RE: Beverly Hennager v. Mary E. Dearden
Appellate Case No. 2024-001152

Dear Ms. Kichings:

This is in regard to your letter filed on the docket August 19, 2024, seeking clarification of the status of the transcript. I mailed the status information on August 5. Tracking information shows it was delivered to the Court on August 7, signed for by "C APPEAL". When I noticed it was not filed on the docket, I called last week. I am attaching the filing I submitted as well as tracking informations, email to Moultrie Burns with the submission, and email with date of transcript's receipt. I will also send a hard copy in the mail.

Please be informed that my case provides evidence of fraud on the court, including falsification of the record, failing to respond to discovery requests, "lost filings" so that I must have everything signed, and not receiving hearing notice until after the hearing. Losing this submission is just another example of underhanded tactics to try to have my appeal dismissed before being heard.

Respectfully Kit,
