RE: State of S. C. v Kadeem Johnson
Case No(s) 2011-GS-43-469
2011-GS-43-481
2011-GS-43-939

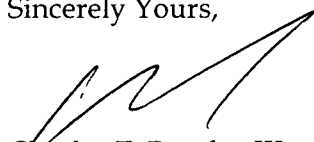

Dear Ms. Allen:

This case had two (2) defendants who were accused of a crime spree of robbing three convenience stores in three days. Both wore masks. My client's initial posture was a trial. The other co-defendant plead guilty on one day, which caused my client to change his posture and plea guilty the very next day. Both defendants were equally culpable and both armed. The co-defendant received 15 years while my client received 25 years.

We feel that the disparity in sentence is too great considering the circumstance. This is the reason my client wanted to appeal.

With kindest regards, I remain,

Sincerely Yours,

Charles T. Brooks, III
