Re: The State v. Clifton Johnson
2011186167

Dear Ms. Allen:

Following up on my "30-day" letter of May 14, 2012, and our conversation this afternoon, in my prior status updates to the Court I included the Court's letter of March 24, 2011, which referred to holding this appeal in abeyance pending the Circuit Court's disposition of Richland County's (the State's) Motion for Reconsideration, to Alter or Amend and Relief from Order Dated January 18, 2011, in this case.

Upon returning from my most recent stint of Active Duty with the U.S. Marine Corps, I was unable to locate the March 24, 2011, letter, and respectfully request another copy of it for inclusion in any further status letters I might send to the Court. It was a helpful document in tracking the procedural history of this matter that is proceeding on a dual track, with the appeal in abeyance pending the Circuit Court's disposition of the above motion.

Thank you for your help in this matter. With kindest regards, I am

Sincerely Yours,

Bradley T. Farrar
Deputy Richland County Attorney

Dear Mr. Farrar:

After reviewing this file, I note there is a motion to reconsider still pending with the circuit court. This appeal will be held in abeyance until the circuit court rules on that motion. Appellant shall keep this court informed of the status of its motion to reconsider every thirty (30) days.

Very truly yours,

V. Claire Allen, Deputy
