Ms. Evans-Pryor:

I apologize for delay in this response. My office was moved and I am still re-finishing the new place.

I understand your letter to require a new or amended Brief. As I attempted to explain in my last e-mail, I do not understand the the text of the Brief we have filed requires amendment to conform to the Order cutting out matter I listed. As such, I do not believe there is a need to file a new or amended Brief. Obviously, this is the Court's determination.

Please advise. If a Motion in necessary to resolve this question, also please advise.
