

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

25th Avenue, LLC, Respondent,

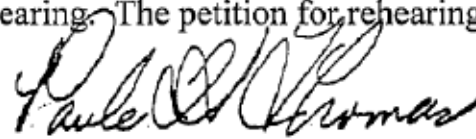

v.

Carol Ann Honeycutt, Appellant.

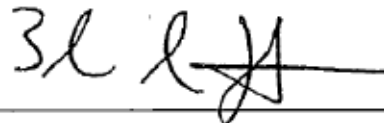

Appellate Case No. 2023-001023

ORDER

This appeal was dismissed on June 17, 2024, after Appellant failed to serve and file her initial brief and designation of matter. Appellant has since filed a "notice of error," which we construe as a petition to rehear the dismissal. Appellant insists that she cannot file her brief, or even a complete motion for reinstatement, until she receives a full transcript from the April 24, 2024 hearing. However, every transcript that exists in this case has been delivered and the time for Appellant to serve and file her brief and designation is long past due. See Rule 208(a)(1), SCACR ("Within thirty (30) days after receiving the transcript or, if no transcript is ordered, within thirty (30) days after serving the notice of appeal, appellant shall serve one copy of his brief on all parties to the appeal, and file with the clerk of the appellate court one copy of the brief with proof of service."). Accordingly, after careful consideration of the petition, the court is unable to discover that any material fact or principle of law has been either overlooked or disregarded, and hence, there is no basis for granting a rehearing. The petition for rehearing is therefore denied.¹

¹ Because this case is dismissed and rehearing denied, the court declines to rule upon Appellant's other pending motions.
