Applicant

v.

State of South Carolina,
Respondent.

) FIFTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT

) CASE NO. 2023-CP-40-05990

) FINAL ORDER OF DISMISSAL

RICHLAND COUNTY
FILED

JEANETTE W. MCBRIDE
Clerk of Court

This matter comes before this Court by way of a post-conviction relief (PCR) action commenced by Terrance G. Adams (Applicant), filed on November 9, 2023. Respondent made its Return and Motion to Dismiss requesting this action be summarily dismissed because it was untimely, barred by the statute of limitations, successive to Applicant's previous PCR actions, barred by the doctrine of res judicata, and for failing to comply with the Uniform Post-Conviction Procedures Act, S.C. Code Ann. § 17-27-10 et seq. (2014).

Pursuant to this request, and after reviewing the pleadings in this matter and all of the records attached thereto, this Court issued a Conditional Order of Dismissal filed May 13, 2024, provisionally denying and dismissing this action while giving Applicant's Counsel twenty days from the date of service of said order in which to show why the Conditional Order of Dismissal should not become final. Attached to this Final Order and incorporated herein by reference is a affidavit of service dated June 3, 2024, indicating the State served the above-mentioned Conditional Order of Dismissal on Applicant.

On May 31, 2024, Applicant filed his "Motion-Notice Final Judgment Pursuant to S.C. Code Ann. § 17-27-80, Rule 52(d), SCRPC, and Rule 59(e), SCRPC. S.C. Const. Art. 1 § 9 Speedy Remedy." On June 6, 2024, Applicant filed his "Reply to State Conditional Order of Dismissal."

On June 21, 2024, Applicant filed another "Reply to State Conditional Order of Dismissal."

This Court has reviewed Applicant's response to the Conditional Order of Dismissal in its entirety, in conjunction with the original pleadings, and finds a sufficient reason has not been shown why the Conditional Order of Dismissal should not become final.

Applicant's responses substantively re-iterate the arguments raised in his application as well as issues raised in his prior post-conviction relief actions and other collateral actions. This Court finds Applicant has failed in his burden to establish there is a genuine issue of material fact such that he should be granted a hearing on his successive PCR application. S.C. Code Ann. § 17-27-70(c); Leamon v. State, 363 S.C. 432, 434, 61 1 S.E.2d 494, 495 (2005) (summary disposition appropriate when there is no need to develop facts and the applicant is not entitled to relief). This Court reasserts its findings in the Conditional Order of Dismissal that the current PCR application must be dismissed because it is untimely, barred by the statute of limitations, successive to Applicant's previous PCR applications, barred by the doctrine of res judicata, and for failing to comply with the Uniform Post-Conviction Procedures Act, S.C. Code Ann. § 17-27-10 et seq. (2014). Before the Court will hold an evidentiary hearing, Applicant must make a prima facie showing that he is entitled to relief. Welch v. MacDougall, 246 S.C. 258, 143 S.E.2d 455 (1965); Blandshaw v. State, 245 S.C. 385, 140 S.E.2d 784 (1965). Applicant has failed to make such a showing based on the information set forth in his application and his responses, and, therefore, he is not entitled to an evidentiary hearing in this matter. Accordingly, this Court finds no reason why the Conditional Order of Dismissal should not become final.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that for the reasons set forth in the Court's conditional order of dismissal, the Application for post-conviction relief is hereby DENIED AND DISMISSED WITH PREJUDICE.

This Court hereby advises Applicant he must file and serve a notice of appeal within thirty days of the service of this Order to secure appellate review. See Rule 203, SCACR. Applicant's attention is directed to Rule 243, SCACR, for the procedures following the filing and service of the notice of appeal.

AND IT IS SO ORDERED this 3rd day of July, 2024.

THE HONORABLE JOCELYN NEWMAN
Chief Administrative Judge
Fifth Judicial Circuit

Columbia, South Carolina.
