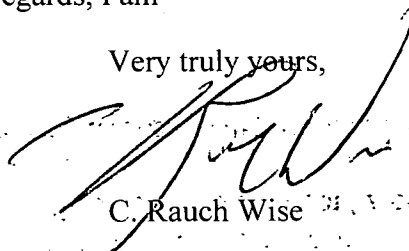

Upon receipt of the Order, I forwarded the Order to Mr. James on April 30, 2013, and advised him he had thirty (30) days to file a Notice of Intent to Appeal. After my letter of April 30, 2013, I heard nothing further from Mr. James concerning this matter. The next correspondence I received was from the Court.

I have this day written Mr. James advising him of the deficiency and the steps needed to be taken to correct the deficiency.

I hope this letter sufficiently answers your questions.

With kindest regards, I am

Very truly yours,

C. Rauch Wise
