PROBATION OFFICER: Dewey McNair.

(The defendant was personally present, together with counsel.)

THE CLERK: Would you raise your right hand?

THE DEFENDANT: (Complying.)

THE CLERK: Do you swear or affirm to tell the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

THE COURT: All right. Tell me about Mr. McNair.

PROBATION OFFICER: Yes. Mr. McNair was sentenced to probation on July 10, 2018, for domestic violence, second degree, three years suspended to three-years probation.

He had an admin hearing on this case for violating DV condition one, both standard and DV, by not reporting, restructured, failing to report on 3/30/22 as directed during a home visit on 3/3/22 and any time thereafter, and in person on 3/23 and 4/28 over the phone, and 4/4 via letter.

He is behind on his payments. He's six payments behind on his supervision fees; $100 in arrears on the Public Defender; and one payment on 1 his drug test fee.

2 He also violated administration sanctions order
3 by hearing officer on 12/9/2021, and that the
4 subject failed to report immediately upon release
5 and enroll in the substance abuse counseling program
6 within 30 days of release.

7 He also violated administrative sanctions order
8 by hearing officer on December 9th of 2021 in that 9 the subject failed to report immediate --
10 immediately upon release, and to enroll in a
11 substance abuse counseling program within 30 days of 12 release, and that the offender never contacted his 13 agent. Never made agent contact with via subject
14 during home visit on 12/22 of '21 -- 12/22 of 2021.

15 Twenty-three days after he was released,
16 subject failed to make contact with substance abuse
17 provider as instructed during home visit on 1/6 of 18 2022. Subject was fined -- subject fined and was to 19 write a copy of referral form on 1/6 of 2022.

20 Both violations by violating conditions ten of 21 both standard and DV conditions to follow the advice
22 and instructions of his supervising agent evidenced
23 by the above conditions.

24 THE COURT: Okay. Mr. McNair, do you admit or 25 deny that you violated your probation as she stated?

1 THE DEFENDANT: I've violated my probation.

2 THE COURT: You're in willful violation. Go
3 ahead.

4 MR. BRADLEY: May it please the Court, Your
5 Honor?

6 Mr. McNair, speaking to him, he tells me that
7 he's not been out doing anything illegal. He's not 8 caught any new charges since being placed on 9 probation in 2018. He's literally just been at home
10 taking care of his mother.

11 There's no transportation. Says that the car
12 in the driveway has four flat tires and doesn't
13 go -- doesn't go anywhere.

14 And he, unfortunately, did not -- he tells me
15 he did not know he could call in to report.

16 And he does wish to speak to you at the 17 appropriate time, Your Honor.

18 But he's 54-years old. Single. He does have 19 one grown daughter, but he's not been working. He's 20 been at home taking care of his mother. And he
21 tells me he has spoken with someone about a job
22 lined up for him. He will be able to get out of 23 jail doing construction work, roofing. He has -- he 24 does have a degree from Tri-County. No current 25 health conditions.

1 But he's been on since July of 2018. It's
2 supposed to end -- his term is supposed to end July
3 of this year.

4 He understands he does have some prior
5 violations for essentially doing the same thing,
6 just being a homebody and not going in to report.

7 But he's served 59 days as of today, Your
8 Honor. We would ask that you consider something
9 much less than a full revocation than probation is 10 seeking. If you consider something along the lines
11 of 6 months and terminate, Mr. McNair would be 12 appreciative, but I believe Mr. McNair would like to 13 address you, as well.

14 THE COURT: All right. Mr. McNair.

15 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir. I want to apologize
16 to the State for my ignorance and my actions. I
17 didn't think you could call in just to report.
18 That's my ignorance. I thought a person had to show
19 up and basically report.

20 But my mom is on her deathbed, and I -- I need
21 to be with her. She's my backbone, and she won't be
22 here if I go in there. She won't be here when I
23 come home. I just hope this Court would take that 24 into consideration. I don't want my mom to die and 25 me not be there to make it easier on her. She

1 doesn't have anybody else. I'm the only family she 2 has.

3 THE COURT: Anything from probation?

4 PROBATION OFFICER: We're asking for a full
5 revocation, terminate the case. Since the start of 6 probation, the offender has had four warrants
7 violating.

8 Violations: He has failed to complete
9 substance abuse counseling, any treatment directed
10 by the Court. He would not report. He continues to 11 abscond probation. He has shown minimal efforts in 12 completing probation and he has refused to even make
13 phone calls to report when he was given that option.
14 He has appeared twice before an administrative
15 hearing where he was ordered to complete substance
16 abuse counseling directly by the hearing officer and 17 he has failed to do so.

18 THE COURT: Well, Mr. McNair, I'm sorry to hear
19 about your mother, but you appeared in front of me
20 and I put you on probation to give you an
21 opportunity not to have to serve the sentence as a
22 result of this offense that you committed and you
23 admitted to being convicted. And probation is a way
24 to get out of having to serve that sentence.

25 What I'm hearing is you haven't done anything.

1 You haven't paid your money. You haven't reported.
2 You didn't call in. You didn't do the substance
3 abuse counseling. They brought you back to court
4 multiple times. This is not a successful probation
5 case. This is a failure.

6 So I'm going to -- I'm going to
7 terminate the -- I'm going to terminate probation.
8 I'm going to revoke the three-year sentence. I give 9 him credit for 59 days, plus the 48 days that he
10 served when he was sentenced. It's very frustrating
11 for the Court to see someone mess their probation
12 up, but I don't have any choice. Good luck to you,
13 Mr. McNair.

14 PROBATION OFFICER: Judge Sprouse, what is --
15 you said revoke three years and what else?

16 THE COURT: Terminate probation. Let the time
17 satisfy all the monies that he owes, so he starts
18 with a clean slate. No administrative monitoring.

19 PROBATION OFFICER: Okay. Thank you.

20 MR. BRADLEY: Thank you, Your Honor.
