Dear Mr. Darwin,

I will be more than happy to learn the lawful way of getting permission from S.C Court of Appeals to file extension of time even after expiration of the date to respond to my initial Brief. Initial Brief was filed in the last week of June and time to respond expired on July 29th. Then, from where this new due date of August 15th, is coming in effect?

To avoid any timeline to oppose this 'move to extend the time even after expiration of date to respond' which looks lawless to me currently, I need your expedited clarification/memorandum of law on this matter. I have no problem if the court grants you the time but it must be under the rule of law only.

So, please clarify.

Thank you.
