

The Supreme Court of South Carolina

Charles W. McCormick, Petitioner,

v.

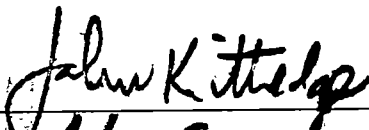

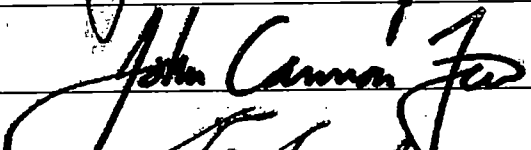

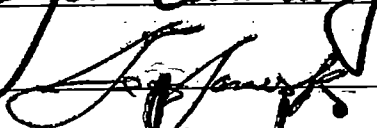

State of South Carolina, Respondent.

Appellate Case No. 2024-000186

ORDER

Petitioner previously filed a notice of appeal from the final order of dismissal of his second application for post-conviction relief (PCR). The notice of appeal was dismissed because Petitioner failed to show that there was an arguable basis for asserting the dismissal was improper under Rule 243(c), SCACR.

Petitioner has filed a "petition for a writ of certiorari," which we have construed as a petition for rehearing of the order dismissing his notice of appeal. After careful consideration of the petition for rehearing, the Court is unable to discover that any material fact or principle of law has been either overlooked or disregarded. Therefore, the petition for rehearing is denied. See Rule 221(a), SCACR (requiring a petition for rehearing to state with particularity the points supposed to have been overlooked or misapprehended by the Court).
