Re: Justin O'Toole Lucey v. The Town of Mount Pleasant
Appellate Case No. 2023-001006

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

This correspondence is sent in response to the Court's August 13, 2024 letter, advising the parties of this case's appearance on the preliminary list for argument, and requesting counsel to advise of scheduling conflicts with specified dates for the December 2024 term (December 2, 3, 4, or 5).

Undersigned counsel for Appellant Justin O' Toole Lucey has pre-existing scheduling conflicts with the dates of December 3-5, 2024, due to his service as the Chair of the City of Charleston Board of Zoning Appeals, which has a scheduled meeting on December 3, 2024, and a previously planned vacation for the dates of December 4 and 5, 2024. Appellant's other attorney of record, Evan Williams, previously obtained secure leave for the period of December 2-6, 2024 for a planned vacation. A copy of the Secure Leave Confirmation for this period is enclosed herewith.

By copy of their counsel of record on the email transmitting this correspondence and enclosure, Respondents are served with the same.

Yours Sincerely,

Jeffrey S. Tibbals
