SC Court of Appeals

STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA
COURT OF APPEAL

Ali Adebisi
Appellant

case no. 001700

Vs

Date: August 21, 2024

LAKEVIEW LOAN SERVICING, LLC
Respondent(s)

RE: Cease and Desist Notice
Unconstitutional Affidavit

Contract

To: Master in Equity William
181 N. Irby St.
Florence, South Carolina 29501

Attorney Chad Wilson Burgess
(S.C. Bar No.: 72520)
3800 Fernandina Road, Suite 110
Columbia, South Carolina 29210

I hope this message finds you well. I am writing to address the matter concerning CHARLES RAY THOMAS II Estate. As you are aware the financial obligation concerning LAKEVIEW LOAN SERVICING, LLC has been discharged by a Federal Bankruptcy Court. To continue to pursue the estate would be unconstitutional and you would be infringing upon my rights and place an undue burden on upon me. Such actions goes against Market Integrity and could be considered Consumer Fraud.

Given the importance of upholding constitutional rights and ensuring that all actions of the Court comply with legal standards, I request the following actions:

-Cease and Desist: Cease any further action or enforcement related to the affidavit in question, as it may be unconstitutional.

-Confirm Rights: Provide written confirmation of my rights and address how the affidavit complies with constitutional protections.

-Review and Rescind: Review the affidavit for any potential violations of constitutional rights and, if found, rescind or amend the affidavit accordingly.

Please be aware that a contract or affidavit that affects an individual's rights must adhere to constitutional principles. Any attempt to enforce a document that is unconstitutional is not valid and must be addressed with appropriate remedies.

I trust that you will give this matter the seriousness it deserves and respond in a timely manner. Thank you for your attention to important issue.

Sincerely without duress,

Adebisi Ali
