MOTION TO EXPEDITE APPEAL DUE THE JUDGE COMMITTING TREASON AGAINST THE CONSTITUTION AND INCOMPETENT AND ABUSING POWER AND THE STATE WILL BE KIDNAPPING ME AGAIN BECAUSE THE JUDGE PERRY GRAVELY COMMITTED PERJURY AND PUT OUT A WARRANT THATS VOID HE IS NOT FOLLOWING SOUTH CAROLINA RULES OF CRIMINAL PROCEDURE 123 Trial Roster or the Constitution he is in direct violation of his oaths

As of 7/30/24 that hearing wasn't on the trial roster and this judge and solicitor has a racial bias against me and using the court system as RICO committing perjury they are NOT in compliance with South Carolina Rules of Criminal procedure the constitution or their oaths taken they have both committed perjury and set up a trial that was not on the roster in my absence and this case has no merit for trial they have held and indictment in my absence and presented false evidence to a Grand Jury and i didnt get to do a preliminary because i was kidnapped 12 days never got released from custody 8/10/22-8/22/22 the police retaliated and i had explanation attached to the evidence this is If a judge does not fully comply with the Constitution, then his orders are void, In re Sawyer, 124 U.S. 200 (1888), he/she is without jurisdiction, and he/she has engaged in an act or acts of treason

I will request a billions dollars a day for each day i sit in jail / kidnapped again and if im killed while in yall custody its wrongful death and intentionally planned and all of you conspiring will be held accountable under RICO ALL state of sc public officials due to this being racially motivated and intentionally planned hate crime and if i dont live all of it will go to my family This issue needs to be addressed speedily the issue is The trial roster is already created and 14 days each term Section (a) encompasses similar provisions of the docket management orders and S.C. Code Ann. § 1-7-330, which provides the Solicitor shall publish a docket not less than seven (7) days prior to trial. Section (b) is new. The trial docket is already published i was on the trial roster for July 29 2024 and Aug 26 2024 i have the paper for both i checked the docket for 7/30/24 before i left the court house my name was not on it for no trial this case does not have the merit for a trial i am being racially discriminated on and targeted and judge Perry is aiding and abetting acting as a accessory after the fact to kidnapping and the state will pay because this is the 3rd time i have been kidnapped by sc all of you will be held accountable yall are racist and are not following the constitution if i am harmed in any way yall will all pay for wrongful death and kidnapping all of you will be indicted under RICO all of yall know what is going on i have reached out and called the the Sheriff office and been put in a complaint about these four officers lying and the officers at the detention center and i have been subjected to cruel and unusual punishment by an accusing officer i reach out to Disiplinary and i have called all of yall to intercede and deal with this judge who already have a pending investigation for misconduct so this is planned and all of you will be held accountable if im arrested / kidnapped on Aug 6 2024 and if i die in custody this is conspiracy to Murder RICO indictment everyone that in the 8/2/22 and 9/1/22 lawsuits will be indicted for conspiracy no matter what happens to me the truth will prevail in the end i go to court when im on the trial roster and im on the roster for aug 6 2024 which i will be there i asked this judge for a continuance in this matter also this case dont have merit for a trial and if it did one day wouldnt be enough time to prepare and send subpoenas to witnesses Aug 26 would have been the the day a trial would start in this case i have the entire hearing recorded he is a conflict of intrest and mad because he has been tampering with the filing roster committing perjury and breaking all the rules he know that he is obstructing justice and aiding and abetting accessory after the fact to kidnapping 8/10/22 which was a violation of my due process i have submitted substantial evidence in the motions and in evidence of this in which judge perry and marcus smith both intentionally tried conceal the case when i requested Successor Judge and a new solicitor due to them both being a conflict of interest

* 123. TRIAL ROSTERS

(a) Preparation of Roster. At least fourteen (14) days prior to each term of court, the Solicitor shall prepare and publish a docket of all cases for trial subject to call during the term. Making the docket available in the Solicitor's office shall effect publication. The Solicitor will also provide notice to pro se defendants, defense counsel, and surety on the bond, if any, by fax, U.S. mail, electronic delivery, or by hand delivery. The Solicitor shall further send a copy of the docket to the chief judge and the presiding judge. All attorneys having clients on the docket shall notify their client that the case is scheduled for disposition. Nothing herein shall prevent the scheduling of pleas or trials with the consent of the parties.

(b) Presence in Court. All defendants on the trial roster must be available and present in court for trial within two (2) hours of oral notification. The failure to be present as specified may result in the revocation of bond and the issuance of a bench warrant.

Notes: Section (a) encompasses similar provisions of the docket management orders and S.C. Code Ann. § 1-7-330, which provides the Solicitor shall publish a docket not less than seven (7) days prior to trial. Section (b) is new.

1. Inadequate Proof of Guilt

The prosecution's job in a criminal case is to collect evidence and present it to the court or the grand jury to establish guilt beyond a reasonable doubt, the standard for guilt in such situations.

The evidence must show that you are guilty of the offense for which you are being prosecuted. For this reason, your charges may be voluntarily dropped before trial if the prosecution determines there is inadequate evidence to proceed with a case against you.

8. Police Misconduct

If a police officer knowingly and intentionally files a report that includes false statements made by a third party, that police officer is not liable under Penal Code 118.1. A PC 118.1 violation is a wobbler and, as such, can be charged as either a felony or a misdemeanor.

9. A Weak Plea Deal is Offered

If the prosecutor offers some form of deal or diversion without a fight this

The Supreme Court Justice has described prosecutorial misconduct as “overstepp[ing] the bounds of that propriety and fairness which should characterize the conduct of such an officer in the prosecution of a criminal offense.”

Courts have found the following to be acts of prosecutorial misconduct:

1. Bringing criminal charges in bad faith without realistic hope of winning a conviction, such as retaliation against whistleblowers, non-cooperative witnesses, and political rival
2. Making statements to the media that prejudice potential jurors and taint the jury pool

1. Bringing criminal charges in bad faith without realistic hope of winning a conviction, such as retaliation against whistleblowers, non-cooperative witnesses, and political rival
2. Making statements to the media that prejudice potential jurors and taint the jury pool
3. Concealing or hiding evidence that shows that the accused did not commit the crime, or casts doubt on the credibility of prosecution witnesses
4. Tampering with evidence
5. Presenting false witness testimony or other false evidence to a court or grand jury
6. Engaging in improper plea-bargaining – for example, convincing a defendant to plead guilty through false promises or misrepresentations about the existence of incriminating evidence

888-798-3507

7. Asking a defendant or defense witness damaging and suggestive questions with legitimate basis
8. Using improper investigative techniques, such as entrapment
9. Misrepresenting facts to or lying to the court or the judge about the case
10. Intimidating witnesses and causing them to either give false testimony, or to dissuade witnesses from helping the defendant
11. Discriminating against potential jurors during jury selection on the basis of race, religion, sex, color, or ethnicity
12. Making improper arguments to a jury at a trial

This last one is the most common. When a prosecutor makes improper arguments to a jury, they violate a defendant's Constitutional rights to Due Process of Law and a fundamentally fair trial.

This last one is the most common. When a prosecutor makes improper arguments to a jury, they violate a defendant's Constitutional rights to Due Process of Law and a fundamentally fair trial.

Improper arguments to a jury can include:

- Expressing a personal opinion about the case or the evidence
- Expressing a personal opinion about the defendant's guilt
- Vouching for the prosecutor's case
- Vouching for the prosecutor's witnesses
- Engaging in name-calling of the defendant or the defense attorney
- Calling the defendant a liar
- Arguing that if the prosecution witnesses were lying or conspiring, they would have done a better job getting their stories straight

888-798-3507

25

- Shifting the burden of proof onto the defendant
- Arguing that the jury must find that the prosecution witnesses lied in order to find the defendant not guilty
- Arguing that the defense did not present evidence of innocence
- Arguing facts that were not presented to the jury in evidence
- Arguing that evidence is being kept from the jury
- Arguing that the defendant has bad character
- Mischaracterizing the defense
- Misstating the law
- Appealing to the sympathy of the jury for the victim
- Arguing that the jury must convict in order to keep society safe from the defendant
- Making arguments based on race, religion, gender, ethnicity, or sexual orientation
